

THE JOURNAL

THE OLD MAN'S STORY.

NELLIE DUTTON.

Behind the dreary prison walls, Mid faces pale and wan, I saw a figure that was but The shadow of a man.

How to Cook a Husband. A good many husbands are spoiled by mismanagement.

It cannot be supposed that any husband will be tender and good, managed in this way; but they are really delicious when properly treated.

See that the linen in which you wrap him is nicely washed and mended, with the required number of buttons and strings nicely sewed on.

Waked Up Effectually. A lethargic, dormant condition of the liver is hardly to be overcome with drastic cathartics and nauseous cholagogues.

Managing Editor (in the office of the New York Solar System) Didn't you empty the waste baskets this morning, Jimmy?

The Verdict Unanimous. W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy."

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, Superior Court of Craven County.

W. D. Rountree and others, trading as Rountree & Co., vs. William Foy.

By virtue of a judgment rendered at Spring Term, 1899, of Craven County Superior Court, by consent of parties, I will sell at Public Auction to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House door in New Berne, Craven County, on the first Monday in February, 1899, at 12 o'clock, M., the following described tracts of land, to wit: All that certain tract or parcel of land situated in the county of Jones, State of North Carolina, on the south side of Trent river and on the west side of Reedy branch, on the north side of the public road leading from the town of Beaufort to the village of Trenton, containing about one thousand acres, and known as the Seven Springs tract of land. Also all the right, title and interest of the said William Foy in and to a certain tract or parcel of land situated in said county of Jones, on both sides of the public road leading from Pollockville to Jacksonville in Onslow county, and known as the Ravenswood Plantation, which was conveyed to said Wm. Foy by John Pearce, Sheriff of said Jones county, and more fully described in the deed from said Pearce, Sheriff as aforesaid, to the said Wm. Foy, which deed is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for said Jones county. Also, one other tract or parcel of land situated in said Jones county, on the west side of Island creek, adjoining the lands of the children of Noah Jackson and known as the "Owen Whitby Place," containing six hundred acres more or less and fully described in a deed from Owen Whitby to said Wm. Foy. Also, all the right, title and interest of the said Wm. Foy in and to a tract of land situated in said Jones county, bounded as follows, to wit: On the south by White Oak river, on the east by the public road leading to Trenton, and the part of the land of Richard Oldfield, dec'd., assigned to his widow, on the north by the lands formerly owned by J. W. Howard, on the west by Munnich branch, being part of the land formerly owned by Richard Oldfield, deceased, containing one thousand acres more or less.

This Jan. 1st, 1899.

H. L. GIBBS, Commissioner.
