FINE STALL-FED BEEF—This morning at B. Sweet's stalls.

Jones, will be authentic, charmingly written, beautifully illustrated and in every way worthy of the subject. Agents wanted. Complete sets for sale. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. The Lee monument in Richmond will be unveiled on the 25th of May.

A SLIGHT earthquake shock was felt at Columbia, S. C., Wednesday night.

The Press of this State is always courteous. We gratefully acknowledge many kind notices of our coming Fair.

MANY tariff beneficiaries continue to appear before the Ways and Means Committee protesting against the reduction of the tariff.

REV. DR. DOUGLAS, President of the Wesleyan Methodist College, palms Montreal, Canada, many shades blacker than Sodom.

On Tuesday Mr. Harris introduced a bill in the U. S. Senate authorizing the Postmaster General to extend the free-delivery system to all places having 1,000 population.

MR. BINGHAM, of Pa., has introduced a bill in the House for marking the lines of battle and the position of the troops of the Army of Northern Virginia, at Gettysburg, Pa.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company has decided that all its baggage-masters and brakemen must have shaven faces. This is to prevent them from bearding the lion in his den.

SENATOR EVARTS is noted for being a courteous gentleman. Even in the bustle of a big city crowd he never fails to lift his hat and bow to, by any chance, bestride into any one of the fair pedestrians who throng the thoroughfares. Good. Politeness is always worth more than it costs.

The Washington Star remarks that "North Carolina hasn't any monuments." Well that's pretty near true. She has not any worth talking about. North Carolina is not conspicuous for raising monuments but when it comes to raising men and women of the first quality she can hold her own with any of the sisters.—Wilmington Star.

The JOURNAL will be glad to greet representatives of the press at the approaching Fair. Please remember, brethren, that the great Exposition will open on Monday, Feb. 24, and continue through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. All visitors are promised the best attentions of the good people of this hospitable city.

The Secretary of State recently referred to the Secretary of the Treasury a communication from Mr. P. G. Martinez, of Philadelphia, inquiring whether any duty would be imposed on lighting bugs to be brought from Cuba with the expectation of doing business with them. Assistant Secretary Tichenor has informed Mr. Martinez that the dutiable character of any particular article is always determined in the first place by the Collector of Customs at the port where it arrives, after due inspection of the importation. He said further that while the dutiable character of insects does not appear to have been considered by the Department, the provision in the Tariff act prescribing a duty of 30 percent ad valorem on live animals has at various times been held to be applicable to bees, birds and live fish respectively. It is said that the lighting bug is particularly large and luminous.—New York World.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
B. Sweet—Stall-fed beef.

Mr. Edward Perry is having a dwelling house built on the corner of Middle and Johnson streets.

A handsomely bound volume of "The Life of Grover Cleveland" was presented to the Y. M. C. A. yesterday by Mr. Asa Jones.

Everybody seems to be getting interested in the coming Fair. Mr. Chas. Edwards, of South river, said yesterday that he would exhibit as fine a specimen of cattle as is ever seen in these parts.

We publish two articles on this page today, one copied from the Charlotte News and the other written by Thomas L. Moore, colored, which give some reasons why colored people should stay in North Carolina.

The Board of Directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad met yesterday. In answer to the reporter's question "Was anything of a public nature done in the meeting?" President Chadwick said there was not.

The Raleigh Chronicle says: "Hon. John A. Gilmer, Judge of the Fifth District, tendered his resignation to the Governor this week, and on Thursday the Governor issued the commission to Thomas Brown Womack, Esq., of Chatham, as Judge of that district."

There was only one case before Mayor Williams yesterday, that of Susan Matkows, col., for the abandonment of her child. The Mayor expressed regret at being compelled to bind her over to court, since a similar example had been set her last year by a colored preacher of the city.

Mr. W. H. Coakley gives notice that the oyster cannery is in readiness to commence work, and that oystermen can begin bringing in the bivalves right away. We are glad to know that Messrs. Moore & Brady contemplate canning peas also this season.

Father Boyle gets a new trial. The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says: "The Supreme court today (Thursday) filed its decision in the Boyle case. The court grants the prisoner a new trial. The opinion in the case, which is quite a long one, is written by Chief Justice Merrimon."

A member of the library committee of the Y. M. C. A., realizing the need of more literature in the Association, went on the war-path yesterday and succeeded in raising about $25 for that purpose. The following bright and new publications will be ordered today: Harper's Weekly, Puck, Golden Days, Sporting News, Atlanta Constitution, Detroit Free Press, Demorest's Magazine and probably the daily N. Y. Herald. They will be here in a few days, boys.

Church Notice.

Hancock street Methodist church, Rev. T. Page Ricard, pastor. Sunday, January 19th, services at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m., conducted by the pastor. Prayer meeting at 9:15 a. m., S. R. Ball, leader. Sunday-school at 8 p. m., W. E. Barrington, superintendent. Class-meeting at 4:15 p. m., J. V. Williams, leader. The public are invited to these services and will receive a cordial welcome.

A Tree Fell On Him.

Mr. Noah Avery, of the New Ditch section, Pamlico county, was killed on Thursday by a falling tree. He and another man were clearing land, or "cutting down ground," as it is called. A tree was cut which fell in the direction of Mr. Avery. His companion, who cut the tree, hallowed "look out!" but Mr. Avery didn't have time to get out of the way and he was crushed to death. He leaves a wife and seven children. Was about forty-five years of age.

Ferocious.

Mr. Henry Miller, dealer in musical merchandise at Goldsboro, was in the city yesterday making arrangements to place some of his instruments on exhibition at our Fair next month.

At Hotel Albert.

At Hotel Albert: Col. Paul Faison, Raleigh; Miss May Caho, Bayboro, N. C.; T. D. Webb, Morehead City; Matt. Manly, City; D. M. Jones, J. Marcus, Baltimore; Z. Y. Turner, Tenass Pass, La.; L. C. Thomas, Benj. McIntosh, N. C.; W. E. Wilson, Baltimore; C. M. Scales, N. Y.; R. W. Whitehurst, Norfolk; B. M. Richards, Goldsboro.

One Fact.

It is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

The New Berne Fair.

The unique character, and successful management of our Fair, has placed it in the front rank of Southern exhibitions.

With the growth of time, and the additional facilities for reaching us, it is destined to become at no distant day an important influence in attracting the attention of the country to the variety, value, and plenteousness of our products.

As an advertising medium it is superior to any other, but it can only fully accomplish its purpose in this respect, by the interested co-operation of all classes of our people. All that skill, energy, push and enterprise may do, will be contributed by the gentlemen who constitute the management, but unless this is supplemented by a manifested interest on the part of the people, complete success cannot be attained.

Our Fair is the one peculiar institution in which all have a share of pride and which affords an opportunity to every one to excel in some particular, with the pleasure to be derived therefrom, while contributing to the general good.

But a few short weeks are left in which to prepare the exhibits, and there is not one of us who with a little thought and effort cannot contribute something to, or aid in some way, the success of the occasion. This is especially true of our neighbors in the country, and we expect to see our friends of adjoining and adjacent counties in such force as to number and variety of exhibits, as will not only surprise our visitors, but themselves. If the exposition of 1890 makes the same proportionate progress as its predecessors, we may feel proud of it.

From Beaufort County.

The clever and enterprising Washington Gazette talks like this:

"Quite a large number of citizens have assured us that they would furnish us something to exhibit at the New Berne Fair. We want every lady, who can, to furnish some fancy work, pickles, preserves, or something for ornament or usefulness for the occasion. We want specimens of big ears of corn, big corn stalk, cotton stalk, mechanical articles, blocks from large trees, and indeed anything that will show up to advantage our industries, enterprise, and resources. Bring them in, and we will take care of them and see that they have good position in the Fair."

That's right. The people of Eastern North Carolina should be interested in our Fair, and we hope they will substantially manifest it. Not only the East is interested, but it merits the attention and support of the whole State.

Shipping News.

The steamer Manteo, of the O. D. line, sailed yesterday for Norfolk with passengers and a cargo of general freight. The steamer Kinston arrived from Newberne river last night with a cargo of cotton, naval stores, etc.

Stay in North Carolina.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Please allow me a small space in your most interesting paper, to say to my friends, and farmers in general, that they need not leave Old North Carolina, for there is plenty of good land here. I left New Berne in the year 1886 from the service of Mr. J. A. Meadows and went to Morgan's Swamp. Dr. F. Duffy's place, and in the above year my wife and I, with scarcely a pound of meat or a bushel of corn to start on, with hoe and ax in hand, went to work moving logs and digging up the ground, and we made in 1887 seventy-five barrels of corn besides sweet potatoes and other things. In 1887 the Doctor let me have a mule and I worked on halves, and made 100 barrels of corn, 100 dollars worth of cotton, plenty of sweet potatoes, 600 pounds of meat and chickens by the dozen. In 1888 I bought me a mule for 125 dollars and paid for him, and made 80 barrels of corn, 7000 pounds of cotton, 800 pounds of meat besides other supplies. In 1889 I made 105 barrels of corn, 140 dollars worth of cotton, 70 bushels of sweet potatoes, 1000 pounds of meat, with other things.

Allow me to say that these results were not obtained by idleness, and any one doubting the above statements may ask any reliable man of township No. 3, or Dr. F. Duffy. So take courage, boys, and try again, as there is plenty of land, and don't give the old State a bad name.

Your fellow servant,
THOS. L. MOORE.

Notice to White Public School Teachers of Crayen County.

Professor Alderman, by authority of the school laws of the State, will hold an Institute for white teachers at the Academy, in this city, beginning Monday, February 24, 1890. This Institute will continue one week. There will be public addresses delivered on Friday of that week. Public school teachers of the white race are required to attend. They will be compelled to suspend their schools during the continuance of the Institute. I hope they will all be promptly on hand.

Respectfully,
[18-32aw&wid.] JOHN S. LONG.

The proprietors of Ely's Cream Balm do not claim it to be a cure-all, but a sure remedy for catarrh, colds in the head and hay fever. It is not a liquid or a snuff, but is easily applied into the nostrils. It gives relief at once.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Beaufort Seaside: We congratulate the citizens of New Berne for their unanimous sanction of subscribing $50,000 toward the completion of this road, which will undoubtedly prove a great benefit to her financial interests. The JOURNAL should receive the highest commendation for its assiduous work in obtaining this subscription.

A correspondent, writing from Hatteras, N. C., to the Raleigh Chronicle, says: "Oysters are being carried away from the natural beds near Hatteras in Pamlico sound at the rate of from three to four thousand bushels a week. The oyster laws enacted by the late Legislature are a dead letter, and the Virginia oyster men are having a picnic at the expense of the oyster interest of North Carolina. Is there no remedy?"

Wilmington Star: The present calculation of the authorities of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway is that the first train will be run through from Mount Airy to Wilmington on the 15th of February, and the schedule time, it is estimated, will be about ten hours. The distance is 248 miles. This will be the dawning of a new era for Wilmington, in a commercial point of view, and the Star would renew its suggestion that some steps be soon taken for a proper celebration of the event.

Wilson Advance: It is with pleasure that we send greeting to our sister tobacco marketing towns and notify them of the pleasant fact that our people are going to establish a market here. Last Monday night an informal meeting was held in the office of A. B. Deans, Esq., to consider the advisability of taking steps to make Wilson one of the tobacco markets of the State. It was decided to build a tobacco warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco, and at once the gentlemen present easily made up about $2,000 worth of stock. It is proposed to raise $10,000.—The New Berne Fair will be opened on the 24th of February by Gov. Fowle. We hope the good people of that town may meet with unlimited success this year.

Charlotte News: One of the features of the coming 20th of May celebration in Charlotte will be the presence of all the fire companies belonging to the State Firemen's Association that was organized in Raleigh last year. Seventeen companies belong to this association and they will all be here on the 20th of May. In addition to these, arrangements are being made to secure the attendance of a number of companies from South Carolina, so as to have a series of inter-State races, in addition to the annual convention of the North Carolina Association. It will be the greatest gathering of firemen ever known in this State, perhaps the greatest ever held in the Southern States. The firemen and their visiting friends will make a regiment of a full one thousand people. Another feature of the 20th will be a grand reunion of ex-Confederate soldiers.

LATEST NEWS.

Called from the Press Dispatches

DAMAGES AGAINST THE R. & D. R. R.
DANVILLE, Jan. 16.—The somewhat celebrated case of Pickett's case against the Richmond & Danville Railroad was decided here today in favor of the plaintiff, giving him $13,000 damages for injuries received while on a train. He was traveling on a freight train with a load of cattle and fell from a box car, receiving serious injuries. The case had been pending for six years and this was the second trial. In the former trial the plaintiff got a verdict for $10,000. The case went to the Supreme Court and a new trial was granted. This time he gets the old verdict with five years' interest added.

THE LA GRIPPE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Reports received at the Health Office yesterday were not of an encouraging nature, 11 of 87 death certificates having the words "influenza" on the line after the cause of death. The number of victims of "grip" was the same as that reported Tuesday, but the increase of deaths from other diseases was something alarming—it being larger by 173 than on the previous day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Health officers were right when they announced their belief a week ago yesterday, that the epidemic of influenza had reached its height. On that day the mortality in this city reached 250. Today, after falling off steadily during the week, the record stands exactly one-half. Of these 38 are due to pneumonia; to bronchitis, 12; consumption, 18; influenza without complications, 11; influenza complicated with other diseases, chiefly pneumonia, 13.

CONDENSED NOTES.

A great flood prevails in the Little Wabash river, in Illinois. Hundreds of people have been compelled to abandon their homes, and the farmers have suffered severely. It is expected that the waters will rise still higher, in which event great suffering would result.

Four young negro girls, of the Karoo tribe, from Sierra Leone, arrived at New York on Thursday on their way to Nashville, Tenn., where they are to receive an education to fit them for missionary work in their native land.

Duffy's drug store. Clarke's Flax Soap is good for the skin. Try it. Price 35 cents.

HE WALKED HOME.

One Negro who Couldn't Be Made to Stay in Arkansas.

Yesterday afternoon a negro, foot sore and limping from lameness, arrived in Charlotte by the Air Line Road, having walked every foot of the way from Atlanta. He was making his way back to his old home at Wilson, N. C. He gave his name as George Newton, and said that he left this State nine months ago for Arkansas. A group of gravel train hands were interviewing him when a News reporter came up. George was telling them a tale of woe. One-third of the negroes who went out there with him, he said, are dead. The great trouble is to get drinking water. He stood it as long as he could, and then, failing to make money enough to get him passage home, he boldly struck out on foot. He left Arkansas on the 30th of last November. He got several lifts on freight trains between there and Atlanta, but he had walked the entire distance from Atlanta to Charlotte. "It is easy enough to get out there," he said, "but getting back home is a different matter. You can't get any emigrant agents to pay your fare back this way, but you have to pay regular first class rates. Hundreds of negroes would come back today, if they could raise the money." George says there is great dissatisfaction among the negroes who have emigrated west, but they are there and cannot help themselves. The railroad hands here gave George a good supper and sent him on his way refreshed.—Charlotte News.

Opportunities.

Great opportunities only present themselves once or twice in a lifetime, and if you have been unfortunate heretofore, or are not now profitably employed, you can seize a great opportunity to make yourself independent by at once securing an agency for the Memorial Volume of Hon. Jefferson Davis, which is being prepared by Dr. J. W. Jones, the "fighting chaplain," with the approval and assistance of Mrs. Davis. The publishers, B. F. Johnson & Co., 1009 Main street, Richmond, Va., are anxious to secure the aid of a few more live, energetic agents. Apply early; "take time by the forelock and not by the fetlock."

GRATIFYING TO ALL.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

The worst feature about catarrh is its dangerous tendency to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by purifying the blood.
