ALL articles entered for Premiums must be upon the grounds on Monday, the 24th, day of February.

GOLDSBORO is a good town, and her people do things well and gracefully. She will do her whole duty by our Fair.

SOME of the most attractive features of the Fair will be referred to tomorrow. There are too many for all to be noticed in one issue.

THERE will be a Bureau of Information at Fair Grounds. Persons desiring Board and Lodging can secure the same by making application.

The price of admission to the fair will be, for adult 25 cents; for each child under 12 years 15 cents; for each two-horse vehicle 50 cents; for each one-horse, 25 cents.

The members of the Press generally are invited to attend our Fair, and if they will make it known to the secretary, he will gladly furnish them tickets of admission.

In answer to Q. of Greensboro, X. of Charlotte, O. K. of Raleigh and all other enquirers, we say, Bring on your exhibits. Nothing good and valuable will be excluded.

PARTIES at a distance may ship their goods to the secretary, Owen H. Gulon Esq., who will follow their instructions in regard to them and have them exhibited to the best advantage.

No one need stay away from the Fair because of a fear that they will not be adequately entertained. The hospitality and courtesy of New Berne has never been overtaxed and never will be.

A FEW months ago Sampson county had a most successful Fair. Her people are an agricultural and progressive people, and her Big Blues are the admiration of the whole country. We expect great things of Sampson in February.

It is said that Calvin S. Bryce, who has just been elected to the United States Senate from Ohio, found it hard to pay his necessary expenses when at college. But he had the seed in him and kept piggling away until he got on top. There are lots of that kind of men in this country. —Wilmington Star.

The Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association has offered a premium of Fifty Dollars for the best county exhibit, and the palm will be hotly contested by Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Dare, Greene, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Pamlico, Pitt, and Wayne. If there is any other county that wants to enter the lists our gates are wide open and a hearty welcome is assured.

It has been reported that there will be a contest between the Gun Club of New Berne and the Gun Club of Wilmington as to which will make the best exhibit of game at the Fair. No town can boast of gamer men or fairer women than Wilmington, and we hope to see them here in large numbers. But, when it comes to bagging wild game, we shall see what we shall see.

THE Raleigh News-Observer says that an enterprising citizen of that city, recognizing the necessity of a desirable class of cheap dwellings, contemplates erecting a number of neat cottages, to be rented at ten dollars a month. There are few of the growing towns in North Carolina where neat dwellings at moderate rent are not in demand, and where they might not be built with advantage to the towns, and to the people, and with profit to the builders.

White shad are being brought in by the fishermen.

Thus far January has been very much like windy March.

Oysters of fine quality were plentiful in the market yesterday.

We regret to state that the health of the Editor of this paper does not improve.

Cotton sold higher yesterday than it has since last September, 10¢ being the highest paid.

Surrounding counties should remember that there is a premium of $50 offered for the best county exhibit at our Fair.

There was considerable increase in the attendance at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon, owing, it is presumed, to the special music introduced. It is generally pronounced the best ever heard in the hall.

Capt. William Bell, of Morehead City, arrived yesterday with two seine crews and will begin fishing in the lower Neuse for Ives & Bell, represented here by Mr. Chas. Wallace. Capt. Bell's friends say he is the "champion shad runner of the State." They came up on the sharpie Mary Bell.

Fish dealers say that Mr. J. F. Taylor did the right thing when he extended Middle street to the end of the market house by building a wharf. Mr. U. S. Mace follows by raising the wharf on the right hand side and connecting it with the part built by Mr. Taylor. Not only the fish dealers, but many others agree that it is a "big improvement."

Oh, Mr. Mayor! Won't you tell your policemen to collar those chaps who go about the streets firing air guns at people's houses? A piece of a nail, or a buck shot, or something else, came rattling through a pane in our back window yesterday. Editors are naturally a little "skittish," you know, especially when attacked from the rear. But, seriously, there is a good deal of mischief in those fellows, and we hope the business will be stopped.

Mrs. Capt. Thomas Gates lost a watch about the first of last July which was recovered last Saturday. The watch was probably stolen. Mr. S. K. Eaton, however, had done some work on the watch before it was stolen and had marked it and registered the mark. The other day, when it was again carried to Mr. Eaton for repairs, he at once recognized it, turned to his register and found that it was Mrs. Gates' watch. Capt. Gates identified it and again became the possessor. The man who carried it to Mr. Eaton was not required to tell where he got it.

Mayor's Court.
The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Wm. Focoue, white, assault and battery. Submitted. Fined penny and cost.

Dennis Rowe, white, violating chap. 5, sec. 3, drunk and disorderly in the city limits. Fined $1 and cost.

Haywood Huff, white, chap. 5, sec. 4, drunk and riotous in the city limits. Fined $3 and cost.

Boston Henderson, colored, chap. 5, sec. 3, drunk, using loud and boisterous language in the city limits. Fined $3 and cost.

Ledy Harris, colored, chap. 5, sec. 3, disorderly in the city limits. Submitted. Fined with cost.

Ellis Haywood, colored, chap. 5, sec. 3, disorderly in the city limits. Fined $3 and cost.

FAIR NOTES.

Under the above heading will daily appear brevities relative to our Fair which opens February the 24th.

The number of goat teams seem to be on the increase in our city. To interest the little men who drive them, suppose our Fair managers get up a race between the horny-headed and hard-hoofed little steeds?

The Fair grounds and buildings are assuming their holiday aspect and on the occasion of our next Exposition will present a handsomer appearance than ever, and that means handsomer than any other in the State.

The main building on the Fair grounds has been very judiciously arranged for the most effective display of the departments to be contained therein. The lower floor will be devoted to farm products, the second to business men's displays, and the upper to the beautiful handiwork of the ladies; the latter we have every assurance will excel previous displays, and as ever, be the most beautiful and attractive feature.

After the Oyster Pirates.

Messrs. William Ellis, of this city, oyster commissioner for Hyde county, and F. B. Lane, oyster commissioner for Carteret county, sailed last night per schooner Maude, Capt. J. B. Piver, of Morehead City, for the oyster grounds in Pamlico county, where Virginia pirates, for some time, have defied the laws of our State by boldly robbing our oyster beds and taking the oysters to Virginia markets.

Messrs. Ellis and Lane are commissioned by Hyde and Carteret counties to go to the scene of disturbance, patrol the grounds, comprehend the situation, and stop the unlawful proceedings of the Virginians. The reporter interviewed Mr. Lane yesterday afternoon. Mr. Lane said that they were going prepared to make a settlement of the difficulties concerning these grounds, which seem to have become a bone of contention between our oystermen and the Virginians and others. A crew of five men accompanied the Commissioners. They sailed last night for North river bar.

The counties of Pamlico and Dare will also be represented by oyster commissioners. It is hoped and expected that an amicable settlement of affairs will be arrived at at an early day.

Personal.

Shipping News.

The steamer L. A. Cobb will sail at 8 o'clock this morning.

The steamer Stout, of the Clyde line, will arrive tonight from Baltimore. The Danforce, of this line, sailed for Baltimore last night.

The steamer Newberns, of the O. D. line, will sail for Baltimore today at 13 o'clock.

Nature in Convulsion

Is terrific. Volcanic eruptions, cyclones, earthquakes are awfully and tremendously picturesque, but scarcely desirable to emulate in action and effect by the administration of remedies which produce convulsion and agony in the abnormal portion of the human frame. Such is the effect of the old-fashioned violent purgatives happily falling more and more into disuse, and of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the wholesome, pleasant, and far more effective succedaneum. They weakened the intestines—the Bitters invigorates them. They left the bowels inactive, because incapacitated by ensuing feebleness. The Bitters, on the contrary, and because it enables, not forces them to act—a vast and fortunate difference—perpetuates their activity and regularity. The liver is beneficially stimulated, as the kidneys also are, by this medicine, which easily conquers, also, malaria, nervousness and rheumatism.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Durham Sun: Mr. Fife's meetings have been very successful, not so much for numbers, but for the great good that he has done in general. He has gained a warm place in the hearts of our people and they will watch his career with interest. He will return to his home at Fayetteville for a rest before beginning his meeting at Concord.

The annual election of Ball Managers was held at the University of North Carolina, on January 11th, with the following result: Chief, G. M. Graham, Hillsboro, N. C.; Dialectic Society—W. W. Davies, jr., Drapersville, Va.; John A. Gilmer, jr., Greensboro, N. C.; V. E. Whitlock, New Jerusalem, N. C.; Philanthropic Society—J. L. Rhem, jr., New Berne, N. C.; Perrin Busbee, jr., Raleigh, N. C.; J. L. Skinner, Raleigh, N. C.

Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messenger: All the talk today was of the new trial for Boyle. The opinion is long and carefully prepared. The next term of the court for the trial of criminal cases begins March 24th. His case will then be tried. No doubt there will be some new witnesses and presumably more new evidence on both sides. Boyle was greatly pleased at the news which was carried to him to his cell yesterday about 5 o'clock. There had been intimations the day before of the decision of the Supreme Court. Boyle has voluntarily abandoned all use of spirits.—A well informed gentleman said today that enough negroes had left Wake to insure the Democracy of this county in the future.

Wilmington Star: The dead body of Wm. Thos. Brown (white) was found early yesterday morning near the track of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, in the cut at Fifth street crossing. It was lying face downward on the north side of the track, with the head resting on one end of a cross-tie and surrounded by a pool of blood. After the autopsy the body of Brown was prepared for burial and was taken in charge by his brothers for interment at his former home in Onslow county. There are circumstances connected with the death of Brown which lead strongly to suspicion of murder. Thursday night a dance was given at a disreputable house on Fifth street between Hanover and Brunswick streets and about fifty yards from the place where Brown's body was found.

Remarkable Fishing.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—During the past months of September, October and November the fishing at Morehead City and Beaufort, N. C., was exceedingly fine. During these months a fleet of over 70 boats were engaged in hand-line fishing. Usually five to eight persons were in each boat; many of them fishing as a business, others only for amusement. Each person was provided with a line 60 to 70 feet long and at the end of each line four or five fish hooks were attached. Almost as soon as the line was cast, the bait would be taken and frequently four or five fine Grey Trout or break fish weighing from three to four pounds each would be hauled in. From six to thirty thousand of these fish (as fine as eber swam) were taken daily by hand-lines, in addition to those taken by nets. Many declared it exceeded any sport they had ever engaged in. The amount paid to the Express Company as freight on these fish which were shipped to various points exceeded $80,000.00. Doubtless next season an equally large number will be taken, and the most enthusiastic piscator will be enabled to satiate himself with the fun of catching them.

READING, Pa., Jan. 18.—The Reading Railroad Company opened the Good Spring colliery at Tremont, Pa., today. It is one of the largest in anthracite region, and will give employment to 700 men.
