SIX of the enormous passenger traffic of the great railways in the United States may be obtained by inspecting the annual report of the New York Central Railroad, which has just been made public. In 1882, this Company carried, for the first time in its history, over ten million passengers; in 1885 the number carried during the year had increased to nearly thirteen millions; and in 1889 there were transported on its trains over sixteen millions of passengers.—N. Y. Star.

This House is a Republican mob, with Reed the ringleader. Their work in hand now is to strangle by arbitrary despotism the opposition of the Democratic minority till they unseat the seventeen Democrats whose seats are contested, and put in their places seventeen Republicans who claim the seats, thus giving them a larger majority to enable them to perpetrate their devilment with more success. When this is done the partisan statesman will be in position for more of the partisan kind of work which they here in hand.—Wilmington Star.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has snubbed Parker, presumably because of his supposed connection with crooked campaign methods in Ohio. If President Harrison wants to give the country a convincing proof of his holy hatred of fraud, he can do so by snubbing Parker. Miller because he permits his underlings in Indiana to shelter from prosecution Dudley and the other members of the gang which debauched the ballots in that State, so that its electoral vote was cast for Benjamin Harrison in 1888.—Macon Telegraph.

Services at the Baptist Mission Station tonight. Bible reading—Subject: "Faith and Works." Conducted by Rev. H. W. Battle. All persons cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Frank E. Morton has repaired and tuned the pipe organs of the Presbyterian and Baptist churches. His work is very satisfactory to the congregation, we understand.

The La Grange Spectator says: "New Berne will endeavor to get up a good exhibition and entertain her guests handsomely." That is exactly our intention if there is no hindrance that cannot be prevented.

Trent river shell rock ground to a coarse sand, makes an excellent sidewalk. We notice that Mr. J. A. Meadows is using it on the sidewalk in front of his residence and it is also being used on the walk in front of the Baptist church.

Says the Goldsboro Argus: "The Fish and Oyster Fair at New Berne is 'coming.' It will be opened by His Excellency, Gov. Fowle, on February 24th, and continue through to, and including March 1st. Nearly everybody in Goldsboro is going to 'take it in.'"

Shipping News.

The steamer Stout, of the Clyde line, which had been aground for several days in Adams creek, was gotten off yesterday and sailed for Baltimore. Very little damage.

The schooner Juliet Hopkins, Capt. Hopkins, arrived from Norfolk yesterday with a cargo of salt consigned to E. K. Bishop.

The Effects of Advertising.

"Big Ike," whose name has almost become a household word, is a wide-awake advertiser. He is on the go all the time heralding his advantages to the public. He is not sitting still crying "dull times," but up and doing, reaching out for increased patronage.

A gentleman from Duplin county has been attracted by the advertisement of this man "Big Ike," and addresses us the following letter, which we reproduce:

BEAULIEVILLE, DUPLIN CO., N. C., January, 1890.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Who is this man Big Ike, that advertises so extensively that he is buying so many people out at 50c. on the dollar, and professes to offer such great bargains both at his auction and private sales? Is it really a fact that our people will find such wonderful bargains in New Berne, and can we depend on what this man Big Ike says?

Please be kind enough to go down and examine his prices, and see if his goods compare in quality and price with his advertisements, and you will greatly oblige a number of people in this county who are interested in buying goods cheap, as times are hard and money is scarce.

Very respectfully,

J. W. GRISCOM.

It is an undisputed fact that the business houses of New Berne can sell goods as low if not lower than any where else, on account of the very low freights at this point. A number of the largest shipping lines in the country touch here, which has kept freight rates at the bottom limit, and most of our merchants buy in large bulk for wholesaling, which enables them to supply goods at the small margin for which they have won a reputation.

About the Onslow Railroad.

Mr. H. A. Whiting, general manager of the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Land and Railway Company, is at Hotel Albert. The reporter sought an interview with him last night for the purpose of obtaining some news in regard to the building of the road.

Mr. Whiting is here now for the purpose of engaging a number of hands to cut cross ties, and Capt. J. J. Roberson, who will have charge of the force, advertised yesterday for one hundred men.

Of course the grading will be commenced as soon as possible. Mr. Whiting could not say positively when the work will begin. He said that he would soon make a trip through the country from here to Jacksonville and select a route for the road. "When work is begun," said he, "the road will be built as rapidly as possible." He said that he would probably need more men from here soon to lay track from Wilmington to Jacksonville. "When work is begun on this end of the road your laboring men shall have the preference; and as far as possible the road will be built by them." Track laying will be begun very soon from Wilmington to Jacksonville.

Mr. Whiting is pleased with the prospect and the great desire for the road manifested by our people. He also compliments New Berne. Spoke of our admirable location. He sees our need for transportation facilities. He visited some of our truck farms yesterday and was convinced that we have a very fine trucking country.

He thinks that the railroad will be a very great aid to the development of our trucking industry, our fish and oyster business and the peanut farms of the lower counties. That the value of property will be enhanced all along the line of the road.

Mr. Whiting commended the work of the JOURNAL in the recent election. A clever gentleman, he received us cordially. We invited him to our big Fair in February.

Personal.

Mr. Mortie Marks left yesterday for Charleston, S. C., and Augusta, Ga. From Augusta, we understand, he will go to New York. For some time it has been rumored that our friend would "soon go to New York to—to get married."

So it was not a great surprise to his friends yesterday morning when he told them at the depot that he was "going South on a pleasure trip."

When questioned regarding the truth of the rumor he did not deny it, but modestly verified the report. Heartiest congratulations, old friend!

Mr. R. J. Gooding left yesterday morning for New York.

Miss Emma Henderson returned last night from Wesleyan Female College, Staunton, Va.

A Skilled Optician.

Dr. D. S. Harmon, a graduate of St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1870, has opened an office at Hotel Albert. He will examine your eyes free of charge, and can furnish you any glass needed. His method of testing the eyes is the very thorough, and he is highly skilled in optical treatment, having the very highest testimonials of his efficiency. Here is what the Elizabeth City Economist says of him:

"We congratulate the Doctor upon the success he has achieved here—his successful treatment of the human eye. A great many people do not know what an optician is and for their benefit we will say that he is not a man who buys spectacles by the dozen and sells them by the pair, or is a man who takes a box and goes peddling around to people's houses or approaching every one he meets on the streets, nor does he keep spectacles already made. A genuine optician has no more use for ready made spectacles than a dentist has for ready made teeth. Dr. Harmon is a genuine optician and we advise friends who may have any defect of the eyes to consult the Doctor whenever opportunity offers itself without any hesitation. We speak from experience. He examines each eye with great care and then makes a perfect glass for the same. Nothing for examination, and everybody is invited to call."

Salt Rheum.

With its intense itching, dry, hot skin, often broken into painful cracks, and the little watery pimples, often causes insupportable suffering. Hood's Sarsaparilla has wonderful power over this disease. It purifies the blood and expels the humor, and the skin heals without a scar. Send for book containing many statements of cures, to C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

FAIR NOTES.

Mr. C. E. Slover offers the following special premiums for the Fair:

For the best country-made tub—twenty-five pounds of family flour.

Best country-made chair—a handsome picture.

Best shuck matt—Twenty-five pounds of flour.

Best country-made tray—one picture.

These are all handsome premiums offered for appropriate exhibits. Mr. Slover manifests a substantial interest in our Fair. These special premiums add much to the interest of the occasion. We hope others will follow the example of Mr. Slover.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Goldsboro Argus: The electric light is on.

Patents have been granted to Bayliss Cade, Louisburg, for electric railway telegraph and electric railway.

Oxford Ledger: The exodus fever has reached Greenville and many of the colored people have left for the South. Some from this section who intended to go to Kansas wrote back from the Mississippi swamps. They do not know where they will go when they start. It is like the early slave trade.

Statesville Landmark: A farmer who was in town Monday closing up last year's affairs, placed in bank $875 to run his farm with this year, and has forty sacks of flour and other produce for sale yet. He proposes to put one hundred acres in cotton this year, and he says he intends to pay cash as he goes, so that what he has at the end of the year will be his. That's farming.

Charlotte News: A News reporter has interviewed a number of farmers this week, and they all say that a species of insect is killing whole fields of oats. Some describe it as a fly, others say it is a species of louse, while others say it looks like a small grasshopper. The bug, or whatever it is, is about an eighth of an inch long. So far wheat has been practically exempted from the ravages of the pest.

Raleigh News and Observer: One Chatham wagon brought 1,800 rabbit skins to town yesterday. Bully for Chatham.—The oldest living graduates of the four leading Male Universities of North Carolina are Rev. Wm. Flynn, D.D., now living at Cape Girardeau, Mo., who graduated at Davidson College in the class of 1840; Rev. John T. Abernethy, now living at Mt. Olive, N. C., who graduated from Haverford College in the class of 1872; Prof. L. Johnson, now living at Trinity College, N. C., who graduated from Trinity College in the class of 1853, and Dr. Oscar F. Barter, now living at Elizabeth City, N. C., who graduated from Wake Forest College in the class of 1840.

Great Commotion but No Harm Done.

PHILADELPHIA, January 28.—During confirmation services at St. John's Episcopal church, corner of St. John and Brown streets, this evening, the congregation was startled by the actions of an apparently demented young man who arose from his seat in the church, and pointing a revolver at Bishop Whitaker, who was taking part in the services, fired a shot at him. Immediately there was great confusion, but it was quickly seen that no harm had resulted from the shot. An officer was hastily summoned, and the would-be murderer taken into custody. At the station house he gave his name as David Alexander, and his residence No. 1830 Parrish street, Philadelphia. He told a rambling story about a letter he had received which induced him to make an attempt upon the venerable Bishop's life. Alexander was locked up pending an investigation of the matter.

Mrs. Cora Seales Morris Acquitted of the Murder of Her Husband.

DANVILLE, Va., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Cora Seales Morris, of Reidsville, N. C., who for several days past has been on trial for her life at Wentworth, the county seat of Rockingham, charged with the murder of her husband by poison, was acquitted today. The jury remained out but a short time before bringing in a verdict of not guilty. Mrs. Morris is a handsome young woman of good family, and her case has excited great interest throughout this section of Virginia and North Carolina.

MONROE, N. C., Aug. 23, 1888.

I can truly say that spectacles and glasses offered to the public in Monroe by Dr. Harmon are of the best quality and are everything he claims for them. I will advise persons needing such helps for the eyes to call on him before he leaves town. I have purchased two sets of his glasses and plainly see that sorry or common glasses are injurious to the eyes, while Dr. Harmon's higher type of glasses give all the help and comfort that could be desired. W. C. RAMSEY, M.D.
