WE WILL WORK TOGETHER.
No public enterprise succeeds that does not have the support of the public.

Nothing contributes more to the character, prosperity and progress of a community than a well conducted newspaper. It is easy to find a fault, but it is not always generous to parade it without suggesting a remedy. A newspaper is good or bad as it meets or fails to meet the purpose for which it was established. A literary paper is a very different thing from a commercial reporter, and there should be little affinity between a religious herald and a police gazette. Where the characteristics of all these different kinds of newspapers are expected to predominate in a single publication there must necessarily be disappointment for there has not yet been born the man who can blend all these elements as the colors of a rainbow.

The New Berne DAILY JOURNAL does not pretend to be an exception to the general rule. From its origin its leading thought has been the prosperity of New Berne and the up building of East Carolina. From this purpose it has never deviated, nor will it be diverted from the line it has elected to follow. It is pleasant to acknowledge the generous support that has been given to us in the past and the words of cheer that have come up from every quarter. We trust that the community recognizes that it has duties in regard to the JOURNAL. The editorial column has its appropriate themes, and the local column its proper subjects, but it is the advertising column that speaks loudest of liberal offers and large inducements, and proclaims the presence of push, energy and progress.

We may write of the beauties of New Berne and the resources of East Carolina, but if trade is built up, people abroad must be attracted to our market by the advertisements of our business men. We do not profess any extraordinary ability, but we have a fixed purpose to labor for New Berne and the surrounding country, and we ask the cordial cooperation of all our people.

SOME HARD SENSE.
Our Jones County Correspondent Writes a Letter Which the People of Jones Should Read.

The East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association is not strictly a New Berne affair. It is an "East Carolina institution." Therefore, it is proper and greatly desired that the surrounding counties be well represented in its annual exhibitions. Samples of the products of this entire section should be exhibited. Our Jones county correspondent writes to his brethren as follows:

Farmers and Alliance men of Jones county, recollect the New Berne Fair commences Monday, the 24th of February. Don't forget to take along with you something to exhibit from your farms. Take with you your wives and daughters and sons; let them, too, see the Fair. The old folks generally visit the circus just to let the children enjoy it. Now if you don't take any interest in the Fair, take the young folks there and let them enjoy it. If you can't attend in person, send your sons and daughters and let them see the great productions of our Eastern Carolina.

Alliance citizens, recollect that the intellectual lights of our Order will be there on Wednesday, which it set apart as Alliance day. Every Alliance man in Jones county who possibly can ought to be there on that day. Let me say to the ten Alliances in Jones county, gather up all the articles you can and have an exhibition in time.

Let us see which Alliance in Jones county can carry to the Fair the most creditable exhibit. Other counties we learn will have a large collection of articles on that day. Brothers, let us go to work immediately and scrape up our marle, field crops, hogs, cattle, together with the many old curiosities that can be gathered in our county. Don't wait until a few days before the Fair, but commence now.

Don't go to the Fair and come home telling your neighbors that if you had had such articles there you could have obtained the premium, for yours was much superior, and that you would have had it on exhibition but you were afraid some one would have the same article that would be better than yours.

Recollect that the negro laborers are leaving our county with the mistaken notion of getting suddenly rich in Mississippi and Arkansas; leaving many Farmers with large plantations and no help to cultivate them.

How will the visitors to the Fair ever learn anything of our rich lands, our forests of timber, etc., if on that day we should fail to make a decent exhibit of our products? When the negroes leave as many of our large land owners will have to dispose of their lands, as they can't cultivate them themselves.

Then let us strive to place our productions in such a position that the whole country can learn that Jones county is a good county; that we are a thriving, industrious people; that here is a place where one can purchase a good home and make as comfortable a living, with as little hard drudgery, as anywhere in the United States.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD DISEASES.
Ulcers, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum, etc., are evidences of contagious blood disease. It is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poison from the system by a use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), thus enabling the sore places to heal, and thereby removing all possibility of other members of the family becoming likewise afflicted. Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book that will convince.

J. H. Outlaw, Mt. Olive, N. C., writes: "I had running sores on my shoulders and arms. One bottle B. B. B. cured me entirely."

L. Johnson, Belmont Station, Miss., writes: "B. B. B. has worked on me like a charm. My head and body was covered with sores, and my hair came out, but B. B. B. healed me quickly."

W. J. Kinnin, Hutches, Tex., writes: "B. B. B. has cured my wife of a large ulcer on her leg that doctors and all other medicines could not cure."

M. J. Rossman, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B. Two bottles cured a lady of ugly scrofulous skin sores."

W. C. Birchmore & Co., Moxey, Ga., write: "B. B. B. in curing Mr. Robt. Ward of blood poison effected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."
