Great SCOTT!

The complete novels of the great Sir Walter Scott, "the wizard of the North," peerless among romancers, all for $3.00, may seem incredible, but it is one of the latest achievements of Alden's Literary Revolution.

HOME AND FARM,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Leading Agricultural Journal of the South and West.

Made by Farmers for Farmers.

As a record of successful agriculture, HOME AND FARM has no equal. Every topic relating to agriculture is openly discussed in its columns by the farmers themselves. No expense is spared in securing a full account of every notable success on the farm. It is distinctively the

FARMERS' OWN PAPER,

A record of their daily life, presented in a form and language which make it plain to all.

ITS LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Contains the names of the most progressive farmers of the South and West. They do not treat of theoretical farming, but of the actual conditions which confront us to-day: B. F. Johnson; Waldo F. Brown; Henry Stewart; John M. Stahl; A. P. Ford; Jeff. Welborn; Hugh T. Brooks; John C. Edgar; [illegible]; T. B. Baldwin and a host of others make this journal indispensable. Moreover, it is equally

A HOME MAGAZINE.

Every [illegible] of interest to the home-maker is fully treated. Mary Marsden, Lois Catesby, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. [illegible], Miss Cabell, Miss Mosby, Alice Winston and a score of others will contribute regularly.

FAITH LATIMER

Is in charge of our Children's Department, and she has the peculiar faculty of being both interesting and instructive.

THE MYSTERY OF THE NATION

Is a thrilling story appearing in HOME AND FARM, by John R. Musick, and is exciting wide attention. Short stories by distinguished writers appear from time to time.

BILL ARP'S LETTERS

Appear in each issue, and this humorous philosopher was never more interesting than at this time.

IN ITS EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

HOME AND FARM speaks boldly and fearlessly in behalf of "Farmers' Rights." It favors a revision of the tariff in behalf of the farmer; better roads for the farmer; Free Mail Delivery to the farmer; Co-operation among the farmers, and its aim is the [illegible]. Its motto is

"Fair Trade and Farmers' Rights."

THE JOURNAL.

THE CHIMES.

MINNIE IRVING.

Stop thief!
The old year goes
O'er the drifted snows,
And the gray old year hath brought me grief.
He hath stolen the bud and the dancing leaf,
And the dear little robin that used to sing
At my window-sill in the balmy spring,
And the rapturous kisses my lover gave.
He hath hidden him, too, in a narrow grave
Deep down from the light of the broad, blue sky,
And so through the rush of my tears I cry:

"Stop thief!"
As the old year goes
O'er the drifted snows,
For the gray old year hath brought me grief.

All hail!
The new year comes
With the beat of drums,
And clangor of bells in the windy vale.
He bringeth the song of the nightingale;
And what if his robe is fringed with snow,
The April buds on his bosom blow.
He sendeth a new love unto me
From an ancient country across the sea,
And far to the South we will sail away
Through the purple dusk of a perfumed May.

All hail!
The new year comes
With the beat of drums,
And music or bells in the wintry vale.

The Ten Health Commandments.

1. Thou shall have no other food than at meal time.

2. Thou shall not make unto thee any pies or put into pastry the likeness of anything that is in the heaven above or in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not fall to eating it or trying to digest it. For the dyspepsia shall be visited upon the children to the third and fourth generations of them that eat pie, and long life and vigor upon those that live prudently and keep the law of health.

3. Remember thy bread to bake it well, for he will not be kept sound that eateth his bread as dough.

4. Thou shall not indulge sorrow or borrow anxiety in vain.

5. Six days shalt thou wash and keep thyself clean, and the seventh thou shalt take a great bath, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man servant, and thy maid servant, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days man sweats and gathers filth and bacteria enough for disease, wherefore the Lord has blessed the bath tub and hallowed it.

6. Remember thy sitting room and bed-chamber to keep them ventilated that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

7. Thou shalt not eat hot biscuit.

8. Thou shalt not eat the meat fried.

9. Thou shalt not swallow thy food unchewed or highly spiced, or just before hard work, or just after it.

10. Thou shalt not keep late hours in thy neighbor' house, nor with thy neighbor's wife, nor with his man servant, nor his maid servant nor his cards, nor his glass, nor with anything that is thy neighbors—New England Farmer.

For consumption and catarrh, take Lemon Hot Drops.

For all throat and lung diseases, take Lemon Hot Drops.

There cannot live a more unhappy creature than an ill-natured old man, who is neither capable of receiving pleasures, nor sensible of doing them to others.

Hateful Blood Relations.

Hateful kindred are those sprung from the parent stem—malaria. They are chills and fever, bilious remittent fever, dumb ague and ague cake. These foes to bodily peace are all blood relations, as there is no doubt that these endemic complaints are produced by contamination of the blood by the miasmata existent in both air and water in malarious regions. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters expels from the blood the virus with which miasma infects, but it does more than this, it neutralizes the atmospheric and aqueous poison and its germs before they have permanently fructified in the system, and thus effectually protects against it the fierce inroads of this diabolic brotherhood of diseases. Thus it is not only a remedy, but also a preventive, prompt in relieving, lasting in effect; perfectly efficient. Nervousness, biliousness, dyspepsia and kidney trouble also succumb to it.

Four Years on Crutches.

For fifteen years I was afflicted with rheumatism, four years of which I was compelled to go on crutches. Words are inadequate to express the suffering I endured during that time. During these fifteen years of existence (it was not living), I tried every known remedy without receiving any benefit. I finally began on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which from the first gave me relief, and today I am enjoying the best of health, and am a well man. I candidly believe that S. S. S. is the best blood purifier on the market today.
