GIVE and receive; go forth and bless.

The world that needs the hand and heart

Of Martha’s helpful carelessness

Is less than Mary’s better part.—Whittier.

THE Economists, this week, enter upon the nineteenth year of its existence and has always been under the same editorial management.

All’s Well. Thanks to old friends and new.—Elizabeth City Economist. This should be gratifying to all North Carolinians. The Economist is one of the best papers in the State. Long life and great prosperity to Bro. Creedy and the sterling Economist!

THERE was celebrated at New York on yesterday the centennial of the establishment of the Supreme Court of the United States. It is the highest court in the world. Among its members have been numbered two North Carolinians, Judge Iredell and Judge Moore. The latter was a man of very fine parts, while the former, in our opinion, had no superior among all the great men of his generation. The court has for the most part observed precedents with great firmness and it has stood as a break water against the gradual undermining of the federal principles of our Union.—News & Observer.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
B. SWERT—Stall-fed beef.

The Y. M. C. A. returns thanks to Messrs. Watson & Daniels for a half ton of coal.

It turned cooler yesterday and was followed by a slight rain fall. Truckers and farmers have been in need of a good rain for sometime.

Capt. Scott Simpson, of Smyrna, brought up a load of fine Jarrett Bay oysters yesterday. They went “like hot cakes” at one dollar a bushel.

Prof. W. R. Skinner is making arrangements to introduce military tactics in his school. The schools of New Berne are gradually gaining a higher plane.

Mr. J. W. Etheridge, superintendent of the life saving service on the North Carolina coast, has moved his family to New Berne, where he will be established as headquarters.

Mr. Charles Wallace shored up a well developed pod of green peas, which he got from Mr. Silas Webb’s pea patch at Morehead City. This takes the cake, as far as heard from, this year.

From the papers we see that Evangelist Fife concluded his meetings in Shelby with three hundred converts, and afterwards raised among the citizens of that place $250 for the Y. M. C. A. New Berne is much larger than Shelby, but has she ever done as much for the Association here?

The ladies of the Disciples church met at the church last Wednesday and organized a ladies aid society. Mrs. Clara E. Chestnut was elected president, Mrs. V. M. Bowden, secretary, and Mrs. Cella Outhrell treasurer. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, February 13, at eight o’clock at the residence of the pastor, Rev. I. L. Chestnut.

Some one with very faint conceptions of honesty has taken a paper, from the Y. M. C. A. reading room. While the paper is not very valuable in itself, the taking of it involves a principle detestable to the members of the Y. M. C. A. and all other good people. Books and papers have been taken from the rooms before and never returned. It is strictly against the rules of the Association to take any book or paper from the rooms. If the business is kept up some course will be pursued by the Association which will make the way of the transgressor very hard.

Personal.
Mr. E. B. Lockwood and Miss Edith C. Lockwood, of Stamford, Conn., are in the city, the guests of Judge C. E. Thomas.

Mr. J. P. Brogden, of Trenton, was on our streets yesterday.

At the Gaston House: E. L. Miller, Norfolk, Va.; D. Edmons, Richmond, Va.; J. J. Spier, Jasper, N. C.; Geo. W. Pagram, Va.; Mason Bryan, Vanceboro; W. S. Blount, Geo. W. Hellen, Grifton; Geo. L. Watson, Hyde county.

An Address on Public Schools.
Professor Alderman will deliver at the theatre tonight, beginning at 7:30 o’clock, a thoroughly prepared lecture on public schools. He has given to this subject most careful thought and earnest consideration. If our people will turn out to hear him they will become more fully informed of the vital necessity of these practical institutions than ever before. They will moreover discover the measure of personal interest which they themselves should take in them.

TEACHERS’ INSTITUTE.

FOURTH DAY.
The whole of Thursday was taken up with the examination of applicants for the three years certificates. The large majority of the teachers, as a mere matter of intellectual exercise, participated voluntarily in certain parts of the examination. A few entered resolutely into the contest as a serious matter of business. But so very few of them expect to teach out of Craven, and can have their certificates renewed from year to year, they did not consider the examination of the highest importance. The work of the Institute today will be a continuation of arithmetic and an earnest discussion of history. The room will probably be crowded when this last subject is taken up.

Cyster Pirates Seized.
A letter from Mr. J. C. Thomas, of New Berne, written from Cotsjock, Feb. 3d, gives the following statement in regard to the capture of Virginia oyster pirates who persist in committing their depredations in North Carolina waters:
COINJOCK, N. C., Feb. 3, 1890.
We got here Saturday night all well. Arrested eleven sail of vessels yesterday as they tried to go through the canal. If curses could have crushed us we would now be in jelly; but steady nerves and determination carried our point. We arrested all the captains, carried them before a magistrate, they paid a good fine, promised to let oysters alone in N. C., and as it was Sunday we let them go. We expect another fleet through on tomorrow; we shall stop them. We expected a fight and prepared for it. J. C. T.

Mr. Alderman’s Address.
The address at the theater last night by Prof. E. A. Alderman was before a large and appreciative audience. He was introduced by Hon. John S. Long in a few appropriate remarks.

The subject, “Manners and Customs in North Carolina One Hundred Years Ago,” was handled in a pleasing and graceful style. Some of the incidents related were very amusing, and the dress of the gentry of that day would to us now be a curiosity.

The great changes that have taken place within the last century, as pictured by Mr. Alderman, can scarcely be realized. It was an interesting talk because it was new, and it was instructive because it was history concentrated.

Prof. Alderman lectures at the theatre tonight at half-past seven o’clock, on “Public Schools.”

From the Baltimore Sun.
This able and new Southern daily speaks a word for our Fair, which will open in about two weeks, and under what now promises most favorable auspices:

“THE NEW BERNE FAIR.—The enterprising business men of New Berne, N. C., are bestirring themselves to make a grand success of the third annual exhibit of the East North Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Exposition, to open February 24 and continue until March 1. New and elegant buildings have been erected, and electric lights have been introduced throughout the buildings and grounds. All varieties of fish and oysters found in North Carolina waters will be on exhibition, and live fish will be displayed in a mammoth glass aquarium. The fish and oyster collection is to be unexcelled. The display of game will be large, and the fine breeds of live stock and poultry will prove a great attraction. In addition there will be a fine exhibit of ladies’ handwork of all kinds, fancy and plain, paintings, crayons, etc. On Tuesday there will be a military parade, and Wednesday will be Alliance day. Altogether the Fair promises to be a credit to Eastern North Carolina and an occasion of unusual interest.”

Pneumonia in New York.
The worst treatment for a heavy cold is “letting it alone,” and the next worse is dosing with drugs and crude mixtures. The great want then is, a particular specific to allay fever; arrest congestion and inflammation and prevent extension of the disease of the lungs. Now, since reports from various parts of the country are to the effect that the above disease is on the increase, and to prevent its assuming a malignant type if attacked, we would recommend two of the most highly endorsed remedies in the country, Humphrey’s Specifics Nos. One and Seven. Hundreds of people taken with cough and influenza and symptoms of what are now termed “La Grippe” and Pneumonia have been speedily and permanently cured by them. No. One allays the fever, pain and inflammation, while No. Seven gets in its good work upon the cough, hoarseness and sore throat. Hundreds of publishers, having found these Specifics of priceless value in their family, never hesitate to recommend them to their many readers.—Ex.

One fact is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood’s Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.
Asheville Citizen: By actual count the number of letters and postal cards mailed at the postoffice yesterday was 3,119.

Washington Progress: In looking over the books in the register’s office we find that there have been 25 papers less filed for registration during the month of January than there was for the corresponding month last year.

Greensboro Workman: There have been a number of capitalists and other very prominent business men in the city for a number of days past, some of whom having gone away will return again quite soon.

Asheville Citizen: A man walked into a queensware house in Asheville yesterday and purchased a lamp chimney. He took from his pocket a handful of crackers, called for a cup of water, and before the eyes of the astonished clerks proceeded to make a meal of the glass. It was apparently relished, and after finishing his strange repast he thanked the attendants for their kindness and withdrew.

Elizabeth City Economist. On Wednesday last George W. Cobb, of this town, was appointed and confirmed in the Senate as Supervisor of the Census for the first census district of North Carolina. Mr. Cobb is an active business man, and if not imposed upon in his selection of enumerators, will give a reliable census report of this district. We understand his territory embraces twenty counties. We endorse the appointment.

Goldboro Argus: Still the exodus continues. Two car loads went off on the freight yesterday and others are still waiting for the train. It is amusing to see the articles of property the different ones take with them. Some of them have only an empty water pail and “gode,” others a banjo, and while we have seen none as yet with the ubiquitous “houn dog” not a few carry the old shot gun as the best and most loved in all North Carolina.

Winston Daily: During the month of January the tobacco manufacturers of Winston shipped one million, three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, two hundred and twenty-six pounds of manufactured chewing tobacco. And on yesterday (Monday, February 3d), there was shipped eight car loads. Will give the number of pounds tomorrow. We have the largest plug tobacco manufacturing city in the world, and our capacity and trade are rapidly increasing.

Raleigh News and Observer: The Richmond Times of Sunday says: “Prof. James Dinwiddie, of Gordonville, Va., will succeed John B. Burwell, of Peace Institute, Raleigh. Mr. Burwell succeeded his father as principal of the Charlotte Female Institute, which institution he resigned control of about the year 1870, to take charge of the Peace Institute in Raleigh, which under his charge became one of the leading schools of the South.” We are informed that Prof. Dinwiddie has leased Peace Institute from Mr. Burwell and will conduct it as at present. He is an exceptionally scholarly and polished man and is an able and distinguished educator, bearing a high reputation among Virginia educators.

In Memoriam of Joseph J. Roberson.
The subject of this notice was a man of more than mediocrity in whatever he was engaged. Of a stout, vigorous body and well disciplined mind he never went half way in any undertaking. He espoused the art of shipbuilding in early life, and was the trusted helmsman of the late Thomas Sparrow of this city, who was one of the leading shipbuilders of his day. At one time of his life he was down in Mississippi and Alabama engaged in constructing the cotton presses then in use and becoming greatly in demand. About 1845 or ’6 he for a time abandoned mechanical pursuits and engaged in merchandising at a point just opposite the present Cotton Exchange building. From this he returned to his more favored calling of a mechanic, and entered upon the then advancing business of railroad building. He was engaged in the construction of the A. & N. C. R., the Charlotte & Atlanta, the Norfolk & Southern, and the Smithfield branch of the A. & N. C. R., and at the time of his decease was preparing to go on the Onslow railroad. He was for many years connected with the A. & N. C. R. in bridge building, track laying, etc. A more competent man in this line of work is not seldom found.

Mr. Roberson was of decided views on all subjects of popular discipline, and in politics a firm and pronounced Democrat, but in the political field he seldom sought anything for himself, but was always glad to aid a friend in such pursuits.

He had been Justice of the Peace in this county, and in the memorable campaign of 1870 no one worked harder to accomplish the result of that campaign than he. For this he was honored as Sergeant-at-Arms of the State Senate and as such was the officer in charge of the court of impeachment which tried the charges against his old-time friend and co-laborer, W. W. Holden.

Mr. Roberson was well and widely known during the war as a ship builder, and was busily at work on the various gunboats constructed in this State.

He was a firm friend, a loving husband and devoted father. He has gone from us, and while the untimely death must grieve, let us cherish his memory and cast the mantle of charity over his faults whatever they may have been.

THE EXCELLENT QUALITIES
Command to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste, and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Shipping News.

The steamer Manteo, of the O. D. line, will sail today at 12 o’clock for Norfolk.

The steamer Annie of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday with full cargo and will sail this afternoon at 4 o’clock. The Eaglet will arrive tomorrow.

The steamer Tahoma will sail at 7 o’clock this morning.

The steamer Cobb will sail at 8 o’clock this morning.

A FEW NEWS ITEMS.

A cloud-burst near Nanking, China, in January, resulted in destroying many boats and over one hundred persons were drowned.

The Legislature of Virginia has passed a resolution tendering sincere sympathy to the Secretary of the Navy, and to each of the surviving members of the family, in their supreme affliction.

The funeral ceremonies over the remains of the wife and daughter of Secretary Tracy took place Wednesday morning in the East room of the White House. The Secretary’s condition was such as to enable him to be present, and there was a very large attendance of distinguished persons. The services were very impressive, and much grief was manifested by the bereaved relatives and friends. The remains were placed temporarily in a receiving vault at Rock Creek cemetery, to await Secretary Tracy’s determination as to their permanent resting place.

E. H. Olney.
At the meeting of the Board of Managers on January 30th, we endorsed what has been published by Dr. H. D. Harper, I. L. Chestnut and R. W. Stancill concerning E. H. Olney.

We disclaim any responsibility for anything he may say or do, as he is not an ordained preacher and not enrolled on our list of preachers.
