Not quite two weeks to the Fair, and all is well.

THE worst blizzard within the recollection of the oldest inhabitant is raging in Minnesota.

It will be cheaper to take a four months vacation in Europe next summer than to stay at home and buy ice.

THE Mercury Sentinel, of Goldsboro, is before us. It is bright, new, and in good style. Success to the Mercury Sentinel.

THE man who is in a fever of hurry to show how much he knows is very likely to exhibit incidentally a great deal of what he doesn’t know.

THE Courier-Journal says the North Carolina Congressman who in forty years never recommended a relative for office, deserves a monument.

PEOPLE who like to say smart things should hesitate before they say them to consider whether or not they will make other people smart.—Somerville Journal.

THE Republican party never had any patriotism, never had any conscience. To retain power is never hesitated to resort to anything, however vile, wicked or despicable.—Wilmington Star.

No we didn’t say the United States Senate would adjourn to attend the Fair. Ingalls, Windgalls, and gall of all kinds would be out of place on this occasion of good cheer and fellowship.

THE Republican policy is “Rule or Ruin.” Well, it will be ruin for them at the next Congressional election. It is hard to tell whether the Executive or the legislative branch of the present Republican Administration has made the most conspicuous failures.—Louisville Post.

PARIS is excited over an attempted coup d’etat by the Duke of Orleans, the eldest son of the Count of Paris; he has just reached his majority, and claims to have returned to France to place himself at the disposal of the military authorities; the young pretender has been arrested, and inquiry will be made as to whether there was any plot for a royalist movement.—Wilmington Star.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL, of Ohio, is a doubly fortunate politician. He has a clean record, and has been accused of being a corruptionist. Any politician may have a clean record, but he never gets a chance to prove it until he is denounced as a thief, for with politicians the ordinary rule of law that every man is innocent until he is proved guilty is reversed.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE new rules are of an unfair, crushing kind. The minority will be prostrate. The rules are arbitrary, tyrannical. One rule provides that the Speaker shall not entertain any dilatory motion. The rules are so changed as to make gagging the great principle of proceedings in the House—to enable Fat Tom to squelch all opposition and silence the minority. It is an infamous business.—Wilmington Messenger.

LET Congress rise to the high requirements of the emergency. Let the Exposition be a World’s Fair in fact as in name. Let it be the Fair of the people, and not of stock-jobbing combinations. Let it be at the National Capital, where alone can such an Exposition be reared upon fitting foundations and made to enlist the hearty co-operation and support of the entire Union, of the “unbounded continent,” of the enlightened world besides.—Washington Post.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Mrs. M. M. HANF—Houses to let.

Have you bought your season ticket? If not, you had better do it immediately.

Eggs are cheap. They were selling yesterday at 8 to 10 cents per dozen, wholesale.

The last two days have been putting in a touch of winter weather—something rare for this season.

Four new pupils entered Prof. Skinner’s school yesterday. One of them came from Sampson county.

St. Valentine’s day will soon be here. Numbers of show windows are gorgeously arrayed with these annual comic boisterations.

The Working Society of the M. E. Church are preparing for a “Basket Party” at the residence of Mr. T. A. Green, on the evening of February 14.

The steamer Cleopatra was sold at the foot of Metcalf street yesterday. Henry Anderson and others, of Trenton, were the purchasers at $300. The boat was sold under execution.

There will be a meeting of the ladies composing the Reception Committee of the Fair at the residence of Mrs. Henry E. Bryan, on East Front street, this (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 1/2 o’clock. All members are requested to be present.

The students of New Berne Collegiate Institute are studying the geography of Nellie Bly’s trip around the world. No doubt it is very interesting and profitable to the students. There is a great deal in being up with the times. The New Berne Collegiate Institute is progressive.

Mayor’s Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

John Pool, col., assault and battery. Fined $5 and cost.

George Croome, col., chap. 5, sec. 3; cursing and swearing in the city limits. Fined $5 and cost.

The steamer L. A. Cobb will leave for Jolly Old Field at 9 this morning.

The steamer Newberns, of the O. D. line, will sail for Norfolk today at 12 o’clock.

Fire in James City.

The house of Mary Ann Barnes, in James City, was destroyed by fire last night. It was a two story dwelling house. There was no one in the house when it was discovered to be on fire. The loss is not known. From this side of the river there seemed to be quite a conflagration in James City. The natives turned out and fought the fire with sand. There was quite a “mud-slinging,” some one remarked. The dirt proved to be an effective weapon.

For a disordered liver try Beecham’s Pills.

Superior Court Proceedings.

The February term of Craven county Superior Court convened yesterday at 11 o’clock. At this term only civil causes and “jail cases” on the State docket are disposed of. Judge T. B. Womack, recently appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Gilmer, presided. The morning hours were consumed in organizing the court. Mr. F. G. Simmons was appointed foreman of the grand jury. His Honor’s charge to the jury was able. The civil issue docket was called, and the court took a recess until 8 o’clock p.m.

There were only six cases on the State docket to be tried. The following were disposed of yesterday:

State vs. John Daniels, col.; larceny; verdict, guilty.

State vs. Eugene Boyd, col.; larceny; defendant pleaded guilty.

State vs. Sargent Nash, jr., col.; larceny; pleaded guilty.

State vs. Charles Shepard, col.; larceny; verdict, guilty.

State vs. John Hargett, col.; larceny; verdict, guilty.

Sentence was not pronounced in any of the cases.

All of the above cases were for petit larceny, such as stealing chickens, tow sacks and bottles. All boys.

Court took a recess until 9:30 o’clock this morning.

The Potato Planter Making its Way South.

Messrs. Sleeper & Jones, of New Jersey, were on a prospective tour South a few months ago, and on visiting New Berne they were impressed with our climate and soil as being especially suited to growing truck. They have rented a farm near the city with the intention of purchasing next year should everything prove satisfactory.

Like the New England farmer, who has the machinery to take the place of muscular labor, they have what looks to be a projected potato planter, the Aspinwall, manufactured at Three Rivers, Mich. Last week it was given pretty thorough trial on the farm of Messrs. Hackburn & Willett, and all those who witnessed its performance pronounced it much in advance of the old style of putting out the potato. On a trial of two acres the machine was found to do its work well, with the exception of occasionally mashing the potato, which, however, was soon obviated by some change in the regulation of its machinery.

The machine marks off, furrows, drops the potato, covers it, puts out the fertilizer and covers it all at one operation. The planting can be done at any depth desired from three to nine inches, and the covering is uniform. Moist earth always surrounds the seed after it is deposited, a feature much desired by experienced planters. Also the planting of the rows straight enables closer and earlier cultivation. Either the whole or cut potato can be planted at a distance from 10 to 26 inches apart. It is drawn by two horses, substantially made, and but little complicated. It is believed that it will be generally adopted by all large planters if the results of its work prove satisfactory.

The potato crop throughout the United States has grown to wonderful proportions. By far it excels all other products in the trucking line. From Nova Scotia to Texas they are raised and thrive. It is one of the most sure and marketable crops, and while the acreage is fast increasing, the supply does not meet the demand, for they are still imported in this country for our home consumption.

Growing truck is one of our greatest interests and it should receive all the encouragement and attention possible. New markets are continually being opened and the facilities for transporting are better every year. The principle object to be kept in view is to ship a good article and let the truck reach the market regularly and in good condition.

Office of the New Berne Gas Light Co. To the Citizens of New Berne:

If the citizens of New Berne will permit us to run wires and poles through the streets of the city, we will furnish lights as per Mr. Willis’ proposition, and will give a $20,000 bond for the faithful performance of said proposition.

Blair Says It’s All Right.

Mr. S. O. Blair, Chicago, says: “We could not keep house without your Clarke’s Extract of Flax Skin Cure and Cough Cure. We have used both for numerous troubles, especially for our child. We recommend the Cough Cure to every family having children. We used it for whooping cough with remarkably quick and satisfactory results, and use it for any and every cough the family may have.” Only one size, large bottle. Price $1. If you want the best toilet soap get Clarke’s Flax Soap, 25 cents. Ask F. S. Duffy, druggist, for these preparations.

OUR WINTER FAIR.

What the Papers Are Saying About It.

Wilson Mirror: The New Berne people are using every effort to make their Exposition a grand success. It opens February the 24th, and will continue the entire week.

Raleigh News and Observer: The New Berne Fair is an event to which too much importance cannot be given. It is a unique affair, being the only genuine fish fair we know of in this country. It ought to attract many visitors not only from this State, but from abroad.

Goldsboro Voice: The Fish, Oyster and Game Fair of New Berne opens on the 24th. All that is necessary is to suggest this fact to those who have attended this Fair on previous occasions. The people know a good thing when they see it, and they all pronounce the New Berne fairs perfect successes.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: The Fish, Oyster and Game Exposition at New Berne will be held on the 24th inst. and continue the entire week. Every effort is being made to make it a grand success. These fairs, rightly managed, accomplish much good and should be liberally patronized.

Raleigh Visitor: “Have you a grippe at New Berne?” says Old Fog to a wide awake New Berne man. “No,” says he—“we are too busy fixing for the fish and oyster fair to fool with such by-gone, old-fashioned doings.” It’s a fact, and don’t you forget it. New Berne means “biz” and that’s sufficient to ensure every visitor a big, good, old-fashioned time.

Raleigh Call: The enterprising little city of New Berne is just spreading herself, getting ready for the coming Fish and Oyster Fair. Visitors are not only promised all they want in sight seeing, but a bountiful supply of something good to eat. It’s just wonderful to see the big fields of vegetables, hundreds of acres nearly ready for the New York markets. This alone is worth the trip, especially when it will cost so little to go and come. Nuff sed—meet us there.

Wilmington Messenger: The New Berne Fair will soon be here. Are the people of Wilmington section moving in the matter? Are they preparing to send on their exhibits? It will open on the 24th inst., and will continue for several days. The New Berne people are exerting themselves to make it a fine success. Large and attractive buildings have just been erected, and every possible advantage is offered to exhibitors. The electric light will make things bright, and it is expected that the exhibit will be in all particulars highly creditable to North Carolina. There will be extensive displays of oysters, fish, game, poultry, stock, woman’s work, etc. On Tuesday the military will parade, and on Wednesday the Farmers’ Alliance will have their Day. Let all attend who can, and let Wilmington and this section be well represented in their products.

To the Tax-Payers of the City of New Berne.

There appears upon the minutes of the proceedings of the city council of the 5th instant a proposition from the New Berne Gas Light Co., introduced by me, in which it appears in said minutes that the proposition did not receive a second. I wish to say in behalf of myself that my only interest in the matter is to get for the city electric lights at the very lowest price, and if $50 per light is the cheapest price we ought to take them. It matters not from what company we take them. My only object is to save money for myself as a tax-payer and for those I represent. Immediately after reading the proposition the Mayor ordered me to sit down and continued to do so, not allowing or giving any one a chance to second the proposition, and I will further say that as long as I am a representative of the city I will look after the tax-payers’ interest and will not let any personal matter make me sacrifice the city’s welfare and will always try to economize in electric lights as well as other things. S. W. WILLIS.

Below is the proposition:

To the Board of City Council of the City of New Berne: Gentlemen—The New Berne Gas Light Company makes to your Board the following proposition, to-wit: That if your Board will grant it the privilege of running electric wires through the various streets of the city, it will furnish the city with electric lights of fifteen hundred candle power for $50 per light per annum.

This proposition is for one year with the option of two more years at the same price.

NEW BERNE GAS LIGHT CO.
By A. H. LEFTWICH, Pres.

February 4th, 1890.

If this proposition is accepted we agree to furnish the lights taken by the city within thirty days from this date, this the 4th day of Feb., 1890.

NEW BERNE GAS CO.
A. H. LEFTWICH, Pres.

The above article appeared in last Sunday’s JOURNAL.

Why is it that we cannot get justice in our city affairs? I as a tax-payer will not submit to being taxed to pay for electric lights at $50 per year when another company will furnish them for $50. It don’t make any difference in the matter who is as a tax-payer what company furnishes the lights, and if our city fathers will not look after our interests in the matter we as tax-payers will call a meeting of the citizens and see if our money that we pay for taxes cannot be disbursed in a manner by which justice and economy to tax-payers is looked after. TAX-PAYER.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hood’s Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

INHERITED BLOOD POISON.

How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison. Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it therefore is the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.

James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: “My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely.” Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes: “My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend.”

J. R. Wilson, Glen Alpine Station, N. C., Feb. 13, writes: “Bones and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day and doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B. and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before.” R. N. and F. S. Duffy, wholesale and retail agents, New Berne, N. C.
