SENATOR ROBE proposes to out-gerrymander the Democratic Legislature in Ohio by forbidding it to repeal the Republican gerrymander of that State.—Philadelphia Times.

THIRTEEN prominent business men of Helena, Mont., have been indicted for stealing coal from the Northern Pacific railroad company. The company claims to have lost 210 carloads there in one month.

The Executive Committee of the House Democratic Campaign Committee have elected Congressman Flower, of New York, chairman, and Mr. Cowles, of North Carolina, secretary; the full membership of the committee was also chosen.

The efforts of Harrison's Administration to pay off the debts incurred by those who brought it in, to being served one good purpose in that they are bringing to light the means by which the funds were raised to bribe the votes of New York and Indiana.—Albany Argus.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 13.—In the house of delegates today the committee on elections reported a bill for conducting the elections in this State, the essential features of which are those of the Australian system. The patron of this measure is Mr. Arnold, of Bedford.

We were in error in our statement that brother M. A. Underwood has sold his entire interest in the Monroe Register, a large, excellent, cheap paper. He has sold but half, and will continue to devote his time to it. We are glad to hear he will remain on deck.—Wilmington Messenger.

If the Republican party had never been guilty of any other sin, its record in both houses of Congress at this session would be quite sufficient to justify its defeat next November. No party can carry such a load as Reed in the House and Ingalls, Chandler and Blair in the Senate.—Masses Telegraph.

It is not an uncommon thing for a party of picnickers to be caught in a storm and have their clothing drenched, but it remained for a Colorado picnic party to be caught in a blizzard and have their ears frozen. January and February picnics may be very funny, but they are attended with considerable danger.—Washington Post.

Mr. SMITH is one of the foremost men in this country in intellectual culture. He occupies a conspicuous position among leaders of thought. Powerful as a writer, gifted as a speaker, he is also one of the first newspaper men in the country in executive ability. Besides all this, Mr. Smith has tact, real diplomacy. Of course, it would be better for this country, and for civilization, to have a Democrat lunch every day with the Czar; but since it must be a Republican, why, then, God speed you, Charles Emory Smith, polished scholar and genial gentleman, that you are.—Charlotte Chronicle.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

E. B. ROBERTS—To the traveling public.

The Superior court will convene again on Tuesday morning.

Treasurer Roberts went up the A. & N. C. road yesterday and "paid off" on that end.

The Fair is only one week in the future, now. Get ready. Get your season tickets.

A party of students of the Collegiate Institute, escorted by Prof. Adams, were out horseback riding yesterday.

Fishermen say that eels are running a little better. Large shipments of various kinds of fish are being made from here daily now.

One case before the Mayor yesterday—Wm. Jones, col. drunk and disorderly in the city limits; submitted; taxed with cost or thirty days on the streets.

Only one marriage license issued by the Register of Deeds last week. It was to a colored couple. The Register says the marriage business is unusually dull.

Prof. T. C. Manning will open classes in writing next Tuesday at the Collegiate Institute and at Vance Academy in the afternoon and at the Board of Trade rooms at night.

There will be prayer meeting services every night this week, except Thursday night, at the Baptist Mission Station, market dock. All interested in the advancement of the cause of Christ in this community are specially invited to attend.

A special train leaves this morning at 8 o'clock for Goldsboro, for the accommodation of those wishing to attend the dedication services of the new Catholic church at that place. Quite a number are expected to go from this city.

Mr. Robert Hancock, collector of customs for this port, has received a letter from the supervising architect at Washington City making inquiries as to a location and the cost of same for the Government building to be erected here.

Operations have not been going on steadily at the oyster canning establishment during the past week, on account of the scarcity of oysters, but boatmen arriving from the oyster grounds say that a number of boats are loading oysters for the cannery and will supply the demand next week.

A Missionary service will be held in Christ Church, Monday night, in the interest of Missions in East Carolina. Addresses will be made by Rev. Robert Strang, of Wilmington, and others. The occasion will be one of great interest and it is believed will attract a large congregation. The public is cordially invited to attend. A collection will be taken for Mission work in the Diocese of East Carolina. The service will begin at 7:15 o'clock.

The appearance of things in the saw-mill section of the city is beginning to be something like it was before the two big fires which have occurred there since last August. Mr. Stinson's new mill house is nearing completion. Mr. Congdon's new planing mill and dry kiln will be larger than before. In a month or two it will be livelier than ever before in that vicinity. Four saw mills will be in operation.

The agent of the Old Dominion Steamship Company handed us a telegram addressed to him, and sent by the Norfolk agents, which reads as follows: "Impossible to get Newberne of this week. She will leave here next Friday." In consequence of the failure of the steamer Newberne to sail from Norfolk on Friday, February 14th, '90, there will be no steamer to sail for Norfolk, on this line, Tuesday next. The steamer Mantoo will make her regular trip Friday next, February 15th, at 9 a. m.

Beckham's Pills cure bilious and nervous.

Messrs. Moore & Brady.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—In reading the columns of your paper I see a letter of accusation and one of retraction written by A. M. Warburton. To more fully let the oystermen and others interested in the oyster business know, I will here state that Messrs. Moore & Brady have never given or offered one dollar or aided or abetted in any way, shape or form, the said oyster patrolmen. Messrs. Moore & Brady opened their cannery factory here in New Berne eight years ago and have worked their business up to what it is under the most trying circumstances. Oysters were poor and small, but that did not stop them. They continued to take oysters, which broke up the solid rooks and gave them the proper culture for flavor and growth. And all they want is to do a legitimate business, and are willing now, as they always have been, to pay all they can for good oysters.

THOS. H. COAKLEY, Manager for Messrs. Moore & Brady, New Berne, N. C.

The Ladies' Favorite.

The newest fashion in ladies' hats will doubtless cause a flutter of pleasurable excitement among the fair sex. Ladies are always susceptible to the changes of a fashion plate; and the more startling the departure, the more earnest the gossip over the new mode. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for the ills which afflict females and make their lives miserable. This sovereign panacea can be relied on in cases of displacements and all functional derangements. It builds up the poor, haggard and dragged-out victim, and gives her renewed hope and a fresh lease of life. It is the only medicine for women's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Read printed guarantee on bottle wrapper.

Brilliant Marriage.

HANCOCK—JORDAN.—On Wednesday evening St. Peter's was the scene of a most brilliant and interesting marriage. At 9 o'clock the church was crowded to its utmost with the friends and relatives of Mr. Seymour Hancock, the collector of customs of this place, son of Mr. Robert Hancock, Jr., of New Berne, collector of this district, and Miss Rosa Jordan, one of Washington's most beautiful young ladies, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jordan, of this city. The church was elaborately decorated with mock orange and yellow jessamine. As the clock struck nine, the bridal party marched in to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Bettie Hoyt. The procession was led by Master Orom Rodman and Miss Rosa Short, as gate openers.

The attendants marched in the following order: Hal Jordan, Lizzie Hancock; Lalla Clark, Annie Hancock; Dr. D. T. Taylor, E. S. Hoyt, Jr.; Katie Blount, Ella Taylor; Sam Blount, Will Bryan; Mamie Myers, Ollie Moyer; Charles Bell, Harry Creagh; Annie Myers; Julia Jordan; Frank Jordan, Leon Richardson.

The ladies formed in line on the right of the chancel and the gentlemen on the left.

The wedding bell, wrought by Miss Camille Rodman, was beautiful, and the floral arrangement of the chancel superb.

The bride was elaborately and exquisitely dressed in white satin rhodan, an train, duchess lace, tulle veil, natural orange blossoms. She bore a bouquet of callas in her hand, and her dress was so elegantly fitted that her beautiful figure looked like sculpture.

The lady attendants were handsomely attired in white tulle, satin ribbons, and each bore a bouquet in her left hand.

Rev. Nat. Harding read the solemn marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church, clear and impressive.

The party retired in the following order: Julia Jordan, Leon Richardson; Frank Jordan, Annie Myers; Harry Creagh; Mamie Myers; Charles Bell, Ollie Moyer; Belle Blount, Will Bryan; Sam Blount, Ella Taylor; Dr. D. T. Taylor, Annie Hancock; Ed. Hoyt, Lalla Clark; Hal Jordan, Lizzie Hancock; Orom Rodman, Rosa Short.

The ushers were Jno. Havens, J. K. Hoyt, John Blount, H. A. Latham. After the marriage a reception was held at the house of the bride's father, and many happy congratulations were made the handsome groom and lovely bride. Cake and wine, and conversation bristling with wit and repartee, added to the enjoyment of the evening. The presents were numerous and very handsome.

Among the strangers we noticed Mr. Robert Hancock, Jr., and wife, Messrs. Frank and Carlyle Hancock, and Mrs. Pritchard.

For the present Mr. and Mrs. Hancock will make Washington their home. The Gazette wishes them long life and that they shall never be less happy than on their wedding day.—Washington Gazette.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, or pneumonia, Hood's Sarsaparilla will give strength to the system, and expel all poison from the blood.

Attention, Ladies!

Those who have articles to exhibit in the ladies' department at the Fair are requested to send them in Friday Feb. 21st as early after ten o'clock as they can. Articles of those who send promptly will be placed most advantageously for exhibition. The ladies composing the committees are requested to meet promptly and be at their posts to receive the same at the above named time.

MRS. VASS, President Ladies Committee.

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

ITS EXCELLENT QUALITIES.

Command to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste, and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.
