working out his own salvation and ought to be left to his own success. Northern agitation in his behalf is disingenuous—a word for the darky and three words for the party; it is claptrap and demagoguery designed for use exclusively north of Mason and Dixon's line, and with no serious purpose of taking the responsibility of putting the negro in command wherever the census shows numerical negro supremacy. —Chicago Times.

ORATORY as practiced by our politicians between the years 1840 and 1860 was the remote if not the direct cause of the Rebellion and the long and bloody war that was required to suppress it. Senator Ingalls obviously thinks he can win laurels and retain his seat in the Senate by resorting to the practice of the politician of thirty or forty years ago. Apparently he is trying to "fire the great heart of the North," and by so doing to kindle the anger of the South. But it is devoutly to be hoped that he will not succeed. If no Southern Senator replies to him it is likely that he will make no further effort to stir up sectional strife. He will be most effectually answered by prolonged and respectful silence. The patriotic people in all portions of the land will applaud this silence by observing it themselves. —Chicago Herald.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
LOST—Keys and shoe-button.
FOR SALE—Appleton's Cyclopaedia.

The banks of the city will be closed on Saturday next, Washington's birthday.

Messrs. S. H. Lofgren and D. E. Perry, of Kinston, are in the city on a short business trip.

Mr. George Bishop has begun operations at his factory, and is turning out truck boxes, etc.

One case before the Mayor yesterday—Arry Dudley, disorderly in the city limits; dismissed.

Have you got your exhibit ready? Have you bought your season ticket? Only three days before the Fair.

John Brown is having two additional chairs placed in his barber shop preparatory to the large crowd expected at the Fair.

One fishing canoe brought in one hundred and forty-six shad yesterday. Shad were selling at fifty cents per pair for bucks and one dollar for roe.

Some of the finest oysters ever seen in this market were brought in yesterday by Capt. Sylvester Helen from North River and Capt. Russell Willis from Smyrna. They sold at one dollar per bushel.

The aquarium to be used for the live fish exhibit during the Fair was tested yesterday and was found to be O. K. The Atlantic fire company had their engine to pump water into the aquarium. The fish exhibit will be very fine indeed at the Fair next week.

The Superior court was in session yesterday and day before, but little of interest to the public has been done. In the case of Smallwood vs. Brooks judgment was given to the plaintiff. This was the only case tried. Several were continued.

The Wilmington Messenger's Raleigh correspondent says, "Rev. Thos. Dixon, the bright young preacher who is winning such a reputation in New York, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address at Wake Forest College at the next commencement. He is a graduate of that college."

It is with much regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Lula K. Mewborn, who departed this life at her home in Kinston yesterday. A devoted husband and two bright and interesting children are left to mourn the loss of a Christian wife and affectionate mother. A noble woman has gone to rest.

Rev. Mr. Harding, of Kinston, proposes soon to resume the work of building St. Thomas Church, eleven miles above New Bern on the Neuse road. He very earnestly appeals to all friends of the enterprise in New Bern, and elsewhere, for aid in the good work. All amounts, however small, sent to him at Kinston for the work, will be thankfully received and faithfully appropriated.

Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite.

A Public Reading Room.

One of the best things that New Bern has, though many of the people do not realize it, is the library and reading-room of the Young Men's Christian Association. One of the main characteristics of the Association, as we understand it, is that branch which is called the intellectual, and one of the chief aims of the Association is to attract its members and friends into the rooms by keeping the tables and shelves of the library well filled with interesting, entertaining and wholesome reading matter, and to make the rooms a desirable place for one to spend the leisure hours. The Association affords no amusements which are without the bounds of Christianity, nor offers to its members and visiting friends any literature or reading matter which is unwholesome. The great purpose of the Association is to use all its attributes, the library and reading-room, the gymnasium and the prayer meetings, to attract and interest young men, bring religious influences to bear upon them and make Christians of them.

But we started to write particularly about the reading room. The supply of reading matter has recently been increased and we now have as comfortable a reading room and a library of as interesting and appropriately selected books as any Association in the State has. The Library Committee have recently subscribed to several newspapers, including the Wilmington Messenger, New York Herald, Philadelphia Record and Baltimore Herald, all dailies, which are on file. Puck, Harper's Weekly and Golden Days are also on the tables, besides other leading publications.

This reading room is a public reading room and the public is welcome to its benefits.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

A site for the Presbyterian Synodical Orphanage has been bought at Charlotte for $4,000.

The Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway was opened for business on Monday from Wilmington to Mt. Airy, 243 miles.

Raleigh Progressive Farmer: There have been seven deaths from la grippe reported in North Carolina. Four of these occurred at Oxford.—Twenty-two passenger trains arrive and depart from Greensboro every day.

Raleigh News and Observer: Arrangements are pending between the several male colleges of the State for the holding of an Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest in this city in May. It is almost settled that the contest will take place.

The Davis Times says that one of the largest pairs of shoes that was ever constructed for the use of mortal man is now being built for Reuben Gaither, colored, by Mocksville's shoemaker, Mr. Jas. Poplin. When completed, this enormous structure of leather will measure 13 1/2 inches long and 5 inches in width. They are considered as No. 14. More than four pounds of leather was used in them.

Wilmington Star: Mr. Warren G. Elliott, President of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, arrived here yesterday and made many acquaintances among railroad officials and citizens generally. He will make Wilmington his permanent residence some time next month.—The Chamber of Commerce of Wilmington has decided to hold a gala week in May or June to celebrate the completion of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad to that city.

Winston Daily: North Carolina now has sixty young men's Christian Associations. These are expected to have over 200 delegates at the State Convention to be held at Goldsboro on March 18th next.—In his sermon last night, Rev. Mr. Gattis stated that there were now 240 preachers in the North Carolina M. E. Conference, and that the membership of the denomination (in this State) numbered about 93,000.—A gentleman named Wm. Lane was out hunting with a rifle near Walnut Cove, last week, and on returning home met with another gentleman, when the two stopped and got into conversation. The gentleman with the gun blew his breath in the muzzle of his rifle whereupon the gun went off, the ball passing through his own head killing him instantly.

Wilmington Messenger (Raleigh Correspondence): Hon. Hannis Taylor, of Mobile, Ala., formerly of this State and an alumnus of the University of North Carolina, and the author of a great work, "The Origin and Growth of the English Constitution," has received the degree of LL. D. from the University of Alabama.—There were 3,440 criminal cases tried at the spring terms of the courts in 1889, and of these 51 were for capital crimes. Of the latter 4 were sentenced. It appears like a small proportion, but Attorney General Davidson tells me that in most States, and perhaps countries, two per cent. is the average of such convictions. Here there was eight per cent. The summary of the cases at the fall terms, and the year's total will be given you this week. There will probably be fewer cases than at the spring terms. There are more crimes during the winter months.—This is particularly the case with regard to larceny, the most common offense, and the one which puts nearly two-thirds the criminals in the penitentiary.

CITIZENS ARRESTED BY U. S. MARSHALS.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 17.—This morning, at 4 o'clock, United States Deputy Marshal Corbett, of Macon, and five deputy marshals, appeared at Sharon, Ga., and arrested during the day seven prominent citizens of the town and county, charged with intimidation against E. S. Duckworth, the newly appointed postmaster at Sharon. The marshals were armed with Winchester rifles when they began making arrests, but they met with no resistance, and later in the day Marshal Corbett instructed his deputies to lay aside their guns, having been assured by those under arrest and other citizens, that the arrested parties would accompany them voluntarily wherever ordered.

The entire party arrived in Augusta tonight, and were taken to the Arlington hotel. They will have a hearing tomorrow before United States Commissioner Irvin Alexander. United States District Attorney Marion E. Erwin will be here to prosecute the case. The warrants are based on testimony taken by postoffice inspectors who have been at Sharon for several days investigating the case.

The Chronicle will say in tomorrow's issue: "Citizens of Sharon foolishly showed their indignation against postmaster Duckworth, because of the way in which he received his appointments. While claiming to be a Democrat, he promised if appointed to support the Republican party. On account of his duplicity they burned him in effigy. This was very silly, but the action of the government officials in dragging seventeen citizens from their homes is an outrage on the rights and liberties of the people. The President and Postmaster General should be swift to condemn this exorbitant arbitrary power. It favors of the so-called right of kings rather than of a government of the people, for the people, and by the people. The whole affair looks as if it was gotten up to make a little cheap political capital at Washington."

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 18.—The seven men prisoners from Sharon, brought to Augusta last night, were given a hearing before United States Commissioner Alexander today. They are charged with unlawfully conspiring, combining and agreeing together to prevent by force, intimidation and threats, E. L.

DUCKWORTH, POSTMASTER AT SHARON, FROM DISCHARGING THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE.

The prisoners were bound over in the sum of $600 each to appear at the April term of the United States Court, to be held in August. All gave bond, and left for their homes tonight. Tomorrow United States Attorney Erwin will begin taking testimony in the case before United States Commissioner Alexander.

ALLIANCE MEN!

The executive committee of Craven County Farmers' Alliance will please meet at the Sheriff's office, at the court house, Wednesday evening, at 4 o'clock, Feb. 20th.

W. B. LANE, Chairman.

DIED.

In Kinston, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Lula K. Mewborn. A living example of a true follower of Christ has gone from earth.

Near Pollockville, on the 24th of January, Mrs. Julia Foy, aged 34 years, of consumption. She leaves a bereaved husband and six little children to mourn her loss. She was a faithful Christian and a pious member of the Methodist church; always ready to do that which was good and refrain from that which was evil. On the morning of her death she kissed her little baby good-bye, and folding her hands she went to sleep in the arms of Jesus.

Dearest friend, thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel, It is God who has bereft us, He will all our sorrows heal.

L. E. HOLLAND.
