The effects of the educational campaign on the tariff question in the West have not been confined to the farmers and others who earn their bread by their daily toil, but extend into the circles where party policies are shaped and manipulated.—Wilmington Star.

How small and mean a thing it is for a General Assembly of stalwart men to deny a woman—cultured and well qualified—the legal right to follow, in Virginia, an honorable profession in which she wishes to compete for a living.—Norfolk Landmark.

ABOUT a score of citizens in a Georgia town have been arrested by a United States Marshal and dragged to jail in Augusta for burning in effigy a Republican postmaster. In Indiana the recent burning in effigy of a Republican President was attended by no such consequences.—Philadelphia Record.

FOR less than one year of Republican rule, a great deal certainly has been done. But it is not a record to help that party before the country. Even its staunchest newspaper supporters seem to be unable to say a good word for this record.—Hartford Times.

EXCEPT Indiana and New Jersey, every State is gerrymandered in the interest of the Republican party, and so shameless is the injustice that more Democratic voters at Congressional elections in the North are virtually disfranchised than the gross negro voters between the Potomac and the Rio Grande.—Louisville Times.

THE white members of the New Orleans G. A. R. refuse to associate with their negro fellow members, and the organization is in danger of splitting. Will the Senate stand this outrageous treatment of the negro veterans of New Orleans by white veterans? That depends upon whether the veterans are Republicans or Democrats.—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

There is a great deal of humbug in the pretended worship of fine art. At a recent sale in France a picture was knocked down at $40. Some days afterwards the purchaser discovered on the back of the picture the signature of Bismarck and the date 1870, and when this fact became known he was offered $15,000 for the picture. It is said that he expects to get $30,000 for it from some rich citizen of the United States who affects a love of art.—Boston Herald.

Every part of the body, every bone, muscle and organ, is made stronger and more healthful by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Besides the military parade today, among the out door amusements on the grounds will be pony races, barrel races, racing for a pig, climbing the greased pole and sending up balloons.

The hucksters ran up the price of eggs a little yesterday, paying 12 cents wholesale. Shippers cannot pay but 10 cents, this fluctuation in the market being local, caused by the increased demand during Fair week.

The pony racing takes place this evening at 8 o'clock. It will be an exciting and interesting feature. All the young jockeys will be arrayed in bright colors and will no doubt do their best to get the $3.00 prize.

The special train from Goldsboro will arrive every day at 10.45. Returning will leave New Berne at 6.30 p. m. The regular mail train leaves New Berne every morning for Goldsboro at 8.30; returning, arrives at New Berne at 6 p. m.

THE THIRD EXHIBITION

Of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association.

SURPASSES ANY HERETOFORE GIVEN.

The Opening on Monday Informal—Will be Formally Opened This Morning by Gov. Fowle.

On yesterday there was only an informal opening and while the attendance was good; the work of preparation for the grand display went bravely and briskly on. Every department was a scene of intense activity. Everything from the heaviest machinery to the finest fabrics of ladies' work were being carefully arranged by exhibitors. The Fish, Oyster and Game departments were assuming attractive appearances and live stock from pigs to opossums were marshalling for the coming gaze of the curious multitude. Farm products were temptingly placed and the indigenuous collar was arrayed in all its glory. Implement men, hardware men, and paint men were all busy in placing their displays in order. How well they succeeded every visitor will be able to testify after they have seen them. The display this morning will be far in advance of any of the excellent ones that have gone before it.

Today at 10:30 o'clock the Exhibition will be formally opened by His Excellency Gov. Fowle, who will deliver one of his happiest addresses. Ex-Gov. Jarvis and other distinguished visitors will be present. Fine music will be rendered by the N. S. F. E. Co.'s band, and a military parade and competitive drill will take place.

The list of exhibitors will be larger than ever before, but it is our purpose to give each and all a fair notice in the columns of the JOURNAL. This cannot be done in one issue of the paper but will be continued from day to day during the week until all are included if possible.

It is really exhilarating to see the intense interest manifested in the Fair by the New Berne people. If the people of a community ever were united in their purpose to do a thing, the people of this section of North Carolina are united in their determination to make this Fair a grand success. The weather yesterday was fine and every New Berne heart was cheerful. If the weather is favorable throughout this week, success is assured.

The New Berne Steam Fire Engine Company Brass Band is in fine trim. The music yesterday was excellent. We are proud of the "boys."

The train from Morehead City yesterday morning brought in quite a number of visitors, as did also the train at 11 o'clock from Goldsboro. On the mail last night Governor Fowle, accompanied by the Guard arrived.

Three buildings have been erected on the ground since last Fair—the one for the fish and oyster exhibit, the theatre and the one for the "fat baby."

Shipping News.

The steamer Annie of the E. O. D. line sailed yesterday with cargo of general exports. The Eglet of this line will sail tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The steamer, Newberne of the O. D. line will leave this morning at 9 o'clock for Norfolk. The Manteo of the same line will arrive today from Norfolk and make a trip to Washington for visitors to the Fair.

"Peg Leg" Williams Arrested.

"Peg Leg" Williams was arrested yesterday by the Sheriff of Wake county upon a warrant issued from this county by Justice W. G. Brinson, charging him with abduction. His counsel in Raleigh wanted to give bond in Raleigh for Williams' appearance at the next Superior court for Craven county, waving the usual examination. Justice Brinson being advised that there was no authority or law for such a course, ordered Williams brought here. He will be down on tomorrow night's train. L. J. Moore, Esq., of this city appears for the prosecution.

Fire Department.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a parade of the New Berne Fire Department Friday evening, 23rd inst., at 8 o'clock, sharp.

By order of E. M. PAVIE, Chief Engineer.

H. GEROCK, Sec'y. Feb. 24th, '90.

The Standard.

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as having passed above the grade of what are commonly called patent or proprietary medicines," said a well known physician recently. "It is fully entitled to be considered a standard medicine, and has won the position by its undoubted merit and by the many remarkable cures it has effected. For an alternative and tonic it has never been equalled."

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Reports of the Executive and Library Committees.

At the last business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of New Berne it was requested that the reports of the Executive and Library committees be published in the Daily JOURNAL. The reports show that the Association is not on as good a financial basis as it should be, but the spirit of determination evidenced by the members guarantees it from any overthrow. Since the establishment of this institution in New Berne four years ago, it has labored earnestly in keeping up a pleasant and attractive place for the assembling of our young men, and the results obtained are amply sufficient to demand its being sustained. We are not authorized to make any complaint, but we know that this organization is neglected too much by the business men of New Berne. We hope they may find time to read the reports which are as follows:

Y. M. C. A., New Berne, N. C.

Gentlemen—Another month has rolled around and still we are not satisfied with the condition of the Association; that is, in every respect. As far as our attendance at the devotional meetings is concerned we have much cause to be gratified. The committees are still watchful of their trusts and express a willingness to do all they can to advance the cause of the Association, but this alone fails to alleviate the great drawback that has for so long a time been staring us in the face—more permanent means of meeting our financial obligations. The most progressive move we have to record for the past month is the work of the Library committee. They succeeded in raising among members of the Association somewhere near $25, which was invested in bright and suitable literature. Its effect is already telling.

Your committee has examined into the advisability of securing Stanly Hall. It will cost $200 per year rent. To fit it up suitably for moving into would require at the least estimate $50, and to fix it as it should be, or as we would want it, double that amount.

We have seen some of the leaders of the various prayer meetings about town but could not adjust matters any better than they now stand, as far as the conflict of meetings is concerned.

We recommend that some means of raising funds for the Association be instituted tonight. To meet our necessary expenses require it.

We regret that we have been unable to secure any one to take charge of the Missionary committee, a branch we hold of great importance.

We have seen Mr. Berry about getting signs from him and having them painted elsewhere. His plea was that he had been a victim of the "grip" for the last two weeks and could not do the work as he had promised, but would now guarantee to have all of them done by the Fair.

Respectfully submitted, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. February 12, 1890.

To the Officers and Members of the Young Men's Christian Association:

Your library committee beg leave to report as follows for the month ending February 12, 1890:

The chairman of the committee was appointed at the last business meeting of the Association to raise money for the purpose of subscribing to papers, magazines, etc., for the reading room. Three days of active work with feet, hands and tongue, resulted in a little less than $35.00 being raised for the purpose above named. The money was at once invested. The following publications were added to our tables: The Atlanta Weekly Constitution, The Detroit Free Press, The Wilmington Daily Messenger, The New York Daily Herald, Harper's Illustrated Weekly, Sporting Life (a weekly paper published at Philadelphia, giving the baseball and football news), Puck (weekly), Demorest's Magazine, The Golden Days (weekly) and the Scientific American (weekly). We have also received a handsome volume donated by Mr. Asa Jones, the "Life and Public Services of Grover Cleveland."

The committee is gratified to see a greatly increased attendance of the boys and young men at the reading room. The attendance during the past week will average at least twelve each night, which is perhaps three times the average attendance before the new reading matter was placed in the room.

Respectfully submitted, THE COMMITTEE. February 12, 1890.

MARRIED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—John Jacob Astor, leader of the great family of that name, and grandson of John Jacob Astor, the founder of that family in America, died this morning at 6 o'clock at the family mansion at the northwest corner of Fifth avenue and Thirty-third street. When he returned in December last from a trip abroad, he had an attack of grip, which, however, was not severe, but it is thought hastened his death.

CHICAGO, February 23.—Morning papers say the Union Stock Yard of Chicago, the largest in the world, will doubtless soon be sold to an English syndicate. The price of this enormous plant, with its acres of lands, miles of live stock pens, and numerous sources of revenue, is $30,000,000, and a number of rich Englishmen are ready to exchange that sum of money for a controlling interest in it.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The Times this morning publishes an interview held with Mr. Thomas C. Platt on the subject of the World's Fair. Among other things, Mr. Platt said that he does not think the Fair will be held in 1893. Two years, he says, are not sufficient to make the necessary preparations. In all probability an amendment will be added to the bill now before Congress, changing the date to 1895.

PARIS, February 22.—A cabinet meeting was held this morning at which it was decided to set aside the sentence of two years' imprisonment imposed on the Duke of Orleans, and to have him escorted to the frontier today. The route by which the Duke is to be sent out of the country is unknown.
