HEAVY snow storms prevailed in the Northwest last Wednesday.

THE report comes over the sea that the ex Emperor of Brazil is now willing to abdicate. Considerate and generous!

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, son of Robert Lincoln the U. S. Minister to England, is said to be dying in London.

THE cry now from Washington is that there is no surplus now in sight. The Reds could easily gobble up the earth. A great treasury has no sort of showing.

THE little Duke of Orleans has been removed to the prison of Clairvaux, where he will spin flax. He will find this a more useful occupation than weaving plots.

WHEN the Republicans set some fresh rascality on foot, they first give it a high sounding name, to conceal its real character and deceive the unthinking.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

AS for New York, we sympathize with her in her disappointment, but if it lead her to a correct measurement of what it costs to be bossed by a Platt, the political lesson will be worth all that she had to pay for it.—Boston Herald.

THE talk of appealing to the Senate to reverse the action of the House in the World's Fair matter is nonsense. The people have spoken through their representatives and their preference seems unshakable. But Chicago must face the music.—New York World.

THE indignation of the Republicans is merely a pretense, but if it were genuine it ought to prove no obstacle to the Ohio Democrats. We have observed that the Republicans are maddest when some of their swindles are undone. Now is the time for the Democrats of Ohio to begin and complete the work of reform.—Atlanta Constitution.

It would be a very good thing for our country if the standard of Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Jackson or Lincoln were adopted as a rule of action, greatly as these great men differed. Any one of them is better than the standard of Harrison, of Quay, of Dudley of Wauwaukegan or of Reed.—Detroit Free Press.

THE diversion of the World's Fair from New York means the loss of $250,000,000 to our business men and workmen. The men who have inflicted this blow for purely partisan purposes will not be forgotten. Says Channery N. Dyer: "The Republican Congressmen are responsible for the defeat of New York." True.—New York World.

You may levy a tax of 50 or 75 per cent upon all American farm products, and you will never benefit the farmers. But if you can only teach the farmers the simplest, most elementary lessons in economic science and get them to unite in putting down the great tax levied for the sole benefit of manufacturers, and have the tax very greatly reduced upon all farm implements, iron, steel, hardware, clothing, &c., they will then find very great relief, and soon be on the high road to prosperity and plenty once more.—Wilmington Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. C. DAVIS—Wrecked schooner for sale.

March 1
The Fair closes today. It has been a successful one.

There was another good attendance at the Fair yesterday and the weather was pleasant.

The steamer Vanceboro was sold yesterday at auction for $1,805, Mr. H. C. Stevenson being the purchaser.

The largest shipment of fish that has been made from this market for years went west over the A. & N. C. railroad yesterday.

In some of the departments complaints have been made about exhibits being handled and in a few instances misapplied.

Some bold thief stole a velocipede from Mr. B. B. Davenport the other night. The velocipede was on the back piazza of his house and the gate was fastened, but the fellow got there just the same.

The firemen made a fine show yesterday. The procession marched in and circumferenced the Fair grounds. The procession was headed by the N. S. F. E. band, followed by the New Berne company and their hose carriage and engine, and the Atlantic company and their hose carriage and engine. The engines were handsomely decorated with flowers. Some said the Atlantic took the cake and some said the same of the New Berne.

There was a large attendance at the Fair last night. Several balloons were sent up, the band furnished lively music, the visitors were merry and the evening was very pleasantly spent, it seemed, by everybody. There was a foot race by two young men, Messrs. Manning and Timberlake, which resulted in a tie. After this a rabbit was loosed and all who wished to exercise themselves joined in the chase, and the rabbit was soon caught. A fox was also loosed and in a hard run by both fox and boys the boys came out ahead.

Personal.

Prof. G. T. Adams returned last night from Wilmington, where he attended the State Sunday-school Convention.

Dr. B. Dixon, superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, is in the city.

Capt. E. L. Keeler and family are in the city.

Church Notices.

Hancock Street Methodist Church—Sunday, March 3. Services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m., conducted by the pastor. Prayer meeting at 9.15 a.m., S. W. Curtis, leader. Sunday-school at 3 p.m., W. R. Barrington, supt. Class meeting at 4 p.m. The public are invited to these services and will receive a cordial welcome.

Shipping News.

The steamer Defiance, of the Clyde line, arrived from Baltimore last night with a cargo of general merchandise.

The steamer Anne of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday with a full cargo of general exports. The Eaglet will arrive today.

The Tahoma will sail this morning at 7 o'clock for Smiths and Adams creeks and Swan Quarter.

Baseball Yesterday.

The game of baseball between the Wilson Club and the New Berne nine on the Fair ground yesterday was a close one, interesting and exciting. The Wilson team seemed to be in good trim and the New Berne boys gave them the "best in the shop." The score was five to four, in favor of the visiting club. A large crowd witnessed the game and enjoyed it.

The members of both clubs were very courteous to each other, and there were no disputes, no "ousin" of the umpire and no dissatisfaction with the result. While we would have had our boys to win, still we congratulate them (and the Wilson boys, too), for there was some excellent playing ball yesterday.

Hunter, the Huntsman.

Our Fair is indebted to Mr. Wm. Hunter, of Goldsboro, for the interest he showed by bringing down his pack of hounds and hunting horses. Besides Mr. Hunter, the club consisted of Messrs. T. F. Hargis, Hugh Dortch, Arthur Plaisted, R. E. Pipkin and Don Soott.

On Wednesday one brush taken, Mr. Hunter being the victor. Tue Tuesday's chase was a thrilling and exciting one. Three trails were started and after scouring the country for about half a day two foxes were caught about nine miles from the city. At the chase Thursday night on the grounds by moonlight the brush was taken by Mr. Arthur Plaisted, of Boston, leading Mr. Hunter half a length.

The Oyster Question Again.

Mr. Wm. Ellis has shown us a letter, which reads as follows:

"COINJOCK, N. C., Feb. 23, 1890.
"Mr. Frederick Hussey, of New York, who has been cruising through our sounds on the naphtha launch Madcap, says:

"That on or about the 16th day of February, 1890, he was at the Big Kinikeet, Dare county, N. C.; a fleet of 18 or 20 oystering boats was there, all seemingly inactive. Many of the masters of the vessels were ashore at the hotel, and, in conversation, all, or nearly all of them, offered suggestions as to the best means of eluding the oyster law. Some said they could go through Currituck sound and escape; others said the best way would be to load oysters in the hold and carry lumber or shingles on deck. All of them seemed intent upon violating the law and escaping the penalty. They were all advised to attempt no such course.

"Signed, 'FREDERICK HUSSEY.'"

These fellows must be very persistent. It seems to us that the lessons recently taught some of them would have a powerful effect. They will sooner or later learn that North Carolina laws are to be respected and obeyed.

Representative Men.

The Fair is near its close and yet there are representatives of the press and gentlemen of distinction who have just come in to witness the close of the magnificent Exposition.

C. W. Jacobs, of the Washington Progress, was on the grounds yesterday for the first time. Perhaps he heard what a time we were having and as his paper is name Progress he could stay away no longer. The good book says "the first shall be last and the last shall be first." We never could understand, but as we are "in the faith," brother Jacobs give us your hand!

Never was a paper more appropriately named than the Washington Progress. It pushes along and keeps moving in the right direction.

Judge Boykin ought to have come sooner. He held court here not long ago, and the attentions he received and the good his presence did our people ought to have induced him to put in an appearance the first day of the term. But we forgive him. He is from Clinton, where the great Sampson county Fair was held last fall, but all North Carolina is proud to claim him as her own.

Mr. W. A. Campbell and Mr. E. W. Lyon, of the Nashville Argonaut, arrived on yesterday. The Argonaut is the only paper that has two representatives on the grounds. Other papers did well, but the Argonaut took the cake when she sent both a Campbell and a Lyon to our Fish and Game Fair. The Argonaut is a real live paper and distinctively East Carolinian. It is entitled to the leadership it is so rapidly gaining.

The Gamblers.

Mayor Williams was engaged yesterday during a considerable part of the day examining into the case of the men arrested for gambling the other night. Daniel Kelly and Henry Raymond were required to give a $300 justified bond for their appearance at the Superior Court; Charles Adams and John Fraley were required to give a $200 justified bond for their appearance at Mayor's Court today; Richard Harris alias Dick Oxford, $500 justified bond for his appearance at Superior Court. Joseph Bowers, Charles Coleman and E. A. Arndt were acquitted. J. E. Justice is to have a hearing today. When last heard the "fakes" had not bonded.

A CERTAIN progress has not produced a remedy equal to Ely's Cream Balm for catarrh, cold in the head and hay fever. It is not a liquid or a snuff, but is perfectly safe and easily applied into the nostrils. It gives immediate relief and cures the worst cases.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood purifying and appetite restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unattractive condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

THE THIRD EXHIBITION

Of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

FIFTH DAY.

THE POULTRY DEPARTMENT.

Entering this department we landed where our pilgrim fathers did, at Plymouth Rock. They found but one, but we discovered a trio of as fine a specimen of Plymouth Rock chickens as we have seen. Also another trio of Partridge Cochins, Langhange, Brown Leghorns, Wyandotts, White Manorkas, and Brahmans. Also a quartette of Houdans and a family of Bantoms, ten of whom have arrived in the world since the beginning of the present Exposition. Then a splendid coop of Muscovy ducks, Puddle ducks, Pekin ducks, each claim attention and admiration. And a combination of the useful and ornamental in a coop of pea fowls, and genuine tame wild geese greet you, together with some very fine native cross, Game Bantam chickens and a huge turkey gobbler weighing 35 pounds, all the exhibit of our townsman Ralph Gray.

Mr. W. H. Bray has on exhibition three coops each of elegant Plymouth Rocks, Buff Cochins and Toulouse geese, Imperial Pekin ducks and as fine a specimen of bronze turkeys as a Christmas dinner could demand. He has also some eggs that are attractive in appearance and huge in size.

Messrs. Wood Bros., of River View, show some fine specimens of fowls. They have four coops of beautiful Buff Cochins, one each of Pekin Bantoms and White Leghorns.

Mr. John W. Smallwood shows a fine exhibit of Cochins, Game, native Houdan, Bantam, Langhang, Plymouth Rock, native Frizzly, half Bantam, white and native turkeys. Also some Guinea fowls, Muscovy, Puddle and Pekin ducks.

Mr. J. L. Rhem exhibits a fine lot of ducks and turkeys. And Mrs. Willet a pair of large white turkeys, and also a brood of young ones of the same species.

Besides the above, there was a number of exhibits but we could not obtain the names of exhibitors. They were of the same varieties of those already named, except some Black Game, Dusty Miller, Brahmans and Frizzle chickens.

CATTLE.

Among the horned cattle there was some magnificent specimens. Messrs. Hackburn & Willet had two bulls, full blood Holsteins; three heifers of the same stock, which give as high as five gallons of milk per day, and ten graded stock of Holstein, Jersey and Aysaire of extraordinary milking qualities. They have a pen of nine beautiful calves; of these three are full blood Holstein and six of other fine breed. They have ten fine native calves. They have a fine yoke of oxen which will tip the beam at figures very near to two tons.

Hogs—Of hogs they showed a pen of fine Poland China pigs seven months old which looked at least two years in size. A fine brood sow and a pen of six fat hogs now ready for the butcher's use. There were some other hogs that we could not learn of the owner, but no doubt the judges when they went around found them.

Mr. J. L. Rhem exhibited some elegant milch cows, and a calf a year old, which was extremely large for its age. Here again the awarding committee was ahead of us and no doubt duly considered the merits of each and every exhibit.

A COLLECTION OF BIRDS

In the fish, oyster and game department there is a large and very interesting collection of birds, domestic and foreign, exhibited by Mr. A. Dughl, bird fancier, of Raleigh. There are seen about a hundred different kinds. Mr. Dughl says that he has endeavored to get birds to represent every country, and he has succeeded in a great measure. We give the names of some that are rarely seen in this country: There are African finches, Australian and African parakeets, lizard canary, white Java sparrows, which we think the most beautiful little bird we ever saw, African doves, ring doves, English magpie, African love bird, bird of Paradise (very pretty), cuckoo, which is an African bird and a curious one, South American tropical, African rose breast parrots, Australian king love parrot, (a remarkable bird), gray Java sparrows, European thrushes, Italian blackbird, European jay bird, English linnet, bull finch, African white head, German gold finch, African black cap, English cross bill, English chat finch, English sky lark, African chestnut finches, which are very small and beautiful, and many others, including a great variety of canaries, which are also very interesting. The school children who have read of these birds have now opportunity to see them. There are also prairie dogs, two "handsome" monkeys, and guinea pigs. This is one of the most interesting exhibits of the Fair and one may spend profitably a half hour studying these birds.

STOCK DEPARTMENT.

Of fine horses there was a fine display of fine stallions. Messrs. Hackburn & Willet exhibited one, also Mr. Joel Kinsey of Fort Barnwell; Wm. Hunter of Goldsboro and Dr. Linster Duffy of this city. Capt. Bell of Wilmington had a beautiful two year old colt, and a fine animal was exhibited by Mr. L. E. Pridden of Greene county. As saddle horses there were several entries; among them Mr. John Messie had a fine one, also Mr. John W. Stewart, Mr. Plaisted and Mr. Hugh Dortch, and Mr. Wm. Hunter of Goldsboro. A saddle mare by Major Williams. The colts included a number of fine animals; E. M. Pavie's, Chas. S. Bryan's and some with the mothers. A jack and Jennie by Willet & Hackburn; a juck by Jas. A. Bryan. Mules were also exhibited by J. L. Hahn, J. W. Stewart and others whose names we could not obtain. Mr. Samuel Ipoock had a fine horse also on exhibition. We were listing these exhibits just when the judges were examining the stock for the prizes, hence we had to content ourselves with limited information.

TAXIDERMY.

Part of the space in the fish, oyster and game building is occupied by Clarke & Morgan, taxidermists. They have an interesting display of their work. The birds and animals appear almost as natural as life. The exhibit is artistically and beautifully arranged, and there is nothing on the ground that will be more interesting to those who admire and appreciate the art of taxidermy. We will not attempt to describe any particular piece of work, but suffice it to say that the exhibit is by the well known firm of Clarke & Morgan, and fully sustains their reputation. There are a half dozen or more different kinds of wild duck, cormorant, or Bogue sound layers; eagle, gannet gull, brant, three kinds of owl, North Carolina and Florida rail, oyster birds, red birds, red-winged black birds, warblers, downy woodpecker, four kinds of hawk, five kinds of heron, and collection of thirty quail. Of fish, there are tarpan, cero, gar and porgie. Of animals there are mink, fox, a deer's head, a deer's horns, and hair seal. All of these animals were killed in Eastern North Carolina and mounted
