THE News and Observer say: We are authorized to state that Senator Ransom never at any time in his life owned such a thing as a lottery ticket.

For systematic working of the Government authority in aid of private schemes, the Administration of Benjamin Harrison has no parallel in American history.—Boston Globe.

If it were only stealing Congressional seats, the Republican party would not be so bad. The stealing of Congressional seats, however, is only preliminary to plundering the Treasury.—Louisville Courier Journal.

DEMOCRATIC gains at local elections in strong Republican counties of this State are the first straws that show the approach of the anti-Republican cyclone which will sweep over the country next November.—New York Star.

THE News and Observer came out last Tuesday in a new dress, and looks ever so nice. The paper is just entering the twentieth year of its publication. May it long live the defender of the people's liberties and the fearless champion of Democracy.

VICE PRESIDENT MOETON arrived in Charleston on Sunday on his route to Florida, and was most cordially received by the citizens and authorities; many attentions were shown him, and he expressed himself as greatly gratified at the warmth of his welcome in spite of the weather.—Wilmington Star.

An important case was decided in the Supreme Court yesterday, in which from ten to twelve millions of dollars are said to be involved—that of a suit brought by a citizen of Louisiana against the State; the Supreme Court sustains the decision of the Circuit Court, to the effect that a State cannot be sued by one of its own citizens.—Wilmington Star.

In the case of Pendleton, of West Virginia, unseated by a vote of less than a quorum of the House, the Democrats have a very clear case to take before the Supreme Court on the question whether Speaker Reed has a right to count a quorum. There is no dispute about the fact, so that the only question to be considered is one of constitutional law and the practice under it.—Philadelphia Ledger.

There is not much probability that there will be any surplus in the next fiscal year. If the Republican programme with respect to pensions is carried out there will be a deficit. In a speech last week on the World's Fair bill, Representative Peters, of Kansas, Republican member of the Committee on Appropriations presented some figures that ought to prevent any further increase in the pension bureau.—Baltimore News.

A solid half-ton of public sentiment, bound in gray cloth and red leather, was perused through the streets yesterday. It represented 50,000 New Yorkers and 20,000 Brooklynites demanding ballot reform, and it will go to the legislature at Albany, the biggest petition, by a large and overwhelming majority, ever offered to that or any other legislative body.

THERE are a great many competent negroes in Pennsylvania, Mr. Wanamaker's State, and good Republicans, too. Why don't he try his hand on making some of them Postmasters? It will be all right with the white people of Pennsylvania. The Republican element in that State have been almost dying for some time to set Southern people an example.—Nashville American.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. E. SLOVER—Suckwheat.
PROF ROGERS—Exhibition.
J. M. HOWARD—New spring suits, etc.

We had hoped to publish a part of the premium list of the Fair this morning, but it was not received in time. It will be published in Saturday and Sunday morning's papers.

Sheriff Lane has received a warrant from the Governor directing that Jesse Brown, colored, who was convicted of murder at the fall term of Superior Court, 1889, be hanged on the fourth of April next.

There are at present twenty two inmates of the poor house in this county, and there are forty-four paupers outside who receive quarterly allowances of money from the county. The cost for support of the poor averages about $250 a month.

Mr. E. T. Lynch, of the Electric Light Company, was in the city yesterday on business for the Company. He returns to New York today. Superintendent Angell is pushing the work as rapidly as possible. The wires and fixtures for the incandescent lights are being placed and the lights will be turned on in a few days.

Prof. Rogers, who gave performances on the Fair grounds during the Fair, will again give exhibitions at the grounds next Friday and Saturday nights at 8 o'clock. Also Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for ladies and children. It has been generally pronounced a very good Punch and Judy exhibition. Tickets will be on sale at Bell's jewelry store.

It was a busy scene at the oyster cannery establishment yesterday. The dock was full of boats loaded with oysters, and a large number of "shuckers" and other operatives were very busy. The shucking house is to be enlarged considerably. Mr. E. M. Pavie, contractor, was having the foundation laid yesterday. The steamer Stout was at the wharf with a new boiler for the factory, which is to be used for steaming oysters.

We are in receipt of a letter from the proprietor of a spoke and handle factory in Indiana stating that he was going to move to North Carolina. From the large number of specimens of woods on exhibition at our Fair it is evident that there are few locations more suitable for the manufacture of wood implements than New Berne. We respectfully call the attention of the Board of Trade to the matter. Business men, here is an opportunity.

Morehead City is about to get on a boom. It is stated that a $300,000 saw mill plant will be put up there soon. Mr. John Armstrong, of Pennsylvania, who represents the company who are to build the mill, passed down to Morehead City last night. The site has been purchased, near the depot. The company have enough timber already secured. It is said, to supply them for twenty years. The location is at an excellent point for shipping. A $300,000 saw mill will give Morehead an air of industry and business.

Shipping News.
The steamer Annie, of the E. C. D. line, sailed yesterday with a cargo of general exports, among which were several hundred packages of truck. The Eagle, of this line, will arrive today.
The steamer Taboma arrived last night and sailed later with C. Oliver Isbelle of New York to join his yacht at Ocracoke.
The schooner President Johnson, Capt. Corbin, arrived from Baltimore, with a cargo of hainit, consigned to G. W. Suggs, of Snow Hill. The cargo will be taken to Snow Hill by the steamer Carolina.
The steamer Stout, of the Clyde line, sailed last night for Baltimore with a cargo of general freight.

Personal.
Mr. D. S. Carraway left yesterday for Knoxville, Tennessee.
Mrs. J. V. Jordan and Miss Mary Bryan left for Oxford yesterday, on a short visit.
Mr. E. K. Bryan, jr., who has been visiting relatives and friends in the city, returned to Charlotte yesterday.

From Kinston.
Our correspondent at Kinston sends by last night's mail the following items: Eight white families and three or four boys, forty-six people in all, left here today for Waco, Texas.
The peas in this section are all killed. Invitations are out for another dance at the opera house Thursday night.

About thirty negro men left this county today for Georgia, to work in the turpentine business.

Seven Springs.
The sale of the Seven Springs property was announced sometime since in the JOURNAL. The Goldsboro Argus of yesterday says: "The Seven Springs property, the waters of which are perhaps the finest for medical purposes in the world, has been purchased by Mr. Jas. A. Bryan, of New Berne. The deed was recorded in the Register's office here this week, and Mr. Bryan tells us that he is going to put the splendid springs squarely before the public and work them for all they are worth. It will be a red letter day for the suffering public when they take on to the Seven Springs."

Notice, Alliance Men.
To the Farmers' Alliance of Eastern North Carolina:

We call the attention of our neighbor counties to a proposition to meet annually in the city of New Berne on Wednesday during the Fair of the East Carolina Fish, Game, Oyster and Industrial Association. Let the sub or county Alliances be represented by a full delegation, and we feel sure of being able to have in attendance some of our most talented speakers. An organization of this kind with personal representatives from all adjoining counties would not only be very enjoyable but result in incalculable benefit to the farmers of East Carolina.

The interchange of opinions and the eloquence of our speakers would renew the enthusiasm of our great order and enable it to press forward with more earnestness to the accomplishment of its noble purposes.
Besides the benefit to be derived from such an annual gathering of our progressive farmers we can be most pleasantly entertained at the Fair by seeing the wonderful production of our own section and meeting pleasant people from several States.

The clever and hospitable citizens of New Berne will make you thrice welcome to their historic old town, and will promise to any bachelor or widower delegate that he shall see something fairer than the Fair.
I hereby call a convention of the Alliance men of Eastern North Carolina whose interests are the same, to meet on Wednesday of Fair week, 1891, at which meeting we will establish a permanent organization.
W. B. LANE,
Chairman Ex. Com.
Craven County Alliance.

Important Supreme Court Decision.
RALEIGH, N. C., March 3.—The Supreme Court, this evening, decided a most important case—that of Redmond versus the town of Tarboro. The point involved was whether or not that section of the Constitution, which provides that all taxes levied by any county, city, town or township, shall be uniform and ad valorem upon all property in the same, except property exempted by the Constitution, including moneys, credits, investments, etc., or whether it applies only to particular subjects, which may be selected by the Legislature for taxation. The Court holds that it includes all solvent credits, investments, money, etc. This overrules the case of Pullen versus Raleigh, rendered some years ago.

Florida Freeze.
JACKSONVILLE, March 4.—The weather has been steadily moderating since morning. Reports from all parts of Florida indicate that the cold weather of Sunday and Monday did considerable damage.
The Times-Union this morning publishes reports from about twenty-five points in the State. The mercury was lowest at Gainesville—29° above zero. Very little damage was done to orange trees or blossoms. The long continued drought having left the tender shrubs and branches almost entirely free from sap, so there was no moisture to freeze. The peach and fig trees have been injured generally, and there will be short crops.
The greatest damage was to truck gardens, which in some localities were destroyed entirely. In many instances, however, new seed will be planted and good crops grown.
Thin ice formed in Tampa and there was slight snow at Fernandina.
On the whole, however, the situation is not discouraging.

The Best Results.
Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view of obtaining the best results. Why don't you try it?

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.
Raleigh News and Observer: Near Asbury, a day or two ago, a little boy named William Broughton averted an accident by flinging down the morning train which was speeding on its way to Keyville. The little fellow had discovered a broken rail and by his presence of mind saved the train and passengers.—We hear sad news from some of our Halifax county friends. It is said that in some sections of that county every negro has completely "ramosed" and there is not even a cook left. The condition of some of the farmers is also said to be deplorable, and it is reported that they are offering a pound of cotton for a pound of meat to anybody who will supply them with rations at once.

Fayetteville Observer: We have heard of "the old woman who lived in a shoe, and had so many children she didn't know what to do," but if we have been correctly informed, there is little doubt that Mr. David Cambie, of Stanly county, is the father of more children than any other living man in North Carolina. He has only been married once, and to the union thirty-two children have been born. Fourteen boys and eleven girls are now living, and five boys and two girls being dead. Mr. Cambie is eighty years old. His wife is also living.—It is gratifying to know that the bucket factory has won, from its inception, the success which it merited. Four acres of land have been purchased of Mr. Charles B. McMillan, in the southern suburbs, and new buildings will soon be erected, with additional machinery. This has necessitated an increase of capital, and Messrs. G. W. Williams, Worth & Worth, and perhaps other Wilmington capitalists, have become large stockholders.

Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messenger: A small party of negro exodusers left Saturday night from this county. They were taken away by a planter. It is learned that next autumn, probably in November, numbers of planters as well as agents will come into the State after labor. It is probable that the exodus then will be much larger than it has been the past season. It is hoped that 100,000 negroes can be taken away by the spring of 1891. The Atlanta Constitution of last Saturday has a picture of Peg-leg Williams, who has done this State such a service. He is a Mississippian, was a gallant soldier in Forest's cavalry, and lost a leg in battle. He lives in Atlanta, and is well known and liked there. He is a railroad man, and is known as a "hustler." The Constitution says he was in jail at Charlotte. It is untrue. He was arrested here, but was merely in the custody of a deputy sheriff. He gave bail for his appearance at Edgecombe court.

The Teller of a Louisville Bank Demands With a Large Amount of Funds.
LOUISVILLE, March 4.—William H. Pope, teller of the Louisville City Bank, a trusted employe, a man of seeming good habits, and a frequenter of the best social circles of this city, is gone. His absence at the bank yesterday at first excited no suspicion, as it was supposed he was at his sick sister's bedside, or in the country detained by the flood. When no word was received at 1:30 o'clock the President, James F. Spirited, vice-President James F. Lerock, and Cashier W. S. Parker became suspicious. They opened the vault and a hasty examination showed that somewhere between $40,000 and $50,000 was missing, all in large bills. The bulk of gold and silver coin and small bills were left intact. It will require an examination to state the entire amount that Pope took with him. At first his friends would not believe that Pope had gone wrong. The search by the Bank officials soon left no doubt about the matter, and his friends began to search for him, thinking possibly he was still in the city. He could not be found, and soon the reporters discovered the bank robbery. As usual they furnished the detectives with the first clue, and learned that Pope had left on the 7:55 o'clock train Saturday night for Cincinnati, where it is thought he took a train for Detroit and is now safe in Canada.

Western Floods—The Ohio River Fifty Miles Wide at Cairo.
CAIRO, ILL., March 4.—The Ohio river is now over fifty miles wide at this point. It extends from Cairo levees, which holds it banked up forty feet above the low water mark in Kentucky, till it strikes the hills there, forming one solid sheet of water except for narrow strips of rock bound earth upon which the Mobile and Ohio and Illinois Central railroads run south. A mile below here it joins the Mississippi, which in turn extends into Missouri another fifty miles, making the combined width of the two rivers over one hundred miles. The current is terrific, and brings great quantities of heavy drift, making navigation perilous. The ferry-boat "Three States" made two trips to East Cairo yesterday, and one up the Mississippi to Missouri, rescuing people camped out on ground which they supposed was beyond the reach of the flood, but which was being rapidly submerged.

At Paducah, Ky., fifty miles up the Ohio, there is much uneasiness. The city is not protected by levees, as Cairo is, and in 1832 it was flooded to a depth of six feet.

Already the water has reached within a few feet of the Richmond House, which stands on the river front, and two great tobacco warehouses are flooded. Ten thousand bushels of tobacco stored in them were removed last week.
For bracing up the nerves, purifying the blood and curing hot headaches and dyspepsia, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sudden Death of Mr. T. W. Poole.
Mr. Theo. W. Poole, State Agent for the Eastern Carolina lands belonging to the public school fund, arrived in this city yesterday on business, in apparent good health. This evening his family at Williamston received by telegraph the sad and crushing news of his sudden death here. He was stopping at the Yarboro, and about 2 o'clock today while sitting in the office he became suddenly and violently ill. Friends carried him to his room, and almost immediately after he was carried to bed. Heart failure was the cause of death. Mr. Poole was 48 years of age, and was a very prominent citizen of Eastern Carolina. His family and friends at home have been notified of his sudden and totally unexpected death, and friends here are awaiting advices.—Raleigh Call.

FLOUR-CORN.
I have a small lot of this REMARKABLE CORN for sale at W. R. BARRINGTON'S in New Berne, and also at W. H. SAWYER'S in Bayboro. It makes as good and as palatable flour as ordinary wheat, and will on rich land make a larger yield than common corn, as it succors abundantly and they bear well. One grain to the hill. It yields more fodder than the common corn. If it doesn't do what is said of it, the purchase money will be refunded, if put on good land. It will be on exhibition at the New Berne Fair.
