Bogers' Exhibition.

The Rogers exhibition presented yesterday evening was a very clever entertainment, especially was it pleasing to the little children who were present in goodly numbers. The Punch and Judy was as good as we have ever seen, and the shadowgraphs were also delightful. During the entire program nothing transpired to offend the most fastidious. The room is tastefully fitted up and well arranged. The musical next week.

At night it was repeated with considerable change of program. The music, under the leadership of Prof. F. E. Morton, was very good, considering the short practice.
