RHODE Island has joined the Democratic column. "Here we go galloping." —

The debate in the Senate on the Montana Senatorship has ended and the Republican claimants, Powers and Sanders, have been seated.

The People's Battle Cry for 1890: Tariff Tax Reform; Protection; Protection to Masses, not Classes; Honest, Free Voting; Honest Count; Public Office a Public Trust. — Philadelphia Times.

It is said in Washington that unless Republicans reach a satisfactory agreement on the silver question a proposition will be made for unlimited free coinage, and it will pass both houses of Congress.

The tariff bill prepared by Mr. McKinley, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, has been introduced in the House. It advocating it Mr. McKinley said, "The general policy of the bill is to foster and promote American production and diversification of American industry."

SPEAKER REED must be losing his grip when he allows a bold, bad Democrat to stand up in the House and flatly charge that Deacon Harrison attained the Presidency by means of cash raised by Holy John Wanamaker and Blocks of Five Dudley. Up to date the charge has not been denied by the Republican leaders. — Boston Post.

AMERICAN engineers and contractors have been invited by the Hungarian Government to bid upon contracts for the construction of a breakwater and canal at the Eiserner Thor contract, on the lower Danube River. Twenty percent of the work must be accomplished within a year, and the entire work finished in 1895.

RHODE Island Democratic. Think of it. She is little but she is loud, and used to be as solidly Republican as the most benighted of her sister States. It wouldn't surprise us if Vermont and New Hampshire walked into the Democratic family circle almost any day, and begged to be considered as two of the family. — Wilmington Star.

The annual catch of fish on the European and North American coasts is computed by a German statistician to amount to 150,000 tons. A ton of fish corresponds with 25 sheep in weight and with 20 sheep in nourishing power. Therefore the total European and North American catch equals in number 42,000,000 sheep and in nourishing power 30,000,000. — Norfolk Virginian.

BERLIN, April 15.—The Tageblatt says that Chancellor von Caprivi has forbidden the Ministers or other officials to furnish any communications to the newspapers. All intelligence which it is deemed desirable should be published will appear in the Reichsanzeiger, the official paper.

A DELEGATION of Philadelphia carpet makers visited Washington a few days ago to protest against an increase of the tariff on carpet wools, and took the breath out of Mr. McKinley when they declared that if the measure was carried through there would be only one party in Philadelphia, the Democratic party. — Wilmington Star.

At an anniversary of the Heague notice Society of Charleston last Monday, Hon. T. F. Bayard made a notable address to a great gathering. His closing words were on a text that fell from Lee after the surrender—"Gentlemen, we must now cultivate our virtues," and they were in exaltation of personal character. — News & Observer.

BASEBALL.

An Interesting Game Between Two Nines of the Elm City Club—Clark's Nine Wins by a Score of 11 to 10.

The ball grounds were in excellent condition yesterday, and the boys were in good trim. The only misfortune attending the opening game of the season was the unfavorable weather—not unfavorable at all to the players, but the threatening aspect of the clouds, which for two days had been weeping, so to speak, over the earth, kept many a visitor at home. There was a small audience, but they seemed to enjoy the game very much and were appreciative. Many who did not attend no doubt regretted it when the afternoon proved to be unusually pleasant—the clouds cleared away, the sun presented its radiant face for the first time in many hours, and a more favorable time was never had to play ball and New Berne people were never favored with such an opportunity to enjoy a game by home teams.

The game progressed smoothly and without dragging, so that no one lost interest. The players did some earnest work and were enthusiastic in the game. There are some fine men in both teams and there was not a sorry one on the grounds. Clark's nine wore uniforms of brown knee breeches, brown stockings, and brown striped caps. Houghton's nine wore white duck breeches, black stockings and white striped caps.

Houghton's nine went to the bat first and C. McSorley made a run in the first inning. He kept up his game and made four runs, the highest made. G. Clark did good batting and his base work was excellent. Houghton also did fine work on first. McSorley pitched well. Bragaw's swift balls were hard to bat. Schelky made an excellent right fielder and was applauded when he took in a "great" fly from Hartsell. He made three runs, too, and helped out his side immensely. Hartsell and Manly, catchers, did good work. Hartsell was a heavy batter, too. W. W. Clark and Brinson put in good ticks.

Houghton's Nine were put at a disadvantage when Manly was compelled to leave the grounds in the 8th inning and the battery was weakened by substitutes. Below is the score:

Fruit and Vegetable Canneries.
The establishment of more canneries in New Berne is something that should receive the most careful consideration from our people. It is a question in which our business men should interest themselves, because every class of business, from the banker down to the keeper of the junk shop, is benefited by such industries.

In this, issue is a second article from Mr. Calhoun, of Baltimore, giving further particulars. Not only tomatoes, as some one has the impression, but all varieties of fruits, berries, and vegetables can be put up with pretty much the same machinery. It is not a costly outfit nor does it require skilled labor to do the work. With these facts and the consideration of the vast supply of products accessible, does it not seem that there is some one among us who will take the initiative step? Establish something which we have not? They will not build themselves, so some one must make the move. Other places have them and they are said to be paying.
For the establishment of such industries no place in the State has so many advantages as New Berne. Will not some one give this subject a little more thought than merely reading the articles?
Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses curative powers exclusively its own, and which make it "peculiar to itself." Be sure to get Hood's.

CANNING FRUITS AND VEGETABLES.

Another Letter from Mr. J. R. Calhoun, of Baltimore.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Some of your readers do not seem to fully comprehend my statement as recently appeared in the columns of the New Berne JOURNAL, on the profits of the canning business, and are under the impression that tomatoes are about the only article that can be packed to advantage, and to undertake the packing of the various fruits and vegetables it would require special machinery for each article they packed. They also ask to be enlightened upon the subject of quotations, cost of skilled processors, etc., etc.

In my recent article on the profits of canning, tomatoes were taken as an example. We all know that tomatoes are a staple article of food, and are in constant demand; for this reason a market can always be had at paying prices. But we also have other articles of food in tin, equally in as large demand, and which the South raises in large quantities.

I herewith name the various fruits and vegetables that it will pay to pack, with present quotations.

FRUITS.
Peaches..... 3lb cans.....	2 00a 25 doz.
Pears..... 3b.....	1 50a 2 00 "
Apples..... 3lb.....	85a 1 00 "
Quinces..... 3lb.....	1 40a 1 50 "
Piumbs..... 3lb.....	1 25a 1 40 "
Blackberries..... 2lb.....	.50a .60 "
Blueberries..... 2lb.....	.80a .90 "
Gooseberries..... 2lb.....	.60a .70 "
Whortleberries 2lb.....	.70a .80 "
VEGETABLES.
Asparagus..... 3lb.....	2 50a 3 00 "
Okra..... 3lb.....	1 25a 1 40 "
Okra and tom's 2lb.....	.90a 1 00 "
" 3lb.....	1 15a 1 25 "
Peas..... 2lb.....	1 75a 2 25 "
Pumpkins..... 3lb.....	.95a 1 00 "
Tomatoes..... 3lb.....	82a 1 60 "
" 2lb.....	.62a .70 "
Beans (Lima)..... 2lb.....	1 10a 1 25 "
" (String)..... 2lb.....	1 00a 1 50 "

From above one can readily see that tomatoes are not the only article that good profits can be realized from. When we take in consideration that one bushel of peaches will fill twenty 3 lb. cans, and are worth $4 50 per case of two dozen, or about $4 00 per bushel, figure up the profits in canning two thousand 3 lb. cans of peaches.

What better profits are to be asked for on other fruits and vegetables? Run over the list carefully. Packers clear from 15c. per can on the various fruits and vegetables; this includes the buying of raw material for which sometimes they are compelled to pay large prices.

This is where the farmer has the advantage—he raises his own produce, consequently he is the best adapted for carrying on the business.

Lucky is the man who has a good fruit crop this year—he will make money. The entire crop of Maryland and Delaware is absolutely killed, and no fruit, especially peaches, will be packed this season.

Sweet potatoes and pumpkins will be packed largely, to help supply the demand for the "army of pie eaters." Squash will also be packed and will pay well.

The canning industry is no experiment, it is an established business, and if properly conducted will bring in very handsome returns on small investment. Canning outfits are adapted to canning all the various fruits and vegetables; also fish, oysters, shell-fish, meats, etc. No extra or special machinery being absolutely required. Some packers use special machinery in order to facilitate matters, but the majority do not.

Manufacturers of canning machinery supply skilled processors to their customers, when wanted, at $2.50 per day. But the art of processing amounts to no more than boiling an egg a certain number of minutes, and can be understood and carried out by any one with ordinary intelligence.
