No Wilmington Messenger came Friday night, and we are not happy. If this happens much ofener we shall be miserable.

Even the rascals who bought the Presidency for Harrison, and who have profited by the transaction, are prepared to throw him overboard.—St. Louis Post.

It is announced that the next Ecumenical Conference of the Evangelical Alliance will be held at Florence, Italy, in April, 1891. It has been in contemplation for some years to have an international conference in Italy, but the way has not been open before.

In spite of the honest desire of the Spartan-like Randall that he have a quiet unostentatious church funeral, so much was the man admired and loved by so many people of all parties that his funeral was nothing short of a public demonstration of mourning.—Charlotte Chronicle.

DR. PENNACOST, now laboring in Great Britain, offers to head a company of twenty-five or fifty women, who shall go out to India at their own cost and concentrate their evangelistic efforts upon some single district, the intention being to work in harmony with existing agencies.

DURING this generation there has been proposed to the country a plain tariff, a tariff for protection, a tariff with incidental protection, a tariff for revenue only, and various and sundry other sorts and kinds of tariffs, but it remained for Mr. McKinley to propose a tariff for campaign assessments purely.—Chicago Times.

PERHAPS, too, the time may come when Miss Dodge, Mrs. Irvin, Miss Potter, Miss Iselin, and other speakers at the Opera House Convention will make up their minds that the further advancement of women requires that they shall also equal political privileges with men. They may ask for the franchise, and they will not ask in vain.—New York Sun.

If these municipal elections are taken as a test, three-fourths of the States in the Union are Democratic just at present. But perhaps these votes had better be accepted as a warning to the Republicans and as a message to the Democracy that if it acts wisely and properly the people will turn over to it the control of the federal as well as the municipal governments.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The movement made by the farmers of the West, looking to a joining of forces with the Democrats of the South has had the effect of opening the eyes of the Republicans of Congress to the necessity of action. What signals call "the discontent" is now putting the screws on the Republican Congressmen who have hitherto been as deaf as adders to the demands of the agricultural section. We shall soon see that measures of relief will be the order of the day.—News & Observer.

ABOUT the messiest as well as most useless Camellian at Washington, wasting the money of the people and embarrassing the railway traffic of the country, is the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is composed of a lot of fossil politicians, long since rejected by popular vote and living off political crumbs in the departments, who draw in the aggregate $40,000 a year in salaries solely for preventing competition among the railways for passenger and freight traffic.—New York Star.

"REMEMBER, my boy, the good things in the world are always the cheapest. Spring water costs less than whisky; a box of cigars will buy two or three bibles; a State election costs more than a revival of religion; you can sleep in church every Sunday morning for nothing, but a nap in a Pullman car costs you two dollars every time; fifty cents for the circus and a penny for the little ones to put in the missionary box; one dollar for the theatre, and a pair of trousers frayed at the end and baggy as to the knee for the Michigan sufferers; the race-horse scoops in the $2,000 the first day, and the church bazaar lasts a week, works twenty-five or thirty of the best women in America nearly to death, and comes out forty dollars in debt.—R. J. Burdette.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

E. B. ROBERTS—To shippers and passengers.

There are five prisoners in the county jail.

At the Convention held in Kinston, E. G. Miller received the nomination to succeed Mayor Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Giddings, of Brooklyn, are in the city and are the guests of Capt. B. B. Waters.

M. Hahn & Co. have received another car load of fine horses and mules imported from the West.

Four marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds last week—two to white couples and two to colored couples.

In speaking of the A. M. E. church yesterday we said A. M. E. Z. American Methodist Episcopal church was what should have been written.

The boys' meeting postponed last Sunday will be held today at the Baptist Church after Sunday school. No one will be admitted who is over fifteen years of age.

In this issue is a communication showing why the encampment of the State Guard should be established at Fort Macon, just across the sound from Morehead City. Its advantages are superior to any in the State.

Dr. John F. Crowell, of Trinity College, will deliver the annual address before the literary societies of the Collegiate Institute at commencement and Rev. J. Y. Fair, of Richmond, will preach the annual sermon.

We saw on exhibition at Bell's jewelry store last night a beautiful afghan, which is to be drawn on one day this week and the proceeds are to be given to St. Paul's Catholic church. The afghan was made by Miss Mary Manly and it took the premium at the last Fair.

Morehead City has a new postmaster, Bill Jones, colored. He was inducted into office on Friday with no little ceremony, we learn. Several prominent colored men saw him safely installed. Chief among them were Blount, Palmer Davis, Prof. Henry and an unknown minister. Jones is a leader among his race down there it is said.

The light of the electric lights can be seen quite a long distance. A gentleman coming from Pollockville a few nights since stated that the illumination was visible ten miles off. An old colored man was in the city yesterday making inquiry about seeing so many northern lights recently. He was right such a pacified when informed that it was the city electric lights and bode no evil as he had suspected.

Interesting Ceremony.
In the Presbyterian church this morning there will be an ordination of Deacons, recently elected by the church, and their installation into office. An exposition of the nature, authority and duties of the office will be given. The Presbyterian church holds that according to the Apostolic constitution of the church there are only two orders of officers therein, viz: Presbyters or Bishops, and Deacons. It is the latter class who will be clothed with office this morning. The ceremony will be new to many, as it does not occur frequently in any church.

Y. M. C. A. Lecture.

Mr. S. M. Giddings, Vice-President of the Young Men's Christian Association, Brooklyn, N. Y., is in the city and has consented to deliver a lecture before the Association here next Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Besides speaking of the object of these organizations and the grand work of the one with which he is connected he will give a description of his travels on the Pacific coast and visit to Alaska. Every member of the Association should be present, and a special invitation is extended ladies and business men of the city. We are informed that Mr. Giddings has been connected with this work for a number of years and is thoroughly conversant in all its various branches. Mr. Giddings is also President of the Union Sunday-school of Brooklyn.

Not Yet Caught.

The news got around town yesterday that the "six-footer," who for some time has been reported as roaming the streets after night and following people home, had been captured by the police, and through the day there were numerous calls at the station house to see the would-be phenomenon. All sorts of questions were propounded. "Where is the wild man?" "Has the man with six legs been caught?" "Was he ten feet high and has he a skelton head?" etc.

Nearly every night some one claims to have seen said phenomenon and they give hideous descriptions of him. One reports that he had been shot a number of times, but that the bullets had no effect on him. Others say that he had been clubbed, but no notice was given the blows. The colored people look upon it as some prowling ghost or demon, and are a little "jubons" about being caught out late at night.

A New Berne Boy at the University.
"We received in last night's mail the following communication. It is headed, "Thomas Winning Honors." It will be read with pleasure by the friends of Mr. Thomas:

EDITOR JOURNAL:—We take pleasure in the success of Thomas at the University. He is winning honors for his many friends.

In the Athletic contests on last Tuesday he made several creditable performances.

Last night the committee appointed by the Phi society to decide the Declamatory contest, awarded him the medal unanimously.

As one of the society representatives to speak at Commencement, his friends anticipate that success will crown his efforts.

Thus New Berne is represented!

A PALACE STEAMER.

The Eastern Carolina Dispatch New Passenger Boat.

For some time the air has been filled with rumors and statements regarding the construction of a passenger boat for the Eastern Carolina Dispatch Line, and applications at the office of the Company here, from time to time, for confirmation was met with the response that while such a vessel was in contemplation, nothing official could be given out, but when the proper time arrived the fullest information would be given. In fulfillment of these promises the following from the Evening Express, of Wilmington, Del., (the place where the new boat will be constructed) was handed us yesterday:

"The Wilmington Steamship Company of Delaware has contracted with the Harlap & Hollingsworth Company to construct for it a palace steamer to be run on its route between Elizabeth City and New Berne, N. C. She will be 200 feet long, 31 feet beam and 11 feet hold, with saloon deck fitted with 82 state rooms. The appointments throughout will be of the most approved type. She will be supplied with electric lights in the state rooms, and heated with steam. Her machinery will consist of twin triple-expansion engines, competent to secure to her a speed of 14 to 15 miles per hour. She is expected to make the run between Elizabeth City and New Berne, a distance of 156 miles, regularly in 13 hours.

"The large increase in business tendered the company since its establishment in North Carolina waters, has rendered this step necessary. Heretofore no attention has been given to the transportation of passengers. The detailed care to be given to the boat in order to secure to passengers every comfort will no doubt make the route a favorite passenger line in the future, as it has proven itself to be a favorite freight line in the past.

"The boat will be completed, ready to take her place on the route, by September 1st."

In addition to the above Mr. George Henderson, Agent of the line, gives us the following additional information:

"This boat will reduce the passenger time by water fourteen hours, and for pleasure and comfort will not be surpassed by any route.

"Arrangements have been perfected with the Norfolk Southern Railroad to run a special steamboat train in connection with this boat, that will make the run from Elizabeth City to Berkley in one hour and a half, there connecting with the morning trains of the N. Y. P. and N. Railroad for New York and intermediate points, thus making the run from New Berne to New York in twenty-four hours, and giving to the passengers a night on Albemarle and Pamlico Sounds; in other words, a passenger leaving New Berne at 6 o'clock in the evening will arrive at Berkley at 8 o'clock next morning and reach New York at 8 o'clock that night."

A line of this kind will not only commend itself to the people of New Berne and its immediate vicinity but people along the entire line of the A. & N. C. Railroad will probably take advantage of its superior service.

The new boat will make three trips per week, running direct between Elizabeth City and New Berne, and in view of her proposed power and speed should be as regular and certain as clockwork.

The appointments will be of the most superior modern character, and will be fully in keeping with the other progressive features that are making the New Berne of today.

The carrying capacity of the new boat will be equal to any demand that may be made upon it, and in its construction its suitability for truck transportation will be especially provided for.

New Berne has been fortunate for years in the possession of excellent transportation facilities, and in common with the rest of the community we will look for the advent of the new boat with interest, and hope that she will fully realize all that is claimed for and expected from her.

State Guard Encampment—Fort Macon.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—There seems to be a very general wish manifest among the soldiers of the N. C. State Guard for a change from the temporary encampment ground near Wilmington, and inasmuch as the United States requires a point for the erection of a sea-coast battery, the harbor of Beaufort offers the most eligible site in the State for a camp ground, supplying all the requisites. Fort Macon is undoubtedly the most appropriate point in North Carolina.

Nothing should be easier than to have inserted in the Army Fortification bill a clause giving to the State of North Carolina the care and custody of the Fortress and grounds of Macon to the State for a permanent encampment of the North Carolina State Guard. Whatever expenditure the United States should make there in the erection of sea-coast batteries would be for the improvement of its own property, and the occupation of the fortress by our State troops would restore and keep in repair that national work of coast defence.

Here our State troops could be instructed in the school of modern gunnery, torpedo practice, etc., and the army would feel willing to quarter at Fort Macon a detachment of regulars during every season of encampment for the better instruction of our boys. In fact the United States would establish a school for artillery at this point if our authorities and people would take the proper interest in locating the State Guard encampment at Fort Macon.

To Shippers and Passengers.

On and after Tuesday, April 23, 1890, until further notice, the Steamer Newberne will leave Newbern on Tuesday at 12 o'clock, and the Steamer Manteo will leave Newbern on Friday at 12 o'clock for Norfolk, Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Providence. A word to the wise is sufficient.
