PLYMOUTH Church will lose its pastor. Dr. Abbott, the successor of Henry Ward Beecher, resigns.

SPEAKER TOM REED accuses the Republican party of virtue. What will Quay and Dudley think of this?—Atlanta Constitution.

The Montana Democrats continue to win victories out in Montana, but when they come before the United States Senate the Republicans are too many for them.—Boston Herald.

We hear of several places in Eastern Carolina "contemplating" the establishment of small industries. The way to do a thing is to do it. Contemplation, of itself, accomplishes nothing.

EDITOR DANA is very much troubled about Cleveland's increasing "fat." But the probabilities are that it is Cleveland's increasing popularity which is troubling him more than the fat.—Wilming-ton Star.

As the time for the annual election of the Sachems of the society of Tammany draws near, its respectable members are becoming more and more restive over the evident determination of its present rulers to re-elect "Barney" Martin.—New York Star.

LA GRIPPE still playing havoc. Twenty thousand cases of influenza have appeared within ten days in Valparaiso, and the medical fraternity find it impossible to answer even a quarter of the calls made upon them. All the colleges and schools have been closed.

CONGRESSIONAL aspirants will do well to study the provisions of the Sub-Treasury bill. The Alliance asks the passage of this measure, and candidates for Congress will be required to pledge themselves to its support before receiving the vote of Alliance men.—Monroe Register.

It is now very generally believed that the Republican managers of the forthcoming census propose to deliberately falsify the count in the South, in order to limit, as far as possible, the Southern representation in the House. There are tricks in all trades, including census taking, and every Southern State should sleep with the optic propped wide open.—Houston Post.

ABOUT the only good thing that is likely to result from the steal of two Senatorships from Montana is the revolution in the political complexion of the new State the outrage will work, and the returns from the city elections of Butte, held the other day, when the Senatorships were the issue, would indicate that, already, the Democracy have Montana nailed down.—Louisville Times.

The tendency among modern literary men and women is to under take what a few years ago was generalized as style in writing—the something that made Dickens notable, Charles Lamb charming, and Fanny Fern popular. It was not always so much what those people said, as the way in which they said it. N. P. Willis illustrated the idea of saying things in a striking way as much as any man among the writers of his day. He is not remembered now so much for what he said as the way, the taking way, in which he said it.—Inter-Ocean.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LOST—Gold bracelet.
E. W. CARPENTER—Notice.
JOURNAL—Bow and eash lost.
C. E. NELSON—Stall fed beef.
O. D. S. Co.—Change of schedule.

The Democratic ward meetings will be held tomorrow night.

Remember the Y. M. C. A. lecture tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Preparations for home entertainments seem to be in vogue. They all promise to be of an interesting character.

Treasurer Thomas Daniels says he is ready to pay off the interest on county coupons which is really due in July.

A telegram last night from G. S. Palmer, of New York, says that there is a very light supply of Southern vegetables. Asparagus is quoted at $3 to $6; peas, $5 to $6; N. C. cabbage, $2 to $2.50.

Mr. J. F. Clark says he will ship today six one-half-barrel crates of peas, via O. D. line, to New York. This is the first of the season. Mr. Clark shipped the first of the season last year on April 17.

Considerable frost fell Saturday and Sunday nights, but a careful examination of the truck fields shows no serious damage. Beans have probably fared the worst. The leaves on a good many plants are tinged from the snap, but it is only in a very few instances that the bud has been killed. Potatoes and peas show only a slight sign of the effect. We have as yet had no news from Norfolk.

We notice that memorial day at Goldsboro this year has been changed from May 10th to 12th in order that it may not be on Saturday which is generally a busy day. Since it does not conflict with the service here a good opportunity is offered New Bernians to attend at Goldsboro. It is probable a number would attend should sufficient inducements be offered over the railroad.

Mayor's Court.

The following case was disposed of yesterday:
Haywood Huff, chap 5, sec 4, disorderly in the city limits; fined $5 and cost.

Shipping News.

The steamer Vesper, of the E. C. D. line, sailed yesterday with a full cargo of general exports. The Annie, of this line, will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Newberne, of the O. D. line, will sail for Norfolk at 12 o'clock today.

Honor Roll of New Berne Collegiate Institute.

Following is the honor roll of the Collegiate Institute for March-April:

Misses Jennie Burrus, Minnie Dowdee, Mamie Daniels, Willie Ferebee, Agnes Foy, Lottie Hubbs, Sudie Hall, Emma Katie Jones, Hattie Lane, Etta Nunn, Laura Suter, Sadie Vass, Julia Wetherington.

Messrs. Robert Jones, Clarence Miller, Edward Mann, Harry Marks.

The Lecture Tonight.

Mr. S. M. Giddings, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association at their hall at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Giddings is Vice-President of the Brooklyn Association and has been connected with the work about thirty-five years. He will speak upon the general work of these Associations and what they are accomplishing throughout the country. Also he will speak on some of his recent travels to the Yellow Stone Park and up the Pacific coast to Alaska. The M. E. Sunday-school choir will furnish the music.

COMMENDABLE.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

TWO WERE DROWNED.

Three Boys Were Sailing on Neuse River on Sunday—The Boat Turned Over—One Occupant Saved.

About 11 o'clock Sunday morning Henry Conner, about 14 years of age, was sent by his parents across Neuse river, it is said, to get sand. Henry was accompanied by David Tooker and Horace Day, aged respectively about 14 and 13 years, he having invited them to go with him. The boys used a sail boat belonging to Conner's brother. They went over to Graywood first, however, and played sometime, and then proceeded to Sandy Point on the east side of Neuse river. When near the east shore of the river the boat turned over and Tooker and Day were drowned. Conner clung to the boat, which drifted to the James City shore. He was taken up by a passing boat and brought to the city, arriving here about six o'clock in an almost exhausted and insensible condition.

The reporter saw him yesterday morning and he told the following story: "We left here (Patterson's Island) about 11 o'clock and the accident happened about 12, I think. We were sailing along, laughing and talking, as boys will, not noticing the wind, when a back flow came and jibed the sail and turned the boat over in a minute. We were then about one hundred yards from shore. We all clung to the boat. It drifted further out into stream. We held to it about two hours, until we came near a net stake, about three hundred yards from shore. We all left the boat and held to the stake, for the boat was small and would not bear our weight. Before long, though, I decided to go to the boat again, because the stake would not hold us all. I swam to the boat and crawled on top of it, and drifted over to the James City shore. When I got on the boat I looked back and saw the boys still clinging to the stake. Horace Day was very much frightened and was about to give up. I hailed to Dave to save him."

It seems that Conner was so much frightened and exhausted when he was taken up by a passing boat that he could not give any sensible account of what had happened. After arriving here, though, parties went out, about 7 o'clock, to look for the lost boys. The parties returned without having seen them. Men on a boat which came up about 3 o'clock heard ballooning but thought it came from persons on shore and did not stop. It is probable that the boys held on to the stake for several hours, but no doubt dropped off and were drowned before 7 o'clock.

Yesterday morning about 9:30 o'clock parties went out to look for the bodies, Henry Conner going with them and pointing out the stake where the boys were last seen. The bodies were soon fished up with hooks by Messrs. H. Tooker, L. K. Goutier and James Foreman. They were found very near each other, one on one side the stake and one on the other. The stake was near the mouth of Duck creek. Tooker's arms and hands were still in the position of holding to the stake. He had no doubt clung to it as long as possible. There were no bruises upon him. Day's face was bruised and he had bled from the head considerably. The bruise was caused, it is thought, by the stake to which they had held.

The bodies were brought to the city, and after being examined by the coroner, who considered an inquest unnecessary, were carried to the homes of the parents, who live on East Front street. Tooker's father is living, his mother dead. Day's mother is living.

David Tooker was an employee at the cotton exchange and was well known by the members of the exchange and the people of the neighborhood. He was spoken of as being an excellent boy.

Yesterday afternoon there was a double funeral, and the remains of the two boys who died such a sad and awful death together were taken to Cedar Grove cemetery and laid to rest side by side.

An Important Movement by the University Alumni.

A very important movement is on foot to secure hearty and practical cooperation between the University and its Alumni. The University is necessarily dependent mainly upon its Alumni for friendship, counsel and criticism; and the Alumni have shown themselves by no means regardless of the interest and claims of their alma mater. But there has been hitherto no systematic, organized, practical working connection between the University and her graduates. There is a movement on foot to remedy this. Wednesday of commencement week, has been set apart as Alumni Day, and besides the annual banquet and reunion, there will be a regular business meeting for the discussion of plans and methods of increasing the patronage, enlarging the endowment, strengthening the spirit and exalting the work of the institution.

This year a memorial address will be delivered by R. H. Battle, Esq., on Dr. Charles Phillips, and the Alumni oration will be by Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson.

The best results attend this movement; and in order to make it efficient it is earnestly desired that every Alumnus of the University, who can possibly do so, attend the approaching commencement.

Branch Alumni Associations are now in process of organization in the leading towns and cities of the State. Organizations have already been effected in Raleigh and Goldsboro. President Battle hopes soon to visit Greensboro, Winston, Durham, Charlotte and other places and aid in the formation of the Associations.

Mr. Ralph Gray left yesterday for New York on a business trip.

Mr. J. V. Williams left yesterday for Charlotte and other towns in the State.

Judge A. S. Seymour has gone to Elizabeth City to hold U. S. Court this week.

John S. Long, Esq., returned from Chapel Hill last night.

Rev. H. W. Battle leaves this morning for Raleigh to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Female University, which will be held tomorrow. At this meeting the Trustees will decide upon a site for the University, elect the president and arrange a curriculum.

Having qualified as business agent of the Alliance, I hereby give this notice, that I will be in New Berne on the 1st and 3d Fridays in each month. Office at Hill Humphrey's store (sign "Big Ike.")

Having received several communications to visit some of the sub-Alliances of this county, I will visit them at any time, provided they give two week's notice of same.

Big Ike has fixed up a very commodious office in the rear of his store, which the Alliances generally are invited to use at any time free of all cost. Farmers coming to town can have the use of this office to transact their private business.
H. H. PERRY,
ap23 dt w3m County Business Agt.

The Standard.

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as having passed above the grade of what are commonly called patent or proprietary medicines," said a well known physician recently. "It is fully entitled to be considered a standard medicine, and has won the position by its undoubted merit and by the many remarkable cures it has effected. For an alternative and tonic it has never been equalled."

To Shippers and Passengers.

On and after Tuesday, April 22, 1890, until further notice, the Steamer Newberne will leave Newberne on Tuesday at 12 o'clock, and the Steamer Manteo will leave Newberne on Friday at 12 o'clock for Norfolk direct. The all water route for Norfolk, Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, Boston and Providence. A word to the wise is sufficient.
