GEN. MAHONEY'S most conspicuous rival for the consul generalship at Paris is Gen. Adam King of Baltimore.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—The Shah of Persia has vetoed the project for the construction of a Russian railway between the cities of Enzeli and Reast.

THE Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., meets in Wilmington on May 14th. The membership of the Odd Fellows is reported at 1,300,000, the largest of any fraternal organization in the world.

HORACE GREELY WESTALL, son of T. C. Westall, of Ashville, has been missing from home since Thursday, says the Ashville Citizen of Monday. The missing boy is eighteen years old, six feet high, rather overgrown, and has light hair and eyes.

It is claimed that the late defaulting Postmaster at Rocky Mount makes the ninth negro official that has gone crooked and come to grief in the State, in the Postal Service, since the incumbency of the present Administration.

PARIS, April 29.—It is reported here that the Boulangist leaders, Messieurs Naduet de Rondele and Laquerre, are in Jersey, arranging for the return to Paris, on May day, of General Boulanger. It is represented to be the General's intention to participate in the demonstrations of that day.

THE change of the great dry goods house of H. B. Cladin & Co., of New York, into a stock company is an interesting development of the tendency of the times. The firm has been highly prosperous and is said to have done a business of $38,000,000 a year; but the partners in the firm were willing to realize their prospective profits, and the stock company is the result.

THE South American delegates were generally disgusted, because, while enjoying the social attentions showered upon them, they did not think such matters of sufficient consequence to have brought them so far from home. This was the main reason why they would not go on the Southern trip. They were tired of pleasure, and all idea of business had long since vanished.

In some parts of this country, and in many parts of Europe, the workmen will make demonstrations in favor of an eight hour day. In some places the demand will be for a nine-hour day. In nearly every case the laborers will meet with opposition from those who employ them; and even if there are no outbreaks or bloodshed, there will be that the average man will earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, as heretofore.

SOMETHING over a year having passed since President Harrison entered office—over one fourth of his official term—it is announced that the President has at last nearly accomplished the task of dishing out the spoils and is in a position to attend to the pressing business of the people. Evidently Mr. Planagan, of Texas, knew what he was talking about when he uttered that historical and ever-memorable question in the National Republican Convention of some years ago.

NOR can it be expected that one who like ourselves has labored so long in behalf of the Democratic party, shall remain quiet when that party, after its years of steady devotion to the cause of agriculture at the South, is charged with being the author of the calamity which we have struggled so persistently to prevent. We do not care whether the Republican party be held to a just accountability for the evils which its vicious and sectional and class policy has brought upon agriculture, but we shall not permit it to be said without denial that the Democratic party is responsible for the misdeeds of the Republican party.

LOCAL NEWS.

"See what the McKinley tariff bill is doing for us," said a prominent hardware dealer on Middle street yesterday: "in anticipation of its passage by Congress the tariff on many articles which we sell has been increased over a hundred per cent."

A telegram last night from G. S. Palmer, of New York, gives the following quotations for truck: "Market firmer on cabbage, $2 to $4.50; N. C. peas, halves, $4 to $4.50; thirds, $3 to $3.50; asparagus, $3 to $4, strawberries ten to twenty cents."

"What's the news on Middle street today?" the reporter asked a merchant yesterday. "All quiet today—no shooting sorape." "But as you know," he said "that this is 'bloody Middle,' we have had two murders on this street in a little more than a year and a shooting yesterday. We don't allow any she-naggin on this street; make way (?) with a fellow in a jiffy."

Baseball Yesterday.

A fairly large number of spectators, about two hundred, among whom were a good many ladies, witnessed the game of baseball between Houghton's nine and Clark's nine of the Elm City club, yesterday afternoon. The boys played well and made a lively game. Many said that it was a much better game than the one some days ago, which is an evidence that the club is improving. With encouragement from our citizens it will be the best club in the State before the season is over.

The game was close. The battery on both sides was very good, while the out fielding on both sides, was weak. Houghton's nine was getting a little uneasy, when Watson made a heavy hit to center field, made a home run, brought in two men who were on bases, and the game was saved. Following is the score:

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

From the State Papers.

Goldsboro Headlight: The Eastern Carolina Insane Asylum, near this city, numbers 340 inmates, at present. Although the building is already crowded, applications are still coming in.

Two monster logs have just been shipped from Swain county to Germany as a part of the North Carolina exhibit at the German Exposition to take place this summer. They measured respectively sixty-nine and seventy inches in diameter, and were of the curly popular variety.

Winston Daily: The flag which was awarded the Winston Graded School by the publishers of the Youth's Companion, Boston, for the best essay, arrived yesterday evening. The teachers and pupils are proud of the honor won, for it speaks commendably of the city of Winston and her grand and noble institution of learning.

Charlotte Chronicle: The crowds attending the Sam Jones meetings continue to increase every day. There were more people here yesterday than any previous day. Old citizens say that they have never seen so many in the city on any previous occasion. Every train that arrives is loaded with people. People come from far and near, in all kinds of conveyances.

Raleigh News and Observer: The banquet of the Chamber of Commerce at the Yarboro last night was nothing less than a grand meeting of the business men of Raleigh such as has rarely been seen here before. Representatives of every calling and station mingled together and over the generous feast which was spread amid the cordial interchange of good fellowship which went around renewed pledges were pledged to Raleigh and to her future progress, prosperity and greatness.

Something Sam Jones Said in Charlotte.

They tell me you've got "society" here in Charlotte. It requires a 75 cent pair of slippers and a $1.25 wasp hat to admit you into Charlotte society—so-called. God pity you little simpletons! If you go to Baltimore among the boston society there they wouldn't allow you to sweep out their kitchen. Charlotte society! there's no life, religion, womanhood or manhood in it, Oh, Lord! have mercy on us. A society dude! nothing but a corn on the devil's big toe, and a dudine is only a wart on the end of the devil's nose. I know you think I am the roughest preacher you ever heard talk. I love to just stamp the feathers out of the whole business.

Let me say to you, the best, sweetest, gentlest and purest women in this town were never in society—so-called.

Its a disgrace on the churches in Charlotte that you have to get up bazars and entertainments to raise money for your church. A man worth $50,000 let his wife go around and raise money for her church in such a manner! You old hog, you! You are nothing but a hog, and if you had a little more hair and some bristles, you would be fixed up all right.

I am just shelling the woods now to locate my crowd. And you are in the woods I'm shelling, old fellow. I'll get you out by and bye and I will give you a warm reception when you come out too.

I like a good, pure, grand, noble man.—Durham Globe.

Primary Meeting.

The Republican primary meeting of the 5th ward was called to order at Samaritan Hall on Queen street Thursday May 1st, at 12 M., by Peter Fisher, Esq., who was afterwards made permanent chairman, and Prof. A. F. Moore, secretary. Mr. H. P. Kennedy was nominated by Coroner Olen as candidate for councilman of the 5th ward. There being no other nominations H. P. Kennedy was unanimously nominated by acclamation. The following named persons were appointed as ward committee for the ensuing year: G. H. RICHARDSON, Chmn. PETER FISHER, Jr., Hon. J. E. HUSKEY, PETER FISHER, Jr. Esq., Chmn. Prof. A. F. MOORE, Sec'y. LEONIDAS D. MERRIT, Reporter.

Beatty's Tour of the World.

Ex-Mayor Daniel F. Beatty of Beatty's Celebrated Organs and Pianos, Washington, New Jersey, has just returned home from an extended tour of the World.

Good Advice, Showing Result.

Edward Silvey, Chicago, gives testimony: "My wife had catarrh twenty-five years; suffered severely for six years before she began to use your remedy. Unable to breathe except through the mouth; in a most critical condition. Tried everything without relief, when Dr. Streeter advised her to buy Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Catarrh Cure. Relief followed immediately. She continued to use it until she is now entirely cured. Her health has not been so good in many years." Price $1.00. Wash the baby with Clarke's Flax Soap, 25 cents.

F. S. Duffy, druggist, now has the Flax remedies on hand.

IF YOUR Financial Condition

is embarrassing, and your mind is so troubled that your dreams are unpleasant and prevent your resting well at night. It would be well for you to close out your stock of dry goods, boots and shoes to Big Ike, the Clothing Man of Newbern, N. C., at 50c on the dollar, or less and not wait until the Sheriff closes your door and you have to make an assignment, and let your expenses eat the last button off Jack's coat, and your creditors and yourself get nothing. All communications promptly answered.
