people of New Berne a time-honored institution. A brief survey of its early history recalls to mind fond memories of dear ones who have passed away from the turbulent scenes of earth to that blessed land-the abode af the just, the good the noble! Among the projectors of this enterprise are numbered many whose memory will ever quicken in the hearts of New Berneans feelings ripe with the fruits of affection, respect and esteem. To their public spirit and enterprise are we indebted for these works at the present time. For more than two decades past there has not been a social gathering in our good old town, but the lights of this company have not shed their rays over the assembled crowd-"fair women and brave men, the beauty and chivalry of our homes!"

In the still, dark hours of the night, when the messenger of death has hovered over our firesides, these lights have shed beneficent influences athwart the pathway of our lives, and, ere the light of day could interpose, they have welcomed, as silent useful witnesses, the new birth-kings and queens of our family circles! In the sacred memory of its past, as also now in its present crippled condition, an appeal goes forth to the citizens of New Berne to stand by the tition.

A Charlotte special to the Raleigh bronicle, dated May 6, says: No little surprise was created here today by Capt. Syd. B. Alexander, late president of the State Farmers' Alliance, re-signing his directorship of the First National Bank of Charlotte, and selling his stock to his sister. Captain Alexan der is Alliance candidate for Congress in this district to succeed Hon. Alfred Rowland, sitting member. Alliance is opposed to national banks, and in face of approaching congressional campaign Alexander's conduct considered significent. At the last election he requested the stockholders not to elect him director but request not heeded.

Raleigh Correspondent Wilmington Messenger: Collector E. A. White tells me that there are in this district 14,000 dealers in liquor and tobacco. Just now the collector and his force are working on double time, so great is the rush of business, as the licenses are being issued .- A prominent official of the State Farmers' Alliance said to me last evening: "The Alliance men will this vear vote for those candidates who represent their views, or else they will vote for nobody." That is quite a vote for nobody." That is quite a plain declaration, and of course it will attract attention. The Alliance official went on to say that there would be some interesting developments later in the campaign, and the Congressional candidates would have to show the Alliance men just where they stood.

One of the most effectual remedies I have ever known for a cough or cold is Duffy's Cough Mixture. It is indeed a rare combination of valuable medicines; arresting at once the progress of a cold and beginning to soothe and heal. Unlike all other cough medicines there is no narcotic or any other unpleasant effect experienced in taking it. I am more than pleased to be able to recommend to my friends here and the public at large everywhere such a safe, pleas ant and effectual cure for one of the most prevalent complaints to which human flesh is heir.
