Nelson and Miss Roullac am wrong I go slow, but if I believe I left yesterday for Tarboro, to visit am right men nor devils cannot move me off the track. I remember of reading the life of Thaddeus Stephens a few years ago. I learned several lessons. There was one I have never forgotten. Now, in the State of Pennsylvania about 35 or 40 years ago, they amended the Constitution, and the word was "black' that they added. They took the vote and all voted "yea" except Stephens. It was carried, and they laughed at him. When they got through laughing day night and promises to be most de-is that, Stephene?" It will be rendered knows he has done his duty, he can face a man and say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." I have also read the life of Judge Gaston, and I see where he always stood at the head The Song Tournament is founded on of his class. He was noted for being a the idea that the music of every nation has distinctive characteristics, more or at the head of the class?" He said, in fore be it a low tone of voice, "Come here and let me tell you why it is. My mother taught me to pray a little prayer, and I pray that prayer every day before I come to school." That prayer seemed regard. to be his success. I can also say my mother taught me a little prayer, but perhaps I did not pray that little prayer Monday, election day. Well, so much for that. A man without firmness is not much more than a shadow, only he has some wind in him Do you remember that it was being firm and true that meroy the thirteen colonies came together, when taxed without representation. and pledged their honor, their fortunes and their lives. We hear the command way down the line, saying, we want publication. none but true Americans on guard. We want tried men. Not a man will tell you yes, and we know one thing, be firm; though Jupiter and Mars may leave their orbs, be firm; when I tell you yes you may go home and go to bed; when I tell you no you can go home and go to bed, and rest quietly. I believe it was in the year 1775 when the Revolutionary War commenced, when your forefathers, being firm and true, fought side by side, barefooted, to attend. hungry and half naked, for seven years. with General George Washington, their leader, and made Lord Cornwallis surrender at Yorktown. Truth may be smitten to the earth. but it will rise again, and when she rises again she will be as the tall trees of Lebanon. Its purpese will ripen fast, unfolding every hour; the bud may possible to buy. All the roots and herbs have a bitter taste, but sweet will be the flower. Mr. Mayor, and gentlemen of the city council: We will now soon adjourn, and I trust that peace any joy will ever be with yon. The Lord's voice, like Joseph of old to his brethren, may at times sound rough and harsh, but they are blessed undertones of love. "It is I," he seems to say. "it was I that roused the storm; it is I, when it has done its work, will claim it and say, peace, be still; it is I, King of Kinge SONG and Lord of Lords. Every wave rolls at my bidding; all have some gracious end; they are not sent to dash you against sunken rocks, but to show you Friday Night, May 16. that I am God.

"Judge not the Lord by feeble sense But trust him for his grace. Behind a frowning Providence

He hides a smiling face.' The reflection that a wise and merciful, as well as a holy and just God, rules not only the affairs of this world. but of all worlds, is a rock to set our feet upon under all circumstances, even more severely trying than these we are passing through. Be firm, be true. Truth is a golden link fast to the throne in heaven. Angels descend and ascend and their message is, Truth is the sec ond person in the adcrible Trinity. Though earth-born shadows now may shroud my thorny path awhile, God's blessed word can paint each c'oud and bid the sunshine shile.

Only believe in living faith, his love and power divine,

And ere the sun shall set to rest, his lightshall round us shine. There is nothing in race or blood, in color or features, that imparts superior knowledge of improvement to one race over another. The mind left to itself from infancy without culture, remains a blank; knowledge is not innate; development makes the man. As the Greeks and Romans and Jews drew knowledge from the Egyptians three thousand years ago, and the Europeans received it from the Romans, so must the colored people of this land rise in the same way. As one man learns from another, so nation learns from nation. Civilization is handed down to man. God, being our Father, protect our Council from every foe; with peace our Council bless, our city with prosperity, our Mayor with plenteousness.
