ALL through East Carolina the crop prospects are said to be very fine.

ALL men desire wealth, but comparatively few attain unto it. It depends chiefly upon industry and frugality for its acquisition, and without them it soon ceases to exist.

THE next term of the Superior Court of Craven county will be held by Hon. Speir Whitaker. Governor Fowle has been fortunate in his appointments, and not one reflects more credit upon him than that of Judge Whitaker.

IN whatever direction we turn our eyes we see prognostications of Democratic victory in 1892. New England is ablaze with Democratic enthusiasm, and the plains of the West quake beneath the tread of our triumphant battalions. The South maintains her unbroken allegiance to the principles of Jefferson.

THE late Memorial Day was very generally observed in North Carolina, and the exercises were of a high order. Lieut. Gov. Stedman at Wilmington, Mr. Busbee at Raleigh, Major Daves at Goldsboro, Mr. Havens at Washington and Mr. Ocho at New Berne delivered addresses worthy of the day and the sacred cause to which it is dedicated.

AGAIN we mention the fact that the Lee statue, at Richmond, is to be unveiled on the 29th instant. We trust that many North Carolinians will be present. General Robert Ransom has been assigned an honorable part in the ceremonies of the occasion, and every Confederate veteran in North Carolina would be cordially welcomed by the patriotic people of Virginia.

MR. MCKINLEY, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, is reported as having made "a very lame tariff speech." Now, the truth is, he was in a dilemma. He had reported a bill in the interest of manufacturers and monopolists, and attempted to make a speech that would satisfy the farmers of the country. Of course he failed. It could not be otherwise.

QUAY refuses to resign the chairmanship of the National Republican party. Certainly! That he should have been asked to resign, or that anybody should have expected him to resign is the strange thing about it. Quay is the master of his own methods, and without them the Republican party cannot exist. When we hear of the resignation of His Satanic Majesty, Mr. Quay's resignation will be in order.

WE raise our voice in favor of the celebration of the 20th of May as the day when the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was made. Not only should it be celebrated in Charlotte, but in every section of the State and throughout the Union. It is now too late to prepare for the general observance of the approaching anniversary of this glorious day, but we can bend our steps towards Charlotte and join her patriotic people in celebrating the First Declaration of American Independence. Three cheers for Charlotte and the Mecklenburg Declaration!

Capital vs. Labor.
A case before a magistrate's court at Beaufort this week has excited much interest among the coast fishermen. About seven miles from Beaufort is an arm of the sea which forms a basin that has been found to be one of the finest fishing points on the Atlantic coast. As we understand it, the natives have been fishing here for some time with their small seines and nets and have almost entirely relied upon this resource for a livelihood.

Recently other fishermen of larger means have visited the harbor and put in mammoth ocean seines from a mile and a half to two miles long, and were making quite a sweep. The former raised objection, but each claimed the right of way, which led to the dispute. Forming themselves into a union of fishermen of about forty, the natives proceeded to the grounds while the big seines were in operation, and commenced to net fish that had been encircled by the larger haulers. Not liking such proceedings, the big fishermen had them arrested. The case was taken before three magistrates at Beaufort for a hearing Thursday. Messrs. Manly & Gulon, of this city, were employed to represent the plaintiffs, and Simmons and Moore the defendants.

Defendants were required to make personal recognizance to next term of court.

From the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey just issued at Washington, we note the following changes on the North Carolina coast:

Croatan Sound—Wreck Buoy removed. The H. S. buoy formerly marking a wreck 1 1/10 miles S. E. of Croatan Light has been removed. The wreck having shifted into shallower water to the westward of the channel, where it is no longer an obstruction to navigation.

Memorial Service.
There will be a memorial service held at the Second Baptist Church, Pilgrim's Chapel, James City, on Sunday, 18th, at 3 p. m., in regard to the death of the pastor, Rev. S. G. Austin, who departed out of this life at 8 o'clock, a. m., on the 15th of May, A. D. 1890. He was a faithful worker in the Master's Vineyard. He has only been with us eight months and has proved to us to be a faithful steward of our Lord, Jesus Christ. The service will be conducted by the associate pastor, Wm. Dudley, and Rev. P. Jones and other eminent divines. The service will begin at 3 p. m. with the hymn, "I would not live away," and the reading of the 4th chap. of the 2d Timothy, after which prayer by Rev. H. Moore. The choir will sing, "Servant of God, well done"; then a few words of eulogy by Rev. H. Moore, ex. pastor. "His work among us as a pastor," by Wm. Dudley, the associate pastor, and others. "His work in the church as a shepherd," will be discussed by A. Manning, D. Foy, J. Daniel, J. T. Perry and J. B. Long. "His work as a missionary among us," by H. Duggin, N. Walker, C. E. Waugh. Closing hymn, "Blest be the ties that bind." Doxology. Prayer by Wm. Dudley.

There was a big rush at the box office yesterday morning for tickets to the Song Tournament at the theatre tonight. It will no doubt be a delightful musical entertainment.

It is "White Hall" instead of "Long Wharf," now, we are requested to say. A gentleman who lives in that section of the city for so long called Long Wharf, says it is now called White Hall, by agreement of the citizens of that neighborhood.

There was a meeting of the directors of the A. & N. C. Railroad last night. Messrs. P. M. Pearall, J. W. Grainger, J. M. Morehead, P. F. Faison, T. D. Webb, Arnold Borden and Col. A. C. Davis were present.

Messrs. Joe Lucas and W. L. Lewis have formed a copartnership, rented the store on the southeast corner of Middle and South Front streets and will open a grocery store. They will also continue the baking business.

There are yet a few seats for the Song Tournament tonight for sale. The front row of gallery seats have been reserved and will be for sale at fifty cents. Children under twelve years of age may secure tickets at the door tonight for twenty-five cents.

The trip to Richmond on the occasion of the unveiling of the Lee monument, contemplated by several of our citizens will no doubt be a very enjoyable one. It is hoped that a party of twenty will go so that the remarkably low rate of $4.00 for the round trip may be obtained.

Rev. L. C. Vass, D. D., has returned from New York, where he has been in attendance at the Western Commission of the Pan Presbyterian Alliance. The object of the meeting was to call a meeting of the Presbyterians of the entire world in 1892. Toronto, Canada, was selected as the place. On his return Dr. Vass also attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Union Theological Seminary at Hampton Sidney, Va.

Rev. Sam Jones in Danville.
RESULTS OF THE MEETINGS, AS VIEWED BY DANVILLE'S DAILY PAPER.

Rev. Sam P. Jones, the great Georgia revivalist, has just closed his second big meeting in Danville, and now what of the results?

The number of conversions was not altogether as large as at the meeting of last year, but we sincerely believe that in the main greater good has been accomplished.

From the very beginning, the object of the evangelist seemed to be to strengthen and stimulate those who profess to be Christians, and who have their names enrolled on the church books, and that he has started influences in that direction that will be permanent and continue to grow and spread, no one who has watched the congregations as well as the preacher, can for a moment doubt.

Mr. Jones wastes no time on theology, and he has no hair splitting dogmas and doctrines to confuse the minds of his hearers, but he plants himself square on the platform of "Quit your meanness and serve the Lord," and from that standpoint he appeals to men to do right, be honest, be good citizens and labor for good.

His bold denunciation of the prevailing evils in this city, his exhortations of the timid milk and water so-called Christian citizen who fails to do his duty as a citizen in the grand jury room and on the witness stand will, we believe, prove a permanent blessing.

That this city is one of the most orderly and moral in the United States there is no doubt, but it has its cesspools of iniquity, its dens of wickedness and its shameful violations of statute and pure society law.

Fewer perhaps of these things exist here than in most cities of Danville's size and activity, but why should there be any? Mr. Jones struck the keynote when he laid the blame on the shoulders of those who have the information needed by the courts before they can act in the matter of suppression, but who fail to testify. We are inclined to think his wonderful sermon of last Sunday afternoon will work a reformation "along this line."

The meetings were attended by hundreds, even thousands of people from the surrounding country and from neighboring towns, and hence the good that has resulted is not confined to Danville.

Another good work was that of bringing the different denominations in closer relations and making the ranks of those who stand on the moral side of every question more united and solid.

We believe those who heard the two evangelists through the entire series of sermons have acquired not only broader religious views and looser pure strings, but enlarged ideas of citizenship, and broader business views, which will go a long way in aiding the material prosperity of Danville and the surrounding country.

The erection of the Tabernacle was a good investment in more ways than one and bringing the evangelists here has been beneficial all around.

Sam Jones is a wonderful man.

IN HEAVEN.
Mrs. Hon. Caroline Dudley Dead.

EDITOR JOURNAL—In obedience to the will of Divine Providence, on last Sunday morning an angel was commissioned to carry the warrant of death to Mr. E. R. Dudley's residence and there await until his dear companion was made fully perfect in the eternal adoration of the living God, then this angel, as he did, was to accompany her immortal spirit in heaven. So at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when the whole church militant was at prayer opening its Sunday morning services, the heavenly telegraphic wires bore the message to the angel to unlink the brittle thread of life and bring from earth the soul of a true woman as ever lived, a devoted wife, an affectionate mother, a true friend of the sick, an uncompromising church worker, and one whose life has reflected unremitting rays of sunlight upon the minds and hearts of all who knew her. Now it is that the voices of many are saying "that a good woman has been removed from earth into heaven." In a blissful mansion lit up by the glory of God, her immortal soul will sit on the right hand of God and wait the coming of her dear husband and loving children.

Mrs. Caroline Dudley was a great and continued sufferer for more than three years, but having faith in God, she bore her sickness with patience and fortitude, submitting to the workings of God without one murmuring word of complaint; but she was constantly heard praying God for the blessing of His holy and comforting spirit.

While rhetoric is insufficient to describe the irretrievable loss Mrs. Dudley will be to her husband, children, the church, the sick and needy, neighbors and friends in common, our loss is her eternal gain.

For the Campaign.
In many ways the coming campaign will be the most interesting one that the voters of North Carolina have seen in many years. It will be an educational campaign, and economic questions will be largely discussed. The State Chronicle, published at Raleigh, will be in the thickest of the fight to maintain Democratic principles, and uphold those measures that will secure relief for our agricultural population. It will be sent to any address one year for the low price of $1.25. Send money by registered letter, money order or postal note.

That at this season the blood is filled with impurities, the accumulation of months of close confinement in poorly ventilated stores, workshops and tenements. All these impurities and every trace of scrofula, salt rheum, or other disease may be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier ever produced. It is the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

Duffy's Cough Mixture.
A prompt and efficient remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Sore-throats, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Etc.

One of the most effectual remedies I have ever known for a cough or cold is Duffy's Cough Mixture. It is indeed a rare combination of valuable medicines: arresting at once the progress of a cold and beginning to soothe and heal. Unlike all other cough medicines there is no narcotic or any other unpleasant effect experienced in taking it. I am more than pleased to be able to recommend to my friends here and the public at large every where such a safe, pleasant and effectual cure for one of the most prevalent complaints to which human flesh is heir.
