Blockaders Captured.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 19 .- Revenue Agent E. C. Murrow and General Deputy A. C. Patterson, with a posse of nine men, made a raid before day on moonshiners in the southern part of Burke county, and captured five large blockade stills, larger than any government still in this section, and destroyed hem, together with one hundred and fifty gallons of whisky and 8,000 gallone of beer. One blockader was captured, but managed to escape. The stills were located in a wild and almost inaccessible part of the country. This was the first raid made in that immediate section in over ten years. The blockaders had been armed and expected the raid for some time, but the officers slipped in on them from the rear and did their work. While destroying the first still some shots were fired, but no one injured.
