In the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly last Saturday a resolution was offered severely condemning the Louisiana Lottery. This was not necessary as a declaration of Presbyterian sentiment, but to emphasize the position of the Church on that subject.

BIRMINGHAM Alabama has been selected as the place for the next meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, and also for the next meeting of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly. This is an appropriate compliment to the central city of the New South.

It must be pleasing to noble natures to see the interest taken by Northern men in the ceremonies that will be observed in Richmond, at the unveiling of the statue of Gen. Lee, on the 29th instant. The Northman at last feels as much pride in the military genius of Lee and Jackson as the Southerner does in the achievements of Grant and McClellan.

THE Programme for Commencement at the State University is an attractive one, and we confess that no part of it is more pleasing to us than that which announces that Dr. T. B. Kingsbury will speak at the Alumni Banquet in response to the toast: "The Press of the State." The press could not have a better representative, nor the occasion be graced by a more knightly gentleman.

It is gratifying to know that in all the exciting scenes that have transpired during the present Congress the Democratic Representatives of North Carolina have stood by their colors. Fortunately for the State they are men of integrity, courage and intelligence, who command the respectful consideration of their fellow members. They are wedded to honor, and nothing can divorce them.

MR. TUCKER, of Virginia, having offered and advocated an amendment abolishing the tax on tobacco, Mr. McKinley, in opposing Mr. Tucker's amendment, said, "The committee on Ways and Means had not entirely abolished the tax on tobacco, first, because the country needed the money and, secondly, because it was not necessary to abolish it in order to preserve intact the great protective system of the Republican party." What is this but an admission that "the great protection system" is dearer to the Republican party than the liberties of the people?

EVERY thing that concerns "the Davis Family" is of interest to our people. Mrs. Jefferson Davis, in a letter to Colonel Wm. H. Ross, of Macon, Ga., writes: "Not that you have not probably heard it, but my kind regard for you causes me to announce my daughter's engagement to Mr. Alfred Wilkinson, of Syracuse, N. Y. I think the young couple have every chance of happiness together, my husband knew and liked him, and appreciated that regard which had existed nearly four years could not be uprooted. Send your good wishes for her as she sails on her return home on the 10th of May. I hoped to join her there, but find I cannot do so."

There are abundant prophecies of good for the farmers. The sugar beet is attracting attention and gives promise of greatly increased prominence in the future; the fibre of the cotton stalk is said to be the best material from which cotton-bagging can be made, and soon we are to have oil from corn. An exchange says: Oil from corn is one of the latest products which modern science every now and then throws upon the world. The maize, which is now grown in the United States at the rate of some 2,000,000,000 bushels per year, has been experimented with and found capable of yielding 3½ per cent. of its weight in oil, the germ of the kernel being the part from which the oil is extracted. The new material is of a pale yellow color, somewhat thicker than either the olive or cotton-seed oil, and does not seem to be readily available as a substitute for them, but it is well adapted for lubricating purposes, and may be used as a salad dressing, while it seems to be adaptable for liniments.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. W. Stewart exhibited some very fine potatoes yesterday afternoon. The Sunday School of the Church of Christ, Hancock street, will picnic at Pollockville tomorrow.

The Clyde wharf was full of freight yesterday to be removed—lumber, shingles and naval stores, chiefly.

An elegant fence is now being built around the H. B. Duffy lot on corner of Union and East Front streets, now owned by Mrs. Stimson.

Get your tickets for the "Song Tournament" tomorrow evening. Tickets on sale at Gooding's drug store this morning at 9 o'clock.

The Sunday-school of Bethel Methodist church, colored, picniced at Rock Spring yesterday. The steamer Trent took the party to the grounds.

Messrs. Rudolph Walker and Numa Nunn are having a bath house built off the foot of Broad street. The piling that was driven a few years ago for the "Athletic Club" is being used.

The business offices of the E. C. D. S. S. Company have been removed from the north to the south side of the warehouse, and have been made larger and more convenient. A neat waiting room is also being fitted up.

The following constitute the honor roll of New Berne Collegiate Institute for month ending May 16: Misses Lottie Hubbe, Etta Nunn, Willie Ferbee, Mammie Daniels; Messrs. Rob't Jones, Harry Marks, Thomas Roberts, T. C. Haskins.

The schooner John W. Bell ran into the steamer Manteo at the O. D. dock yesterday. The schooner was coming in and "rounded to" to drop anchor, but the anchor didn't drop as soon as expected, and she stove her jib-boom into the second-class cabin of the Manteo. No serious damage was done. The deck railing was broken and the corner of the cabin torn away.

Yesterday a little daughter of Mr. J. W. Traylor was returning home from school and in passing Mr. Thomas Gaskill's a dog ran out and bit her. When Mr. Gaskill heard of the unfortunate circumstance he sent the dog to Mr. Traylor to be killed. We sympathize deeply with the little girl, and hope that she will soon recover. The conduct of Mr. Gaskill in the matter is praiseworthy.

Beginning next Saturday a truck trail will be run daily, except Sunday, on the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. A. & N. C. train No. 208 will leave New Berne at 10.50 o'clock a. m., and connect at Goldsboro with Atlantic Coast line train No. 208 for all northern and eastern cities. The time from New Berne to New York will be about thirty-two hours. Truck leaving on this train on Saturday will be on the New York market Monday morning.

The following truck quotations were received last night from G. S. Palmer, N. Y.: Receipts of Southern vegetables of all kinds showed a large increase today; and prices ruled lower generally. Potatoes, owing to heavy receipts from Charleston, dropped to $4 to $4.50 for prime; seconds $2.50 to $3; cabbage firm at $2.50 to $3.25 per crate; beans in heavy supply and selling from $1 to $1.25; asparagus $1.25 to $1.75 per doz. Strawberries in light supply and fancy selling from 19 to 18 cts; p prime 15.

Quarters for Veterans Who Go to Richmond.

As it is probable that a good many veterans will go from this locality to Richmond to attend the unveiling of the Lee Monument, we copy from the Dispatch information about getting quarters in the city:

"The committee from Lee Camp appointed to procure quarters and feed all organized veteran associations have secured the following places for that purpose:

"No. 1213 Main street, first floor, will be used as a restaurant; the upper floors for lodgings.

"No. 1308 Main street; restaurant on the first floor; upper part for lodgings.

"No. 1311 Main street, restaurant.

"The committee has also secured the three upper floors of No. 1009 Main street, Stearn's block, the Old-Market Hall, the old Tobacco Exchange, Medical College of Virginia, and Bishop Van de Vyver has tendered the committee the use of Cathedral Hall if it should be needed."

Free Sites and Free Transportation.

Elizabeth City is making the right efforts to become a permanent oyster canning centre. A correspondent of the Norfolk Landmark says:

"Mr. C. C. Allen, proprietor of the press brick yards and owner of the cottage farm, has authorized us to say that he will give free sites for as many oyster packing firms as desire to locate here, and if necessary will transport their stock free to the railroad station. The cottage farm is just outside the city limits, and has a beautiful water front of more than three-quarters of a mile. The smell arising from oyster houses make them objectionable, and it is more than probable that the authorities will move them from the heart of the town in time to come, as they have done in other cities. By accepting the proposition of Mr. G. B. Thompson, Capt. Sam. Waters Allen and others, who have authorized us to make offer of free sites, and by following the example of oyster packers who have already been here and located sites on the outskirts of town where they will work next winter, all trouble in this line will be avoided if it should ever arise. To be sure nothing has been said officially so far, but private individuals who live in the neighborhood of these packing houses complain of the smell, though they are too enterprising to enter anything like a kick."

The Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.
CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 20.—The 115th anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was celebrated here today. Senator Vance was the orator of the day. In his speech he said every aggrieved class seeking redress should be careful not to let redress be turned into revenge. Governor Fowle and State Auditor Sanderlin also spoke.

The finest trades parade ever seen in this city was made by the local merchants, assisted by four military companies and nine fire companies. There were four entries for the military prize drill: The Raleigh Infantry, Monroe Light Infantry, and the Charlotte Hornet's Nest Riflemen. The Wilmington company won the first prize of $200. Charlotte the second of $100, and Monroe the third of $25. The firemen prize contest and band contests will take place tomorrow. The State Fireman's Association is in session here.

In Respect.
Whereas, It has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe to remove from us our late brother, Alpheus W. Wood, who was born July 19th, 1854, and who died in San Antonio, Texas, on the third day of May, 1890; and whereas, it is but just that there should be a fitting recognition of his many virtues, therefore, be it Resolved, That in the death of A. W. Wood this lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of the fraternity. An active member of this society whose utmost endeavor was exerted for its welfare and prosperity. A friend and companion who was esteemed by all. A young man in the bloom of youth and vigor, kind hearted and true.
Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to his friends and relatives in their affliction.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge and a copy thereof be transmitted to relatives of the deceased brother, and to our city paper for publication.

Don't Feel Well.
And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.
From the State Papers.

Raleigh News and Observer: Fourteen bicycles for the Raleigh Bicycle Club arrived here yesterday consigned to Mr. Will Wynne. The dress parade will come off shortly.

Raleigh Progressive Farmer: A Reidsville doctor is making fame by writing a book entitled, "The History of the Grip in North Carolina." A Smithfield colored man is in jail charged with selling meat from a hog that had died a natural death.

Wilmington Star: A dispatch from Washington, D. C., says that the resignation of Col. W. P. Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms of the U. S. Senate, will probably not be presented until May 20, and will take effect July 1st. The announcement of the postponement has brought out a big crop of aspirants.

Greensboro Workman: Our reporter, while "prospecting" in Randolph county for old people, some days ago, was told of a certain old lady, Mrs. Fox, of whom it was ascertained that she could jump into a wagon and drive off in a trot standing up, and preserve her balance as well as any young man could do. And Mrs. Fox is 90 years old, or close thereabout.

Wilmington Messenger: A gentleman who has just been through Mississippi is quoted in an interview in the Charlotte Chronicle as saying: "At Vicksburg I met a negro man from North Carolina who used to drive a stage from Louisiana to Frankfort, and whom I know. He told me that one of the latest breaking killed seventy negroes from North Carolina. Those who were not drowned starved to death in the trees in which they fled for refuge. The ground had been perfectly dry the night before when they retired. If I lived in that country I should never go to sleep without a boat being changed to my bed."

Stonewall Items.

There was one flight in front of the court house on Monday between one Williamson and a McGowan. No damage done.

The prevalent belief is that court week is always a wet one, and this one did not falsify the prevailing idea. We were full wet when court came, and got still wetter after its arrival on Monday.

There was a severe and destructive hail storm passed below here about nine miles, which did considerable damage to the crops of C. A. Flowers, Jno. Moore, and all in the immediate neighborhood; and the wet in our section has added quite an amount of work for the farmers.

The Irish potato crop bids fair to be a big yield. Some have dug, and there will be a good lot shipped next week if there is any means of shipping. Where is the Tahoma? Echo answers where! We surely are in need of some reliable means of transportation?

M. Hahan had a runaway after court adjourned. His horse took fright at some hogs running under him and took a bound around among the crowd. No damage, only riding the buggy of its top, upsetting S. J. Lane's buggy, and causing a small amount of excitement and curiosity.

Our court was convened on Monday at 11 o'clock, Judge Whitaker presiding, and on Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock it was adjourned, having exhausted the docket; and I can truthfully say that no judge that has presided at one of our courts has given more satisfaction than Judge Whitaker. There was but one word of complaint, and that was because the Judge failed to convene the court until 11 o'clock, and held the court until past 8 o'clock at night on a frivolous suit of four dollars damages, to the detriment of all who had to be at home to attend to their own interests, for it was evident that there was no necessity, as there was but a small amount of business and no pressing, as there was not a single criminal in our jail nor a single State case of much importance. It was the opinion that it was solely for the convenience of the Judge to get home, no difference who was inconvenienced. No cases of public interest were on the docket.

What Englishmen Say of R. E. Lee.
Invitations were sent to several distinguished men in Europe asking them to come to the unveiling of the Lee statue, but, as was expected, the great distance will probably preclude any of them from visiting Richmond on that occasion.
Two of those who were invited have responded to the invitations, and while they cannot be here they speak of General Lee as the very highest type of manhood.

AN OFFICER'S OPINION.
Lieutenant-General Feamintle, of the department of the Adjutant-General for auxiliary forces, writes to the Governor from London under the date of May 9th as follows:
"I am extremely flattered by the invitation which has been sent me to attend at the unveiling of General Lee's statue at Richmond, Va. I regret very much that my official duties will prevent my being able to attend at a ceremony so interesting a description. I shall always regard General Lee as the greatest and best man I ever had the good fortune to meet."

WOULD LIKE TO HONOR HIM.
Colonel L. Landlife writes to Governor McKinney from Wootley Hall, Sheffield, May 10th, the following:
"I have received through Mr. Frank Lawley the invitation to be present at the unveiling of a monument to Gen. Robert Edward Lee at Richmond, Va., on Thursday, May 20th, and I request you, sir, to believe me when I say that I felt highly honored by the receipt of that invitation from one in your high position. Were I a younger man, and therefore probably more unencumbered than I am with duties and engagements of various characters, I might be able to profit by the kindness extended to me, I am afraid that it is quite impossible for me to spare the time required for a journey and voyage to Virginia and back, and I am therefore reluctantly compelled to decline the invitation. It would have been a sincere pleasure to me to do as much honor as possible to the memory of so great a general and so good a man as General R. E. Lee."

Duffy's Cough Mixture.

A prompt and efficient remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Sore-throats, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Etc.

One of the most effectual remedies I have ever known for a cough or cold is Duffy's Cough Mixture. It is indeed a rare combination of valuable medicines: arresting at once the progress of a cold and beginning to soothe and heal. Unlike all other cough medicines there is no narcotic or any other unpleasant effect experienced in taking it. I am more than pleased to be able to recommend to my friends here and the public at large every where such a safe, pleasant and effectual cure for one of the most prevalent complaints to which human flesh is heir.
