LOVE all, trust a few, but always yourself.

JOHN G. CARLISLE has taken his seat in the Senate.

THE McKinley bill has passed the House and now goes to the Senate, where Mr. Carlisle will take another whack at it.

THE best service a man can do his country is to be a good citizen. This, acted on by all, is the solution of every governmental problem.

TEN Congressmen have died since the opening of the present Congress. One Senator—Beck, and nine Representatives—Gay, Burns, Townshend, Cox, Laird, Nutting, Kelly, Wilber and Randall.

THE late meetings of Conferences, Conventions and Presbyteries, have shown gigantic strides in Christian evangelization indicating that the time is not far distant when the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord.

REV. THOS. DIXON, the brilliant young North Carolinian who has gained so enviable a reputation in New York in referring to the war on Sunday daily papers said that he had rather read a live paper than listen to a dead preacher.

THE difference that sometimes exists between brothers is illustrated by the Carlyle's of England. Thomas was the great philosopher and essayist, while his brother James, who has lately died in London, was the highest authority in all England on small wood and house vermin.

THERE will be an immense gathering at Richmond on Thursday to witness the unveiling of the statue of Robert E. Lee. Veteran organizations will be present from all parts of the South, and there will be large numbers present from beyond our borders.

WE are in favor of the proposition to promote Dr. Kinsbury. There now! The accomplished editor of the Messenger would never speak of the transfer of a great editor to a college professorship as a promotion, and we modify our expression by saying we would be pleased with the change if agreeable to our distinguished friend.

OF the gallant band who made the world renowned charge at Balaklava, twenty are in an English workhouse, others are existing as best they can, and every once in a while a few of them turn up in this section of the world. Such is fame, such the sweet reward of patriotic service. —New York Press.

ALL of us are proud of Charlotte. She has just celebrated the first Declaration of American Independence in a manner worthy of the event it was intended to commemorate, and her example should stimulate all the people of North Carolina to the proper observance of the most memorable event in their history.

THE negroes of Baltimore have had an emancipation celebration at which Isaac Meyers, President of the meeting very sensibly said: "It is the negro's duty to think for himself. The time has come when he should not be subservient to any politician. His politics should not be determined by his skin. He should stand side by side and vote with the white man. If he cannot do that, his enfranchisement is a failure."

SENATOR EVARTS has almost as large a residence in Washington as he has in New York. He has three houses which he keeps open all the time—one at New York—one at Washington and one at Windsor, Vt. At each he has a library—almost a duplicate of his other two—filled with the best works of law, history, political economy, poetry and prose fiction. The Senator likes his comfort, and his ambition and satisfaction is to live like an English gentleman, on a luxurious and liberal scale, without any regard to the petty economies of life. It cannot cost him less than $100,000, a year to live.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
W. M. WATSON—Warning.
E. B. ROBERTS—Truck notice.
C. B. HILL—Timothy hay, corn, etc.

No services at New street M. E. Church today.

The market was well supplied with a variety of fish yesterday.

The Atlantic engine and hose carriage and driver and horses returned from Charlotte yesterday on the freight train.

"Got any five-cent handkerchiefs?" asked a country darkey of a Middle street merchant yesterday. "Yes."

It is announced that Bishop Watson, of the Eastern Diocese of North Carolina, and Miss Mary K. Lord, of Wilmington, are to be married in New York June the 6th.

Here is another instance that advertising pays even from unsuspected sources. Mr. R. J. Gooding has received an order from Murray, Miss., for druggists' articles that had been advertised in the JOURNAL. Thus trade is drawn 1,000 miles distant.

The approach of summer weather increases the demand for ice, and we would suggest that our dealers deliver ice to their patrons. It would undoubtedly give much satisfaction to those who do not keep regularly employed servants. Often it is more expensive to send for it than what the ice sells for.

The ladies and gentlemen who participated in the Song Tournament are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Frederick J. Jones, on Eden street, at half-past 8 o'clock on Monday evening, to arrange about the music which will be rendered at the Festival for the benefit of the Elm City Baseball Association on Tuesday night. The ladies are requested to bring any music which they may think will be appropriate.

We had a pleasant business call from Mr. Sigismund Proakey yesterday. He is a full fledged Polander, and while he has no hope for the restoration of his native land, he is still possessed of that devoted love and patriotic zeal that has always characterized his race. He has been a resident of the United States a number of years and is now making search for oak ties in the interest of the New York Central and Lehigh Valley Railroads.

A LaGrange correspondent writing to the Kinston Free Press says: "Prof. John Portis, who, two weeks ago, in company with Dr. Bizzell, went to Texas on a prospecting tour, arrived at home Saturday night. He was not very well pleased with Texas. He says that Dr. Bizzell is still looking for a better country, having gone on to California. We predict that in another week or so he will turn up at home, better satisfied with the old North State than ever."

Personal.
Major Harrell, secretary of the North Carolina Teacher's Assembly, went down to Morehead City last night, to look after the Assembly's property. The prospects are bright for a very successful and enjoyable session.

Miss Maud Saunders, assistant telegraph operator in the West Union office, left yesterday on a visit to her home in Richmond. Mr. T. R. Garner, of Newport, takes Miss Saunders' place here in her absence.

Judge Whitaker and Judge Armfield are in the city.

A PLEASING REMEDY.
Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when constipated or bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Death of Rev. Dr. J. E. Mann.

It was sad news indeed to many of our people yesterday morning to hear of the death of Rev. Dr. J. E. Mann, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church. For several days the many friends of Dr. Mann had been anxious concerning his condition, though the reports received were not definite.

Yesterday morning Mr. T. A. Green received the following telegram:

St. Louis, May 24, 1890.
T. A. Green:—Dr. Mann, your pastor, died of typhoid fever last night.

JNO. R. BROOKS.
This news spread rapidly, and it was a great shock to the congregation, whose love and high esteem Dr. Mann had won, and to his numerous friends throughout the city. Seemingly so full of life and vitality, so robust and strong when he left here three weeks ago, it is sad indeed and hard to realize that he has fallen so soon. The deepest sympathy of all who knew him here goes out to the afflicted family.

Dr. Mann was well known in this section of the State, having been Presiding Elder of this district for four years previous to the four years in Greensboro before coming here this year.

The North Carolina Conference loses one of its ablest preachers, the New Berne Centenary church a beloved pastor and the State a noble citizen.

The bereaved congregation here telegraphed to learn whether the remains would be sent here and expressed the earnest desire that they should be. Mr. Green received the following reply:

St. Louis, May 24.
T. A. Green:—Will start with the body Monday. Don't yet know its destination. Memorial services will be held here tomorrow at 8:30 o'clock.

JNO. R. BROOKS.

But later the following telegram was received from Goldsboro:

GOLDSBORO, May 24.
T. A. Green:—Mrs. Mann wishes the body sent to Winston.

B. R. HALL.
So the body will be sent to Winston, the home of Mrs. Mann's relatives. Mrs. Mann has been visiting in Greens county since Dr. Mann went to St. Louis.

The official body of Centenary church met yesterday afternoon to take appropriate action in regard to the matter.

It was decided that no services should be held in the church today.

Memorial services will be held next Sunday if it is possible for the Presiding Elder to be here at that time.

The following committee was appointed to draft resolutions: Rev. G. W. Neal, Messrs. T. A. Green, G. T. Adams, J. J. Wolfenden and F. Ulrich.

It was also decided that the chairman and two others shall attend the funeral in Winston.

The Diocese of East Carolina.

From a private source we learn that the recent council of the Diocese at Greenville inaugurated some decided plans of activity. It was determined to employ a general missionary for the Diocese, the Bishop to select the proper person. Resolutions favoring the establishment of a college in the Diocese were passed; and a committee to solicit funds for that purpose was appointed. Mr. J. B. Bonner of Aurora promptly subscribed one thousand dollars to the fund.

The office of Chancellor was created and our townsman, Mr. Henry R. Bryan, elected to that important position.

The Trip to Richmond.

A notice appeared in the JOURNAL a week ago requesting all Confederate Veterans living in New Berne, intending to go to Richmond for the unveiling of the Lee Monument, to report their names to Mr. Matt. Manly, Mr. W. G. Brinson or Gen. C. A. Battle.

It is necessary that this should be done at once, as the railroad companies require that, in order to secure the lowest rate of fare, $4.75, there must be a body of twenty offering to go. One ticket will be issued for the whole party of not less than twenty veterans.

Not a sufficient number has reported as yet, and unless the number, twenty, is made up the rate for each one will be $8.35 to Richmond and return. Report at once, and make the matter sure.

Kinston is Acting.

Writing and talking about establishing manufacturing do not suffice the citizens of Kinston. Two of her business men have been sent where cotton and other mills are at work to make a personal examination with the intention of going to work. We quote from the "Free Press":

"Messrs. J. W. Grainger and J. F. Taylor left Tuesday for Raleigh and Greensboro to look into the cotton factories and knitting mills and obtain information regarding the co-operative plan of establishing factories, etc. They will be away several days. A meeting will be held when they return to organize a stock company to establish a factory of some kind here."

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were before the Mayor yesterday:

Hugh Simmons, chap. 3, sec. 16, playing games on the streets. Discharged.

James Simmons, same.

John Henry Croom, chap. 8, sec. 8, loud hollering in the city. Judgment, pay cost, $3.20.

Lettice Cobbett, larceny, sent to Superior Court.

Alex. Clark, sent to Superior Court.

Kinston Items.

Kinston College will close on May 30th. There will be no Commencement this year.

Mr. Geo. Tull was badly horned by a bull yesterday, but we are glad to hear that his wound is not serious.

Several of our people will go to Richmond next week to attend the Unveiling.

The truckers around Kinston have made a light crop this year.

MAY 22D, 1890.

TO MR. AND MRS. T. M. C.

"I know in grief like thine how more than vain All comfort to the stricken heart appears; And as the bursting cloud must spend its rain, So grief its tears.

"I know that when thy little darling's form Had freed the living spirit fettered there, You could not pierce beyond the breaking storm In your despair.

"You only knew those precious eyes were dim; You only felt the silent lips were cold; You only clung to what remained of him

Beneath the mold.

"You could not see the tender hand that caught Your little lamb to shield him from all harms.

You missed him from your own, but never thought Of Jesus' arms.

"But oh! young mother look! the gate unbars! And through the darkness, smiling from the skies, Are beaming on you brighter than those stars, Your darling's eyes.

"Tis said that when the pastures down among The Alpine vales have ceased to feed the flocks, And they must mount where yet the grass is young

Far up the rocks,

"The shepherd takes a little lamb at play And lifts him gently to his careful breast; And with its tender bleating leads the way

For all the rest.

"That first the mother follows in the path; Then others go—like men of faith and hopes— And soon the shepherd gathers all he hath

High up the slopes.

"And in those everlasting hills he feeds The trusting fold in green that never falls! Look up! oh, see! your little darling leads! The shepherd calls."

IN MEMORIAM.

CONSTABLE.—"Another angel enters heaven." Died, at West Point, Va., on Thursday, May 23, 1890, Oliver Grice Constable, aged 18 months, son of Thomas M. and Martha H. Constable.

Seldom have we seen a more healthy, more interesting, more precocious child than this was a few months past. Almight God in his infinite wisdom has taken him from his parents, his relatives, his friends, who doubtless had to too great a degree centered their love on him.

"It is well with the child." He is "safe in the arms of Jesus." A. Newbern, N. C.

The Best Remedy.

Every ingredient employed in producing Hood's Sarsaparilla is strictly pure, and is the best of its kind it is possible to buy. All the roots and herbs are carefully selected, personally examined, and only the best retained. So that from the time of purchase until Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared, everything is carefully watched with a view of attaining the best result? Why don't you try it?

Warning!

All persons are forbidden from pasturing their stock of any kind upon the Academy Green.

Any stock found upon the ground in future will be turned over to the city authority and the owner prosecuted for trespass.

W. M. WATSON, Sec. Treas. New Berne Acad.
