SODA WATER on draught today at JOHN DUNN'S. 4f.

AN extensive canning factory is to be established at Newton.

THE water power of North Carolina is cheap and in the greatest abundance.

In Berlin all employers have consented to abolish Sunday labor. A good move.

It is said that Bismarck and Emperor William are resuming their friendly relation.

THE King of the Belgians is considering a visit to America in the interest of a Congo loan.

THE production of olives is increasing in California, both for the manufacture of oil and for pickled olives.

THE Secretary of War has amended the army regulations so as to prohibit the sale of liquor in canteens to soldiers.

PROFESSOR FORSTER, of Breslau, has had 300 cases of affected eyesight due to disturbance of the circulation caused by wearing tight collars.

It is not generally known that Ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, of New York City has investments in the South amounting to about five millions of dollars.

EX-GOVERNOR LOWRY and Col. William H. McArdle are engaged in the preparation of a history of Mississippi, from its earliest settlement to the present time.

THE wage-workers throughout the United States, as well as Great Britain and Europe, are at this time attracting more attention than ever before in the world's history.

RIGHT cotton factories, sixteen banks and various other enterprises have been started in South Carolina within a year. Corporations chartered between October, 1888, and October, 1889, number eighty-two, with an aggregate capital of over $41,000,000.

As an instance of the loss of stock in Oregon, it is related that, early this spring, two piles of dead horses were found on Bridge Creek, one of 18 and the other of 9 head. They had evidently huddled together to escape the cold and perished one by one.

PHILIP HENSEN, a planter, residing near Corinth, Miss., is believed to be the possessor of the longest beard in the world. He is a man of unusual stature, standing nearly six and one-half feet in his stockings; this notwithstanding, his beard reaches the ground when he is standing erect. This remarkable growth is but fourteen years old.

To the condemnations of tight lacing Professor Verchow added his strong word in a recent lecture at Berlin, on diseases of the liver. He pointed out that the outward pressure of tight lacing so surely affected the internal organs that from the shape of a liver one could determine to what period of fashion the possessor belonged. Excessive lacing caused whole portions of the liver to disappear. Others grow abnormally, causing changes of the most vital importance to the patient."

"In the competition of intelligence and manual skill," says the New York Times, "the old-fashioned farmer is beaten and driven out of business or forced to emigrate to new fields where the virgin soil will give a sufficient return to afford subsistence for a few years and until the same pressure pushes him still further to the front. This is the explanation of the fact that so many men crowd to every opening of new lands with all their few possessions gathered in a wagon and their stock driven in advance. It is the froth carried on the crest of an ever-advancing wave, which does not move the more solid material over which it passes. This remains behind firmly fixed, and cleansed and purified, and strengthened by the pressure which has carried away all the lighter material."

LOCAL NEWS.

The Electric Light and Power Company are having a wharf built at their river front.

The schooner Enterprise, of Wilmington, Del., and the Lena, of Washington, are at Howard's ship yard being painted and repaired.

A telegram from G. S. Palmer, New York, yesterday, says: "Beans scarce and higher; selling at $1.50 to $3; wax beans, $2.50. Potatoes slightly firmer."

The Raleigh News and Observer says: "Rev. L. W. Crawford, of Greensboro, is being prominently mentioned as the successor of the late Dr. A. W. Mangum."

Mr. John Dunn received the following telegram last night from Pape & Deyo, of New York: "Beans $2 to $2.50 half barrel; potatoes $3, and good prospects."

Hook-and-line fishermen are having good "luck," from all accounts, but scarcity of fresh fish in the market yesterday would indicate that the nets did poor work.

Master Willie Dunn, son of Mr. John Dunn, held the lucky coupon at the festival Tuesday night, and won the handsome watch. The baseball club realized a handsome sum from the festival—about $75 net.

In charging the jury, in a certain case yesterday, His Honor Judge Armfield said: "I charge you, gentlemen, that drunkenness is no excuse for crime; such excuse would be the using of one crime for the extenuation of another." This is a fact that many people do not seem to realize.

We received last night an enquiry from Roxboro, N. C., for the address of Mr. J. E. Calhoun, of Baltimore, who wrote sometime since interesting letters to the JOURNAL, concerning the cost, etc., of establishing fruit and vegetable canneries. The citizens of Roxboro are considering the question of establishing an industry in their town.

Today the city of Richmond presents itself a throng of zealous people, gathered there in honor of that noble-chieftain and beloved commander, General ROBERT EDWARD LEE. Many do not hesitate one moment to proclaim him the greatest man America has ever produced. Surely we are glad to know that New Berne has at this moment so large a delegation present to pay their respects to the departed nobleman.

Personal.
Dr. G. K. Bagby went to Richmond yesterday and will be absent until Monday night.

Mrs. Huske, of Fayetteville, is visiting her father, Mr. Wm. H. Oliver.

W. G. Brinson, Esq., returned last night from Raleigh, where he has been assisting in the organizing of a Grand Lodge of the Royal Arcanum.

Shipping News.

The steamer Annie, of the E. C. D. line, will arrive today and sail tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Eaglet of this line will sail Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The steamer Defiance, of the Clyde line, arrived yesterday morning from Baltimore with cargo of general merchandise and sailed on return trip last night with full cargo of exports.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is on the flood tide of popularity, which position it has reached by its own intrinsic, undoubted merit.

Mayor's Court.

There were two cases before His Honor, acting Mayor Dunn yesterday morning. The proceedings of the court are as follows:

J. B. Arnold, colored, charged with violating sections 7 and 9 of chapter 9, city ordinance, by allowing his horse to run at large within the city limits, was discharged.

Harmon Sparrow, colored, charged with same offense as above, was found guilty and fined $3 and cost. The fine was remitted.

Commencement Exercises.

The Commencement exercises of the University of North Carolina will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, June 4th and 5th, 1890. Baccalaureate sermon Sunday June 1st, by Rev. Thos. Straege. Alumni day, Wednesday, June 4th. Alumni address, Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn. Address in memory of Dr. Charles Phillips by R. H. Battle, Esq., presentation of memorial tablets, business meeting of Alumni, and banquet. On Thursday will be held the graduating exercises of the senior class and a reception for alumni and guests. The public are cordially invited. There will be reduced rates over the railroads.

On to Richmond!

About twenty-five men, most of them, Confederate Veterans, left on yesterday's train for Richmond. We noted the following named gentlemen, who boarded the train: Gen. Robert Ransom, Gen. C. A. Battle, Messrs. B. G. Credle, D. Hassell, Henry Gaskins, Jos. Baxter, B. B. Davenport, D. W. Roberts, J. C. Thomas, W. D. Wallace, Dr. G. K. Bagby. Col. C. S. Bryan, Mr. Turner, Messrs. H. C. Whitehurst and Clement Manly, Messrs. Baxter, Fowler and Quick, of Pamlico, and Messrs. E. M. Foscoe and J. W. Wooten, of Jones.

Today, the 29th of May, 1890, the time of the unveiling of the Lee monument, will probably be the last "great" day the Confederacy will have. May the old veterans and their sons enjoy it.

Superior Court Proceedings.

The court convened yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and put in a good day's work. The following cases were disposed of:

Robert Green, colored, larceny; nol pros.

Edward F. Starkey, colored; seduction; guilty; sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

R. A. Williams, abduction; nol pros. with leave.

George Artis and Andrew Cotton, colored, forcible trespass; not guilty.

Joseph Idlet, colored, A. & B.; defendant pleaded guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Susaa Fisher, colored, larceny; pleaded guilty, and judgment was suspended on payment of cost.

Sidney French, burning fence; guilty, sentenced to twelve months in county jail, with privilege of commissioners to hire out, and fined $50.

Emerson Walker, colored, A. & B.; guilty; thirty days in jail.

John Mayo, colored, larceny and receiving stolen goods; guilty; sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

John Dinkins, selling liquor without license; guilty; judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Frank Blount, colored, larceny; defendant pleaded guilty; judgment suspended and defendant discharged.

The Court took a recess until 9 o'clock this morning.

Richmond—Preparations for the Unveiling Ceremonies.

RICHMOND, May 27.—The city is rapidly filling with strangers. All arrangements for the entertainment of the military and veterans have been completed, and a number of troops have already arrived.

Richmond is in holiday garb. Private houses, business places and public buildings are artistically embellished with flags, streamers, shields and various other ornamentalments.

Rev. J. L. M. Curry will entertain at dinner, Thursday, Gen. Jos. E. Johnston, Gov. Gordon of Georgia, Fitzhugh Lee of Va., Gov. Fowle of North Carolina, U. S. Senators Carlisle of Kentucky, Reagan of Texas, and Hampton of South Carolina, Hon. Robert M. McLane of Maryland, Hon. John Randolph Tucker and Calderon Carlisle of Washington, D. C.

When General Johnston unveils the Lee monument it will be flanked on one side by a one-legged Confederate veteran and on the other side by a one-armed veteran. One will bear the Confederate flag, the other the headquarters flag of the famous Pegram battalion of artillery.

Don't Feel Well,

And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncertain, uncomfortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

A Case of Meat Poisoning.

On last Wednesday, Mr. J. nas Chappell, of Oaks Farm, came into the city and bought a side of what is known as Baltimore bacon and carried it out to the farm to supply the table of some hands who were chopping cotton. It was served next morning and Mr. Chappell's family also ate some of it for breakfast. Very shortly after, everybody who had eaten the meat was taken with violent heaving and vomiting. Two of them got partially over the bad effects within twenty-four hours, but five others remained deathly sick. Dr. J. B. H. Knight was called in and his patients kept him in a most lively "gallopade" going from one to the other to relieve the violent spasms by which the sick people were constantly being attacked. He finally succeeded in getting them all relieved and they are now resting well and all thought to be out of danger.

They eye with the gravest suspicion all food put before them now, and have an unconquerable aversion to bacon.—Raleigh Chronicle.

Attempted Assassination.

ROPER, N. C., May 26.—A bold attempt at assassination was committed here Saturday night, about ten o'clock. Some unknown person fired a load of buckshot at a party of colored people standing in front of a shop, seriously wounding four men and one woman. The shooting was done at short range and would have been death to several if the gun had not been aimed rather low.

The woman in this case is a pretty mulatto about seventeen years old, and is the wife of Lloyd Arnold, who is now serving a term of ten years for killing his wife that it might marry this woman, which he did at earliest convenience after. As soon as he married this last woman his brother Dennis got his wife, whose daughter she was, to prosecute Lloyd for marrying an infant. Falling in this, Dennis next turned detective and found that his brother had murdered his former wife, and soon after procured his arrest. With Lloyd safe in jail, Dennis supposed that his wife's pretty daughter would be obedient to his will. No sooner was her husband out of the way than admirers looked about her by the score, and Dennis, finding himself balked at every turn, it is thought, is guilty of the shooting. He was arrested Sunday morning and lodged in jail.

Convention of German Catholics.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 26.—The greatest convention of German Catholics ever held in the west opened here today. Sixty-six societies connected with the Central Catholic Society are represented, and it is calculated that close upon 15,000 adherents of that denomination from outside points are in the city. This is the first gathering of the kind in the United States, and while its primary object is to form a State organization and to elect delegates to the national convention to be held in Baltimore next month, it has a political as well as lay significance, from the fact that the Bennett law as well as questions relating to the training and education of children are to be considered.

The delegates assembled this morning and an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Peck and responded to by Hon. H. I. Spanghorst, of St. Louis, President of the Catholic Central Society of the United States, Gustave Kaiser, and representatives of State organizations.

Accidental Drowning.

The accidental drowning of little Robert Hage, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. F. J. Hage, sr., the Bohemian artist of this city, while in bathing near old Waynesboro, on Neuse river, Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, occasioned much sincere sorrow in this community, whose good people sympathize deeply with the afflicted father in his sudden and great sorrow. Many people repaired quickly to the scene of the drowning and search was at once instituted for the body, which was found several hours afterwards, about twenty yards from its going down, up the stream, in an eddy. The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock from the Baptist church, Rev. J. S. Dill officiating.—Goldsboro Argus.

Earthquake Destroys a Village.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 27.—The village of Repachie, in Armenia, has just been destroyed by an earthquake. A number of mineral springs spouted from crevices made in the earth by the shock, and the flow of water was so great that adjacent fields were flooded. The earthquake was preceded by a rumbling which caused the inhabitants to flee from the village, and they thus escaped death from falling houses. No lives were lost.

The Methodist General Conference.

ST. LOUIS, May 26.—In the Methodist Episcopal General Conference today, Rev. Wm. H. Harrison, of Nashville, was re-elected book editor. Rev. Dr. W. G. E. Cunningham was elected editor of Sunday school literature. The proposition to take from the Holston Conference its North Carolina territory and add to the new West North Carolina was agreed to, after long debate.

Bank President Elected.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 26.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Citizens' National Bank today Dr. W. J. Hawkins was elected president, vice W. E. Anderson, deceased. Col. A. B. Andrews, third president of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, was elected vice president.

The Naval Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—In the Senate the naval bill was taken up. Mr. Cockrell's motion to strike out the appropriation for three battle ships at $4,000,000 was rejected, and the bill passed.

Seventy-Seven Chinamen Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 26.—Capt. Anderson, of the ship Oneida, arrived here last night on the steamer Mary Kimball. He reports that his ship was wrecked April 26th on Hennine's Rock, Lank Island, in Behring Sea, and 77 Chinamen lost. The Oneida had on board 110 Chinese and 45 white men, nearly all on the way to the salmon cannery on Lank Island.

The Petersburg Music Festival.

PETERSBURG, Va., May 26.—A great many people arrived here tonight to attend the annual musical festival, which opens tomorrow. A very large attendance is assured.

Protect the System from Malaria.

It is possible to do this even in regions of country where miasma is most rife, and where the periodic fevers which it causes assume their most formidable types. The immense popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is very largely attributable to the fact of its efficacy as a remedy for chills and fever, bilious remittents, and as a preventive of the various forms of malarial disease. In those portions of the West and South where complaints of this nature prevail, and in the Tropics, it is particularly esteemed for the protective influence which it exerts; and it has been very widely adopted as a substitute for the dangerous and comparatively ineffective alkaloid, sulphate of quinine. Physicians have not been among the last to concede its merits, and the emphatic professional endorsements which it has received have added to the reputation it has obtained at home and abroad.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 24, 1890.

Ground was broken to-day at KIMBALL, the new town in Marion County, on the banks of the Tennessee. Notwithstanding the fact that the starting of new towns in the South is now of frequent occurrence, yet the unusual importance of this occasion induced Governor Taylor, the State Officials of Tennessee, and many distinguished citizens of this and other States to assemble in its honor.

Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis R. R., brought in his private car a party composed of some of the fairest daughters of Tennessee, one of whom drew the flag to the top of the stately liberty pole that had been planted on the summit of a symmetrical Indian mound which is one of the interesting features of this lovely locality. Prof. Edward Hull, director of the Geological survey of Ireland, threw the first spadeful of earth, and Prof. J. M. Safford, State Geologist of Tennessee, the next. Addresses were made by Gov. Taylor and other distinguished men. The central event of the day was the brief inaugural address of Hon. H. I. Kimball, Chief Executive manager of this enterprise. In his epigrammatic style he showed that this event was the key to unlock the immense treasures of the whole Sequatchee Valley, and he portrayed in glowing terms the vast industrial development that would result in the establishment of a manufacturing center at this point that would rival the most noted places of the kind in Great Britain and Germany.

It is well known in this section that Mr. Kimball invariably accomplishes far more than he promises; therefore his brief address has had a most magical effect, and it is the universal opinion here that the christening sale of city lots at KIMBALL, June 10th and 11th, will be, in all respects, the most successful of any yet held, and that the purchasers will chiefly be genuine settlers who have absolute faith in the enterprise. m274f
