JOHN A. BARRINGER is a candidate for Judicial honors in Judge Womack's district.

ON Saturday eulogies of Samuel J. Randall were pronounced in the House of Representatives.

COL. H. H. S. BURGWIN is to write a history of North Carolina. It will be well done.

MRS. HARRISON says Benjamin will save half his salary as President. He will need it. This term will end his office-holding.

THE revolution against George the Third and his ministers was a consequence of taxation without representation. If Western voters do not rebel against the Reed and McKinley bill they have lost the spirit of '76.

DR. J. G. GORDON, of Winston, N. C., owns a watch five hundred years old. It is a curious affair, the works being painted red, and having red jewels. Dr. Gordon was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1790 and is now 100 years old.

EDUCATIONAL influences are slow in moving people, but they are sure. Ten of the leading Republican newspapers in the United States are openly hostile to the McKinley bill, while we have the evidence of Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson that all of the independence press and the magazines of the country are favorable to tariff reform.

THERE is no doubt whatever that we will very soon have a Soldiers' Home established and the liberal people of the State will have an opportunity of giving practical shape to their sympathies for the indigent Confederate soldiers among us. Once established, we do not doubt that the ladies will see that it is maintained. The women of North Carolina have never been appealed to in vain for any worthy object.—News and Observer.

MRS. MARY HOLLAND, of Grand Rapids, Mich., was arrested and taken before United States Commissioner Quewan for refusing to answer a census enumerator and driving him out of her house with an ax. When arraigned, she admitted the charge, but said he insulted her by asking if her husband was white, black, prisoner or convict, and she would not stand that from any man. She was held for the Grand Jury.

In their eager efforts to enact a Federal election law which would affect the election of Representatives to the Fifty-second Congress, it appears that the Republicans overlooked the fact that Oregon elected her Representatives in June, instead of November. As a consequence, no general law can now be enacted which will apply to the election of all the members to the next Congress, and any general law now passed cannot go into effect before the election to the Fifty-third Congress. In the meantime the Democrat's will control the next Congress.—Denver News.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS FOR SALE—Bathing suit. C. E. SLOVER—Rock lime, etc. Mrs. T. J. CROWDER—Ice cream. A. & N. C. R.—Teachers' assembly.

There will be a lecture tonight by the pastor at the Hancock Street Methodist church.

Two marriages in the city yesterday. There will be another at the New street M. E. Church this morning at 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. W. S. Rone, of Kinston, succeeds Rev. R. A. Willis as Presiding Elder of the New Berne district of the M. E. Church.

The train over the A. & N. C. Railroad went down in two sections last night, filled with a jovial crowd of teachers for the Assembly. There were about four hundred passengers on board.

Our public building is now a certainty, and the next question is where shall it be located? After considering the different places mentioned, we think the proper place is the northwest corner of Craven and Pollock streets.

A dispatch from Congressman Cheetam to our postmaster, Mr. W. E. Clarke, reads as follows: "The appropriation for public building at New Berne has just passed the house, and will be sent to senate immediately."

There has seldom been a more delighted audience than was assembled at the theatre last night to witness the school exercises of Vance Academy. It would have done credit to any school. The address of Mr. Peel will take place today at 11 o'clock, and at night will close the school exercises.

Another Fishing Picnic Today (For Men Only.)

The steamer Kinston will leave her dock today at 2-2 o'clock for points on the Neuse river. Fare (as before) 25 cents each. Bait and tackle furnished. A trip down the Neuse is always enjoyable, especially when the fish bite as they have been reported for the last month.

Fine Irish Potatoes.

Mr. R. D. Hodges, of Smith's creek, sent to the JOURNAL office yesterday a box of the finest Irish potatoes we have seen this season. They were of the "Red Rose" variety, large, smooth, all of a like size, and twenty-three filled a peck measure. This, with other evidences, of the fact, this spring, have proven to us that the Smith creek section of country is especially adapted to truck raising. We hope Mr. Hodges will have some of his fine potatoes on exhibition at our next Fair.

Severe Storm.

Mr. Edward Wadsworth was in town yesterday and reports a terrible storm at his home Monday afternoon. The wind was very severe, blowing down a chimney to his house and several large trees in his lawn. Lightning struck the house of Mr. Albert Wadsworth, ripping off some of the planks and slightly shaking Mrs. Wadsworth. The rain was also very heavy, but it is hoped that no great damage was done to the crops, as the corn and cotton are not high enough to be seriously affected by the wind.

Shipping News.

The steamer Newberne, of the O. D. line, sails today for Norfolk at 12 o'clock.

The steamer Vesper, of the E. C. D. line, will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The steamer Stout, of the Clyde line, arrived from Baltimore last night with cargo of general merchandise.

The schooner Unity R. Deyer, Capt. John W. Beverage, of Philadelphia, is taking on a cargo of lumber at Blade's mill.

The schooner M. E. Hiles, Capt. David Ireland, arrived from the West Indies yesterday with a cargo of molasses consigned to Roberts Bro. The trip was made in eight days, which is a quick passage.

The steamer Howard leaves this morning at seven o'clock, sharp, for Plokesville.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF VANCE ACADEMY.

Monday Night, June 16th.

It had rained during the day and though threatening just before night, a large audience early assembled at the theatre to hear the closing exercises of Vance Male and Female Academy. Precisely at 8:30 o'clock the curtain rose, and right here we wish to express our commendation of what is so often disregarded on public occasions—promptitude.

A strong and beautiful accompaniment from the piano presided over by Miss Maud Moore kept time for the class as they marched in and formed for the opening piece—that grand and ever inspiring song, "Ho for Carolina."

In the debating society there were twelve young men who though not as statesmen or brilliant orators, but as school boys, some of whom never before appeared in public, acquitted themselves creditably. The subject under discussion was, who is the greater, the Warrior, the Statesman or the Poet. J. W. Timberlake was president, H. B. Moore and Frank Tidale declaimers, and B. H. Melton, C. H. Bryan, S. A. Oaksmith, Z. E. Harris, J. P. C. Davis, G. W. Gaskill, J. F. Scheelky, W. A. Saddler, and J. W. Moore, jr., speakers. After a full discussion of the question it was decided that the poet, those who have immortalized themselves in verse, stood pre-eminent. There is no injustice in saying that Messrs. Melton, Gaskill, and Harry and Jimmie Moore were exceptionally clever in their roll.

Following came recitations by two very little Misses and a little boy. Miss Evelyn Bowden spoke "Papa's Letter." It could scarcely be improved upon. Her mimic of baby talk was nearly perfect. Some one else expressed it as very, very cute. "Pop" was a comic recitation by W. A. Salter. His style was suited to the piece and it produced a great deal of laughter. Miss Bessie Hodges gave some good advice in "Better than Gold." Her manner was unassuming and earnest.

"Is it Right" was a song prettily rendered by little folks only.

Two other recitations by Edward Bowden—"The Soldier Boy" and Miss Nettie Fowler—"The Captain's Daughter," were well received.

A song by class "Who Can Tell," was a beautiful piece of music, but lost one of its charms by the bass and tenor standing too far back on the stage for their parts to be sufficiently distinguished.

"Look Before You Leap" was spoken by Master Herbert Lupton; "Jack Frost," by Miss Lula Dickerson; "The Little Dreamer," Master Harry Scates; "The Little Angel," Miss Blanche Scheelky; "Poor Little Joe," Master H. B. Rhodes. These were all recitations and attentively listened to by the audience.

Miss Daisy Swert gave an instrumental solo on the piano. Her skillful execution and ease of touch were very noticeable.

The dialogue "Grotchen," was good for two so small persons as Misses Lula Dickerson and Bessie Hodges.

The laughable piece of the evening was recited by Mr. C. R. Waters—"My Last Coat." The hearty applause demanded a return which was acknowledged with a low bow and facetious flirt of what was once a coat.

In a few well chosen remarks Master Fred Whitty told about "A Hundred Years to Come."

The evening was closed with the beautiful song "Gathering Home" by full class.

National Election Law.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The National Election bill, as framed by the House Republican Caucus Committee, and introduced by Representative Lodge, of Massachusetts, has just been printed. It makes seventy-six printed pages, and is asserted to be a complete Federal election code, which has received the informal sanction of a number of Republican Senators. The title reads: "A bill to amend and supplement the election laws of the United States, and to provide for a more efficient enforcement of such laws and for other purposes."

Sermon by Dr. Hume, D.D., LL.D.

The Commencement sermon of the Vance Academy, preached by Rev. Dr. Thomas Hume, of Chapel Hill, in the Baptist Church yesterday, was one of the most profound and scholarly it has ever been our privilege to listen to. The distinguished speaker selected for his text the 32d verse of the 17th chapter of Luke: "Remember Lot's wife," as illustrating the succeeding verse: "Whoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his life shall preserve it." His theme was "Unsanctified Culture."

The great central truth of the masterly discussion was: the true life is within, and that which ministers to it is of supreme importance. He showed how God punishes those who neglect this real life, and vindicated by cogent argument and happy illustration, the purposes of God in judgments.

Some very appropriate personal lessons were evolved from the character and fate of Lot's wife, and an earnest appeal made for genuine piety, based upon repentance toward God and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ.

The effect of such a sermon, so thoughtful, earnest and eloquent, could scarcely fail to be for great good. Its language was chaste and beautiful, but its chief excellence, we think, was the saying of things needed to be said with all the fervor of personal conviction and all the authority of the truth. Those who were present were most fortunate, and those who were absent missed such an opportunity as is calculated to broaden thought, deepen character and brighten life.

The people of New Berne have, in the commencement sermons of this season, been peculiarly fortunate, and it is only to be regretted that their attendance has not evinced the appreciation such services deserve. The Baptist choir gave most excellent music—as, indeed, is the rule with this choir.

Personal.

Miss Kate Bryan left yesterday for Fayetteville, to visit friends and relatives.

Dr. Charles Duffy has returned from a trip through some of the eastern counties of the State and through a portion of Virginia. He tells us that the crops in the section through which he travelled are unusually good and well advanced. Cotton is especially fine.

Mr. Wm. Lorch and bride joined the Teacher's Assembly yesterday for Morehead City.

Mr. J. W. Peel arrived on the evening train yesterday and will deliver the annual address before Vance Academy today at eleven o'clock at the theatre. Mr. Peel is from Raleigh and has the reputation of being one of the State's rising young men.

Mr. James Ransom is visiting his father, Gen. Rob't Ransom.

Rev. Dr. Hume left yesterday for Morehead City.

Mr. T. F. Hargess, representing Wm. Powell & Co., Baltimore, is on one of his regular business trips to the city.

Mr. S. O. Hamilton, sr., and wife, of Wakefield, Mass., are in the city visiting at the home of P. H. Pelletier, Esq. Mrs. A. A. Pelletier, of Pelletier's Mills, is also visiting her son, Mr. Pelletier.

"That tired feeling" is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives a feeling of buoyancy and strength to the whole system.

More Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Surgeon General Hamilton, of the Marine Hospital Bureau, is informed that a second case of yellow fever has developed on the British vessel Avon, now detained at the Chanler quarantine station. He has also received a report from a special agent sent to Merido, Yucatan, to investigate its sanitary condition, that twelve cases of yellow fever have occurred there, and there are fears of an epidemic.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health giving, blood purifying and appetite restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

MARRIED.

By Rev. R. A. Willis, Tuesday, June 17th, Wm. Lorch to Miss Sophie Brinn.

The ceremony was performed just before the arrival of the train and the bride and groom left on a tour through Virginia and Maryland.

A large number of friends were present at the marriage, who, with the JOURNAL, wish the newly wedded pair rich blessings through life.

Duffy's Cough Mixture.

A prompt and efficient remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Bronchitis, Sore-throats, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Etc.

I have tried DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE and take pleasure in recommending it because I believe it will do all that is claimed for it by Mr. Duffy, the proprietor, who is druggist of long experience and a gentleman of highest integrity. I do not believe he would advertise anything that was not exceptionally good. This Remedy has certainly answered the purpose in my case. It cured a cold, an obstinate cold that, after I had tried a number of the principal cough remedies without benefit.
