Big flood's in Illinois.

CHOLERA and yellow fever are spreading rapidly in Spain.

FROM every part of North Carolina comes reports of good crops.
In eastern Carolina the agricultural prospect is better than it has been for years.

WE have seen it stated that "Peg-leg Williams" is preparing to lead another exodus from this State in the fall. We have no disposition to interfere with any right that he may have, but communities have rights that must be respected.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANA-MAKER wishes his administration of the department to be distinguished by four radical movements. These are the establishment of postal telegraphy; second, the divorce of lotteries from the mail; third, postal savings banks, and fourth, penny postage.

THERE is no necessity for juggling further in Congressional conference with the alleged antitrust bill. The measure is a shallow humbug, and is so regarded by the people. Satan wars not against sin, neither does a Republican Congress legislate honestly against monopoly.—Phil. Record.

A DESTRUCTIVE storm prevailed in Cincinnati and the surrounding country on Sunday; the wheat crop was laid flat and the loss will be great; many houses were unroofed, and the total loss is estimated at $200,000; three boys who were fishing in a boat are supposed to be drowned.

A MAN and woman who had murdered a child in Kentucky stole a march on justice by getting married, the laws of that State prohibiting a wife from testifying against her husband or a husband from testifying against his wife.
They thought it was better to marry than to hang.—Wilmington Star.

THE Federal election bills which the Republicans in Congress have invented are calculated to extend over the country the system which has increased the Republican majority in the Lower House of Congress from eight to twenty, and has seated two impostors in the United States Senate.—Cleveland
Plain Dealer.

THE annual period of College Commencements is about over.
There seems to be a revival of interest in these occasions all over the land. Never before have North Carolina College Commencements been so well attended and never before have so many graduates gone from their classic groves to adorn society and bless mankind.

ARE the people of the United States prepared to abandon representative government and all its great traditions? Are they prepared to accept the dictation of an arrogant man in place of a full and free discussion of the peoples' business. That is the issue involved in Mr. Reed's rules. He has demonstrated it by choking off debate on the tariff bill before its items had been considered, and he proves it once more by compelling his party to vote on a Silver bill without understanding its provisions.

Legislation by caucus decrees and a speaker's edict is not the Republican method as our fathers instituted and conducted it.—New York World.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
J. R. PARKER—Spring chickens.
SWINDELL & HOOTEN—Notice to all.
O. E. SLOVER—Evaporated apples, &c.

There will be an ice cream festival at the Salvation Army Barracks tonight at the corner of Broad and Hancock streets.

The Elm City Baseball Association are requested to meet at the office of Messrs. Manly & Guion tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. E. M. Pavie was at work on the old Brinson building on South Front street yesterday, repairing it and putting it in good condition for occupancy.

We understand that up to the present time our present Congressman has not been able to pass a single bill introduced by him through Congress; even worse than that, he has not been able to get one through the House, though he belongs to the majority.

Morehead City is full of life now.
Large crowds go down every night to swell the number of visitors. Never was Morehead more delightful than now; never was sailing, fishing and surf-bathing more enjoyable. Add to these things the attractions of the Teacher's Assembly, and where would you rather go than Morehead to spend a few days, or the summer?

The report got out yesterday morning that a certain young clerk on Middle street was married, he having left the city suddenly a few days ago and returned accompanied by a young lady.
So many marriages have taken place this week that everybody believed the report and the young man was steadily engaged during the day receiving congratulations, answering questions and denying the rumor.

New York Truck Market.

G. S. Palmer, of New York, sends us the following market review:

New York, June 18th.—Receipts of potatoes continue very large, aggregating today, Monday, over 12,000 barrels.
The demand however is large and the market cleaning up well at $2.50 to $2.75 for prime rose; other grades from $2 to $2.25; choice cucumbers 75 to $1; common 50 cents; choice wax beans $1.25; green 50 to $1; squash 75c to $1 per barrel. Huckleberries 10 to 15 cts; cherries, fancy dark 13 to 15; common

Shipping News.

The steamer Vesper, of the E. C. D. line, sailed yesterday with full cargo.
The Annie of this line will arrive today.
The steamer Tahoma will sail this morning at 7 o'clock.

The steamer Newberne, of the O. D. line, sailed yesterday for Norfolk with cargo of general freights and a good list of passengers.

The steamer Kinston sailed for Neuse river landings yesterday and will return tonight.

Baseball at Washington.

The "C. I." baseball club, composed of New Berne's younger players, went to Washington, N. C., and played the "Stars" of that place, on Tuesday.
The game resulted in the defeat of our boys by a score of twenty-one to four.
But the "C. I.'s" were the most delighted and the happiest almost "unanimously" defeated baseball players we ever saw.

We have been "dying" to go to Washington ever since we heard those boys talk about the unbounded hospitality of the people of that beautiful little city and the royal treatment received at their hands. The manner in which our boys were entertained took all the sting out of defeat and the experience of the conquered was as sweet as that of the triumphant. Chorus of New Berne "C. I.'s"—Long live the noble Washingtonians! And to the "Stars"—Be sure to come over on July the 4th.

Don't Feel Well,
And yet you are not sick enough to consult a doctor, or you refrain from so doing for fear you will alarm yourself and friends—we will tell you just what you need. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will lift you out of that uncon-fortable, dangerous condition, into a state of good health, confidence and cheerfulness. You've no idea how potent this peculiar medicine is in cases like yours.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF VANCE ACADEMY.

Tuesday Night, June 17th.

The second evening to witness the exercises of Vance Academy was greeted by another crowded audience.
The program was of a higher order than on the previous evening and more appreciative.

The first presentation was a dialogue in verse, taking up our Presidents in rotation and paying a eulogy to each, followed by rousing cheers and waving flags. Two recitations followed: "How the Gates Came Ajar," by Miss Annie Fowler, and "The Boys," by Master E. H. Hardison. An instrumental duet was played by Misses Ruth and Lillian Fowler. Six little girls and boys recited "Lenna's Dream," a dialogue composed of nursery rhymes. To the elderly persons present it was the awakening of the happy memories of childhood that have so often gladdened the hearts of youth.

The gem of the evening, and that which no doubt delighted every person present, was the recitation, "A Little Boy's Pocket," by Master C. H.
Scheelky. He is only a scrap of a boy—about two and a half feet high—but his naturalness and self-possession immediately won for him the highest praise.

A sweet, flowing waltz was played on the piano by Miss Eveline Bowden, and Master Alphonso Hardison told of his admiration for "Little Sallie Jones" in a spirited little speech.

"The Blacksmith" was a song by a number of small girls and boys. It carried with it brightness and loveliness.
It had been learned them strictly by rote.

The piece most noted for its bravery was "The Costliest Goods," recited by Master Harry Seales. It must have had at least six lines. Make them give you a longer piece next time, Harry. You were through before you had time to get eloquent.

The next piece on the program was "The First Steamboat up the Alabama," by Messrs. B. H. Melton and C. H.
Bryan. They both came out in oar and exhibited real talent in picturing what would be supposed the astonishment of the darkey on his first sight of a steamboat.

The love and remembrance a mother has for her boy was tenderly illustrated by J. A. Hodges in a recitation entitled
"A Mother's Gift."

J. H. Smith and W. A. Salter, in comic dress, very humorously told "The Way to John Smith's." We believe it was generally conceded that it was done just right. The recitation of Master Jas. Holton was also in comedy.

Besides being an exceptionally sweet singer, Miss Lillian Fowler proved herself capable of becoming an elo-cutionist. Another beautiful voice in which we were impressed on the evening before, and of which no mention was made, was that of Miss Bessie Tucker. It is clear and sweet and susceptible of high cultivation.

Miss Ruth Fowler and Carrie Scheelky recited "Guilty or Not Guilty," and "Drafted" in very lady-like style.
Misses Laura Butler and Daisy Williams gave a duet on the piano which was most excellently rendered. Their ease and rapidity in fingering was remarkable.

One of the best pieces, and which produced vociferous and continued applause was, "Assisting Hezekiah," a dialogue by Miss Allen Smith and Messrs. Melton and Bryan. Hezekiah was in love with Jerushy but he was always going to tell her of it the next time. It continued to be next time until driven to the dreadful crisis by a supposed rival. In winning Jerushy his joy was unbounded.

The evening closed with a song by class, "Come Where the Lilies Bloom."

Our Public Building.
At page 864 U. S. statutes at large, acts of the 50th Congress, will be found the full text of the act to authorize the erection of a public building in this city. This bill was introduced by Mr.
Simmons and on March 2d, 1889, two days before his term in Congress expired, was called up by him in the House and passed both houses of Congress, and was duly signed by the President on the same day. Exceptionally quick work. This bill as is the case with public building bills, merely authorizes the construction of a building here and fixes the limit of its cost at $75,000. After these bills are passed the appropriations are made from time to time, generally, as the supervising architect needs it in the construction of the building. Some of these buildings cost many millions of dollars and years are needed for their completion. The work being once authorized Congress appropriates the money, up to the limit of the supervising architect through the Secretary of the Treasury may ask for it. These appropriations are made as much as a matter of course as are the annual appropriations to pay the expenses Treasury or the Postoffice Department. They are all included together with hundreds of other items in what is known as the sundry civil bill, which is a bill not introduced by any individual member, but is reported from the committee and in form introduced in the House by the chairman as the head of the committee.

This bill attempts no new legislation but merely provides for the expenses incurred or to be incurred under former legislation.

The rumor that the sundry civil bill, which has just passed the House appropriates the full limit of the cost of our public building, to wit, $75,000, is a mistake; the bill only appropriates $25,000 for the present, it being the notion of the authorities that that amount would buy the site and supply the necessary funds for the work until the December term of Congress, when another appropriation will be made.

In this calculation we think a mistake was made, and we are glad to learn that the authorities at Washington have been fully acquainted with the facts, and that it is understood that Senator Ransom will have the amount sufficiently increased when the bill goes to the Senate. Contrary to usual custom this bill was reported from the committee one day and put on its passage the next or the correction would have been made in the House.

We are informed that the supervising architect will send a man down very shortly to examine sites for location.
Our accommodating collector of customs, Mr. Robert Hancock, has been very active in furnishing the department with information concerning sites that have been offered, and has done everything in his power to aid the authorities in the matter.

snuffs are unpleasant as well as dangerous. Rly's Cream Balm is safe, pleasant, easily applied into the nostrils, and a sure cure. It cleanses the nasal passages and heals the inflamed membrane, giving relief at once. Price 50 cents.

The most obstinate cases of catarrh are cured by the use of Rly's Cream Balm, the only agreeable remedy. It is not a liquid or snuff, is easily applied into the nostrils. For cold in the head it is magical. It gives relief at once.
Price 50 cents.

their future home.

The Asiatic Cholera in Spain.

MADRID, June 18.—Much alarm is occasioned by the continued spread of the cholera at Puebla de Rugat. The authorities are making strenuous efforts to stamp out the disease, but so far have been unsuccessful, and new cases are reported daily. Yesterday there were four deaths from the disease and nine new cases reported. The doctors at Puebla de Rugat are greatly overworked, and the authorities have telegraphed to Valencia asking that physicians be sent from that city to aid. The supply of drugs is running short and the town officials have also telegraphed for a fresh supply from Valencia. The total number of cases thus far reported is ninety-one. One of the persons who died from the town for safety has died from the disease at Albaida. Dr. Candela, who is an expert, declares that the disease at Puebla de Rugat is true Asiatic cholera.

chitis, Sore-throats, Diphtheria, Catarrh, Etc.

I have tried DUFFY'S COUGH MIXTURE cause I believe it will do all that is claimed for it by Mr. Duffy, the proprietor, who is druggist of long experience and a gentleman of highest integrity. I do not believe he would advertise anything that was not exceptionally good. This Remedy has certainly answered the purpose in my case. It cured a cold, an obstinate cough that after I had tried a number of the principal cough remedies without benefit.
