BUSINESS LOCALS.

Concentrated Shred Coccanut. Try LOST-A dark Canary, A reward will be paid if it is returned to J.

D. Clark. ISSINGEN AND SEVEN SPRINGS WATER on draught. 5c. a glass

25 tickets $1.00. At GOODING'S. FINE line of SMALL HAMS, 5 to A 7 pounds at JOHN MUNN'S. If.

FOR SALE -Appleton's Cycloposdia of American Biography, in six elecost $37.50. The work is just from the press. Apply at JOURNAL office. f20tf SODA WATER on draught today at tf.

NEW BATH HOUSE-Now open at furnished. Gentlemen, 19c. Boys. 5c. this paper has not championed the Season ticket, $1.50.

SPRAKER REED has been re nominated for Congress.

BLAINE! The great jumping jack of the day. Who holds the string?

THE present Jane goes on the record as the hottest for many

THERE is a general strike on the entire line of the Illinois Central

THE Soutern Educational Association met in Montgomery Alabama yesterday.

five hundred dollars by the Mississippi court.

FRANCE is satisfied with the agreement made by Germany and England in regard to Africa.

SILVER was demonetized by a trick. It may now lie smothered b a fraud,-Augusta Chronicle.

THE brightest and most successful law student in the Chicago Law school was a negre from Texas named Franklin A. Dennison.

WHILE firing a salute in Colum bia S. U., last Tuesday, three men nature discharge of a cannon.

TUESDAY evening, in London, the great actress Sarah Bernhardt came near killing herself by taking an overdose of cloral. Beware of cloral.

UNDER the census just made New York city claims a population of 1,700,000, Brooklyn 1,000,000, Philadelphia 1,040,449, Chicago 1,250,000.

In the olden times parties were divided on principles. It has come to pass that the Republican party has no principles and is only known by its methods.

insist upon the purification or the previous. The hotels are still pretty and winsome in her manner and no retirement of Tammany. The Star is right. The American Democracy will acknowledge no leadership that is tainted with corruption.

fairly and justly applied, and we shall not hear the "wail and woe" arising from the masses of the people because they are overtaxed for the benefit of the few. Stand by the old principles, stand by the old party, and the people will be safe. Democracy means the rights of Plain Dealer.

Women continue to attract attention for their higher educational attainments. A female Sophmore as Wesleyan University, in Middletown, Conn., divides with a male Rice prize for proficiency in matheprogress the scholastic year now terminating will present a long and notable list of young women who tions that Asiatic choices may obtain a strong hold upon Europe this Summer. The reports of the provalence of the drend epidemic

the home for widows might be easily are already suggestive of its wider added.

spread and increased fatality as An Error. the warmer weather comes on. Energetic measures will undoubtedly be taken to stamp out the plague, but experience does not justify confidence that they will be very since, was an error. Said rumor no successful. Little anxiety need be doubt grew from information that the felt regarding the danger in this country. Our quarantine service here is effective, and the sanitary regulations of our large cities are such as to give us a large measure ot security .- New York Star.

THE Messenger holds that a the foot of Broad street. Towels for nomination to office, and hence cause of any of the Congressional or Judicial nominees, further than publish the proceedings of convenof which commit the paper. In the matter of the Congressional aspirants of the Third and Sixth districts, and likewise the Judicial aspirants of the Sixth district, we have certainly no favorite. The gentlemen aspiring to the nominations are all personal friends of the editor of the Messenger, and we would find it quite a very unpleasant task to have to discriminate between them. So far as the columns of the Mes JOHN L. SULLIVAN was fined entitled to an equal fair showing .-Wilmington Messenger.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Lost-Canary.

C. E. SLOVER -Concentrated cocoa-

Ground has been broken at Hender

Ward, as we had it yesterday) who Dr. Charles Dufiy, who attended him, ize the common lot. was drowned near Morehead City on does not regard the wound as danger-

There will be another 'stag' lishing were fearfully mutilated by the pre- The steamer Kinston will take the party, leaving her wharf at 2.30 p. m.

> The body of Mr. L. W. Hargett, who was drowned near Morehead City on Tuesday, was taken to his home for interment yesterday. Mr. Hill Humphrey accompanied the remains.

The steamer Eaglet, of the E.C.D. line, arrived yesterday and will sail this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Vesper of this line will arrive tomorrow.

Master Bradly Hanff went fishing after taking him off the hook sat down on the wharf to continue the sport. He got too near the fish and one of the sharp fine was driven into his thigh, inflicting a painful wound.

There was quite an exodus from Morehead City yesterday morning and there were not so many going down well filled, however, and Morehead City is as delightful a resort as ever.

The poem "Blessed are They that Mourn," published in yesterday's JOURNAL, should have been quoted. It GIVE us the good, old-fashioned was from Bryant, one of America's Democratic principles, honestly, greatest poets, and of whom no one would dare to plagiarize. It was on our part that the quotations were over-that there are still persons living who Richmond Va. when a home for the widows and orphans of masons of Virginia was formerly opened and the event celebrated by a picnic which was attended by 2000 persons. Better than all, was the fact that the entire property comprising the home building including the improvements on it was the matics. At the present rate of area of 44 acres with a large bern and the usual out-houses.

A Noble Benefaction.

When it is considered that the site is of the city of Richmond and on the line tival the young men in proficiency of the Seven Pines Rail Road, the is in the city and the guest of R R. munificence of the gifts is the more Hill and family. appreciated. The members of the THERE are monlegement indica- craft are taking steps to not only sup- the District Conference of the M. E. ral names which had been worthily

The rumor in the city that Hon. F. M. Simmons had received the endorsement at the Lenoir county convention, held on the 21st instant, and which apmajority of the delegates were supposed to have been for Simmons.

No endorsement was made at all as we are informed by a correspondent who was a delegate at the convention. to introduce one's self, say fifty times a He also states that two-thirds of the delegates present were for Mr. J. M. Mewborne, a prominent Alliance man and an estimable gentleman. On the etc. One may vary this formula, but it newspaper ought not to give its other band the friends of Mr. Simmons runs in a narrow circle and like saying editorial support to any aspirant claim the majority of the delegates are for him. The correction is cheerfully made, as it is our desire to do no one in too many hours. So when patience an injustice. Neither were there any recommendations for judge or solicitor.

Mr. Mewborne is a good man and would fill the position with honor, but tions or communications, neither the question is of too great importance to take the least risk in making the selection. The most available man possible must be put out, and to us that man and a pretty general impression preis Mr. Simmons. This district is Republican, but in 1886, when two Republican candidates were in the field, Mr. Simmons was easily elected over them. In 1888 he was renominated and defeated by a very small vote only, even when there was but one candidate as a child ran away screaming when we his opponent. The flattering vote he received during this election was evidence of the popularity and confidence he had won in all sections of the dis- bad place. senger are concerned they are all triet by his faithful and untiring service in Congress.

Struck Him with a Hatchet.

H. P. Kennedy and John Dixon, both colored, were at work on a building on Pasteur street, near the depot, yester day. Kennedy is a brick mason and was at work on the second story of the heuse; Dixon was carrying the mortar. Dixon brought up a hod of mortar (so we are told), emptied it, and was stand-

Kennedy left his work and walked people, where the sights and sounds There will be another 'stag' fishing frolio down Neus' river next Monday. Out of the city, before being arrested. or wholesome. There are large num-It is said that his mind is deranged. bers of illigitimate children, and quite Some of his friends have sat up with too many "bright mulattoes." him during the past few nights on this paternity of these is in a large part account. He had not been heard from up to a late hour yesterday afternoon.

Carraway-Evans.

From the Harriman (Tenn.) Advance we find the following notice of the marriage of our former townsman, Mr. D. S. Carraway:

"Mr. D. S. Carraway, of the Produce Exchange, gave his friends quite a suryesterday. He caught a cathish, and prise by going off and getting married yesterday. Mr. Carraway had been making a good many trips to Oliver Springs of late and many thought he was going over there for his health, but developments proved he had something better in view. He was married yesterday in Clinton, and the bride and groom came back to her parents home last night. The young lady's name was Miss Ethel Evans, a daughter of Thos. Evans, the coal operator at Oliver THE New York Star continues to last night as on the several nights Springs. She is said to be very pretty doubt will make an excellent wife. Mr. Carraway was formerly connected with the Advance, and we sincerely wish him and bride all of life's happiness and joy.

> Greene County Unanimous for Mr. Simmons.

At the Democratic Convention held in Greene county, the following resolu- more, the children hearty, bright and tion was read and unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, That innemuch as the In this age of booms, trusts and rush Hon. F. M. Simmons made as a wise. for wealth it is truely gratiflying to see faithful and able representative in the Congress of the United States in the past, it is the sense of this Convention recognize the Divine enunciation "The that he is entitled to the nomination poor ye always have with you." Such now and the delegates from this county man embodied in law .- Cleveland an exhibit was made on June 24th, at are hereby requested to cast the vote of this county for him in the approaching

Mr. F. L. Killborn and wife, of Washington City, arrived in New Berne Thursday. Mr. Killborn is veterinary surgeon in the department at Washington and is here in the interest competitor the honor of taking the gift of one mason, Capt A. G. Babcock, of purchasing cattle from which to parent's heart. We have a very sharp and the grounds given with it have an make an examination in lung fever cut opinion as to which is the prettiest which they are sometimes afflicted with baby in our beat, but we shall keep that and which has as yet baffled all skill.

but 17 miles from the corporate limits who has been in attendance at the sister said we ought to have baptised Teachers' Assembly at Morehead City,

> Mr. J. M. Howard left yesterday for Church at Mt. Olive.

> R. B. Nixon, Esq., has returned from a business trip to Jones and Onslow counties.

> Hr. C. J. Rhem is in the city on a visit to his family.

In the course of human events we true woman's feet may know. have been taking census. It was not a job of our seeking, but a clear case of turns have gone forward to swell the the man being sought by the office. But aggregate which will show the present then who wouldn't be willing-for a status of the great multitude of our peared in the Journal a few days consideration-to turn in and help our people who are steadily increasing and good and great "Uncle Samuel" when advancing since the first census, have ous family of nephews and nieces are fairing? We accepted the position, and it was just fun, and made us glad.

Yes, twice glad, for undoubtedly one may have too much of a good thing, and it did become a little monotonous day and every day for three or four weeks, by saying "We are taking cenus, and would like to see some one who can tell us the names and ages, grace at table, soon falls into a rut. Besides the pay is not enticing, one can't earn satisfactory wages without putting had had her perfect work, we finished our course, and without reluctance or regret laid down our commission.

With entire courtesy, without exception. Although the minds of the people had been poisoned by reports of rudeness on the part of some enumerators, vailed that the questions to be asked were many of them impertinent and some of them improper, we encountered no tartness nor curtness. The colored people were inclined to be frightened, often inquiring suspiciously all this for ?" sometimes asking, "are we under arrest?" and in two instances said we are taking census, thinking, we suppose, that he was a "census" and that we wanted to take him and carry him to far away Arkaness or some other

And in a few instances a lady sat down with some dignity over against party. us, with a perplexed expression on her countenance, as if she expected to be tortured, when, much sooner than she was looking for, we closed the book and said "thank you, we won't bother you again for ten years," she would express her relief and surprise by asking

'are those all the questions?

WHAT DID WE FIND We went into nearly every house in two wards, from South Front street on the placid Trent to the foot of Attmore ing looking on, when Kennedy grabbed street on the rolling Neuse. Speaking son for water works. We hope to see a hatchet and struck Dixon on the head, happy, contented and prosperous peo-It was William Ward (instead of Ed. Dixon was right painfully hurt, but comforts, there are many advantages and compensations which tend to equal-

To be more explicit, we found some places occupied by lewd and loose well known. This is a sin and a shame, verily it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges. There are some tenements-not very many-which are not fit for human beings to dwell in. Leaky, open, out of level and out of plumb-leaning, but not to virtue's side-they are not suitable shelters for well cared for domestic animals. The rental, about two dollars a month, is not perhaps too great, but a more humane, generous and Christian spirit would give better value for the We found a remarkable degree of prolificness among some of the colored people-ten women having borne one ton, N. C .: hundred and sixty children, which is an average of sixteen, two of them having produced eighteen each, but the aggregate of those now living is only forty. The question rises here: "What is the cause of so great mortality among the children ?" the solution of which is one object of the inquiry as to the number born and the number living.

We found two persons who stoutly asserted that they were over one hun-dred years old. Without evidence to the contrary, if we had any doubts, we gave them the benefit and their names have gone on to the Capital, to be enrolled in the Census Bureau as relics of the eighteenth century.

We found some very fine families. parents and children-with sometimes the grandchildren-numbering ten or active. We have a pleasant remembrance of several groups of six or eight little people who gathered around us and took much interest in telling with great readiness and accuracy the "names and ages" from papa down to the little tot in the cradle.

But these large families are seldom an unbroken circle. The mother usually remembers and often speaks tenderly of one who "is pot." poet'e words express a well nigh unirereal truth:

There is no flock however watched or tended But one dead lamb is there,

There is no household howsoe'r de fended.

But has one vacant chair."

We found a dozen or two of the prettiest babies that ever gladdened a Welhad to name three babies before we Mr. J. P. Temple, of Wake county, could "take" them. A good Methodist them at the same time so as to complete the christening.

To two of them who were of the terner sex, and born, not in the purple, but in the sable, we gave good Scriptuborne in the olden time. But a little bright Caucasian, of the female persussion, we named for one of our sweethearts, whose petite form and pretty face used to give our heart a palpitation in the school days. May heaven guide her footsteps that they may avoid the many dangerous paths which beset the one safe road which a

And now our task is done. The rehe wishes to ascertain how his numer- ever kept step to the music of the

"Sail on, sail on, oh ship of State, Sail on, oh Union strong and great." SHALL WE HELP TAKE THE TWELFTH CENSUS :

That depends. As we helped in the tenth and the eleventh, upon the principle that "one good turn deserves another" we ought to do it. Our expectation of life is still more than ten years by the Tables, and much more by the inner suggestions of expectation and desire, and though the frosts of winter are upon our head, the warmth and sunlight of a perpetual spring time are around our heart. So if the Fates will hold the distaff steadily let the spinning proced smoothly and not be in too great haste to cut the threadif a kind Providence lengthens out our days-we may "come again" to see if pretty babies are still in order, if childhood fulfills its promise, and our mature people fight the battle bravely and bear their honors gracefully. So mote it be. EDWARD BULL New Berne, N. C., June 25, 1890.

County Democratic Convention. At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Craven county, held in the city of New Berne on the 14th day of June, 1890, it was ordered that a convention of the Democratic party of Craven county be held in the city of New Berne at 12 m. on Saturday, July 12, 1890, for the purpose of nominating county officers and electing delegates to the State Judicial and Congressional Conventions, pursuant to the plan of organization of the Democratic

VOTE OF CRAVEN COUNTY FOR GOVERNOR The following is the number of votes to which each township is entitled in said convention: PRECINCY. -2d wd -3rd wd 4th wd -5th wd-McCar. 104) anceboro. Dawson's Store Fulcher's Conner's James City amp Palmer Dover. Russell Arnold's Store. Pleasant Hill. Lee's Farm .. Temble's .... Coro Creck.

A Re-Publication.

la yesterday's JOURNAL appeared one of Bryant's gems, entitled, "Blessed Are They That Mourn," over the signature B. H. M., of Plloksville. Was it not a typographical error by which the quotation marks were omitted, and the poem was published as original?

By mistake the poem was not quoted

Office of Old Dominion Steamship Co NEWBERNE, N. C., June 16, 1890. The steamer Newberne will sail from Norfolk for Newberne, via Washing Monday .... June 18th.

Friday..... Wednesday ..... " 30th. Monday ...... Returning, will sail from Newberne for Norfolk direct, at 12, m. Wednesday ..... Monday...... 23d. Friday...... 27th. The above is the Old Dominion June alendar.

"JESS."

Please clip and paste in you'r hats.

A very fine Cigar. Try it. At

J. F. TAYLOR'S.

E. B. ROBERTS Agent

Best Grades of Tobacco

Selling lots of Goods for little money

J. F. TAYLOR.

Greensboro Female College, GREENSBORO, N. C.

The Seventy-first Session of this wellknown institution will begin on the 27th Day of August, 1890.

In addition to thorough instruction in the Literary Course, special advantages are offered in the departments of Instrumental and Vocal Music, Elecution. Art, and Physical Training.

Charges moderate. For Catalogue apply to T. M. JONES, je24 dwlm

Williams' Ink And Writing Fluid. BEST IN THE WORLD

The Black is the best color on the market. The Blue-Black Fiuld has no superior. Write for prices. Manufactured by purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the mul-titude of low test, storit weight, aium or

NEW BURNE, N. C. June 17th, 1890. TO MY CUSTOMERS AND THE PUBLIC

I have disposed of my entire Bottling Business and Works to Mr. E. Dannenberg, who will continue in that line at my old stand, on Craven Street, next door to the Cotton and Grain Exchange, New Berne, N. C.

Appreciating the long, continued and liberal patronage of my friends, I cordially commend to them Mr. Dannenberg, and ask that they favor him with

Wholesale Liquor Trade.

I have retained my Wholesals Liquor Business and have moved to the Buildng two doors East of the Gaston House, on South Front Street, where I invite old friends and customers to call and see me.

Having been in the wholesale trade for the past dozen years. I refer with pleasure to my business relations during that time, and confidently solicis the public patronage, and the continuance of my old customers.

Very respectfully, JAMES REDMOND

New Berne Bottling Works.

Having purchased the Bottling Works of Mr. James Redmond. I shall continue the same in all its branches at his old and well known stand, and respectfully ask the continued patronage of his old customers and friends, promising to give the public the satisfaction that has always characterized the well house of Mr Redmond.

Very respectfully je21 dw1m E. DANNENBERG.

SALE AND EXCHANGE

I have constantly on hand

As Fine and Well Broken Horses

as ever brought to New Berne. They are selected with care and from reliable dealers only. I have good roadsters, good draft horses, and those suited for family purposes and the

Also, in connection with my Livery, have a FIRST CLASS

Carriage and Buggy Repository,

where will be found a full equipment of riding vehicles. Painting, repairing, etc-, done in the very best workmanship. A trained and experienced Shoer constantly on duty. Will take pleasure in showing you through any department of my business.

J. W. STEWART.

Large Lot of

DRIED APPLES. Cheap!

F. Ulrich.

MIDDLE STREET,

WHOLESALE GROCER,

NEW BERNE, N. C.