NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine, is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from LEPROSY to the simplest disease known to the human system. The scientific men of today claim and prove that every disease is CAUSED BY MICROBES, —AND—

Radam's Microbe Killer

Exterminates the Microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of Malaria Fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles in all its forms, and, in fact, every Disease known to the Human System

Beware of Fraudulent Imitations! See that our trade-mark (same as above) appears on each jug. Send for book "History of the Microbe Killer," given away by

THE JOURNAL.

BEHIND THE BARS.

[State Chronicle.]
"That he might hear the mourning of Lone vigils thro' the long and weary nights
Nor closed his eyes as slow the hours crept
But watched with longing for the coming light,
"Forgive," he prayed my wandering faith, my fears,
Hopeless, despairing now I languish here
If thou rememberest me thro' all these years
Oh! God vouchsafe an answer to my prayer!
In mercy send some message, Lord, to me
To bid my fainting spirit hope once more
Here have I languished till I seem to be
Like useless wreck the waves have dashed ashore.
To-morrow breaks the hallowed Easter morning
And with it gleams the light from Calvary
Oh! Savior! let it be the blessed dawning
Of hope from the despair that crushes me!"

The light of day into the dark cell creeping
Reveals the hollow cheek and wasted form.
As worn and weary now the watcher sleeping
Unconscious is the longest—for day has come.
Till thro' the bars as morning's struggling light
The brighter grows within the dreary cell.
A tiny wanderer darts in sudden flight,
And high and clear his sweet notes upward swell.
"Ah! comest thou to this prison me to wake
To wretchedness with thy sweet minstrelsy?
Art come, alas! my heavy heart to break—
Or can it be that thou wast sent to me?"
Trembling with joy, with hands to heaven extended,
And rain of hot tears dimming fast his sight,
The Captain kneels as now the sweet strain ended,
The unconscious herald wings again his flight—
"Father, forgive my doubts and my repining,
Thou' dark the way, so faithless was my fear,
Bright now the path with Easter radiance shining
From Thy best cross on me, oh! Lord, open here!"
With confidence heart, my hopes and my desires
Thy sacrifice at Thy dear feet:
Burn out the dross deep in Thy furnace fire
And needs that sacrifice an offering meet.
From a glad world are Easter anthems pealing,
And hurrying feet press on to worship Thee,
On hallowed ground I worship, humbly kneeling,
For sentest Thou not a message here to me?"

After a Day's Work.
Narrow and contracted is the existence of the person who does not frequently engage in social pastime and pleasant relations with his fellow men. Business as well as the home ought to be lit up by bright, cheerful people, who consider the comfort and happiness of others a necessary condition of existence. The person who imparts fresh life and bright thoughts is always a welcome visitor; while the cynical, cold, calculating retailer of his own misery and suffering, like a bird of ill omen, is shunned and avoided. Want of cheerfulness makes life little more than a prison, in which an assigned task is dropped for a few hours sleep, to be taken up the next morning with no brighter prospects than when left off the night before. Especially is this necessary in the home and among the young people with whom we associate. A few hours of mirth and jollity before going to bed refreshes more than sleep, and evolves pleasant dreams. There is nothing so wearing as to be constantly confronted with business cares; it wrecks the brain and wears on the nervous organism. To throw off this chain, a free and liberal acquaintance with our neighbors and friends is necessary. If all would consider it a duty to agreeably entertain each other, and make an effort to do so, after the day's work is done, it would eventuate in prolonging life and increasing our happiness. Many a premature grave is filled for want of recreation and pleasant business surroundings; and most of the failures in life occur through not giving both mind and body sufficient rest and relaxation.—St. Louis Stationer.

For the Campaign.
In many ways the coming campaign will be the most interesting one that the voters of North Carolina have seen in many years. It will be an educational campaign, and economic questions will be largely discussed. The State Chronicle, published at Raleigh, will be in the thickest of the fight to maintain Democratic principles, and uphold those measures that will secure relief for our agricultural population. It will be sent to any address one year for the low price of $1.25. Send money by registered letter, money order or postal note. Address

JAMES MEANS' $3 & $4-SHOES

"Competition is the Life of Trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine how lively trade is, or how hard our competitors have to work to keep within sight of us. Ask your retailer for the James Means' $3 Shoe, or the James Means' $4 Shoe according to your needs.
Positively none genuine unless having our name and price stamped plainly on the sides. Your retailer will supply you with shoes so stamped if you insist upon his doing so; if you do not insist, some retailers will coax you into buying inferior shoes upon which they make a larger profit.
JAMES MEANS' $3 SHOE
JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE
SEAMLESS $3 SHOE
JAMES MEANS' $4 SHOE

Such has been the recent progress in our branch of industry that we are now able to affirm that the James Means' $1 Shoe is in every respect equal to the shoes which only a few years ago were retailed at eight or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Ours are the original $3 and $4 Shoes, and those who imitate our system of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our lines we are the largest manufacturers in the United States.
Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wide-awake retailers in all parts of the country. We will place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will invest one cent in a postal card and write to us.
