OPINIONS ON TOPPING COTTON. An Arkansas Planter Writes His Views in Home and Farm.

Mr. J. W. Morris, of Doorpark, Ark., writes, asking for information about topping cotton. In this State the practice is becoming popular and under certain conditions it is productive of good results. Where cotton is well branched and bushy topping appears to have no beneficial effect, but when it has a tendency to run up "sky high," the removal of the top at the right stage of growth, alters the form of the plant and assists in its fruiting. Another advantage is that the plant shades the soil better, a point that every cotton grower will appreciate. As the causes of cotton growing spindly are various, so will vary the advantages from topping.

Much of the skyward tendency of cotton is due to run-out seed, some to soil and some to season. In the former case topping will change the form of the plant, but have little or no effect on the crop, but where soil or season are the cause of the mischief, it will pay to remove the top.

ticed-topping, when necessary, for pernong grape in Eastern North the past twenty years, assures me that labor spent in topping cotton, when the spindly owing to poor seed, will pay better than any other labor bestowed on the crop. His time for operation is squares.

I have never practiced topping beyond an occasional plant that fellows, as I only plant good seed at the expense of breadth, but a close observation of my experiments leads me to believe that the hints given above will be worth acting on.

WHAT IS

SCROFULA

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running series on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from serofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My daughter Mary was affilicted with serofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a jeeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLILE, Nauright, N. J.
