THE HONEST BOY. A gentleman from the country placed his son with a dry-goods merchant in ---- street For a time all went on well. At length a lady came to the store to purat chase a silk dress and the young man waited on her. The price demanded was agreed to, and he proceeded to fold the goods. He discovered before he had fin-ished, a flaw in the silk, and pointing it out to the lady, said,

"Madam, I deem it my duty to tell you there is a fracture in the silk." Of course she did not take it The merchant overheard the Re-Opening a Thoroughfare.

In order to guard against results utterly subversive of health, it is absolutely essential that the grand thoroughfare or avenue of the system, the bowels, should be re-opened as speedily as possible when they become obstructed. If they are not, the bile is misdi-rected into the blood; the liver becomes torpid; viscid bilions matter gets into the stomach, and produces indigestion; headaches ensue, and other symptoms are produced, which a prolongation of the exciting cause only tends to aggravate. The aperient properties of Hos-tetter's Stomach Bitters constitute a most useful agent in overcoming con-striction of the bowels, and promoting a regular habit of body. It is infinitely superior to the drastic cathartics frequently used for the purpose, since it does not, like them, act violently, but produces a natural, painless effect, which does not impair the tone of the evacuatory organs, which it invigorates instead of weakening. The stomach and liver, also, indeed the entire system, is strengthened and regulated by
