THE DEMANDS OF THE HOUR.
It is intimated that there has been an agreement by which the force bill goes over to December and the tariff bill is to be brought to a vote in the Senate on the 8th of September.
This agreement is in the nature of a compromise. Compromises often result in good; indeed society is based upon compromises in which individual rights are surrendered for the public good.
Principles should never be made the subject of compromises. Circumstances change; principles never. Measures may wait on circumstances to do their bidding. Principles command obedience to immutable decrees. They are fixed stars eternal in the heavens.
If there has been an agreement among Senators to postpone the force bill and proceed with the consideration of the tariff it may be but a mutual accommodation by which both sides are better prepared to discharge the high duties of American Senators. If, however, it is agreed that the vote upon the tariff shall be taken at a certain time Senators cannot be bound by it, for it is the highest duty of a Senator to oppose hurtful legislation at all hazards and to the last extremity. Mr. Gorman has no right to consent to a termination of debate before the discussion has been full and complete.
But the deal having to all appearances been consummated, the effect upon the country is to be considered. Here we appropriate the words of the Richmond Times: "By yielding to the Republican majority and permitting the McKinley tariff bill to pass the Democratic minority will place the whole onus of the bill upon the Republican party. The country will, for two years at least, have to endure an aggravation of the evils to which the present tariff subjects them. This will add strength to the opposition to Radicalism, but at the same time it will be hard on the country."
"By compelling the postponement of the tariff bill the Democratic minority will lessen the chances of the force bill becoming effective in the campaigns of after years. But will that result in freedom of the ballot? If Quay succeeds in carrying out his bargain with monopoly, whose contributions made Republican success possible in 1888, the same monopoly will be willing to be hied more freely in 1892, by promises of greater plunder from the people. And the funds thus derived for Republican campaign purposes will render unnecessary the use of the bayonet at the polls. Possibly there may be enough Republicans like Plumb in the Senate who will heed the warnings of the people and unite with the Democrats to defeat the tariff bill. This, however, is rather improbable.
"As the whole inside history of the causes which led to a suspension of debate on the force bill has not been written, and probably never will be revealed, it is a difficult matter to say exactly what the duty of the Democratic Senators shall be. Their knowledge of past events, their experiences and their sense of patriotism, though, should lead them to dispute at every point and step by step the aggressions of the enemies of the country's liberties and prosperity. Though in the minority in the Senate they represent the majority of the people of the United States, and that majority took to them to defend it, even though Mr. Gorman's health may have been taxed by sessions of eight hours a day."

TO PROTECT AMERICAN INTERESTS.
The Charleston Ordered to Honolulu—The Hawaiian Situation Critical.
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 27.—Orders were today issued for the flagship Charleston, which has just arrived at Seattle from Honolulu, to return immediately to that port to assist in the protection of American interests in the Hawaiian islands.
This action is based upon Acting-Rear-Admiral Brown's report of the serious aspect of affairs in Hawaii at the time of his departure for this country. Nothing official has since been heard at either the State or Navy Department in regard to the situation on the islands. The Nipsic is now at Honolulu. It is expected that the Charleston will start to-morrow.

Australia's Labor Troubles.
MELBOURNE, August 27.—The gas-stokers went out on a strike to day. Their grievance is that the company employs non-union men. The New Zealand Steamship Company's hands will strike tomorrow, stopping all seaboard traffic.
A dispatch from Sydney says that great excitement prevails among the strikers at New Castle and that troops have been dispatched to that town in anticipation of trouble. A special force of constables has been enrolled at Sydney to take the place of the military that have been sent to New Castle.

Twenty Three Indicted for Murder.
LOUISVILLE, KY., August 27.—A letter from Hazard, Ky., where court is in session under the protection of troops, dated August 25th, says: Twenty-three men, engaged in the French-Eversley feud, have been indicted for murder and accessories, and many of them arrested.
The grand jury were reluctant to bring the indictments, but were called upon in court by the prosecuting attorney, who told them they must do their duty or he would discharge them and call another jury. Judge Lilley added to this statement that if they sought to protect the lawbreakers he would refuse to sign their warrants for pay.

A Terrific Storm.
VIENNA, AUSTRIA, August 27.—A terrific storm has visited Trieste, causing great loss of life and property. Many wrecks are reported on the Adriatic Sea, and the crews of several vessels have perished. At Wittingau three persons were killed by lightning and much damage was done to property.

Ireland's Prospect Gloomy.
LONDON, August 27.—The Dublin correspondent of the Times admits that the prospects in Ireland are gloomy if, in addition to the failure of the potato crop, other crops suffer from the bad weather. That the distress will be aggravated by agitation he says may be expected.

Gladstone's Remarkable Vigor.
If Mr. Gladstone was an ordinary old gentleman he ought at this moment to be tucked in bed with hot water bottles at his feet and mustard plasters on his chest. That he differs from the average man at eighty odd years is proved by the fact that today he is in the best of health, notwithstanding the fact on Thursday, which was an unusually chilly day, he stood for forty-five minutes in a pouring rain, speaking words of wisdom to a small audience of enthusiastic agriculturists.

The occasion was the annual flower, fruit and vegetable show at Hawarden. Mr. Gladstone had promised to make a speech in the open air in front of his castle, but the weather was so atrocious that it was generally supposed that he would not keep his engagement. Mr. Gladstone, however, appeared outside at the appointed time. Attempts of his wife to insinuate a mackintosh on his shoulders were fruitless, and the orator was wet through before he recognized the reasonableness of her suggestion to put up his umbrella.

Mr. Gladstone is desirous of taking a long rest in the country before entering upon his autumn campaign. According to present arrangements he leaves Hawarden for Scotland on October 20.—Philadelphia Press.

A sick dude called on a doctor. "What he needed," advised the physician, "is absolute seclusion and solitude, with nothing whatever to excite him." "Leave him alone with his thoughts," promptly said his friend, as they withdrew from the room.

Wee in South Dakota.
Sioux Falls, S. D., August 26.—A heavy rain has been falling here for the past twelve hours, the third soaking during the past few days. It has greatly interfered with threshing, and farmers say will cause grain to grow in stacks; very little grain threshed so far, and the yield is below the productions based on the outlook before harvest. Reports from thirty-two counties in this State show an average of only eight bushels to the acre for wheat. Some counties show an average of twenty bushels for oats and nine for flax. The southern tier of counties, where the most rain has fallen, will raise the average of wheat yield in the State to ten bushels to the acre.

The Cholera Spreading in Spain.
MADRID, August 27.—Fears are entertained that the cholera has reached this city. Several suspicious cases are reported here and in the adjacent villages of Torrejon and Canillas. Cholera is increasing among the troops of the garrison at Valecia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—Eleven Russian soldiers were killed while manœvering along the frontiers this morning. A skirmish with some Bulgarians was the cause.

Dyspepsia.
Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, fainting, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."
