SENATOR VANCE made a great speech in the Senate on Tuesday, the 2nd of September. His concluding paragraph is as follows: Look over that free list, Mr. President, and no impartial mind can see a single solitary article which is largely imported of any particular benefit to the farmer in his business. He will see every one of them either for the benefit of the rich or for the benefit of the manufacturer. That is not right, sir; it is not just, sir; it is almost, I was going to say, impiety itself to thus oppress men who, as the instruments of the Almighty, answer for us the prayer He taught us to utter: "Give us this day our daily bread."

Safety from a Pestilential Scourge.
Protection from the disease, not a medicinal agent which merely checks the paroxysms, is the grand desideratum wherever the endemic scourge of malaria prevails. Quinine does not afford this protection. The chief reason why Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has won such immense popularity is, that it prepares the system to resist the malarial pest. This it does by bracing and toning the physical organism; regulating and promoting an equal flow and distribution of the animal fluids, and establishing digestion on a sound basis. Not only is fever and ague prevented, but the worst types of the disease are conquered by it. Such is the only conclusion to be drawn from the overwhelming evidence in its favor. It is equally efficacious in dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, general debility and rheumatic complaint, and is a reliable diuretic and nervine.

Happiness is often at our side, and we pass her by. Misfortune is afar of, and we rush to meet her.

THE LADIES DELIGHTED.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet efficacious in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Judge—I think you might be honest if you were to accustom yourself to it. Prisoner—May be so, Judge; habit is a queer thing.

After all, the best way to know the real merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is to try it yourself. Be sure to get Hood's!

Wonderful Discovery!
The German Anti-Rheumatic Balm!
A powerful and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout, and all other diseases where a general warming, quickening, strengthening and equalization of the circulation is required.
It will last for years gives no shock and but a mild, soothing sensation on wearing it. No waiting a long time for results. It acts quickly, generally the first week, more frequently the first day, and sometimes even in the first hour its curative powers are felt.
It is inexpensive, harmless in operation, while simple in application, entailing neither discomfort nor inconvenience. Though marvelous in the results it has achieved, its seeming simplicity has the effect of causing many to doubt its virtues. For further information and price call on
