Johnny was posted on Miracles.

Little Johny Jordan was a passenger on a surburban train. Beside him sat a tall, solemn looking man with side whiskers. In front were Johnny's pa and ma, and behind him his aunt Hetty. The whole party had been to church. and the man sitting beside Johnny was the minister going out to spend the atternoon with the Jor dans.

My little man, said the minister to Johnny, did you pay close attencon to the sermon?

Yesstr, Do you remember that I said omething about miracles?

Yessir. Well Johnny, do you know what a miracle is?

Yessir. Tell me please.

"Well, all I know about it is ma said this morning that it would be a miracle if we could go to church once without havin' the minister taggin' home with us to dinner. So I guess this hain't no mir-

HOW ARE THE FOLKS!

"Oh, they're all well except mother she's about the same. Poor mother, worn out by household cares, exposure and overwork. No wonder she gives up at last and takes to her bed. But oh! how much better the family fireside would be if mother's chair was not vacant. The doctors don't seem to be doing her any good. She says their medicine don't seem to go to the spot. She feels so weak, and longs for strength. "Oh give me strength," she murmurs. Why not give her the remedy her system craves? Her impoverished blood and shattered nerves are starving for just such ingredients as are contained in B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm.) Then try a bottle of this excelent remedy. It is truly woman's bets friend. It quickly relieves pain and restores health, strength and functional regularity.

James W. Lancaster, Hawkinsville,
Ga., writes: "My wife was in bad health for eight years. Five doctors and as many more different patent medicines had done her no good. Six bottles of B. B. B. has cured her."
