"It is better to be right than to be left."

MR. and Mrs. Cleveland will visit Texas next month.

POLITICS is well on in all the districts except the Second.

TOBACCO is to become a leading product of Eastern North Carolina.

If you have failed, "pick your flint and try it again." Never give up!

EVERY Democratic voter ought to have his name on the registration books without delay.

A HANDSOME banquet was given to Henry Watterson by the Massachusetts Reform Club of Boston last Friday night.

DUNN & Co. report largely increased supplies of money and a healthier state of trade of all legitimate branches.

The bill to establish Rock Creek Park, in the District of Columbia, has passed both houses of Congress and now goes to the President.

An effort is being made to produce the impression that Mr. Cleveland is out of health. If it is so neither Mr. nor Mrs. Cleveland is aware of it.

The Porter "approximation" is exceedingly unfair. In Democratic localities it is away below the mark, while in Republican districts it is far above it.

The trial of the Irish Nationalists at Tipperary is exciting great interest: the streets are thronged with people, who seem to be laboring under suppressed excitement.

The Morning Star and Wilmington Messenger are giving admirable accounts of the great Sam Jones meeting now in progress in their city. Read them; it will do you good.

If Reed is nominated for President, in 1892, his party need not be concerned about a platform. If he is put on one he does not like he will kick it to pieces. He is boss, and will rule or ruin.

The London prize fight came off despite the efforts of the police to prevent it. Slavin defeated McAuliff on the second round. Thus the Stars and Stripes went down and the Cross of St. George floated over them.

PUTTING in two fellows—Miller and Langston—who were never elected to the House is only father proof of the desperation and corruption of a gangrened party. It acts without the least regard to justice or right or legality—Wilmington Messenger.

The tariff Conference Committee is ready to report. In the line of oppression and tyranny it is a decided success. If the present tariff bill will not drive farmers into the Democratic party "neither will they be persuaded tho' one arise from the dead."

The night which has been thrown on Harrison makes men wonder that he could have been the nominee of the Republican Convention at Chicago. The truth is Harrison was to the Convention Hobson's choice. He was the only man who could stand consistently on the platform. The Convention, under the lead of the learned McKinley, had formed a platform binding the Convention to a tariff so high as to be prohibitory, and declared in favor of free whiskey. Neither Sherman, Allison, Gresham, nor even Alger could face their former records, wherein were recorded not only excuses for the war tariff, but pledges to reduce it to a peace footing. Harrison had no record to traverse, and so he was nominated.

Not much pleasure in pedestrianism yesterday.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Y. M. C. A. will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The fall of temperature and the wind and the rain for the past few days are no doubt from equinoctial causes.

High tide yesterday. The office of the steamer Kinston and some other business places were entirely surrounded.

Two beautiful and affecting solos were rendered at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon by Messrs. C. W. Buckingham, of Norfolk, and J. K. Willis, of this city.

The colored people are to have a camp meeting at La Grange, beginning Thursday and will run an excursion to it next Sunday from Morehead and also from Goldsboro.

Two converts were baptized at the foot of Broad street Sunday into the Church of Christ by Rev. I. L. Chestnut. From the La Grange Spectator we see that at a meeting just closed there eight have joined this denomination.

The Salem Times-Register states that the Williams Ink Factory will start Oct. 1st with a capital of $30,000. It has been chartered under the laws of Virginia and has a full set of officers. Mr. J. V. Williams is the general manager, and Mr. Geo. Allen secretary and treasurer, both former business men of New Berne.

Washburn & Arlington's Show.
Washburn & Arlington's monster shows will visit this city Thursday and exhibit on the Dunn lot near the cemetery. The Worcester (Mass.) Gazette says:

The company attracted attention to the show's notable number of horses and performers, by a procession through a number of streets, and created a favorable impression, which resulted in a generous patronage of their evening exhibition at Agricultural Park. More than 3,000 people attended the show during the evening, and barring the lack of pleasant weather, a verdict of satisfaction was gained. The orchestra corps of the company, including the Brothers Vernon, of mid-air celebrity, a slack wire performer of great expertise, and Lowell, a wonderful contortionist, won special plaudits, notably merited.

Eighth Township Registrars.
The law requires an entirely new registration for the coming elections. We published a full list of the registrars when they were appointed by the county commissioners, but as two changes were made in those appointed for New Berne, we give again the list of registrars for the 8th township and the places of registration. It is as follows:

For the city: First ward, S. H. Lane registrar, at the city clerk's office; 2d ward, J. K. Willis, at his marble yard; 3d ward, W. E. Snelling, at his store; 4th ward, H. B. Lane, at Jno. B. Lane's shop; 5th ward, St. Philips precinct, Lee J. Taylor, at his store; 5th ward, McCarthy's precinct, Eugene Tucker, at his store.

Eighth township, outside city: W. H. Bray, at his residence, Pleasant Hill, Enoch Wadsworth, at his residence.

Remember the places and attend early to registering. Bear in mind that your name will not be transferred from the old registration book, and that if you fail to register in time you will not be allowed to vote.

ASTRONOMY.—Sun, Moon, Joshua, Lander, Rolan Baking Powder.

September Sales of Cotton.

It has been a long time since the receipts of cotton in New Berne have been as large thus early as they have been this September, if they ever were. We give below the September sales for several years previous, and it makes a very gratifying showing for this year. A great portion of the cotton that comes here is shipped without being sold, and is not counted in this statement. The sales up to last Saturday night (which cotton men count as the end of the month) this year was 1310 bales; last year for the same period it was only 98 bales; in 1888, 198 bales; and in 1887, 1137 bales. The cause of the uncommon shortage in 1888 and 1889 was unfavorable weather, the proportion was better later in the season.

Rev. Sam Jones in Wilmington.

Sunday before last Rev. Sam Jones closed a very successful series of meetings in Lynchburg, Virginia. After speaking of his last sermon there the Lynchburg Advocate says:

"The scene that followed the sermon, when the invitation had been extended to all to come forward and renounce their sins, baffles description. Many were characterized as the greatest sight they had ever beheld. During the sermon thousands of eyes were wet with tears, thousands of bosoms quivering with suppressed sobs, but this was nothing compared with the scene at the close. The reporters have seen ovations extended to Presidents, warriors, statesmen, patriots, where the throng surged forward to press his hand, but none of these equalled the scene yesterday afternoon where grateful and determined men thronged around the servant of God who had convinced them of the error of their way. Strong men broke down and wept like children, many frames that seldom feel the touch of emotion, were quivering and sobbing from remorse and joy. Fully 500 men pressed the hands of the evangelist and thus announced their determination to lead better lives."

From Lynchburg Mr. Jones went to Wilmington, N. C., but owing to recent railroad accidents he did not arrive there at the time fixed for him to begin his meetings in that city. He had an unavoidable delay of seventy-two hours, but he arrived there in time to preach his first sermon Saturday night and had an audience of nearly 5000 people, notwithstanding the fact that there had been a down-pouring rain in the afternoon which did not stop until after 6 o'clock, leaving the streets in very bad condition.

After the sermon he requested those who wanted a grand sweeping victory for old Wilmington to rise, and the entire audience arose. Many were anxious about their spiritual condition and we hope a grand work may be done in Wilmington also.

Another New Berne Youth Doing Well.

We are pleased to learn from a postal received by Mr. H. B. Duffy Saturday night that his former clerk, Mr. W. H. Willis, who is now in his third year at Trinity College, has just been awarded a twenty-five dollar scholarship prize.

Mr. Willis is studying for the ministry. Previous to his conversion he was an upright, industrious, moral young man, with a genial disposition and religious tendencies. Very soon after his conversion he decided to make the service of the Lord his life-work and to educate himself in order to make his sphere of usefulness as large as possible. Though he had no means except as his efforts secured them, he entered Trinity College at its next session, and though working his way under difficulties he has stood well there the whole time.

Ever since his conversion Mr. Willis has been zealous in Christian work. He conducted a number of young men's prayer meetings in the Methodist Church and in the Y. M. C. Association, also cottage prayer meetings at private residences before leaving here, and we have heard his earnest and impressive addresses strongly complimented. He is of a practical turn of mind and does not wait for something to turn up, but exerts himself energetically to accomplish his purposes, and we feel assured he will make a useful Christian minister. He spends his vacations teaching school in Pamlico county, and he has already received his license to preach.

Personal.

Mr. W. S. Blount left yesterday for a business trip to Pitt county.

Mrs. Geo. Allen and Master Harry V. Allen returned to Salem.

Mr. R. J. Robbins, of Pamlico county, who was recently employed at Mr. M. H. Sultan's, left for a trip to Texas with a view of locating in that State.

Mr. Fred. Hunter returned last night from a visit to his father in Laurinburg.

Mr. R. H. Berry is again in the city for a few days.

The declining powers of old age may be wonderfully recuperated and sustained by the daily use of Hod's Sarsaparilla.

A Catholic Sensation.

ROANOK, Va., Sept. 27.—B. O'Meara has caused the arrest of J. J. Keely for assault and threatening his life, and of Father J. W. Lynch, pastor of the St. Andrews Catholic church, as an accessory. The trouble arose through a scandal which O'Meara had made public concerning Keely's young lady of Father Lynch's church. The priest arranged for a meeting not knowing Keely forced a written retraction from O'Meara at the point of a revolver, telling him he must sign. Keely admits the assault, but denies the priest's connection with it. Keely was fined $25, and bound to keep the peace.

Rev. Father Lynch was tried before the mayor this morning, and after a severe reprimand, discharged. The affair has created great commotion in Catholic Church circles.

Four Hundred Soldiers Drowned.

VIENNA, Sept. 27.—Polish journals assert that during the manoeuvres of the Russian army, at Keyno, the Krasnastaw bridge collapsed, and that four hundred soldiers belonging to the Putnam regiment, which was crossing the bridge at the time of the accident, were thrown to the water and drowned. The papers state that among those who lost their lives, was General Bardowski. There has been no official confirmation of this report.

Over Twenty Killed.

PORTLAND, OREGON, September 27.—A serious wreck is reported to have occurred at Wacoza, Idaho, yesterday morning. Two fast mail trains of the Ogden Fast Line ran to each other. Over twenty are reported killed, and many injured. A traveller, who arrived in Pendleton, Oregon, today, brings the news of the wreck.

How England Regards the Tariff Bill.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Standard says: The McKinley tariff is much less alarming than it looks. It may diminish our trade with America, but it will aid us immensely to spread it in other quarters.

A $300,000 Defaulter Captured.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 27.—W. H. Schriber, who was book keeper of First National Bank of this city, and stole $300,000 in 1888, and absconded to Canada, has been arrested by means of employing a female to decoy him to this city by Canada.

The Lottery Company's Enterprise.
