"The people wouldn't object to a prohibitory duty on Republican fat frying pans."

TAKE your Republican friend by the hand and gently lead him into the Democratic fold.

You must register before the night of October 24th, or you can't vote in the next election.

THE Governor of Arizona recommends Congressional legislation to suppress Mormonism in that Territory.

THE police count of New York's population shows that 200,000 names have been omitted by the census makers.

EVERY Democrat must register and vote. It will not do to allow North Carolina to fall into the hands of the Republicans.

CUSTOM officers are busy studying the new tariff, and they do not find it a picnic. Neither will the people.—Manchester Union:

It is reported that the Sioux Indians are excited over the expected coming of a Messiah who shall lead them against the whites.

HONEST white Republicans are every day repudiating the party. There is every reason why every one of them should leave it.—State Chronicle.

Now that Reed, Quay and other Congressional big bugs have gone home, President Harrison may become a person of some importance.—Macon Telegraph.

COL. A. O. DAVIS has about 225 cadets on the grounds of the Davis Military School. Is there a military school in the South that can touch these figures? And still they come.

THE deepest self-communings are necessary to one who would know human nature, because self is the only human creature that can be known with a perfect intimacy.—Christopher Carr.

THE Rev. David S. Ferry, ninety-three years old, who recently stole a horse and carriage in Brooklyn was recently arraigned before Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions. He pleaded guilty, and said he intended using the money he would get by selling the horse and wagon for the purpose of getting into the Home for aged Ministers in Philadelphia. Judge Moore directed that the County Physician examine the old man as to his sanity.

COTTON—New Berne market—Sales of 139 bales at 9 25 to 9 50.

A letter received from Mr. W. A. Dunn, yesterday, states that he and the Hon. W. H. Kitchen will speak here tonight.

There will be a meeting of the Craven County Democratic Executive Committee held at the Gaston House today at 12 o'clock, noon.

The oyster boats are arriving with oysters for Messrs Moore & Brady's cannery factory. They commenced work yesterday and made their first shipment last night by the steamer Stout of the Clyde line.

Another cargo of shell rock was received yesterday. This with what has previously been brought makes over half the amount requisite for the intended extension of the western wall of Cedar Grove Cemetery.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the second congressional district is to meet in Wilson today and nominate a successor to Capt. W. J. Rogers, who withdrew from the congressional contest last week on account of ill health.

An alarm of fire brought out the engines again last night. The cause was said to be another lamp explosion near the depot. Why continue to use kerosene, as dangerous as it is when you can so easily have either gas or electric lights at a moderate cost. Their convenience, their safety and the better light afforded are all arguments in their favor.

Tennyson & Dawson's Specialty Company opened in a four nights engagement at the theatre last night. The exhibition consisted in a variety of features which kept the audience in a high state of merriment through the entire performance. The two leading prizes were a handsome lamp and a pair of vases drawn by Mr. E. M. Duguid and Miss Maggie Boesser.

Much interest was displayed at the meeting of the Co-operative Manufacturing Company last night, but there not being such an attendance as was desired, they adjourned to meet Friday night of next week—they want every member and every business man of the town to be present then—not for talk, but for work. If we come together then, not simply to see what can be done, but with the determination to establish the factory, we will secure it and it will not be long before it will be started.

The Speaking Tonight.

A delightful treat is in store for our citizens who will be fortunate enough to hear the address of Hon. W. H. Kitchen tonight. He has long been noted as a stalwart champion of Democracy, and the correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer says that his recent speech in Henderson was one of the most powerful ever heard in that section of North Carolina, that his exposition of the villainies of the tariff and the tyranny and oppression that is to flow from the infamous force bill was powerful and clear, and that he is doing a great work.

If you want to become pretty well posted in regard to present national issues be sure you hear both Mr. Kitchen and Mr. W. A. Dunn tonight at the court house.

Personal.

Hon. F. M. Simmons went up to Taboro yesterday to address the voters of that town and expects also to make speeches at other places in the vicinity.

Mrs. Louis Ulrich, who has been visiting friends in New Berne, returned to her home in Henderson.

Miss Annie C. Whitford left to enter Salem Female Academy, Messrs. J. H. and D. W. Whitford accompanied her there and will take in the State Fair on their way back.

Among those going to the Fair we noticed Misses Sarah Davis and Jennie Thomas, of Beaufort; Mr. John S. Morton, of Harlowe, and Messrs. R. H. Barry and Thos. H. Davis, Mrs. M. M. Hanft and Miss Mamie Gaskill, of New Berne.

Mr. Samuel Hudson, the Democratic nominee of Jones county for the House of Representatives, called to see us on Monday last. He reports things running smoothly in his county in a political way.

Mr. Clem. Manly returned last night from attending Supreme Court at Raleigh, accompanied by his wife returning home from her summer trip.

Mrs. C. E. Foy has returned from a visit to Mr. C. H. Foy's family.

Mr. Geo. N. Ives left again for Morehead, at which place he keeps busily employed shipping fish which are now being caught so abundantly there.

Serious Fire.

At 11:30 o'clock last night fire broke out in the drug store of R. N. Duffy, on the corner of Middle and Pollock sts. It was discovered by Mr. R. B. Nixon where matches were stored, and in his endeavor to put it out he threw a vessel of benzine on it thinking it was water. The immediate explosion of the spirits almost suffocated Mr. Nixon and caused the fire to burn very rapid.

Both engines were at the scene and turned on their full force of water, but the very inflammable chemicals caused the flames to spread so rapidly that they were entirely uncontrollable at first. The whole of the interior of the building was soon a solid mass of flame which burst out on the north side and led into the offices of Drs. Whas. and Frank Duffy, the two barber shops of J. B. Brown and Robert Green, and the tailor shop of Richard Sawyer. Also the law office of Duffy & Nixon over the drug store was burned out.

Mr. R. N. Duffy suffered the heaviest loss, probably $4,000 or $5,000 in drugs and druggists stationery, and about half that amount on buildings. Other losses by fire and water we would suppose to be not over $1,500 or $2,000.

Good Work by Our Agent.

Mr. L. E. Duffy, regular traveling agent for the JOURNAL, has just completed a canvass through Lenoir county and a portion of Craven where expectations have been more than met. He says it is the exception where a subscriber fails to pay for his paper; not only settling up for past indebtedness, but paying in advance also. This is evidence that the farmers are in better condition than they have been for a number of years and it is especially gratifying to us, first, because we know that our subscribers are not disposed to deprive us of our legitimate means of labor, and second, because they are better enabled to meet their obligations.

Indian Sheriff Killed.

Mr. E. Cohen, one of our dry goods merchants has a son in business, in Fort Smith, Arkansas, who sends him an account that he turns over to us of the killing of a Choctaw Indian that seems to indicate that civilization must still be in rather a rough state out there. The Indian, at the time of his killing, was a United States Marshal, and had three times been sheriff of Toxoby county, and is spoken of as a good, honest man and a brave officer, but he got on a big drunk and with flourishing pistol took charge of a saloon, and started to shoot a policeman, who wastoo quick for him and killed him instead.

If the men who fill the offices are such rough characters, what must the rank and file of the population be?

Another Farmers' Alliance Picnic.

Bula Alliance held a picnic at Good Hope school house, on north side of Neuse river, on Saturday the 11th inst.

At the early hour of nine o'clock the farmers with their wives, daughters and boys began to gather, and until the late hour of twelve o'clock was reached they still kept coming from various parts of Craven and Pamlico counties until the number reached between three and four hundred.

Arrangements having been made for public speaking, and Mr. H. E. Smith of Riverdale Alliance being present, upon invitation, at 11 o'clock, the time appointed, was introduced by the president, Mr. L. G. Thomas, and entertained the audience for a little over an hour. After which the Rev. Mr. Joyner of Aurora, Beaufort county, being present, was called for. Upon ascending the platform the speaker reminded his audience that it was near dinner time, and promised not to detain them long, but was closely listened to by all for thirty-five minutes. Then all were invited to assemble around the table, which was elaborately arranged by Messrs. S. E. Whitford and F. S. Ernul, and barbecue, mutton, goat, venison, goose and chicken were in abundance, and all were more than satisfied and sufficient left to feed as many more after the tables were deserted by the gradual moving away one after another.

Major Blount, of Chocowinity, Beaufort county, was then called on for an address, and ascending the platform, opened by saying, "You all know me; I am old Major Blount." He then with his usual good nature and wit entertained all for about fifty minutes, not forgetting to compliment the ladies. The people then returned to their homes carrying with them pleasant thoughts of a day long to be remembered.

Radicals talk a great deal about the suppression of the negro vote in the South. Why do they not explain why it is that 210,000 Republicans in Iowa elect ten Congressmen and 179,000 Democrats elect only one? In Massachusetts 188,000 Republicans elect ten, and 104,000 Democrats only two? In Maine 78,000 Republicans elect four, and 54,000 Democrats elect one?—State Chronicle.

Visiting Their Old Home

Messrs. Jas. W. Miller and Frank W. Miller, ante bellum residents of New Berne, are now in the city stopping at the Hotel Albert.

Their father was a civil engineer and came here from Johnston, N. J., in the exercise of his profession to aid in laying out and constructing the A. & N. O. R. R. and had charge of the lower portion of the road.

He liked the town so well that he decided to locate here and moved his family down and turned his attention to farming. He purchased the old Governor Speight plantation over Trent river, and another adjoining, making 1,900 acres, but lived in town in the house near the foot of Pollock street, now occupied by Mr. M. Hahn, which the visiting gentlemen say looks almost exactly as it did when they resided in it.

They remained here until the breaking out of the war in 1861, when their father sold both his plantations to Mr. Henry R. Bryan and moved to High Point, N. C.

After the war the family moved back to their old home in Johnston, N. Y., at which place the two sons still live. Mr. Jas. W. Miller is now the station agent there for a very prosperous railroad, and Mr. Frank Miller is in the hardware business. The old gentleman, we are sorry to learn, died five years ago.

Some of our business men were schoolmates of the gentlemen now visiting us and many remember their father. They will soon leave here and visit High Point, their home during the war, before returning to Johnston.

Many old acquaintances express gratification at meeting them again.

A Complimentary Notice of the Bryans.

The Wilmington Messenger copies our announcement of Mr. Shepard Bryan's being appointed tutor at the State University and then pays the following high tribute to the Bryan family:

"Some families have a succession of scholars and men of parts. The great Adams family of Massachusetts is possibly the most marked example in our country. Some North Carolina families have had men of ability and prominence throughout generations. The most distinguished examples we recall as we write are the Ashe, Henderson, Waddell, Badger, Battle and Bryan families. Of course there are some others, but we do not tarry to try to recall them.

But our purpose is to refer to the Bryans. The late John H. Bryan, of Raleigh, was a man we held in great reverence when we were in our teens and early manhood. He always treated us with so much kindness and consideration that we hold his memory as precious. He was a man of reading, of scholarship and a fine lawyer. He had several sons, two of whom we went to school, and several others we knew. Without exception they all shared in something of their father's ability, and could all acquire readily. One of them, Capt. Francis T. Bryan, of the U. S. Army, was graduated with first honors at the University and stood high at West Point. Another, William S., an alumnus also of the University of North Carolina, is now on the Maryland Supreme Court Bench. John was another scholarly member of the family. So it may be said of the Democratic candidate for Judge in the New Bern District—Mr. H. R. Bryan. And now his son Shepard gives token of the same high gifts and powers of acquisition that distinguish the family, as the above announcement leads us to think. North Carolina is not barren of talents in any branch of learning.

ONE WIFE ENOUGH.

Polygamy Ended by the Mormons.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 8, 1890.—The Sixty-first Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ, of Latter Day Saints, today decided to abolish polygamy, in accordance with the proclamation made by President Woodruff, of the Church, on September 24th.

After the preliminary work of the morning Mr. George Q. Cannon arose and paused some time before he spoke. An important document was in his right hand. This filled the audience with anticipation of the foretold sensation in the shape of a manifesto by the President forbidding plural marriages.

The document was handed to Bishop Whitney who read it. President Snow, chief of the Twelve Apostles, then rose and offered the following: "I move that, recognizing Wilford Woodruff as the president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and the only man on the earth at the present time who holds the keys of the sealing ordinances, we consider him fully authorized by virtue of his position to issue the manifesto which has been read in our hearing and which is dated September 24, 1890, and that as a Church in general conference assembled we accept his declaration concerning plural marriages as authoritative and binding."

Not a man or woman in the thousand assembled voted against the proposition, which was declared carried.
