TWO feet of snow reported at Quebec.

GOV. GOODELL is out as candidate for the U. S. Senate against Mr. Blair.

PARNELL is out of funds and the Irish National League is greatly pressed for money.

HON. CHARLES FREDERICK CRISP, of Georgia, is campaigning in New York and Massachusetts.

HON. T. M. NORWOOD has at last announced himself a candidate for the U. S. Senate from Georgia.

"THE Philadelphia Times says: A Wilkesbarre woman's eight husbands appeared against her in court at one time Saturday."

SENATOR EDMUNDS, of Vermont, is mentioned as the probable successor of the late Judge Miller on the U. S. Supreme Court bench.

FRANCE is about to adopt a high tariff on American products. This is a kind of "reciprocity" which did not occur to Blaine and McKinley.

THE Presbyterian Synod of South Carolina has unanimously adopted a report favoring the establishment of a Presbyterian University in one of the South Atlantic States.

DANIEL OYSTER is the Republican candidate for Congress in the 28th district of Pennsylvania. We hope the Democrats will capture him and send him to the New Berne Oyster, Fish, Game and Industrial Exposition.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has awarded a gold life saving medal to Thomas M. Webb, of Wilmington, N. C., for rescuing Miss J. J. Hayes and Miss Irene Jackson from drowning at Wrightsville beach, N. C., in August last.

ONE little $6-a-week clerk in a store when you come to buy goods will give you more reliable information about the effect of the tariff on prices than all the statesmen in the Republican and Democratic parties combined. — Washington Star.

THE News and Observer says: "We never saw Wake men feeling half so happy, politically speaking, as at present. They wear an air of confidence, and feel assured of making a clean sweep from turret to foundation stone. Wake is to be redeemed this year for a fact. She will never go Republican again."

A FAVORITE trick of the Republican leaders has been for the past ten or fifteen years to yell themselves hoarse about a free ballot and a fair count, and the meanest, most disreputable charges have been made against the South in connection with the State and national elections. In order to keep up the bloody shirt issue the Administration and the Republican leaders in Congress have utterly abandoned their party in the South to the negroes, with John M. Langston as the recently appointed leader.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SOUTHERN WAR SONGS.
THEATRE—A fair rebel.
JAS. REDMOND—Loaned.
THEATRE—Benefit of yacht club.
C. E. SLOVER—Small hams, etc.
CHURCHILL & CO.—Engine for sale.
C. A. PALMER—Application for certificate.

COTTON—New Berne market—Sale 237 bales at 8 3/4 to 9 3/8.

Norfolk has had more dry kilns destroyed by fire. Estimated loss $15,000 or $20,000, partly insured.

Every one should remember the date of the meeting of the New Berne Co-operative Company—next Monday night.

Mr. O. Marks, one of our prominent Hebrew merchants, has forwarded a large box of dry goods and notions to the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Mr. C. J. Scheelky is getting well under way in building his planing mill and dry kiln, and has commenced driving the piling for his wharf.

Improvements are still going on at the fair grounds. The railing around the race track is now being built, and after that is completed, the grand stand and additional stables will be erected.

Mr. E. S. Street has got his new livery stables nearly completed. The building is twice as large as the old one, is lighted by electricity, has a new office near the entrance and is conveniently arranged to meet Mr. Street's requirements, having been built under his immediate supervision.

It is a constant occurrence now to see improvements going on in New Berne, repairing, enlarging, painting, building on vacant lots and tearing away old buildings to erect better ones. Mr. J. R. B. Carraway has just purchased property near the foot of Broad street, and is removing three common buildings from it preparatory to building himself a residence.

The Oxford Orphan Asylum Singing Class gave one of their exhibitions at the theatre last night to a large audience. All of the seats were taken and some persons were compelled to stand up. The program was nicely rendered, and a few of the class showed considerable talent. It is good to live with people who show such true sympathy for the fatherless and motherless.

Mrs. Ella G. Cloary, under date of October 23, writes from her home in Baltimore to a friend in New Berne that her brother, Mr. Brunner D. Cohen, had just died with typhoid fever, and that he died a Christian, prepared for death. Mr. Cohen was the youngest son of Rev. A. D. Cohen, a former pastor of the New Berne Baptist Church, and had numerous friends in this city who sympathize with his sorrowing relatives.

The Academy property, on the corner of Pollock and Craven streets has been measured preparatory to making a bid for selling to the Government for the site of the public building and found to amply meet all requirements. This is directly opposite the post office, and was its former location previous to its removal across the street. It is convenient to the business portion of the city and for over a quarter of a century the people have been accustomed to going to that locality for the mail.

Why continue the use of irritating powders, snuffs or liquids. Ely's Cream Balm, pleasant of application and a sure cure for catarrh and cold in head, can be had for 50c. It is easily applied into the nostrils, is safe and pleasant, and is curing the most obstinate cases. It gives relief at once.

Church Notice.
Hancock Street Methodist Church, Sunday, Oct. 26; services at 11 a. m., conducted by John W. Knott, of Norfolk, Va. Preaching at 7:15 p. m. by Rev. W. S. Bone, P. E. Prayer meeting at 9:15 a. m. Sunday-school at 3 p. m. W. R. Barrington, Supt. The public are invited to these services and will receive a cordial welcome.

A Republican Foresees Defeat.
Our Trenton correspondent writes us of a break in the Republican ticket in Jones county. Their candidate for county treasurer, Mr. Durant H. Harrison, a sharp, far-seeing man, has given up the race and withdrawn. It is learned that he advised others to do as he has done and save themselves, as he knows full well there is danger to the whole ticket.

The Democrats are in good spirits and working like beavers and if they do not relax their efforts but keep their sleeves rolled up and battle in the thick of the fight until the sun sets on the first Tuesday in November next, victory will be theirs all along the line.

Personal.
Mrs. Fred. Hunter and child left yesterday morning for her new home in Henderson, where her husband had preceded her a few weeks.
Mrs. W. G. Boyd returned from a visit to friends in Goldsboro.
Mrs. L. E. Cley returned from a visit to relatives in Greenville.

Miss Addie Cloyd returned from a visit to friends in Massachusetts.
Miss Laura Hughes came in on the steamer Newberne from her summer trip. The first two months were spent on a pleasure tour in Canada, and the remainder of the time in visiting friends in New York and Baltimore.

Mrs. Jesse T. Rhodes left on the steamer Newberne for her future home in Norfolk.

Wa Wish So Too.
The Elizabeth City Economist expresses a wish that the magnificent new steamer "Neuse" had been in readiness for their Fair so that our people could have had an opportunity of going there. But since circumstances forbade this pleasure, we do not believe "Betsy" will allow our Winter Fair to go unrepresented. It has not been her future custom. We copy from the Economist, and especially request the presence of Bro. Creecy:

"We have our eyes constantly turned toward New Berne looking for the smoke stack of the new palace steamer 'Neuse' which is to run tri-weekly between New Berne and Elizabeth City. It will, we trust, promote the prosperity, sociability and convenience of the sister towns. We wish it had commenced its schedule this week, so that New Berne might have been represented at our Elizabeth City Fair, and then we would have returned the visit to their Agricultural, Game and Fish Fair this winter."

The War Play, "A Fair Rebel."
The military comedy-drama, "A Fair Rebel," by Harry P. Mawson, will be presented at the New Berne Opera House next Wednesday night. Of the play the advance press notice furnishes the following description:
Perhaps no war play has achieved so instantaneous success and popularity as "A Fair Rebel." The bravery, nobility, unselfishness and candor of the beautiful Southern girl—Clairette Monteith—appeal to all hearts. It is with her, "My flag first; all else after." Not even the appeals of the man she loves—a Union officer, who has brought a message while on leave, from her father, who is dying on the battlefield—will she heed. Col. Mason, the officer, who would woo her, sees the insurmountable barriers between them, and it is not until she sees him taken to Libby Prison, through the treachery of a French nobleman, that her heart reveals the acknowledgment of her love for him. Mason has been cast into Libby by a man she despises, and she does all in her power to gain the escape of the gallant officer. He emerges from the tunnel into the street, and Clairette disguised as the sentinel, aids him. She changes overcoats with him, and the Frenchman appearing upon the scene and seeing Clairette covering up the hole into the street, takes her for Mason, whom he has suspected of an intrigue to gain his liberty, and shoots her. The powerful acting of Fanny Gillette, as Clairette, "A Fair Rebel" can be imagined. Never did a part suit Miss Gillette so admirably as this, which portrays so charmingly the true, high-spirited, albeit gentle-hearted Southern girl. The part of Col. Mason, the hero, is played by that clever young actor, Edward R. Mawson, who supported William J. Scanlan for some time. Miss Belle Bucklin sings some charming old negro melodies, and accompanies herself on the banjo, when at the old manor house. Then there is Miss Lealie Tillson, on whom a good deal of the comedy element falls. Miss Tillson, as a middle aged Southern lady of the year 1864, makes up and dresses the part to perfection. "A Fair Rebel" is sure to draw crowded houses.

The Population of Florida.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The census office today announced the total population of the State of Florida to be 390,433, an increase of 120,941, or 44-58 per cent. The population of Jacksonville is 17,140, and increase of 9,510, or 124 per cent; Key West 18,068, increase 8,168, 83 per cent.

Blaine Leaves for Ohio.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Secretary Blaine will leave Washington tomorrow morning for Cranston, O., where he will speak Saturday. From that place he will go to Chicago, but he will not speak in Indiana.

What Does It Mean?
"100 Doses One Dollar" means simply that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most economical medicine to buy, because it gives more for the money than any other preparation. Each bottle contains 100 doses and will average to last a month, while other preparations taken according to directions are gone in a week. Therefore, be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier. 2

Prominent Banker Found Dead.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—This morning James B. Creighton, a prominent banker of this city, was found dead in his office on Broadway. The general impression was that he committed suicide rather than see the failure of the bank with whom he has been connected.

THE WAY MADE CLEAR.
One of the most serious obstacles to success in the way of man is planted right in the middle of the road to health. How to restore and to maintain a regular habit of body and digestion is too often a source of needless and, unhappily, of vain inquiry. It is not necessary to inveigh against drastic purgatives. They who have used them continuously know the consequences. A remedy which unites the action of a regulating medicine for the bowels with that of a tonic both for those organs, the liver and the stomach, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, sanctioned by the best medical authority, and recommending daily the indorsement of our fellow countrymen. With this effectual, though gentle, laxative at hand, it is possible to defy those changes of temperature productive of constipation, as well as constitutional attacks of biliousness, which beset even people naturally healthy. Malaria, dyspepsia, rheumatism and kidney troubles are remedied and prevented by the Bitters.

Purchasing Agent.
We find the following notice in the New York Record relative to Mr. S. L. McGonigal, who formerly resided in Craven county, engaged in the lumbering trade, but now acting as a purchasing agent in New York:

"Long experience in connection with mercantile affairs enables Mr. S. L. McGonigal, of No. 87 College Place, New York, to save money for buyers of goods in the largest market in America. He will make careful selections of all varieties of goods sold in the interior and will purchase for responsible people on what will prove to be favorable terms."

"Mr. McGonigal has intimate trade relations with the largest and best houses in the metropolis. He solicits a correspondence with reputable and responsible people and will satisfy such that they will consult their own interest by opening an account with him. Mr. McGonigal is familiar with the entire domain of trade and by his energy has built up a large trade in his specialty. A country merchant can save himself repeated visits to the metropolis during the year, much loss of time and expense and procure his goods cheaper, and at the same time procure fresh, seasonable articles as all the novelties introduced into the New York market, whether foreign or domestic."

Indignation Meeting.
The leading colored men of New Berne are requested to meet at Drayton Hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of expressing our unqualified disapproval against the appointment of the Principal of our city public school.

MANY TAX PAVERS
The Situation in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., October 23.—R. K. Charles, of Darlington county, recently addressed an open letter through the News and Courier to Judge Haskell, the anti-Tilman candidate for Governor, asking him to answer publicly the enquiry: "Do you rest your prospect of election solely on the white Democratic vote, or do you and your friends intend to supplement your present following by an appeal to the Republican or negro vote and to the machinery of election laws?"

The News and Courier will publish tomorrow Haskell's answer, in which he says: "Yes, we ask for the vote, not only of every white Democrat, but of every colored Democrat and every white or colored Republican entitled under the laws of this State to vote. We ask them to vote for us because we believe that our ticket is composed of men who earnestly desire good government and who will to the best of their ability administer it for the good of the whole people in obedience to the pledges put forth in the platform and utterances of the Democratic party established in 1873."

Fire in Durham.
RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 23.—A fire at Durham last night burned W. H. Proctor's grocery. It is a total loss. Insurance, $3,500. The upper stories of the bank building, occupied as offices and lodges, were burned out. The Masonic Lodge was insured for $500. The First National Bank rooms on the first floor were not burned, but were damaged by water; insured for $3,000. The building was insured for $10,000; estimated value $25,000.

Southern War Songs!
Southern War Songs, Camp Fire, Patriotic and Sentimental, collected and arranged by W. L. Fagan, of Alabama. Numerous illustrations. Price $3.50. New York: M. T. Richardson & Co., Publishers, 1890.

This comprises by all odds the most complete collection of Southern War Songs ever brought together in one volume; in fact no attempt ever seems to have been made to present even a limited number of these songs in a manner worthy of their merits. The illustrations, by one of New York's most talented artists, are numerous and spirited. The author in his preface says: "Emotional literature is always a correct exponent of public sentiment, and these songs index the passionate sincerity of the South at the time they were written."
The book is endorsed by many distinguished Southern men, including Senators Carlisle and Blackburn of Kentucky, Senator Brown of Georgia, Senator Fugh of Alabama, Hon. Chas. F. Crisp of Georgia, General Beauregard and General Longstreet. Senator Brown says in his comments on this elegant volume:

"Whether the reader belonged to the Federal or the Confederate army, he will find in the songs a deep vein of patriotic sentiment, which must command his admiration." Senator Cockrell of Missouri says: "The first and only collection of the sort I have ever seen that is complete and satisfactory."
A group of Confederate flags in colors forms a striking frontispiece. This book seems particularly adapted for Birthday and Holiday presents. Women and men possessed of a good address ought to do well selling this attractive work.

Children's Caps, with an Extra Pair of Pants and a Cap, all for $5.00.
