THE JOURNAL.

REST COMETH AFTER ALL.
HOWARD C. TRIPP.
Though friends desert you in the race for fame,
Though fortune leaves you for some other goal;
Though you are blameless, yet receive much blame,
Though sorrow dwelleth deep within your soul,
Though life has been a failure and you plod
Footsore and weary o'er this earthly ball,
Still if you have a faith, a trust in God,
Rest cometh after all.

Rest cometh after all, then let us go
Forth to the duties of this fleeting life,
Bearing our Master's burdens, for we know
In Him is comfort and a rest from strife
And worldly sorrow: let our faith be shed
With love and mercy, while we ever call
Our friends to an eternal, mighty God,
Rest cometh after all.

Rest cometh after all, then as we seek
A higher life, a better, grander road,
Let us of Jesus as a Saviour speak,
For He will help us bear life's awful load
Of cares and sins, of doubt and unbelief,
Of earthly struggles, be they great or small,
We thank Thee, God, that life and trials are brief,
Rest cometh after all.

HONEST DOCTORS.
All honest, conscientious physicians who give B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial frankly admit its superiority over all other blood medicines.

Dr. W. J. Adair, Rockmart, Ga. writes: "I regard B. B. B. as one of the best blood medicines."

Dr. A. H. Roscoe, Nashville, Tenn., writes: "All reports of B. B. B. are favorable, and its speedy action is wonderful."

Dr. J. W. Rhodes, Crawfordville, Ga., writes: "I confess B. B. B. is the best and quickest medicine for rheumatism I have ever tried."

Dr. S. J. Farmer, Crawfordville, Ga., writes: "I cheerfully recommend B. B. B. as a fine tonic alternative. It has cured an excruciating pain of the neck after other remedies of great no perceptible good."

Dr. C. H. Montgomery, Jacksonville, Ala., writes: "My mother insisted on my getting B. B. B. for her rheumatism, as her case stubbornly resisted the usual remedies. She experienced immediate relief and her improvement has been truly wonderful."

Dr. G. W. Earle, Pickens, S. C., writes: "I recommended B. B. B. to a man who has suffered for years with a malignant ulcer on his leg; that seemed to resist all other treatment. After using four or five bottles the ulcer began to heal and his leg is now sound and well."

The wealth of society is its stock of productive labor.
TO DISPEL COLDS.
Headaches and Fevers; to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when colds or fevers, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Southern War Songs!
Southern War Songs, Camp Fire, Patriotic and Sentimental, collected and arranged by W. L. Fagan, of Alabama. Numerous illustrations. Price $3.50. New York: M. T. Richardson & Co., Publishers, 1899.

This comprises by all odds the most complete collection of Southern War Songs ever brought together in one volume; in fact no attempt ever seems to have been made to present even a limited number of these songs in a manner worthy of their merits. The illustrations, by one of New York's most talented artists, are numerous and spirited. The author in his preface says: "Emotional literature is always a correct exponent of public sentiment, and these songs index the passionate sincerity of the South at the time they were written."

The book is endorsed by many distinguished Southern men, including Senators Carlisle and Blackburn of Kentucky, Senator Brown of Georgia, Senator Pugh of Alabama, Hon. Chas. F. Crisp of Georgia, General Beauregard and General Longstreet. Senator Brown says in his comments on this elegant volume: "Whether the reader belonged to the Federal or the Confederate army, he will find in the songs a deep vein of patriotic sentiment, which must command his admiration." Senator Cockrell of Missouri says: "This is the first and only collection of the sort I have ever seen that is complete and satisfactory."

A group of Confederate flags in colors forms a striking frontispiece. This book seems particularly adapted for Birthday and Holiday presents. Women and men possessed of a good address ought to do well selling this attractive work.

TAKE S.S.S. IN THE SPRING.
Nature should be assisted in the spring to throw off the heaviness of the sluggish winter circulation of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly and so safely as Swift's Specific.

I have used S. S. S. for a number of years, and consider it the best tonic and blood remedy that I ever used. In fact I would not enter upon a spring or summer in this climate without it.

A record of their daily life, presented in a form and language which make it plain to all.
ITS LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Brown, Henry Stewart, John M. Stahl, A. P. Ford, Jeff. Welborn, Thel' H. Bracks, John C. Edgar, Steele's Favour, T. B. Holburn and a host of others make this journal indispensable. Moreover, it is equally
A HOME MAGAZINE.
Every subject of interest to the home-maker is fully treated. Mary Marshall, Lois Chesby, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Davison, Miss Cabell, Miss Mosby, Alice Winston and a score of others will contribute regularly.

"Fair Trade and Farmers' Rights"
