THERE is no reason why any patriot should vote the Republican ticket.

GO and vote early today, and then induce others to vote the Democratic ticket.

DON'T neglect your county ticket today. It is composed of first rate men and it is an honor to vote for them.

CHEERING news comes from all parts of the district. If Craven does her duty Mewborne will be elected. Vote for him.

AT last accounts the Kansas farmers had Ingalls down, and were rubbing sand in his eyes and putting hay seed in his ears.

SOME expert mineral men say that the whole bed of Valley River in Cherokee county, on each side, is underlaid with marble of different kinds.

COWHIDE horseshoes are reported to be growing in favor in England and other parts of Europe. They have the advantages of lightness, great durability, superior adhesion and avoidance of split hoofs. The Japanese are said to have used straw horseshoes for centuries, the straw being treated by an unknown chemical process.

It looks like we are going to elect a Democratic Legislature in Illinois and place that gallant leader John M. Palmer in the United States Senate.

DEMOCRATIC gains are reported all along the lines. It is believed that the Legislature of New York will be Democratic and will elect two Democrat Senators in place of Evarts and Hiscock.

DEMOCRATIC prospects are very bright today. North Carolina is considered safe, and it really looks that the Democrats will elect William E. Russell governor of Massachusetts. There seems to be even a better chance for Robert E. Pattison in Pennsylvania, where the Republicans revolt against Quay and Delamater surpasses anything in the history of politics in that State.

Hi Henry's Minstrels have an engagement at the theatre next Tuesday evening.

The following constitutes the honor roll of the New Berne Collegiate Institute for the month of October: Misses Rosa Dail, Eva Willis, Melissa May, Mamie Gaskill, Jennie Steinhilper, Laura Suter, and Masters Rom, Nunn, Seymour Dennison and Guy Chadwick.

Miss Nahar, elocutionist and reader, will recite at the theatre Thursday evening. She has been in New Berne before and gained the reputation of being possessed of decided merit. "Cleopatra," in Egyptian costume, will number among the renditions.

Ladies of the Memorial Association are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Vass on Tuesday at 12 o'clock, m. This is the regular half yearly meeting, when important business is transacted. All members therefore are earnestly requested to be present at this meeting.

By the solicitation of Dr. L. C. Vass at a meeting held after the devotional services Sunday morning, the session and congregation of the Presbyterian church agreed, with reluctance and grief, to unite with him in requesting Albemarle Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations existing between.

Mr. Joseph H. Hackburn has been elected a Director in the National Bank of New Berne to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. F. M. Simmons. Mr. Hackburn is one of our active merchants and will no doubt fill the position with credit to himself and the institution with which he becomes connected.

Go to the polls this morning and vote as you please. Vote according to the dictates of your own will and judgment and independent of the influences of any living man. It is a right and privilege that all are entitled to, and it should be exercised by every legal voter. It is not only a right but a duty, therefore do not let the sun go down today without having done your share towards shaping good government.

At the auction sale of real estate yesterday, Mr. L. H. Cutler bought the dwelling on the corner of Neuse and Craven streets; Mr. James M. Harrison the one on the corner of Pollock and Spring streets, and Mrs. L. L. Henderson the one on Middle street adjoining the Methodist parsonage. Dr. C. Duffy bought a half interest in the large brick warehouse at the foot of Craven street, occupied by Mr. E. K. Bishop, and Major Graham Daves purchased Clark's brickyard. Mr. S. R. Street was the auctioneer.

We call attention to the timely article in another column on important changes in the North Carolina coast and the submerged wrecks on one of which the ocean steamer Glenrath struck and sunk two months ago, the incidents of which must still be fresh in the minds of our readers as the wrecked seamen passed through our town on the way to their homes. As the article shows, neither the changes nor the wrecks are marked but for the sake of the seafaring men whose lives and property are imperilled we hope they soon will be.

How Does This Sound.

A paper started in New Berne a few months ago known as the "Reform Republican," edited and owned by colored men, urges voting for the full Democratic ticket. Through its duration it has made a hard and determined fight against Republican corruption, and now advises that the Craven county nominees of the g. o. p. be crushed out and that the way to do this is to vote the full Democratic ticket in this county. To show the tenor of its way we copy a paragraph from the edition of Oct. 29, last:

"We say to every man who loves his county and section, that on next Tuesday, he ought to go to the polls and vote to put good and true men in office; men who have the interest and well being of our home government at heart, yes, men who understand our needs and the wants of all the people. And we say that the so-called republican party having failed to nominate such men, it does seem to us that the colored voters of this county ought to punish the 'big 4' bosses by voting for Messrs. William B. Lane, William M. Watson, Thomas Daniels, James W. Biddle, Dr. F. W. Hughes and W. H. Marshall; and for the Legislature, H. H. Perry and G. L. Hardison. By so doing you will show to the world that a few men who call themselves republicans cannot control you, or expect you to vote for men unfit for office and who have no interest in your country."

The N. C. Synod.

The reports at the recent session of the North Carolina Presbyterian Synod held in Wilmington disclosed the following facts:

The Synod is now represented in the foreign mission field by three ministers and three lady missionaries. A number of the churches entirely support one missionary each.

Great interest was shown in home missions and general advance in the work. There are now two State evangelists devoting their whole to the work, and a third one has been elected. Their field of labor covers the whole State. Besides these three State evangelists a number of the Presbyteries composing the Synod have evangelists of their own actively at work within their bounds.

The Synod devoted two whole days of its meeting to a discussion of its mission work, one day to foreign missions and one to home missions which is more time bestowed on that work than has been on it at any former meeting of the Synod. It was decided to raise $5,000 this year to prosecute the home mission work and $2,000 of the money was subscribed on the spot.

The Synod now has sixty-five candidates studying for the ministry, five of whom belong to Albemarle Presbytery, which includes the New Berne church.

The report of the Union Theological Seminary at Hampden Sydney, Va., under the care of the Synods of North Carolina and Virginia, shows advance in the work and a large increase in the number of students. This institution is handsomely endowed and is equipped with a fine corps of professors and its instruction is open to students for the ministry from any denomination and to others proposing to enter upon evangelistic work free of charge.

The Synod also took favorable action in regard to establishing a South Atlantic Presbyterian University. North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida are moving in the matter, and it is hoped that other Southern States will soon join in.

Prayerful zeal and earnest determination were evinced throughout the meeting, which was pleasant and interesting, and showed a condition of the work gratifying to Presbyterians through the State.

What the Tariff is Doing.

One of our citizens received a circular Monday, quoting the advance on fire arms caused through the recent tariff bill that was imposed upon the people by a Republican Congress. We give the figures on fire arms only:

"Notice of advance of imported breech and muzzle loading guns, flobert rifles and imported revolvers.

"The new tariff bill, which went into effect Oct. 6th, 1890, imposes on breech loading double guns, an additional duty of $1.50 on guns costing $8.00 or less; $4.00 on guns costing from $8.00 to $12.00, and $8.00 on guns costing over $12.00. We are compelled to advance these goods subject to further advances without notice."

E. C. Meacham Arms Co., St. Louis, Mo.

How can that party be supported which would have the prices of manufactured implements and other goods raised in proportion to these enormous prices? Your plows, shovels, hoes, etc., have all been increased to outrageous figures. These are such measures as Cheatham will have to endorse and support.

BUOYS OFF CAPE HATTERAS.

Dangerous Obstructions Off Cape Lookout.

EDITOR JOURNAL—In June or July, 1889, we made report through the New York Herald of very great changes which had then recently taken place on Hatteras shoals, and at the same time made request that buoys be placed on the fairways of the channels crossing the shoals known as inward and outward shoals.

About the same that this letter was published we sent from Philadelphia petitions signed by numerous masters and owners of vessels engaged in the Southern coast trade, for these aids to be placed in position as early as convenient to the United States Government to do so.

As no notice has been taken of either our report or our petition we will here repeat that the shoal known as the inward Diamond shoal, off Cape Hatteras has washed away, sunken or in some other way disappeared so that the jump-up breakers which has washed this shoal, to our personal knowledge for the last thirty-five years, does not now appear. This breaker, when it was observed, had a peculiarity about it that was not seen on any other shoal along the coast at such a distance from the land, was readily recognized by the experienced coaster and served a double purpose of marking the inward diamond and also a guide to the inward and outward shoals.

Since the disappearance of this diamond shoal the seas all seem in one direction and the breakers are all alike, hence there is nothing to guide the coaster through these shoals, therefore the most dangerous cape on the American coast is made more dangerous by this sub-marine change.

About the 1st of September of the current year we had another letter published in the New York Herald calling attention to our report of 1889, and also reporting the very dangerous wreck of an iron steamer off Cape Lookout, N. C., and at the same time stating that we had been informed that there was a whistling buoy at Washington, N. C., which had been sent there six or eight months before to be placed on or near the wreck mentioned; and hinted a request that the buoy be placed in position, by saying a buoy at Washington, N. C., would not warn the mariner of his proximity to danger off Cape Lookout (upon the latter article the JOURNAL made some editorial comments).

Since arriving at this port we notice in the New Berne Weekly JOURNAL of Oct 9th:

"WRECK OFF LOOKOUT."

"BEAUFORT, N. C., Oct. 1st.
"Steamer Glenrath, from Pensacola, Florida, loaded with lumber, bound for Antwerp, was wrecked off Cape Lookout yesterday morning; total loss; crew of 20 men saved."

The above-named steamship, as we have been informed, struck some hidden obstruction which was undoubtedly the wreck mentioned in our report, and had our warning been heeded and acted upon promptly this danger to life and loss of property would unquestionably have been avoided.

Now there are two dangerous obstructions in the same vicinity, and we would not be surprised at any time to hear of other disasters and loss of life and property, as these wrecks lie in the line usually run by both steam and sail vessels.

New York Herald and Baltimore Sun please copy.

MARSHAL L. MOTT.

The Political Beelzebub of Western North Carolina.

M. L. Mott, of Statesville, who holds a high salaried office under the Republican administration, made a political harangue last night in the court house in this place to a medium sized audience.

The speaker made no pretense to confining himself to the truth in statements; he simply calculated upon the credulity of those to whom he addressed himself. He did not care how hot he fanned the flame of race prejudice nor how high he held the blazing torch of incendiarism. He had the purpose of a fiend incarnate shut up in hot cells of his wicked heart, and he breathed it out like a devil from hell.

He said he was in favor of the Force bill and that any man that was opposed to it was not fit for any other place but in the Democratic party. He said he was heartily in favor of it, even if it took a regiment of bayonets and a battalion of sabres to enforce it. He eulogized the bill and said that we should have it.

He said that any negro that would vote the Democratic ticket ought to be sunk as deep in hell as a sledge hammer would drop in forty years; and then he said something else that must have been the truth. He said that when he passed the ladies of Statesville on the streets they would hold their dresses aside as if afraid of touching him, and well they might have been. They knew that a moral leper was stalking abroad in their town and they wanted to shun him.

In all our life we have never heard any white man sink so low, or dive so deep in the cesspool of moral infamy as did Marshal L. Mott last night.

A negro remarked at his conclusion that "it was the damndest, toughest speech he ever heard a white man make."

May Winston never have this loathsome, slimy reptile to drag his sinuous form across her threshold, or taint her pure air with his poisonous breath again.—Twin-City Daily.

Mr. Mott had an appointment to speak in New Berne Saturday night but failed to get here and we are glad of it. His stand against freedom of election is subversive of foundation principles of our government. His desire to see Democratic negroes sunk into hell displays the malignity of his evil nature and how little regard he has for colored people except as he can use them as a cat's paw for his own personal aggrandizement. Such selfish, unscrupulous men, void of all sense of honor, manhood and decency are a disgrace to the civilization and enlightenment of the age, and we are pleased to think that New Berne was spared a dose of venom similar to that which he inflicted upon Winston.
