THE New York stock market is still excited.

THE safer the ballot the bigger the Democratic majority.

TWELVE hundred thousand dollars have been transferred from San Francisco to New York.

THE birth-day of Judge Thurman was grandly celebrated at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday.

EX-CONGRESSMAN NAT HAMMOND is the latest candidate for Senatorial honors in Georgia.

THE official count gives the Democrats seven majority on joint ballot in the South Dakota Legislature.

EX-SPEAKER KEIFER, of Ohio, says: "Our folks will have to revise their tariff views if they would carry any more elections."

THE World presents its compliments to the Protection press and Cleveland advice—"Tell the truth." Protection "fat" lost its grip when the Australian ballot came in.

THE Thanksgiving Turkey has a few days of grace in which to think of the benefits of protection. "Poultry, live, three cents per pound. Poultry, dressed, five cents per pound."

MISS FRANCES E. WILLARD, who has been active in agitating for the admission of women to the government of the Methodist Church, is credited with an ambition to be elected Bishop.

THE Bank of England is generally regarded the strongest financial institution in the world. It is now borrowing money, and the Bank of France has advanced £3,000,000 to the Bank of England.

GROVER CLEVELAND is certainly justified in challenging the right of any man in the country to rejoice more heartily than he over the results of the recent elections. The emphatic repudiation of McKinleyism by the American people on the 4th inst. is really a great personal triumph for Grover Cleveland, and a swift and complete vindication of the historic message which he sent to Congress in December, 1887.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

At the Thurman banquet, on Thursday, Mr. Cleveland closed his speech, in response to the toast "Citizenship in America" with these words: Nothing could so well accompany the honors we pay our distinguished guest as the celebration on his birth-day of the victory which has just been achieved in vindication of American citizenship—for in him we honor the man who has best illustrated true American manhood. Our rejoicing and his are increased, as we also celebrate tonight the triumph of a Democratic principle for which he fought and fell but two short years ago; and to complete our joy and his we are permitted to indulge in true Democratic enthusiasm over the steadfastness and devotion to its creed exhibited by our party, which knowing no discouragement, has fought to victory in the people's cause.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
N. TISDALE—Cabbage plants.
J. M. HOWARD—New goods received.

COTTON.—New Berne market—Sales of 66 bales at 8 1/4 to 9c. Sales for the week 579 bales against 677 bales same week of last year.

Mr. E. M. Street of this county has gained twenty-five bales of cotton from twenty-two acres, and has at least one bale more yet in the field. How will that do for a good yield?

There will be a meeting of the Musical Society tomorrow (Monday) night at 7:30 o'clock at the New Berne Collegiate Institute. All who are already members of the society, all who intend to join, and all who are interested in music whether they now intend to join the society or not, are invited to be present.

In a difficulty between some boys yesterday, Allie Hodges was struck in the eye by a brickbat, making a painful wound and nearly putting the eye out. Boys should be careful how they throw missiles, and parents and others who have charge of them ought to keep them warned of the danger attending them.

Mr. George N. Ives came up from Morehead yesterday and reports the fishing with hook and line the best ever known. He had two sharpies out Friday with three and four lines, and they brought in 1,600 first rate trout. By that day's work the men made nearly six dollars each. Many other boats were out, all of which were successful.

We learn from the Goldsboro Argus that the Young Men's Christian Association of that city has made arrangements to hold a series of evangelistic services for young men this week. Mr. L. A. Coulter, the State Secretary, has promised to be there and conduct them. Last week he conducted similar meetings for the Y. M. C. A. at Winston. He has considerable experience in this work and is usually very successful in reaching young men.

Last night closed the Y. M. C. A. week of prayer. It was observed in New Berne by religious services conducted by ministers in the Y. M. C. A. rooms every night except Thursday which is the night when our churches hold their weekly prayer meeting. The services have, in the main, been well attended and considerable interest manifested. Rev. Edward Bull conducted the one last night. His subject was "Reflecting Too Late." He made an earnest talk and was followed by others. The meeting drifted into a discussion of temperance and prohibition, and enthusiastic addresses in behalf of these objects were made by Rev. T. P. Ricard, Messrs. S. R. Ball and W. R. Barrington. There will be a Union Service of all the churches tonight at the New Street Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. R. A. Willis, which will close this series of meetings.

Personal.

Mr. M. Hahn left for the west yesterday to get another supply of horses.

Miss Rebecca Harris, of New York, who has been visiting Mr. O. Marks' family, left for a visit to friends in Baltimore and will then return to her home.

Mr. T. A. Green returned last night from a visit to his daughter, Miss Maud, at Salem Female College.

Mrs. H. G. Bates returned from a visit to relatives at Baltimore.

Mr. Clem. Manly returned from attending Superior Court at Kinston. Mr. P. H. Pelletier from a business trip to Winston, and Mr. L. H. Cutler from a pleasant trip to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Jas. B. Hughes returned from Raleigh, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Franklin Grice, who is the United States vice-consul at Venice, Italy. This is the first time Mr. Grice has been over in this country in about twenty-five years.

Mr. W. F. M. Bryan and Miss Eleanor Carraway left yesterday for a drive over to Washington, N. C. Miss Carraway goes to be a bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Mary Ritch, soon to occur, and Mr. Bryan on business supposed to lean in that direction.

Vance Academy.

On account of the superior advantages that New Berne afforded as being the principal gathering point for farmers of neighboring counties, being easy of access by water, rail and public roads, and having buildings better adapted to its requirements and for other reasons, the excellent and noted boarding school known as Vance Academy was moved from Pollockville to this city, opening here for the first time on the second of September of last year with only eighteen pupils, but the sterling reputation that it had worthily earned at its former location was a sufficient guarantee that its attendance would not long remain small, and there was a steady increase until the regular roll of day and boarding pupils exceeded a hundred, besides the music class which numbered about forty more, and this year more pupils have entered than did so last year—a very gratifying evidence of appreciation by its patrons of the efficient work that it is being accomplished.

Prof. W. R. Skinner, the Principal, is a teacher of thirteen years' experience. He is a gentleman of stirring habits and remarkable energy and he has a laudable ambition to have his school second to none, and he carefully selects his assistants and keeps well equipped with the appliances to aid in imparting information. The pupils have access to a $2,000 library and there are globes in all of the study rooms, which are also fully equipped with maps of recent make from that of the city of New Berne up to every part of the world, and with accurate and complete sets of costly, reliable and well made scientific charts—geological, geographical (both political and physical), astronomical, physiological, etc. The two anatomical charts—the finest one of which he purchased for this reason—compare the human and animal structures, and show fully the respiratory, nutritive, osseous, muscular, nervous and circulatory systems.

Prominence is given to studies that qualify the pupils for practical business life. There are two classes in "Allen's Double-Entry Book-keeping." Commercial law and stenography or shorthand writing also receive due attention. Professor Skinner himself gives instruction in the first-mentioned studies and Miss Maud Moore, of New Berne, a skilled and rapid stenographer, has charge of the latter class, and also, in connection with Professor Skinner, of the music department. The whole school receives daily instruction in vocal music, but there are, of course, special classes for instrumental music, and the pupils in each division manifest plainly by their marked proficiency the excellence of the instruction given.

The ancient and modern languages and higher English branches are taught by Professor and Mrs. Skinner and Prof. W. J. B. Dail, of Snow Hill, a graduate of the University of North Carolina, who has had several years' experience in school work, and shows by his calm, self-possessed manner and apt, lucid and masterly explanations, that he is the right man in the right place.

Miss Zenobia T. Widgeon, of Norfolk, presides over the primary department, and well does she fill the position. We had the pleasure of hearing a reading class of over twenty small pupils recite and in addition to the regular routine of such lessons, instruction was given in regard to placing the emphasis where needed, and also of giving the proper inflection to the sentences, and members of the class read with promptness original sentences written on the blackboard, and showed a knowledge of the names and uses of punctuation marks, and of marks to indicate the sound of vowels is given words, whether long or short, etc. There are important points in education but most schools pay but little or no attention to them until the pupils are well advanced. How many persons of the present generation had a knowledge of such matters at eight or ten years of age?

A North Carolina artist, Mr. J. W. Brock, of Jones county, who in early life exhibited an extraordinary natural talent for every kind of drawing, and who has taken a thorough course of training at Cooper Union, N. Y., is in charge of the art department. Space forbids our giving the attention to this department that it deserves, but we will say that specimens of work, object drawing, copies of portraits, etc., done by some of the pupils who have had only about two months' training would do credit to old, experienced hands. Professor Skinner is to be congratulated on securing such accomplished and efficient assistants.

Not every one who has a brain filled with college lore possesses the ability to present that information in a clear manner to others, but Professor Skinner has the happy faculty of doing so in a way that fixes it in the minds of the pupils and the result is that they learn rapidly, and not only does he secure the best teachers possible, but he gives his personal supervision to all the departments and impresses his assistants with the methods that his long experience has convinced him are most effective. He does not follow old methods blindly, but runs his school according to his own ideas though they may differ materially from general usage. In history he begins first with that of North Carolina, after that he takes the history of the United States, then that of English and afterwards general history. Contrary to what is often done he gives the home study the preference.

He pursues a somewhat similar course on geography. He first gives the learner a broad and general idea of the world, its shape, its continents, etc., by globes and hemispheres, and when it comes to particulars he starts with the geography of New Berne, then in succession that of Craven county, North Carolina, the United States and so on.

Calisthenic exercises are practiced daily and instruction in military tactics is also given the male students. They are drilled daily by the following officers selected from among themselves: Captain, G. M. Johnson, of Beaufort county; 1st Lieutenant, C. H. Robinson, of Robbinsonville, Martin county; 2d Lieutenant, B. H. Melton, of Pollockville, Jones county.

The building in which Vance Academy is located was designed for Northern visitors, and could scarcely have been better arranged to meet the requirements of the school if it had been built for the purpose. It contains thirty nice well-lighted and well-ventilated rooms, nicely fitted up with convenient closets, giving ample accommodation for a large number of scholars. The portions used by the male and female boarding pupils are entirely separate, as are also the yards.

A large room the whole length of the building has recently been fitted up for the whole school whenever it is necessary for all to come together, and non-sectarian religious exercises are held in it every morning before school, and also at 9 o'clock every Sunday morning.

Everything is now better arranged for successful work than ever before; good rules have been established, the hours are regular, the discipline is strict, and the dining room and sleeping apartments are all in the same building, thus enabling both Prof. Skinner and his wife to keep a constant oversight of the pupils; and those who wish to place their children in an excellent school where they can rest satisfied that they are in good hands and receiving kind and thoughtful attention, would do well to examine the advantages that Vance Academy offers, and in bestowing their patronage let meritorious local institutions, other things being equal, have preference over those at a distance.

Beech Grove Missionary Society.

The Missionary Society of Beech Grove Sunday School, of which Mr. Daniel Lane is superintendent, has been doing very praiseworthy work during the past two years. The plan that has been followed is to have the children work as they think best with small sums of money furnished by the adult members and earn more and contribute the accumulations at a stated time. Last year $35 was raised in this way and at this year's anniversary meeting which was held last Friday the offerings amounted to $60.00. The pastor, Rev. James G. Johnson, and Sheriff W. B. Lane were present and made appropriate and interesting addresses.

The assessment levied on this church by Conference for mission work is $28.00, thus it will be seen that the amount contributed last year was in excess of, and this year nearly doubles what was asked for by Conference and is a very creditable showing when it is remembered that the church numbers only 40 and the Sunday school 36 members.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy."

Considerable interest attaches to the forthcoming production in this city of Mrs. Burnett's famous dramatic idyll, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and expectation runs high as to the calibre of the company that Mr. French will send here to interpret the beautiful lines, the tender pathos and the characteristic humor of the talented authoress.

No play of modern times has made so genuine and so lasting a success as this simple little child-drama, and Mrs. Burnett's name will go down to posterity as the writer of the most charming, simple and fascinating play ever known in the history of the stage. Cedric Errol—Little Lord Fauntleroy—bounds into favor at once, and as the play progresses the favor becomes stronger, until it reaches its maximum at the close of the play, and every man, woman and child in the audience goes away more than pleased. From the moment when little Cedric runs in flushed and out of breath with his foot race, interest is keen, and there is not a dull moment in the performance. Mrs. Burnett's masterpiece has an exquisite setting in its dramatic form, and resembles her inimitable work in that it goes straight to the heart at every point in the play. There can be no difference of opinion on this point. The simple story, acted so naturally and touchingly, never fails to make an impression.

What Does it Mean?

The question is asked daily by people living in town and country what does all this mean that I see in all the newspapers and on hand bills of so many merchants closing out their stock at 40c., 50c. and 67c. on the dollar of New York cost. Now as I have had considerable experience in this line of business, I think I can explain it to those who do not understand in a way that they will be benefited. Now in a few words, and as short as possible:—There is a man in town whose name is Big Ike, who is always on the lookout for some merchant who can't pay his bills, and gives him from 40c. to 50c. and 67c. on the dollar, that is, on a hundred dollars' worth of goods the highest Big Ike pays is 67c. on the dollar, and on a thousand $675.00, and the stock he has just received from Kinston cost four thousand dollars in New York THIS AUGUST, 1890, and only cost Big Ike two thousand and seven hundred dollars. Now I think every well-regulated man, woman and child will understand this explanation and at once see the advantage that Big Ike has over every merchant in Eastern North Carolina.

Now, my friends, this is not the only advantage that Big Ike has over the other merchants in buying; he has a great advantage in saying he is the only man in North Carolina that can say NO, hence the credit system is killed, and not one dollar's worth goes out of his store until paid for. The above plainly shows why Big Ike can afford to give for the next 30 days a 25c. present with every one dollar's worth of goods sold. Newbern, N. C., Nov. 14, 1890.
