Carteret County Items.

Miss Julia Bryan, from Jones county, is teaching school at Dr. J. W. Sanders'.
Rev. Benj. Ward, from Onslow county, will preach at Old Bethlehem on next Sabbath, 23d inst.
Ten thousand gray trout have been caught near Swansboro with hook and line in the last few days.
Rev. I. N. Henderson, from Onslow county, preached an excellent sermon last Sabbath evening, 16th, at Sanders' school house, to a large congregation.
Rev. T. J. Lovin filled the pulpit at New Bethlehem church last Sunday, 16th inst., at 11 a. m. His last time for this year.
This has not been an off year with the farmers in our section, and it seems money will be more plentiful next year. We hope so.
Mr. Jno. A. Weeks, postmaster at Cedar Point, lost a fine mare last Saturday. This makes two good horses Mr. Weeks has lost in the last three weeks.
Mr. Sheperd Bell is one of our good and successful farmers, but he don't brag on anything but apples, and we can testify as to the quality and quantity of his apples. They are fine; we tried some yesterday.

Married at the residence of the bride's father in Swansboro, N. C., on Tuesday evening, the 11th inst., Mr. J. Willard White, of New Bedford, Mass., Miss Alice Harrison, the accomplished daughter of Col. W. D. Harrison, late of Nash county, N. C., now of Swansboro, Jno. A. Pittman, Esq., officiating. All join in wishing the happy couple success through life.
Mr. Alex. Conoway says he has the finest stock of hogs in the county. He has made 300 bushels of sweet potatoes and 500 barrels of corn, besides 7,728 pounds seed cotton on five acres of land, and that with a little pony. Alex. H. Dennis says he is a farmer too, and has some as large Bahamas as any man, but Mr. Conoway says he has Bahamas that will weigh 93 pounds each. We told him to carry them to the New Berne Fair.

Politics is the best good news we have. Everything gone Democratic. Our county more than surprised us; our district (senatorial) did the same. Gilman's majority over his would be thing-if he could opponent, was a killer in every county. Our sister county Onslow too gave the independents and sorehead Democrats the go by handsomely. Koonce fell well behind his friends' expectations, and J. W. Spicer, nominee for Sheriff, beat his opponent out of sight.

We are by no means indifferent to the political fortunes of Pat Calhoun, the grandson of Vice-President John C. Calhoun, whose Disquisition on the Constitution of the United States is one of the noblest essays ever penned by an American. Mr. Calhoun is a very fine young lawyer, though somewhat mixed up with corporations and in our judgment a superior man to Gov. Gordon. Once in his seat in the Senate, he will, we take it, soon range him self along with Carlisle and Reagan and Vance and Morgan and Daniel, and will not dim the lustre of Southern statesmanship. But it is by no means certain that Gov. Gordon is to be beaten by him. Next Tuesday tell the tale.—Ex.

SYRUP OF FIGS.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medical virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Jones County Items.

Politics is cooling off with us all. We have had a remarkably healthy fall.
The farmers are finishing up their cotton fields.
Most of our farmers have made their molasses.
Miss Florence Wooten has opened the public school at the Nethercutt school house.
Mrs. Dr. Ridgood, of Farmville, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rom. A. Whitaker.
Trade is brisk at Trenton. Seed cotton sells there for three cents per pound. Eggs 15 cents per dozen.
The names of all the residents of Trenton who resided there 51 years ago have all changed, only two names remaining there now, Askew and Francks. All have died and moved.
The Rev. Mr. White, of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, and Miss Johnie L. Herriage, were united in marriage on Thursday, 13th of November, in Cypress Creek township, Mr. Benj. Brock officiating.

Many of the farmers planted a considerable crop of crimson clover and it has come up and died. We would like to learn the cause, as we sowed it at the very time that Professor Massey said it after the 15th of September.
We learn that there is an old colored man in Cypress Creek township, who is residing in a large swamp, who has moved into a large hollow cypress tree with an opening on one side which he uses for a door and fire place. Mr. Abner Dawson says the old man is slaying the coons, and from all appearances is enjoying himself finely.
Died at Trenton on Tuesday morning, the 11th of November, Mr. Melanctha Freeman Hinds, in the 84th year of his age. Mr. Hinds was born in Newark, New Jersey, and was a carriage maker by trade and came out to New Berne, about 55 years ago, then to Trenton, where he has resided nearly 50 years. Mr. Hinds married Miss Nancy Wells about 40 years ago, who survives him. Mr. Hinds was a consistent member of the Episcopal Church and was loved and respected by all that knew him.

REPUBLICANS DISRUPTED.
Blaine and Reed Bitterly Hostile.
The Republican party is split right up and down the middle on the McKinley law.
The advocates of the immediate repeal of the law in the west, like the Chicago Tribune, say that Reed and McKinley have made all the trouble by forcing the tariff bill on the country and that of their leadership must be set aside for that of Blaine.
In the East such organs as the New York Tribune and the Philadelphia Press are shouting that the McKinley act must not be touched and that the force bill must be rushed through the Senate this winter.
The Republicans of the Northwest say they will not endure the law, and the Pennsylvania crowd assert that it will be treason to touch it.
Here is trouble enough to keep them in hot water for years to come.
There are indications that an effort will be made to unite all the factions in a grand effort to swindle the people out of their right by passing an outrageous apportionment bill, based on Porter's fraudulent census. The Democrats must defeat this, if it shall be attempted, at all hazard.
The Republicans are desperate, and desperate men are dangerous. We doubt whether they will be able to agree on any course in regard to anything.
The bitterness between Blaine and Reed is cropping out every day. Reed and McKinley privately assert that Blaine did all he could to bring on the Democratic cyclone so as to prevent either of them from being nominated for the Presidency in 1892. They intend to beat Mr. Blaine if he attempts to force his own nomination. It is going to be a very lively political battle.—National Democrat.

THE NEW DISCOVERY.
You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever afterwards holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at F. S. Duffy's drug store.

It is a little singular, to say the least, that after a man has been painting the town red he usually feels blue.
The declining powers of old age may be wonderfully recuperated and sustained by the daily use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Making Peace.

Simple words are best, though a very busy man cannot always stop to pick one.
At a hotel a waiter came out of the coffee room and informed the manager that a man was raising a disturbance because he could not have his accustomed seat at the table.
"Go in again," said the manager, "and propitiate him in some way."
Back went the waiter and said, "if you don't like the way things is done here you can get out, or I'll propitiate you pretty quick."—Lloyd's Weekly.

The First Step.
Perhaps you are run down, can't eat, can't sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a nerve tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system to its normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alterative. Your appetite returns; good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at F. S. Duffy's drug store.

Dyspepsia
Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.
"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."
