CIRCUS and theatre going people will regret to learn that P. T.
Barum is believed to be on his

FOR two successive Sunday nights the express car on the Georgia Road, between Augusta and Atlanta, has been entered by robbers: the messenger claims to have shot the robber in the last exploit, but there is a mystery surrounding the matter.

THE Atlanta Constitution is opposing the election of Gov. Gordon to the Senate because in the Senatorial race between Colquitt and Grady Governor Gordon supported Senator Colquitt. A poor reason and one that will not damage Gordon.

REPRESENTATIVE MILLS says of Mr. Cleveland, that in his judgment he is "not only the strongest Democrat but the strongest of any party with the people." Of course he is, and everybody knows it but the New York Sun and a few other protection advocates. — Wilmington Messenger.

A RALEIGH correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: Secretary Beddingfield, of the State Farmers' Alliance, tells me that while the majority of the whole Legislature are pledged to vote for Vance for Senator, yet he thinks the Legislature will require whoever is elected Senator to pledge his support to the Sub Treasury bill.

TOM REED says the women did it. They went shopping, found prices up, came home and told their husbands, brothers, etc., and these husbands, brothers, etc., got mad, went red-eyed on the day of election, grabbed Democratic ballots and laid the g. o. p. out as cold as a wedge. If the women are "agin" the old, concern it might as well file its assets and close up shop. — Wilmington Star.

THE question is being discussed, must the Democratic presidential candidate come from New York?
The Journal prefers Mr. Cleveland to any other probable candidate, but if the New York Democracy will not harmonize upon him, we shall be ready, at the proper time, to support any true man who can carry the Democratic flag to victory.

PAT CALHOUN, the Alliance candidate for Senator in Georgia, in opposition to Gen. Gordon, is a railroad lawyer of large wealth who has never had any direct interest in agriculture, while Gordon was raised on a farm and lived in the country until he entered the public service as a Confederate soldier. Like his life long friend and associate, Senator Colquitt, he read law and was admitted to the bar, but his chief concern was agriculture.

Palmetto Jail Burned.

The Palmetto county jail which was located at Bayboro was entirely destroyed by an incendiary fire Tuesday night.

There was only one prisoner in the jail, but his brother and one of the jurors were spending the night with him, and were all locked in together, but were fortunately down stairs about midnight the prisoner, who was wakeful, discovered that the jail was on fire and roused the others, and their united shouts at last awoke Mr. W. E.
Hooker, who lives across the street, and the alarm was quickly communicated to his father, Mr. Nathan Hooker the jailer, who lives a little further away. But before the jail keys could be procured an axe was obtained and the outside door of the jail broken in and it was then discovered that the flames had already made such progress that the inner door which confined those who were in the jail could not be reached and a hole had to be cut through the wall of the jail large enough to permit them to crawl through. It was a very narrow escape. They came very near losing their lives by the smoke and flames, and if they had happened to have been placed up stairs would undoubtedly have been burned up. There is no clue and no suspicion as to who committed the dastardly act, and richly as the vile miscreant deserves the severest penalty of the law, he will probably elude detection and escape punishment.

DEATH OF REV. J. T. HARRIS.

A telegram to Mr. T. A. Green from Grand Master Smith brought the sad intelligence of the death of Rev. J. T.
Harris, one of the most prominent and highly esteemed Methodist ministers of the North Carolina Conference. He died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and will be buried in Durham today at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Harris served as presiding elder of the New Berne district for the three years, 1876, '87 and '88, and his pleasant face was therefore a familiar one to our people. When the Conference met here two years ago he was placed in charge of the Durham district and returned to it again this year.

A few weeks ago he was elected to and accepted the position of Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum and entered at once upon its duties.
Nearly two weeks ago he was taken ill near Roxboro, with pneumonia and removed to the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. S. Carr, in Durham, at which place he died.

Mr. Harris belonged to the illustrious band of self-made men—nature's nobles-men. He went through the war while a mere youth and fought heroically in defense of his native land, and when the last gun of that fearful struggle had been fired he began the preparation for his life work by studying for the ministry at Trinity College, though he had to support himself by doing any work that offered itself between school hours, and go in debt for his tuition, which debt he speedily discharged after leaving college and beginning his ministerial work. His death is a serious loss and he will be mourned throughout the State.

The Directors of the Asylum will meet at Raleigh tomorrow and elect his successor.

Resolutions of Respect and Regret at Dr. L. C. Vass' Removal.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Presbyterian church, held in their lecture room on Thursday night, Nov.
16th, 1890, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Whereas, At a congregational meeting held on Sunday morning, Nov. 2d, Rev. L. C. Vass, D.D., asked us to unite with him in requesting Albemarle Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relations existing between us, that he may accept a call from the First Presbyterian Church of Savannah, Ga., a broader field with nobler opportunities in which to use his talents for the advancement of our Saviour's kingdom; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in acquiescing in his request, we do so with feelings of profound sorrow and heartfelt sadness.

Resolved, That during his long pastorate of 24 years and five months, he has earnestly, tenderly and faithfully presented the truths of the Gospel from the sacred desk and in private; and that his untiring efforts to uphold the Church and create feelings of Christian fellowship and good will among all denominations have been greatly blessed of God.

Resolved, That for his ministering to the wants of the poor, and spiritual needs of all; for his counsel and encouragement, wisely and discreetly given; and for his tender solicitude for the sick, and earnest sympathy in the sad home of bereavement, we owe him a debt of gratitude which can never be paid.

Resolved, That, in parting, our kindest wishes attend him and his, and we sincerely pray that God would comfort, bless and keep them; and at last minister unto them, and us, an entrance into the New Jerusalem, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

TAXING THE GIANTS.

THE GREAT BANKING HOUSE OF BARRING BROS. OBLIGED TO ASK RELIEF.

The embarrassment of the great banking house of Barring Bros., of London, caused an upheaval in Wall street yesterday which capitalists and bankers will never forget. Such a calamity, coming upon the heels of a steady liquidation in the New York Stock Exchange, appeared to temporarily deal a death blow to the promise of a more healthy condition of affairs.

The announcement was followed by a severe panic in stocks. The reaction which followed the news that a syndicate had been formed to aid the Barring Bros. was not sufficiently pronounced to warrant the assumption that a general collapse had been averted.

Cable advices announced that the Bank of England and four prominent private bankers had come to the rescue of the Barring Bros. with $55,000,000 in cash.

The plan is to liquidate the securities held by the bankers within the next three years. Some difference of opinion prevails as to the beneficial effects of this relief, but it is believed that a great crisis has been partially stemmed, and one which might have been widespread in its results.

The local stock market reflected the depression that prevailed abroad, and after one of the largest day's business on record for a half holiday, prices rallied, and more than half of the morn-ing's loss was recovered.

The effort to disentangle the North River Bank from pending complications was lost sight of for the moment.
Even the prospect of the institution going into the hands of a receiver was dwarfed by the stirring events that had shaken all the financial centers of the two continents.—New York Star.

GORDON IS SENATOR.

HE ROLLS UP A MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 18.—John B.
Gordon will succeed Jos. E. Brown in the U. S. Senate. The Senate and House balloted today and Gordon got a majority in both. The vote in the Senate stood: Gordon 25, Norwood 7, Pat Calhoun 6, J. K. Hines 6, N. J. Hammond 2, S. H. Hawkins 1. In the House: Gordon 75, Norwood 33, Calhoun 19, Hines 10, Hammond 7, Hammond and Hawkins were not candidates. Tomorrow the legislature will meet in joint session to consolidate the vote. Tonight Atlanta is wild with excitement. Fireworks are being burned, brass bands are playing and speeches delivered.

THE SPEAKER VOTES FOR GORDON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A special from Atlanta, Ga., says the vote in the House for United States Senator showed that Gordon lacked one of a majority.
Speaker Howell then cast a vote for Gen. Gordon. A dramatic scene followed. Men went wild, the crowds in the lobbies broke through the doorways and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

REJOICING IN AUGUSTA.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 18.—There is great rejoicing in Augusta over the election of Gordon to the Senate. A salute was fired this evening in honor of his election.

AN INDIAN OUTBREAK.

THE SITUATION THREATENING AND CHIEFS ORGANIZING.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., November 17.— A Grand Forks, N. D., telegram to the Tribune says: "Adjutant General Devoy has received a telegram from Governor Miller at Bismarck, requesting him to report at the latter city immediately and make preparations for suppressing the impending outbreak of Indians at Mandan. Word was brought by a friendly Indian to Mandan that the Sioux were on the warpath and ready for an outbreak. Adjutant General Devoy leaves here tomorrow morning.
The city is excited over the report, and any number of volunteers are already offering their services to go and fight the Indians.

The State has about 500 stand of arms and 50,000 rounds of fixed ammunition.
All sorts of rumors are afloat. Telegrams to Standing Rock are unanswered, and the latest rumor is that a band of armed Indians left their tepees in the agency at 10 o'clock this morning.

Col. H. C. Corbin, who accompanied Gen. Miles to St. Louis to meet the Secretary of War, and who is in full possession of all the facts regarding the Indian trouble, says: "An Indian uprising is not probable, but the situation is certainly threatening. The only obstacle in the way of war is the weather, for the Indians will hesitate if they do not refuse to take the war path in a time of slums and cold. A good biz-ard in North Dakota would be a Godsend. But if war does break out it will be terrible beyond description. Before we have always had the help of one tribe in quelling disturbances in another, but now the Sioux, Cheyennes and Crows are banded in a common cause. They are well armed and their chiefs promise that every Indian who shall fall in a war against the white man shall be raised on that day soon to come, when the earth shall open and engulf the whites, leaving it to be occupied by God's chosen people, the savage. It will be a religious war, one of the most romantic and terrible in the history of the world."

Swift Retribution.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 17.—Some weeks ago a negro criminally assaulted an old lady, named Mrs. Calhoun, near a wood station on the dummy line near Beesemer. Several men were arrested on suspicion and taken before her for identification, but she said each time they were not her assailant. Yesterday a negro, named Harry Smith, was taken to her and she instantly pronounced him to be the man. He was taken off by the citizens who had him in charge and this morning his dead body was found dangling to a tree near by. He was cut down and buried there.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy"
"Little Lord Fauntleroy" will be presented at the theatre tonight at eight o'clock. Doors open at half-past seven.
No play of recent years has won so general and so continued commendation from all kinds, classes and conditions of men, and the fact that the company to whom its representation is entrusted is sent out by Mr. T. H. French, and is under his own immediate management, is guarantee sufficient that there will be nothing lacking to the end of giving a perfect performance. The character of the little lord is played by two little eight-year old children—Ada Fleming and Arthur Berkeley—who alternate the role.

Balloting for U. S. Senator.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 18.—Two ballots were taken yesterday in the Wyoming Legislature for United States Senator.
Forty-eight members were present at the joint session. George W. Beck, son of the late Senator, received 8 votes, all Democrats; Gov. Hoyt 8, Summerlin 6, M. A. Brown 4, J. W. Meldrum 1, Ramsay 6, and nine were divided among five other aspirants.

A Big Florida Fire.

St. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Nov. 18.—Fire last evening which originated in the mill yard of the East Florida Land and Produce Company, in Buena Esperanza, a suburb of this city, and known as the "English Mills," destroyed the entire plant and 1,800,000 feet of lumber.
The loss is estimated at $110,000. There is no insurance on the plant in England.

Indians Getting Unruly.

BISMARCK, Nov. 18.—Major McLaughlin, the agent at Standing Rock, admits that for the first time he has lost control of the Indians, and can do nothing whatever with them. Sitting Bull a day or two ago very coolly told the agent that he and his braves had no use for him and the whites, and would shortly wipe them out entirely.
