THE Philadelphia Press says the trouble in Wall street is caused by the recent Democratic victory.
This may be true; when honest methods are put in operation, thieves are bound to squeal.—Twin City Daily.

THE best symptom of Norfolk's boom is that every live citizen of that city has implicit faith in it and they are showing their faith by their works, by investing their surplus money in Norfolk lands and Norfolk enterprises.—Danville Register.

WE trust that Mr. Sexton, who succeeds to the leadership of the Irish party in Parliament, shall have the political wisdom of Mr.
Parnell without his personal weakness. Charles Stewart Parnell has proven his claim to greatness as he may have tacitly confessed his human infirmity. He is a patriot and a man of wonderful intellectual resources. If he has retired, as seems to be the case, the cause he so ably represented will suffer nothing. Mr. Gladstone and the men who take the sceptre of their leader, will go forward in the work of justice and statesmanship without swerving and unembarrassed by Mr. Parnell's misfortune.— Norfolk Landmark.

WE repeat, the South is all right.
It has prospered marvellously since 1880. It has outstripped the more favored North in many particulars.
It has given some striking indications of its ability to stand alone, and even to surpass its rich and experienced competitor in some departments of industry. As a home for the delicate as well as for those desiring a mild and hospitable climate the South offers peculiar advantages. Its growth and development for a decade is a most glatifying surprise to all patriots.
It will under the Divine blessing continue to prosper, and the summing up at the close of the century may eclipse all that it has done thus far and even give greater surprise to the North and even to Europe.—Wilmington Messenger.

WITH the exception of the Khedive of Egypt, perhaps, James S.
Richardson, of New Orleans, is the largest individual cotton planter in the world. It is said that he has refused an offer by an English syndicate of $22,500,000 for his plantation or series of plantations in Mississippi, consisting of 49,000 acres, which he cultivates in cotton, employing about ten thousand hands. He not only cultivates the cotton, but manufactures it, putting it into market in finished shape, has oil mills to extract the oil from the seed, and machinery for utilizing everything about the plant which can be utilized. His system is perfect, and he gets all the profits that can be got from cotton. Mr. Richardson is a native of Rockingham county, in this State, and went to Mississippi a poor young man to seek his fortune.—Wilmington Star.

The charming story of Little Lord Fauntleroy was rendered at the theatre last night in a manner pleasing to the audience.

The Christian Advocate says that Rev. W. C. Gannon is spending a while in Winston, hoping to be benefited in health by it.

There will be a grand hallelujah meeting at the Salvation Army barracks tonight, to welcome Captain D.

charge.

Mr. J. W. Stewart has received two car-loads of very fine horses and mules from the west. A handsome, blooded, dark bay that is among the number would attract the attention of any admirer of horses.

The work of fitting up Mr. F. J. Ives' provision store is nearly completed.
The roomy refrigerator which he has had built at the rear will hold a ton of ice, and thousands of pounds of meat can be hung up in it; and there are also shelves for smaller goods that need to be kept cool. The first stock of fine western meats has been ordered, and its arrival is now being expected.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C.
A. cordially invite the members of the association to be present at the reception held, for them, at their rooms, this evening from eight to ten. Readings, music, etc., will add to the entertainment. Every member should be present and partake of the hospitalities that will be extended, and they must bring their tickets with them if they wish to be admitted.

At a business meeting of the Y. M. C.
A. held Wednesday night the Association was found to be progressing nicely. The building and its equipment will probably compare with any in the State and still the young men are desirous of putting in a few other attractions. Among the business transacted was the adoption of a resolution prohibiting boys under twelve years of age visiting the hall after six o'clock, p. m.

Even some of the Republicans seem to be awaking to an understanding of the true condition of affairs in the South, and to a realization of the terrible misrepresentation and unwarranted meddlesome, exasperating injustice that has been inflicted upon this fairest portion of the American Union, and to a realization of the unparalleled difficulties it has had to overcome, and the perplexing issues that are still in process of solution. The article on the second page on "The Race Question," which we copy from a Republican paper published in California, shows a sound advance in ideas and evinces a spirit of fairness that has heretofore been extremely rare in the party to which it belongs. The entire article is worthy of a thoughtful perusal by everybody.

Great Preparations for the Fair.

Go to the Fair grounds when you please (except Sunday) and you will find something being done to add to the beauty and usefulness of the buildings and grounds and the pleasure and convenience of visitors and exhibitors.

The broad racetrack has been finished and is divided from the other ground on each side by a low, suitable fence, is level, and has perfect drainage, and is in every way in splendid order.

In the northwest corner of the grounds stables have just been erected, especially for the race horses, with twenty two large, roomy box stalls.

A two-thousand gallon tank has been procured from Philadelphia to supply water for the aquarium and is being put up near the main building.

The erection of the grand stand will commence in a few days.

The space enclosed by the race track has been sown in rye which is up and starting a nice growth and if it continues flourishing this part of the grounds will be a green lawn, affording an excellent place for baseball games, or any other purpose for which it is seen fit to use it during the Fair.

The Fair will hold the entire week as it did this year, and there will be races every day. The programme of races and the premiums offered for them have been arranged, and we will publish it tomorrow. The total amount of the premiums for the races in the largest ever offered by any fair in the State.

The regular premium list is being prepared and will be ready in about three weeks.

If our farmers and other exhibitors are as interested and getting ready for the Fair as earnestly as the managers are, won't we have a grand Fair next year?

We sometimes meet people who, because their circumstances are such that they can make only a small exhibit think that it is not worth while to bring anything. What a mistake!
Every little helps, and exhibits from many persons, even though they are not large, will give even to our neighbors, and especially to distant visitors, a more perfect idea of the productions and resources of this portion of the State.

The time for the Fair is drawing nigh.
It will commence on Monday, February 23d and continue through the week.
What have you got saved up to exhibit at it? There are some things that cannot be got ready until the Fair is right at hand, but many other things our farmers must select at once if not previously done, or the best will be gone.
Pick out some of your finest ears of corn, largest pumpkins and a good assortment of your varieties of potatoes, field peas, and nice specimens of your other crops, and of anything else that you have, suitable for the Fair, and lay them aside until the Fair comes, and then bring them to it. It will be but little trouble to you and will be of great benefit to the Fair, and may pay you handsomely for doing so, for the premium list is always very liberal and many a person has carried home a valuable premium who was not striving for one, but made his exhibit simply because he wished to contribute his mite towards making the Fair pleasant, useful and successful.

Fires in the Country.

The gin house of Mr. Samuel W.
Ipock, six miles from New Berne on Nanse road, together with twenty bales of cotton, about six bales of seed cotton, and a large quantity of cotton seed were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire started at the gin and it is supposed that it was caused by a match in the cotton igniting as it passed through the gin. The flames spread with such astonishing rapidity that nothing could be saved and one of the men who was at work in the third story was compelled to come down by the block and tackle. The gin and the engine were new and the building was erected last year. It is a serious loss to Mr. Ipock as he had no insurance.

Mr. W. C. White's store at Fort Barnwell caught fire Tuesday night about 10 o'clock from a defective flue and both building and goods were burned.
There was partial insurance in one of Mr. William H. Oliver's insurance companies. Mr. Oliver with his usual promptness will go to Fort Barnwell this morning to protect the interest of his company.

Awful Work of Wolves.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Word comes from India that wolves are causing terrible devastation in the Central provinces.
One pack of eight wolves killed and destroyed forty persons who were engaged in watching cattle. The victims were mostly children. The wolves did not touch the cattle.

no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Alliance Resolution.

In accordance with Resolution No.
27, which was adopted at our last State Alliance, requesting each sub-Alliance in the State to meet on the 1st day of January, 1891, at its respective place of meeting or at church, to offer special prayer and to supplicate the great acknowledged Head of the Alliance for aid in our reform movements—

This notice is to urge the great importance of said meeting, respectfully asking each sub-Alliance of Craven county to meet at its respective lodge-room or church, to return special thanks to the great Giver of all good, and to ask for special guidance in the progressive movement of our order.

Brethren, the time thus spent will not be lost. Let us meet with our hearts full of gratitude to God for special blessings this year, and taking courage from the past short but wonderful history of our organization, let us resolve at the threshold of the incoming year, to lay aside every hindrance to real progress and trust the Divine hand that is so kindly offered to lead us in every good work.

Let us remember the command to be "earnest in business and fervent in spirit," pressing forward the great principles of our order, and especially that part of our Constitution that demands "In things essential Unity, and in all things Charity."

Brethren, don't forget to meet on the appointed day.
Read the 11th verse of 9 Psalm, also 22 and 23 verses of 50 Psalm, to prevent forgetfulness.
Fraternally,
DANIEL LANE,
Pres. Craven Co. Alliance.

Gould Buying West Point Terminal Stock.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—President Im-man, of the Richmond Terminal system, was asked this morning if the story that Jay Gould had acquired a controlling interest in the system was true. Imman said in reply: "There are 700,000 shares of stock, and of this amount Gould has bought up one-seventh or 100,000 shares.
The board of directors consists of 18 members and the amount of stock held by Gould will entitle him to three or four members in that board at the next election. I regard Gould and his son George as first class railroad men, and they will be welcomed in the present management. My present relations with Gould are of the most friendly character. Our system has two direct connections with the Missouri Pacific—one at Memphis, Tenn., and the other at Greenville, Miss., so it will be seen that the combining of the two interests will be beneficial."

WHAT GOULD IN TERMINAL MEANS.

WINSTON, N. C., November 18.—The announcement by telegrams from New York today that Jay Gould had gained control of the Richmond Terminal system created much excitement in railroad circles here. For some time past rumors have been afloat to the effect that Winston would be placed on the through Richmond and Danville line by extension from Danville to this place to connect with the Winston and Bristol road, and this change of control to Gould is regarded by railroad men to mean the early completion of the road above mentioned from Danville via the Cascade and Leakeville to Winston. There it will connect with the Southwest and West. The sale of the Danville and New River line to the Richmond Terminal, which was confirmed today at Danville, means the above. So railroad men credit it.

It Does Them An Injustice.

The Statesville Landmark one of the most level-headed papers in the State, thinks that the intimation that the Alliance Democrats in the Legislature will vote against Senator Vance does them injustice, and in commenting upon this intimation it lays down this proposition which is solid: "Any man who receives a nomination from a convention and an instruction with it, and remains silent as to the instruction and afterwards violates it, is not an honorable man. If he goes before the people and publicly declares that he will not be bound by his instructions, and they still elect him, the case is different; they have notice, and are afterwards stopped from entering complaint; but in the other case the man would cover himself with infamy."

Two More Assignments.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Joseph F.
Becker, dealer in teas and coffees, who has stores on Eighth avenue, Fulton and Front streets, made an assignment today to John G. Quinlan without preferences.

Gregory, Ballou & Co., bankers and brokers, at No. 1 New street, made individual assignment today to the firm.
The assignee was Herbert E. Dickson.

Boyd Elected Governor of Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 18.—Official returns from every county in the State, as canvassed by the Secretary of State, give Boyd, Dem., a plurality of 144.
The Independents control both branches of the Legislature.

Troops Sent to the Indian Agencies.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Gen.
Schofield today received a telegram from Gen. Miles stating that troops had been sent to the Pine Ridge and Rose-bud agencies upon representations that the Indians are beyond control of the agent and Indian police.

Why It Is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses for one Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

What Does It Mean?

The question asked daily by people living in town and country what does all this mean that I find in all the newspapers and on hand bills of so many merchants closing out their stock at 40c., 50c. and 60c. on the dollar of New York cost. Now as I have had considerable experience in this line of business, I think I can explain it to those who do not understand in a way that they will be benefited. Now in a few words, and as short as possible:— There is a man in town whose name is Big Ike, who is always on the lookout for some merchant who can't pay his bills, and gives him from 40c. to 50c., and 60c. on the dollar, that is, on a hundred dollars' worth of goods the highest Big Ike pays is 60c. on the dollar, and on a thousand $600.00, and the stock he has just received from Kinston cost four thousand dollars in New York THIS AUGUST, 1890, and only cost Big Ike two thousand and seven hundred dollars. Now I think every well-regulated man, woman and child will understand this explanation and at once see the advantage that Big Ike has over every merchant in Eastern North Carolina.

Now, my friends, this is not the only advantage that Big Ike has over the other merchants in buying; he has a great advantage in saying he is the only man in North Carolina that can say NO, hence the credit system is killed, and not one dollar's worth goes out of his store until paid for. The above plainly shows why Big Ike can afford to give for the next 30 days a 25c. present with every one dollar's worth of goods sold.
