ALDEN'S
Manifold
Cyclopedia

A Cyclopedia of Universal Knowledge, and Unabridged Dictionary of Language in one, 40 handy vols., large type, over 4,000 illustrations.
 Cloth binding, per vol., 60c., per set, $24.00.
 Half Morocco, per vol., 80c., per set, $34.00.

Vol. 18. Now Ready

The volumes thus far issued will answer more questions in the practical every-day life of the average reader, than all the volumes of any complete cyclopedia in the market. Test them and see! A specimen volume may be ordered and returned if not wanted.

$18.00 cash with order before Nov. 1, will obtain the full set of 40 Vols. in cloth binding, or $26.00 40 Vols. in the same bound in half Morocco, all sent prepaid, those now ready at once, remainder as issued.

"The price is very low, the form exceedingly handy for a work of reference, and the editing skillful and comprehensive."—Literary World, Boston.

"The literary skill and judicious editorship which have characterized the undertaking from the outset have been in no degree relaxed." —Sun, New York.

"It is an unabridged dictionary and a storehouse of information on almost every considerable topic. The more we use of the work the more we are pleased."—Educational Monthly, Akron, O.

"The convenient form, the excellence of binding, paper, and illustrations, and the skillful arrangement of articles make this a handy cyclopedia, which will be used ten times where the bulky 'Britannica' would be consulted once. The illustrations are really helpful, and are very numerous. No matter what other cyclopedias a writer may have, 'Alden's Manifold' should be upon his shelves."—The Writer, Boston.

"It is a remarkably well made book for the price. The peculiar shape makes the book extremely easy to read, which is a most valuable thing to the student. The clean cut, heavy-faced type used for titles is a good feature and materially lightens the task of the investigator. The accented syllable of every difficult word is plainly marked and the pronunciation, when it offends any difficulties, is set forth phonetically. In a word, this popular work is most carefully edited and neatly and accurately manufactured."—American Bookmaker, New York.

"Hello! Tom. Glad to see you, old fellow!
 It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; let's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh! she's so-so, same as usual,—always wanting something I can't afford."

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't you?"

"Yes; but I guess 'want will be my master.' I started to keep down expenses; and now Eli says I'm 'mean,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I see your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are economical, too,— have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says:
 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine.
 And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; the stories keep our hearts young; the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses, and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Remedial Department. But I can't tell you how happy we should have to be if you don't get 'What wonderful Magazine is it?'"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that what Eli wanted so bad, and I told her I was an idiot to have a china tea-set in time for our wedding next month.
 My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club. Here's a copy, with the Premium List for sale,—but I can't tell you how
 see in it what you want, you've only to write to the publisher and tell him what you want, whether it is a lock-hammer or a new carriage, and he will make special terms for you, either by club, or for part cash. Better subscribe right off and surprise Mrs. Tom. Only $2.00 a year,—and save fifty times that in six months." Or send to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York, for a specimen copy containing the Premium List."

The likelihood is that the U. S.
 Treasury will run short of funds as soon as the pension bills under the new law shall begin to come in rapidly. Under these circumstances people are thinking about the expediency of taxing big incomes, and we think it will be a favorite idea. Many men in the enjoyment of very large incomes contribute but little to the support of the government. Besides, a reasonable tax on large incomes may tend to prevent the accumulation of tremendous fortunes. There are now too many big millionaires in this country now.—News & Observer.

SYRUP OF FIGS.
 Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

A New York business man says that from 75 to 80 per cent. of the capital invested in that city represents the earnings of men who began life poor.

"Just as Good."
 Say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute.
 Insist upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is Peculiar to Itself.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
 Mrs. WISLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Jaly

NOTHING SUCCEEDS

LIKE SUCCESS.
 The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine, is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from LEPROSY to the simplest disease known to the human system.
 The scientific men of today claim and prove that every disease is CAUSED BY MICROBES,
 —AND—
Radam's Microbe Killer Exterminates the Microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of Malaria Fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Beware of Fraudulent Imitations!
