A Knotty Question. A citizen of Obion county, this state, has gotten up a knotty question for our courts to settle. His name is King and he is a Seventh Day Adventist, who do not believe in the Sabbath of the other churches but observe Saturday instead. Acting upon his belief King persisted in ploughing his corn on Sunday and resting on Saturday. He was arrested on the charge of violating the state law prohibiting work on Sunday, tried and convicted in the Circuit Court. He appealed to the Supreme Court of the state and the decision of the lower court was sustained and King sent to jail. His attorneys when spare ribs and sausages will then made application to Judge Hammond of the United States court for a writ of habeas corpus, claiming that he was being deprivsickness as to be able to attend to ed of his liberty contrary to the his ministerial duties again on provisions of the fourteenth amend ment of the constitution of the United States. The writ was granted and made returnable before Judge Hammon at Memphis on the fourth Monday in this month when the case will be heard on its merits.
