TODAY.
 It is impossible to write a satisfactory political article today. Congress has assembled, but we are not informed as to the President's message or to the policy indicated by the two political parties. But of this we are assured. Today has its duties which cannot be disregarded either by public men or private citizens.
 "Now is the accepted time." It matters not who you are or what may be your occupation the commands of today are imperative and its demands are inexorable.
 If every man was every ready to perform the duties of today misgivings of tomorrow would be banished, and life became "a beauty and a joy."

Are you a man proud of your strength? Today improved will ennoble your manhood; today mispent will destroy your strength and wither the blossoms of hope that bloom around you.
 Are you a boy, with life's red currents rushing through your veins, inspiring ambition and impelling to noble deeds? Sanctify today by dedicating it to truth and God. A single act may soil the fair vesture of a life, so that all of ocean's waters cannot washout the damned spot. Oh, guard today! A demon and an angel sleep in its earliest light. Be careful which you awake!
 If each day's work was done, there would be no remorse, no sin, no wretchedness. The glory of the celestial would envelope the terrestrial, and Earth be Heaven!

OUR FAIR.
 The JOURNAL is not boastful, but we may be permitted to say that it has a fair circulation, and if all our readers who have a personal interest in Eastern North Carolina will exert themselves to make our Fair a success, the next meeting of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association will reflect undying honor on our beloved Carolina.
 Last year the neighboring counties did nobly. All did well, but we are under special obligations to our chivalric friend, H. A. Latham, of the Washington Gazette, and that noblest Roman, Bro. Creecy, of the Elizabeth City Economist, for valuable services rendered. This year we shall have the cordial cooperation of the papers of this State in calling attention to this the most attractive all-fair—our own unapproached and unapproachable Winter Fair.

But better than this: We shall have the enthusiastic support of North Carolina farmers and their wives. It is said that the North Carolina country women are the best housekeepers in the world, and that their cakes, bread, butter, jellies, preserves and sweet looks beat all creation. There is not a section of East Carolina that has not asked for "a place in the picture," and we are assured that the Center and the West will send in rich contributions of agricultural products, mineral wealth and mechanical skill.
 This is certain: The Fair that is to take place in the city of New Bern, in the approaching February, will be a marvelous revelation, thrilling the senses, and filling the bosoms of North Carolinians with joy and pride.

UNITED ONCE MORE.
 James Stockton and Lady Will complete their Rudely Interrupted Honeymoon.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 29.—James Stockton met his wife here yesterday for the first time since the Johnstown flood. They had mourned each other as dead, believing that they had been bereaved by the awful disaster. Stockton had gone to California and Mrs. Stockton was in Massachusetts. They were discovered to each other by a mutual friend in this city, and yesterday a most joyful meeting took place at the first station on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad on the incoming train. They had only been married a few days, and will go from here to their new home in California to complete their rudely interrupted honeymoon.

THE INDIAN CRAZE.
 A Special Census Agent Writes About an Alleged Prophet.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—John S. Mayhugh, until recently a special census agent of the Indians for Nevada, has written to the Indian Bureau upon the subject of the coming of the Indian Messiah. In his letter Mayhugh says: The prophet is in the Mason Valley, Esmeralda county, Nevada, close to the Walker-River reservation. His name is not John Sides at Reno, but Captain Jack Wilson, who is known among all the Indians by the Indian name of We-Vo-Kar and also Co-We-Jo, an intelligent, fine-looking Indian about thirty-five years of age, and who goes into seeming trances of from twelve to fourteen hours in the presence of large numbers of Indians upon the invitation of the prophet.

AN ALLEGED VISIT.
 Upon his recovery he related to them that he has been to Heaven and that the Messiah is coming to earth again and will put the Indians in possession of this country; that he has seen in Heaven a heap of Indians, some of whom are dressed in the white man's clothes. He counsels the Indians not to disturb the white folks, saying that the blanket or rabbit skin that was put over the moon by Indians long ago will soon fall off and then the moon, which is now afire, will destroy the whites.

The Messiah is to appear on Mt. Grant, which is a very large mountain held by the Indians to be sacred and situated about sixteen miles south of the Walker-River Agency buildings and on the west side of the lake. Here is where the first Indians appeared, according to the Indian tradition. Mayhugh says he understands the various tribes expect to send delegations to this mountain, and he recommends they be allowed to visit the mountain to see for themselves what truth there is in the prophecy.

More Red Men Dancing.
 ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 29.—A trader who came from the Osage Reservation last night says the Sage Indians have begun the ghost-dance, and are very ugly and insolent. They are well armed, and are the richest and most powerful tribe in the Territory outside of the Five Nations. The agent is alarmed, and has asked for assistance.

HAPPY HOOSIERS.
 Wm. Timmons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at F. S. Duffy's wholesale and retail drug store."

An Extraordinary Scene.
 DENISON, Texas, Nov. 29.—Advices from Tishomingo, the capital of the Chickasaw Nation, report an extraordinary scene to have taken place in the court house. Great excitement has prevailed there over the recent murder of a prominent young man. The murderer was on trial, but as it was discovered that the jury was composed of friends of the prisoner, the Judge ordered them discharged. Judge Boyd said: "I leave the seat of this court and will never return until the Chickasaw Nation becomes a State of the Union." The matter has caused great excitement and bloodshed is feared.

THE HENRY A WISE FARM SOLD.
 Nearly a Million Dollars Paid for Seven Hundred and Thirty-Two Acres.
 NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 20.—The Holliston Company closed their deal for the old Henry A. Wise farm to day. There are 732 acres in the tract, and the sum paid was $900,000. The company is composed of New York, Staunton, Bedford City, and Norfolk capitalists, and they propose to make the place the Lowell of the South.
 SHIPPED TO CHINA.
 A large shipment of Chesapeake-bay oysters to China was made from Cape Charles yesterday. The export of cotton to Europe for the month of November amounted to 43,234 bales, valued at $2,031,858.

Be Sure
 If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:
To Get
 "In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own brand of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's Sarsaparilla
 Sold by all druggists. 51c. per bottle. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
