SIGNS OF THE TIMES.
We do not profess to be seers, but, without claiming superior intelligence, we may survey the political heavens and learn their portents.

In whatever way we turn our eyes we see intellectual skies brightening. The demand for education is well nigh universal. In localities where schools and colleges have been established higher standards are being erected in response to the requirement for broader culture and greater scholastic attainments. While this is gratifying, our hearts thrill with pleasure as we behold North Carolina dotting the plain, the mountain and the valley with substantial public school buildings in which the children of the people will not only be taught "rudiments of education," but from which they can walk into flowery fields of literature and up the steep ascent of "the hill of science."

More time must be given to public schools, and greater efficiency must be required of public school teachers if North Carolina is to take the place in the column of progress to which nature and nature's God entitle her. The era of intellectual illumination has dawned and we greet its morn with joyous acclamations.

Our God has been propitious to His people. The early and the latter rain has come in its season, and the land has brought forth abundantly. We have enough and to spare. The new year will smile on the product of the old, and, accepting as a new year's present the surplus of its revenue, make it contribute to personal, social and national happiness.

But what are the political signs of the times? Where now floats our gallant ship of State? Republican governments are subject to sudden and radical changes. Public opinion is easily influenced. Today is applauded; tomorrow it condemns. The signs of the times are propitious, not so much because the Democratic party has triumphed as on account of the causes that led to that triumph. A political party had dared to attempt a revolution in its own interests. Its leaders had become usurpers, and high officials of the government were playing the tyrant. The spirit of patriotism was aroused, and the people rose in their majesty and crushed the tyrants as they broke their chains.

It is fortunate for the country that it was the Republicans that attempted the role of revolutionists, and that through their failure the Democratic party has secured ascendancy in the nation. It is for the Democracy to determine the future of the country. If their course, in the present and succeeding Congress, is marked by moderation and wisdom, 1892 will witness the election of a Democratic President.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WENLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children's ailments. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. July

THE FORCE BILL.
Senator Pugh Makes a Really Able Speech Against It.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 4.—The Senate today passed Mr. Call's resolution directing the commissioner of labor to examine the phosphate industry of Florida; also the joint resolution for issuing arms to settlers in North and South Dakota, and Nebraska.
The federal election bill was then taken up and Mr. Pugh made a long argument against it.
Mr. Pugh said that the bill was founded on the proposition, that state officers might be guarded and overruled, because they were Democrats, and because for that reason it was unsafe to trust them. Under it the whole election machinery of the United States would become partisan and necessarily corrupt.
The whole conception of the bill was a transparent and audacious scheme, having no other end or purpose than the capture of Democratic districts, and their transfer to the Republican party in Congress to be used in perpetuating its supremacy in defiance of the will of the people.
He declared that the intelligent white people of the South, would prefer the rule of army officers and white soldiers, to the intolerable rule of the infamous horde that would be turned loose upon them, through the outrageous election machinery provided in the bill.
In his responsibility as a man and as a Senator, he expressed his conviction that there was not a state in the South in which, as a rule, it was not the honest and earnest desire to have fair and free elections for members of congress and for presidential electors. He undertook to say that the black people of the South were better treated than they would be in the North under like conditions; and he declared, in conclusion, that the wisest and safest course for both races, was to trust to the policy of non interference by the federal government.
Mr. Gray obtained the floor but he did not desire to speak before to-morrow; and the Senate then adjourned.

TILLMAN INAUGURATED.
In the Presence of 5,000 Witnesses he takes the Oath of Office.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 4.—B. R. Tillman, the plowboy governor was inaugurated with great pomp to-day. The inauguration was held in the open air in front of the capitol on a huge platform, in the presence of 5,000 people, mostly farmers. In his inaugural address, Gov. Tillman claims the triumph of "True Democracy over mongrelism and anarchy" to be complete. He says the negroes are becoming Democrats.
He advocates a better free school system, and urges the abolishment of the state university, and the establishment of industrial schools for women. He demands a new constitution, and a survey of the state phosphate beds by a United States engineer or other competent men.

Dividing on Color.
In one of the negro churches of Charlotte, N. C., there is a movement for a division of the membership on the line. The pure blacks favor a composed of themselves, and the mulattoes express a similar desire on their part. At a recent meeting the proposed division was agreed to, but the terms could not be settled. The minister being black, the blacks naturally claimed him, and also the church and furniture. Some of the black men have mulatto wives, and some of the black women have mulatto husbands. The difficulties seem insurmountable.

BUFFALO BILL.
Will Arrested Sitting Bull At Sunset, PINE RIDGE, Dak., Dec. 4.—The Rosebud Indians are still dancing the war dance and preparing for an engagement, Buffalo Bill (Col. Cody) declares that he will arrest Sitting Bull to night at sunset. His scheme is well laid and his guard awaiting orders.

Navigation on the upper Hudson ceased yesterday. Ice from one to three inches thick, and increasing all the time, is reported from the region above Catskill. Not only the people who use ice, but many men and boys who find employment in harvesting it will rejoice at the prospect of a good season. —Standard Union

SPECIMEN CASES.
S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.
Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at F. S. Duffy's drug store.

Be Sure
If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get
"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's
When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and hid for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I would not myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it. Mrs. ELLA A. GORZ, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

A Favorite Paper.
The publisher's of Youth's Companion have issued a beautiful calendar for 1891, unique and convenient, which contains also the announcements for next year. Among the names which will grace this model young folks' weekly paper are the Lord Chief Justice of England—Oleridge Hon. Seth Low, the venerable Hannibal Hamlin, Camille Flammington, Sir Norman Lockyer, Gen. O. O. Howard, Rev. Lyman Abbott, Jules Verne, Max O'Rell, Julia Ward Howe, Walter Besant, Benson J. Lossing, the eminent historian, and Carl Lumboltz. Truly a host of names in themselves, sufficient to warrant the success of a paper.
Five serial stories are promised, by Molly E. Seawell, Rebecca Harding Davis, Julie M. Lippman, H. H. Boyesen and Elizabeth W. Rellamy. A popular series on the latest discoveries in science will treat of the stars, the sun, the moon, the earth, the ocean, and the Gulf Stream.
There will be another popular series on music by Mme. Albani, Emma Juch, Mm. Nordica, Marie Van Zandt, and Emma Nevada, while Amelia E. Barr, Mary A. Livermore, Jenny June and Marion Harland will tell what a girl of sixteen can do when thrown on her own resources.
Full prospectus and specimen copies sent free, on application. New subscribers who sent $1.75 now will receive the paper to January 1, 1891, and a full year from that date.

Cold Waves.
A cold wave is defined by Prof. T. Russell as a fall of temperature in twenty-four hours of 20 degrees over an area of 50,000 square miles, the temperature in some part of this area descending to 36 degrees. Between 1880 and 1890 no less than 691 cold waves were recorded in the United States. In the great cold wave of Jan. 17, 1882, the fall of 20 degrees extended over an area of 1,101,000 square miles. In six cold waves of the ten years the area of the fall of 20 degrees was more than a million square miles. Cold waves follow a day after an area of low pressure, or occur to the southeast of an area of high pressure, reaching their greatest extent when both conditions are present.

The chief industry of Zanzibar and Pemba is clove growing. The tree was introduced in 1830, and the harvest of the present year is expected to be 13,900,000 pounds, at an average local value of ten cents a pound. A 10-year old tree is capable of yielding twenty pounds of cloves; trees of 20 years often yield upward of 100 pounds.
