> The entertainment consisted principally of sentimental and comic songs, interspersed with choice recitations. It opened with an enlivening song, "Gideon's Band," rendered with spirit by the young men. There were a number of fine solos, some of them with chorus accompaniments. The first one was by little Miss Blanchie Hall, aged about eleven years, who sings remarkably well for one of her age. Miss Emma Bell sang finely two good selections, 'The Paney Blossom' and 'Neath the White and Purple Blossoms." Miss Kate Morton held the attention of the but Me." Miss Madie Bell sang "Aint I Sweet."
