THE JOURNAL.

DRIVEN FROM HOME.

J. W. C.

Dear father, mother, I must leave you, I've just time to say goodbye, For the train for me is waiting, I from my home must fly.

My dear old home I love thee, On earth the dearest spot; Brothers, sister, you'll remember, Let me never be forgot.

The old apple trees are waving, Their branches grandly to the sky, Beneath your shade how oft I've rested, You, too, I'll bid goodbye.

By the wicked oath of woman, By the guilty plot of man, I am driven from my home, A wanderer in this land.

But God in His truth and mercy, He knows the guilty one, He will track their cruel footsteps, And justice shall be done.

For at the bar of Judgment, The wicked cannot flee; The guilty shall be punished, The innocent go free.

And now, my friends and schoolmates, I bid you, too, farewell; Will you, in kindness, think of me, When I among strangers dwell?

And now goodbye, my home and loved ones, Thus for me has fate decreed; I must leave you or must suffer For another's cruel deed.

The Largest Ever Held.

Mr. John T. Patrick, secretary of the Southern Immigration Association, says the Inter State meeting at Asheville on the 17th, 18th and 19th of the present month will be the largest ever held. There will be the greatest gathering of railway men ever seen in the South. The headquarters of the Immigration Association will be at Raleigh until the 8th; after that date at Asheville. Patrick is a worker, and is devoting his whole time to this matter.—Twin City Daily.

Do You Know How It Feels?

Rheumatism. Every one has heard the word. "How's your mother?" Oh, she's well except her rheumatism." How carelessly the answer is given. Do you know how it feels to have rheumatism? Oh! it's terrible, the swelling and the excruciating pain of ankle, knee, elbow and shoulder, just as if each point was a bundle of irritated nerves, each one seemingly bent on giving more pain than the other. Laying awake all night longing for daylight, aching too severely to sleep, applying liniment every half hour to temporarily relieve the agony. Praying, cursing, turning, twisting, but no ease, no comfort. What is it that causes rheumatism? Ah, there are a thousand causes. What is it that cures rheumatism? Thank God, there is at least one cure. It is called B. B. B., or Botanic Blood Balm. It has cured more cases of rheumatism than any other known remedy. Try it. Do not suffer longer.

J. H. Luing, Dawson, Ga., writes: "I suffered with rheumatism in my shoulders and general debility. Five bottles B. B. B. improved my health and the rheumatism left me."

J. P. Davis, Atlanta, Ga. (West End) writes: "I consider that B. B. B. has permanently cured me of rheumatism and sciatica."

Jacob F. Spencie, Newman, Ga., writes: "B. B. B. entirely cured me of rheumatism in my shoulders. I used six bottles."

TAKE S.S.S. IN THE SPRING.

Nature should be assisted in the spring to throw off the heaviness of the sluggish winter circulation of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly or so safely as Swift's Specific.

I have used S. S. S. for a number of years, and consider it the best tonic and blood remedy that I ever used. In fact I would not attempt to enter upon a spring or summer in this climate without it. H. W. COLEMAN, Of Coleman, Ferguson & Co., Dade City, Fla.
