It is now said that John Dillon will be the new Irish leader.

The State Legislature will pass a bill on the 15th inst. giving the government full power to suppress the oyster dredging in Pamlico Sound by crafts other than those owned by citizens of this State.

Mrs. Chas. E. Cross and Mrs. Sam. C. White, wives of the convicted Raleigh bankers, have constantly and unflinchingly labored to secure the pardon of their husbands. Such fidelity deserves its reward.

A BILL for the relief of colored people introduced in the Senate yesterday was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. This is probably the unkindest cut of all. A Republican Senate, too.—Wash. Star.

It is said that a misplaced comma in the McKinley tariff bill put foreign fruits on the free list, and cost two millions dollars. Two or three dozen of that kind of commas scattered through the bill would very much improve it.—Wilmington Star.

At the request of a colored society in Washington Senator Teller has introduced a bill instructing the U. S. Treasury to pay somebody $50,000,000 to buy land in Lower California to colonize negroes from the South. These colored sovereigns are evidently believers in paternalism regardless of cost.

The latest joke of Mark Twain was listening through a long distance telephone at Hartford, Conn., Sunday to the funeral of his mother-in-law, which was preached in Elmira, N. Y., by the Rev. T. K. Beecher. The announcement is a serious fact, but it sounds very much like Mark Twain.—Norfolk Landmark.

The log house wherein Garfield once taught school has been purchased by Cincinnati men who, according to a most disquieting rumor, will exhibit it at the World's Fair. There is a growing necessity for the organization of a "society for the discouragement of dime-museum methods at the Columbian exposition."—Chicago Mail.

The Southern Cultivator has this to say for those suffering from insomnia: The most potent and most perfect remedy for sleeplessness is to drink hot water. If one awakes at night, as hopelessly wide awake as if galvanized or electrified with vital activity, an invariable remedy is a glass of perfectly hot—not warm water. It can be heated over the gas, or over a spirit lamp, and one who tries it will find himself going off to sleep like an infant, and getting, too, the most restful and peaceful sleep imaginable.

The Raleigh Chronicle gives an account of a "grand reception" at the Governor's Mansion. Members of the General Assembly, State officers, Governor's Guards in full dress, and two hundred or more of the best people in this Commonwealth, all in a mood suited for the hour, enjoyed the night as only

North Carolinians can enjoy it since the "custom of ye olden time" fraught with so many happy recollections had been revived. The mansion, with its beautiful internal finish, is enough to make a true son feel proud of his native State. The first and second floors were thrown open to the visitors who made the halls ring with their lightsome voices.

PROF. H. H. BELL—Another endorsement.

COTTON—New Berne Market.—Sales of 80 bales at 7 75 to 8 75.

Another car load of horses and mules have been received by J. W. Stewart.

There are a good many visitors coming in to New Berne now. The arrivals at Hotel Albert are greatly on the increase.

We are pleased to see that Capt. T. M. Southgate, of the steamer Newberne, who missed the last trip on account of his health, is back at his post.

A report has been circulated to some extent in the city that there will not be any season tickets to the Fair sold this year. This is entirely erroneous. They will be placed on sale Monday Feb. 2d.

Deputy Marshal Hill arrested at Pollockville yesterday A. S. Lee for retailing whiskey without license. He was brought to New Berne and bound over to the next term of the U. S. Court in the sum of $200, which he gave and was discharged from custody.

The Beaufort Seaside quotes Capt. R. L. Buckner, the officer under whose supervision the recent improvements have been made in the New Berne and Beaufort Canal, as saying that the steamer Blanche, which was recently purchased in New Berne by the Onslow Lumber Company for use in New river, is the largest boat that ever passed through that canal. She is 93 feet long and is registered at 49 tons.

The following ladies composing the "Art Committee" will please meet this (Friday) afternoon at five o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Slover: Mrs. H. B. Duffy, Mrs. C. E. Foy, Miss Nan Roberts, Mrs. A. S. Seymour, Mrs. L. E. Outler, Miss Laura Hughes, Miss Mary Oliver, Miss Lucy Rishton, Miss Janet T. Hollister, Miss Aurora Mace, Miss Jennie D. Hughes, Miss Leah D. Jones.

Professor S. T. Ford, of New York, the popular reciter, who is to give one of his entertainments Monday night at eight o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. hall, for the benefit of the association, comes with highly favorable comments from the press in every portion of the United States and in Canada. Every one who comes Monday night may do so with the certainty of attending a first-class entertainment and of passing an evening of exquisite enjoyment.

Mr. Jos. Hall, of Richlands, Onslow county, met with a serious accident, Wednesday evening, about 6 o'clock at the freight depot of the A. & N. R. R. A piano which he had just received and placed in his wagon turned over, catching his right leg under it and throwing him from the wagon, suspended thus until he was released. He left for his home yesterday morning, though suffering severely and unable to make any use of the injured limb.

The old freight steamer, Tiger Lily, which was purchased some years ago by Messrs. D. Congdon & Son, to transport lumber North, but which has been sunk and abandoned for sometime past, close to shore a little above their mill, has just been raised by two of the government steam derricks, which are being used in improving the upper portion of Neuse river, and which came down a few days ago, under the charge of Capt. E. J. Bell, for that purpose.

Extra Train to the Fife Meetings.
At the earnest solicitation of many of our citizens who desire to again hear New Berne's native son, Rev. W. P. Fife, "the drummer evangelist," whose religious work has been so signally blessed to the conversion of the unregenerate and the reclamation of backsliders, a special train will be run Sunday to afford all who wish to do so an opportunity to attend the Sabbath meetings. It will leave New Berne at 9.30 a.m. and arrive at Kinston at 11 a.m. Returning it will leave Kinston at 9.30 p.m., and arrive here at 11 p.m. The fare for the round trip is only $1.00.

Dempsey Knocked Out.
NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 14.—Dempsey was knocked out in the thirteenth round.

The Oyster War.
The Baltimore Sun says that hostilities have broken out in Hyde county, and that there is war between the natives and the oyster pirates from other States. It is reported that the captain of a Baltimore oyster vessel has been killed.

The Washington Gazette says: The news comes from the sound that M. Makey killed a man, his name we could not get. He was dredging on Makey's oyster beds, and after being forbidden to stop which he refused to do, was fired upon. If our oyster laws will not protect the people let the Legislature do something. Stop the introduction of so many bills, but do something.

Some of the parties on board vessels arriving in New Berne Wednesday and Thursday say that on their way here they passed seventeen of these trespassing dredgers.

Mr. J. S. Mann, the representative from Hyde county, says that on his way to the Legislature he saw seventy-five foreign vessels dredging for oysters against the law. He has introduced a temporary bill, at the request of the Governor and with the approval of the Attorney General, empowering the Governor to take such immediate action as he may deem proper, and appropriating $15,000 for that purpose.

The bill was referred to the committee on Fish Interest, with instructions to report immediately.

News was received last night that it passed the House yesterday, but that wire workers are there and are earnestly working to get it killed in the Senate today.

The Music House to the Front

Mr. C. L. Gaskill came home Wednesday night from a business trip in the interest of his music house in the counties of Lenoir, Pitt, Jones, Onslow, Duplin and New Hanover, and left again last night to continue the trip in Carteret and Pamlico counties. While away he established an agency in Greenville under the charge of Mr. R. B. Shaw.

He keeps a choice stock and he is reaching out for trade through newspaper advertisements, circulars, by agents and by personal effort. To facilitate his work he desires the names of all persons in this section who are not supplied with either an organ or piano, and he offers as a prize a handsome parlor organ absolutely free to the child under 16 years of age who furnishes him the largest number of addresses of such persons by the first of July, at which time the organ will be given.

Mr. Gaskill intends to have a choice exhibit at the Fair and let the people see what a good place New Berne is to supply themselves with anything that falls in his line. Now is the time for business men to be preparing their exhibits so that they will be able to make creditable ones. The attention that is drawn to any business through these exhibits makes it pay to bestow care upon them.

Dredging vs. Tonging.

Some oystermen are now advocating the entire prohibition of dredging oysters, claiming that it is destructive to the oyster beds and asserts that the failure of the Maryland grounds is due to this cause. Others state that dredging the ground extends it and improves the oysters and that tonging is slow as compared with dredging.

The truth is that the exhaustion of an oyster bed is not due to the instruments employed or the rapidity with which the oysters are taken, but to the removal of too many from the same bed. Take the case of beds in Virginia; they once yielded abundantly, but have now ceased to be productive, though nothing but tonging has been practiced on them. Oysters are found in some some places at such a depth that tongs will not reach them and but for dredging they could not be utilized and in other places it is impracticable to use dredges at all.

It is suggested that legislation ought not to be directed to the protection of any class of people but that the legislators ought to keep prominently in their minds that the point to which they are to direct their laws is the protection, preservation and development of the oyster beds.

What should be impressed is that it is not the instrument used but the amount of usage that destroys an oyster bed. So far as the public is concerned it prefers that the beds should remain in a good state and that being obtained, that the cheapest method of catching oysters, which of course lessens the price, should be used. The whole question of the laws necessary will come up in New Berne in a few days at the joint meeting of the County Commissioners of the Oyster Counties and they will no doubt devise legislation that will be satisfactory to every one.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

January 14, 1891.
A special meeting of the board held this evening, Mayor Battle in the chair; Councilmen Whitty, Slover, Lovick, Dunn, Miller, Holly and Kennedy present.

The Mayor explained that the meeting was called to receive report of the committee appointed to confer with Mr. W. C. Clark, Manager of the Electric Light and Power Company.

Councilman Miller read the following report from a majority of the committee:

NEW BERNE, Jan. 14, 1891.
To the Mayor and Board of City Council: Gentlemen:—Your committee, to whom was referred the Electric Light matters, beg leave to submit the following report, viz:

That they met Mr. W. C. Clark, the General Business Manager of the New Berne Electric Light and Power Co. Your committee proposed to settle all claims of said company, from May 6th, 1890, to Jan. 6th, 1891, eight months at $215.86 2/3, amounting to $1749 33, paying said company 900-1200, or three-fourths, amounting to $1312 00, as a settlement in full of all claims to Jan. 6th, 1891. This proposition was declined. Mr. W. C. Clark then made us the following proposition, viz: That they would settle the claim for eight months lighting the city, up to and including Jan. 6th, 1891, which amounts to $1749 33, for the sum of $1500 00, and for the future payments, he, as the General Manager of said New Berne Electric Light and Power Company, guarantees to the city of New Berne that the arc lights should be of 1,200 candle power each, and if it becomes necessary at any time to test the candle power of said lights, the New Berne Electric Light and Power Co. further agrees to pay one half of the expense of a competent expert to make said test, when if the lights are found to be less than 1200 candle power, then the city of New Berne shall pay only in proportion to the amount of candle power received from Jan. 6th, 1891.

Respectfully submitted,
ALEX. MILLER,
JOHN DUNN.
Councilman Lovick read a minority report as follows:
Having been appointed on a committee to confer with Mr. Clark, Manager of the New Berne Electric Light and Power Company, and not agreeing with the majority of the committee, I herewith submit a minority report and offer it as a substitute for the majority report.
The city of New Berne is ready to pay for whatever light it has received from the New Berne Electric Light and Power Company. We ask no deduction if we have received a 1,200 candle light, but it is respectfully recommended that the issue as to the amount of light furnished the city be submitted to arbitration, or left to the decision of experts acceptable to both parties.
HUGH J. LOVICK.

Mr. Whitty spoke in favor of the minority report.

The vote upon the minority report was then taken, resulting as follows: Councilmen Whitty, Slover, Lovick voting yea, and Dunn, Miller, Holly and Kennedy nay.

The vote then being called upon the majority report, it was adopted by the following vote: Yea, Councilmen Slover, Dunn, Miller, Holly, Kennedy, Nays, Whitty and Lovick.

Minutes read and adopted and the board adjourned.
S. H. LANE, Clerk.

Personal.

Mr. John C. Wooten, one of Lenoir county's most thrifty and prominent farmers, came down last night for a short stay in the city.

Mr. B. F. Tolson left for Wildwood for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Nettie Tolson.

Capt. W. W. Carraway, of the Raleigh News and Observer, is again in the city for a short business trip.

WM. E. CLARKS, P. M.

$100 Reward

For the arrest, conviction and execution of the man who did willingly and knowingly try to damage me by abusing and misrepresenting my business on page 16 of the premium list of the Fourth Annual Exhibition of the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Association, to be held at New Berne, N. C., February 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28, 1891. If you have already received the premium list of the Fourth Annual Fair and have read page 16, and have seen where the man was ashamed to sign his name, then will you please give your premium list to some one and let him judge whether or not I have a right to buy goods at 40, 50 and 75c. on the dollar or not. Of course every well regulated man will decide in my favor and say I have a right to pay cash for my goods and sell them at any price I choose, provided I GET THE CASH FOR THEM.

Hair Dressing.—Another Endorsement.

OXFORD, N. C., January 2, 1891.
The bearer of this, H. H. Bell, who is known as "Professor" Bell, has been carrying on his occupation of hair dressing in Oxford for six or eight months, and as far as I have observed demeaned himself with great propriety. He has secured the emphatic commendation of his patrons, all of whom seem to consider him an expert in matters pertaining to his profession, his patrons have been among our most respectable citizens.
